God is love. However, though others had spoken of love, and given it as a kind of Eleventh Commandment, or summary of all the Law, it was left to John to say something which no one else, not even Jesus, had said: God is love. This is at the same time profound and difficult, and also simple and clear. This is not a proposition which can be turned end-for-end and still be true. God is love; but love is not God. Love, John says, is "of God" or "from God" as the New English Bible translate it. That is, God is the source of all the love there is, here or in the farthest galaxies. Love is not something which human beings first discovered or invented, and then "thought-into" God. We do not ascribe love to God; we find it there, in him. Now you might expect, somewhere in the Bible, to find similar statements, for instance that God is power, or justice, or joy. But no Bible writer ever said it. We can only thrust our thought in the direction in which that short sentence points, "God is love;" we cannot fathom or fully say what it finally means. But we may judge that love is a better word to express what God is, than those other words Power or Justice or Joy or anything else. We may also dare to believe that love is God's basic quality; his justice, his glory, his power, are such as infinite and perfect love brings forth.

God is not sentimental

Perhaps it is wise to put in something here which has often been said, but which seems to have escaped the notice of too many people. The word "love" as John uses it (not to mention Paul and Jesus) is not sentimental. It has nothing to do with heart-throbs or spells of emotion. When the Emperor Titus one day at a public appearance granted a request made by a Roman Petitioner, a member of the court said to him afterwards, "How could your majesty promise the man what you did? It is not possible to keep that promise, is it?" "No," the Emperor replied; "I know it is not possible; but I did not want the man to go away disappointed." That is kindness; but it is not love. To take an opposite example, the family of a certain victim of polio went to some trouble not to help the boy. They just made him learn to help himself in spite of his handicap.

Love, in short, is unselfish concern,—persistent, intelligent, working concern for others. It is a constant and consistent attitude rather than occasional outbursts of emotion. It is this that John means when he talks of "abiding" in love—living in it permanently, maintaining this attitude in spite of all discouragements.

No room for fear

You would expect John to contrast love and hate. They are a real contrast, but that is not what John brings out. There is no fear in love, he says. If fear and love seem to live together in the heart, John would say, that is a sign that the love is not perfect; if it were, the fear would vanish. This is not to say that love casts out fear in God—that would be an absurd remark, for a frightened God would be no God at all. John is hinking of ourselves. He might even be thinking of our situation in 1962. People are afraid, fear talks around the globe. But people are afraid because they do not trust God; and they do not trust because they do not love. If some one asks, "But how can I love God?" He does not need my help, he does not need any looking-after. John would say this is asking the wrong question first. It is our fellow-man who does need help and sympathy. If it seems so high a thing to love the God who is love, let us begin by loving those around us who are not love!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The traditions of America are inseparably linked with religion, and the Church has been the most powerful factor in our national life. Its faith has inspired our highest achievements.

The influence of religion has sanctified our homes and fostered in them the solid virtues and strong faith which have molded our national character and shaped our course in world history.

Our public school system is the outgrowth of religious zeal and the desire of the Church to spread enlightenment among the people. It has invoked blessings on those who train our youth.

The home, the school, and the Church—these are the great triumvirate whose faithful and tireless efforts have made America the most favored land on earth. They are the pillars of our strength, the foundation of our hope.

Let us cling to these elements of national strength—make our homes the abode of happiness; make our schools centers of light and knowledge; and make God our guide as we move into the untrod future.

A $12,500 grant from the Atomic Energy Commission has enabled the University of Kentucky to establish a laboratory for its new course in general radiation biology. The course provides new opportunity for UK upper division and graduate students to perform research and learn more in the field of biological science. It also is useful in teaching students how to use and care for complicated research equipment.

Health Department Gives Advice To Student Workers

Thousands of Kentucky's young people, both graduates and students holding summer jobs, will be working this summer for the first time, and many will be coming in first contact with hazards of industrial plants.

The peak work injury period occurs during the summer months, and one of the contributing reasons may be the summer employment of young inexperienced workers.

A national health survey shows that young people in industry have a high frequency rate of work accidents. Many of these accidents are due to lack of knowledge about the job and its safety precautions.

Good job orientation and safety training in the industrial plant and plain common sense are the best safety measures.

Listed below are five important health and safety rules to follow in tackling a new job:

1. Observe the regulations, policies and procedures within your plant pertaining to health, safety, injuries, and injury reporting.
2. Ask questions about your job and any hazards connected with it, safety procedures, first aid facilities, and what to do in case of emergency.
3. Pay close attention to job instructions.
4. Be sure of your physical condition and its relationship to your job.
5. Get enough rest. Adequate rest and sleep are essential for alertness and efficiency, which are good insurance against accidents.

Any operation, no matter how hazardous, can be performed safely if proper precautions are observed. By respecting the potential hazards of a job and cooperating with other employees and management in observing safe practices, young people can safely join America's millions of productive workers.

Study Being Made On Cost of Kentucky Hail Insurance

State Insurance Commissioner W. T. Hockensmith has appointed a 12 man committee to study the possibility of stabilizing or reducing the cost of hail insurance for Kentucky tobacco farmers.

An 11.9 per cent statewide increase in hail insurance rates on tobacco was granted by the Department of Insurance in January of this year, Hockensmith said.

The rate decreased in 69 counties, increased in 41 and remained the same in 10, he explained. The rate changes were permitted, he said, because 1961 figures indicated that 74.2 per cent of all hail insurance premiums had been spent for compensation payments. The permissible ratio under existing rate levels, he added is 47 per cent.

This increase, Hockensmith said, will make it more difficult for the farmer to adequately insure his tobacco crop against hail losses because of the high cost for such coverage. In the 28 Central and Northern Kentucky counties which annually sustain 70 per cent of the hail damage in the state, he said, the rate currently ranges from $5 to $7 per $100 liability.

Chairman of the study committee is L. D. Cassidy, assistant insurance commissioner, Frankfort.

• ONE STICK CONTROL. Pow-R-Flow Drive moves rider from 0 to 5 mph and reverses — all without jerking. Throttle controls blade speed independently of ground speed.

• EASY HEIGHT SELECTOR. Change cutting height from 1 1/2" to 3 1/2" by turning knob on control panel.

• SAFE. Very low center of gravity. Climbs 40-degree grade or goes across 20-degree rise without tipping. Separate clutch disengages and stops blade instantly. Extended grass chute for absolute safety.

Photograph shows how mower unit follows contour of ground. Pivoting front wheels can be at any angle from the mower unit for cutting over rough terrain and thereby reduces scalping.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

How Important is an Inch

Not long ago Genevieve was thirty-seven inches tall. Soon she'll be thirty-eight. Just how important is that next inch?

It's all-important! Without that inch her growth will cease.

Folks sometimes underestimate the importance of a Sunday in Church or Sunday School. What difference, they think, can just one Sunday make?

But every day of worship or religious instruction adds its inch to our spiritual growth. And whenever we neglect the soul's needs, then, temporarily at least, growth ceases.

Children, and adults, too, need to keep on growing spiritually. How different our world could be if all of us reached the spiritual maturity God wants men to attain.

A Sunday, like an inch, is important. Next Sunday is all-important for all of us!

Praise In Heaven

Lesson for June 17, 1962

SOME of our hymns about heaven are well-meant but stupid. For example there is one that contains the couplet:

"Where congregations ne'er

And Sabbaths have no end."

What a terrible place! You would never have a chance to speak to any one, never any opportunity to do anything. Just stand and sing, or (worse yet) listen to sermons forever and ever.

We may be thankful no such picture is given us in the Bible.

Yet we can understand where the church-loving author of the poem got his idea—probably from those scenes in the book of Revelation where voices without number join in praise to Almighty God. These passages, including some of the grandest word-pictures in the book of Revelation, give us a starting-point for some thoughts about worship, especially that aspect of worship which we call praise of adoration.

Praise of God versus praise of man
First, there is certainly a difference between the praise of God and the praise of man. A man may or may not deserve our enthusiasm; we can praise men too much. But we never can praise God enough. Furthermore, when we praise other men, we may be doing something for their ego, something to bolster their self-respect, something to cheer their discouragement. We may also (provided we don't overdo it) help along their reputation and their career, by judicious praise. A good and wise teacher, by praise just at the right time, may guide a boy into a useful and even brilliant life-work. (What are "recommendations" but sheets of praises?) Something is added to a person by praise; or when the praise is mistaken, something may be subtracted. (Don't you feel pretty small when someone has buttered you up beyond recognition?)

God is, of course, not affected in this way. He doesn't need to have his reputation built up, he doesn't need recommendations, he does not try to live up to the nice things said about him! He is above these things, above the loftiest adoration we can offer.

From the heart

Another important difference between the praise of God and of man is this: The one who praises men hopes to get something out of it; indeed even when we praise God we rather sheepishly hope he will take special note of it and remember it when we need a favor. But the praise of heaven is not (as Samuel Johnson said about gratitude) "a lively sense of favors to come." It rises out of a grateful heart, it is spontaneous and sincere, it has no price-tag, yet it is beyond price. Such praise is possible even here and now. The necessities of life more or less force us to consult our clocks and calendars to see when it is time to worship God. Thus we get into the regrettable habit of putting off our expressions of gratitude until after 11 A.M. next Sunday, and if we stay away from church, then God goes forgotten (so far as we are concerned) for another week. What we ought to be doing (otherwise heaven will embarrass us) is to cultivate the thankful heart at all times, week-days and Sundays. "Thank you, God," may not be rated an elegant prayer in Boston; but when it is heart-felt, God does not look it over for fancy language.

To God and the lamb

One other, and very important, point strikes us as we read these great lines from Revelation: adoration is rendered at the same time to God and to the Lamb,—that is, to God and to Christ. We can see how at the very outset of the Christian religion, it was natural to think of God and Christ sharing the same Throne. The real test of whether a person actually believes in the God-hood of Christ is whether he offers prayer and praise to him. In church he does, of course; but does he quietly in his own private prayers? Later on in the book of Revelation we hear about prayer offered to a Beast, to a Dragon, to an Image; and this is pictured as nothing less than blasphemy. To offer prayer and praise to any person or thing that is not God, is to sink into idolatry. Yet to refuse prayer and praise where it belongs, is to make religion cheap and small.

June Bride

In a moment, the organist will strike a chord. There will be a sudden hush in the church, then the strains of the wedding march will peal forth and she will take her father's arm and start up the aisle, her measured steps symbolic of the very real hesitation she will be feeling.

She would not be human if she did not hesitate. These steps she is about to take are the most important steps of her life. She is poised on the threshold of another existence in which the pronoun she uses will be "We" and not "I." Soon she will learn to think of another before she thinks of herself. Presently, she will come to know fully the meaning of the word "share."

As she moves forward, she falters for just a second. Then her step becomes sure, her lips curve in a smile. The church through which she walks is dear and beloved to her—and so is the man who stands waiting for her beside the altar. Her marriage, blessed by faith, is beginning where all marriages should begin—in the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Who said you can't sell refrigerators to Eskimos? Some two-thirds of the farms in Alaska have home freezers. Montana's farm lead the list with nearly three-quarters of the farms there equipped with freezers. However, only a third of the farms in balmy Hawaii have freezers.

$155,000 Has Been Committed To Rural Secondary Roads

More than $155,000 has been spent or committed by the Kentucky Highway Department on rural secondary roads in Boone County since December, 1959.

In addition, the Rural Highway program is providing $36,608 this year to assist in maintaining 46.7 miles of county roads.

The Secondary Road program is financed with two cents of the seven-cents state gasoline tax, and the county road money comes from a statewide appropriation $5,000,000. Both these state funds are allocated among the counties by formula.

The statistics were announced in Frankfort by Rural Highway Commissioner T. R. Marcum.

Governor Combs, Commissioner of Highways Henry Ward and I are aware that a good part of the traffic which will flow over the vast system of arterial highways now being Built will begin and end on a rural road, "Marcum said.

Under Rural Secondary contracts, 2.1 miles of the Pleasant Valley Road have been rebuilt, and bituminous surfacing has been put on 2.7 miles of the Frogtown Road, 5.5 miles of the Limburg-Hebron Road and 4.0 miles of the Verona-Hume Road.

Social Security Facts:

June 30, 1962, is an important date for the disabled. Protection against severe disability is a relatively new feature of the social security program. Fifty million working people under social security now have this protection against complete loss of earnings.

Anyone who has been disabled for more than a year may lose all of his rights to cash disability benefits if he does not apply for benefits before June 30. One out of every three disability applicants risks the loss of some disability insurance benefits because he waits more than 18 months before applying.

Please advise those people you know who have been disabled more than six months to check with their social security office right away.

The local social security office will provide all the necessary assistance to help disabled people obtain their rights.

RESETTING TOBACCO CAN AID HIGH YIELD

If farmers want to get continued high yields from burley, then a 98 percent plant-stand is almost a must, says Ira Mossie, UK Ag Extension Service specialist.

Last year Kentuckians averaged 1,845 pounds an acre on burley, he notes. One reason they did was careful attention to resetting plants.

This season, most setting has been accomplished and in many cases, resetting. Farmers should check fields now, he says, and if there are missing plants (for various reasons) reset immediately.

Always use for resetting the most vigorous and the healthiest plants left in the plant bed. Do resetting by hand so the best available plants can be utilized.

Use plenty of water for each reset and give it special attention. Reset plants not properly cared for may be crowded out by earlier plants.

Boone Fiscal Court Asks For All-Road Survey Bids at Once

The Boone County Fiscal Court voted unanimously to advertise for bids from consulting engineers for a survey of all county roads, to ascertain the cost of placing them in first class condition.

Members of the court said that after cost estimates have been made, the court will consider placing a road bond issue on the ballot for a decision by the voters. Magistrate Leo Lawson, Hebron, said that if the people voted down any proposed road bond issue they would have to be content with whatever maintenance and improvements the county is able to afford from currently available road funds.

The court also decided to look into the possibility of constructing a building on the county infirmity grounds for storing the voting machines that the county owns.

The Kentucky Department of Agriculture has allocated a record-high sum of $18,000 for nine district dairy shows for Future Farmers and 4-H Clubs this year to encourage interest by youth in fine dairy animals.

Auctioneers Must Have State License

It shall be unlawful for any person to act as an auctioneer within the State of Kentucky after July 1, 1962 without first being licensed by the Kentucky Board of Auctioneers. This new legislation was enacted by the 1962 Kentucky General Assembly and its main purpose is to protect the public from the incompetent auctioneer.

Governor Bert T. Combs signed such Act on March 22, 1962 and thereafter appointed Mr. John L. Cummins, Cynthiana, Ky., and Mr. Orville R. Moore, Louisville, Ky., both of whom are past presidents of the Kentucky Auctioneers Association, and Mr. Wayne Kessler, Campbells-ville, Ky., to administer the new Act.

The Auctioneers License Act of 1962 requires a written examination and proof of honesty and good reputation before qualifying for an Auctioneers License. Every person who sells at auction personal or real property after July 1, 1962 must be so licensed and this applies to all of Kentucky.

The applicant for license must also post a cash or surety bond in the amount of $3,000. The Board may suspend or revoke the license upon appropriate cause and due hearing. All auctioneers throughout the entire state are urged to apply for license immediately by contacting H. J. Bemis Lawrence, Counsel, 1129 Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville, Kentucky, for appropriate forms and directions. Those who have been actively engaged in the auction business for a period of at least one year prior to January 1, 1962 and have been principal auctioneer in at least five auctions of either real or personal property during said time may qualify without examination providing he files his written application promptly.

CHRISTINA McCormick

This community was shocked by the sudden and untimely death of Christina (Maddin) McCormick on June 2, 1962. She was born near Beaver Lick, December 12, 1915 and graduated from New Haven High School in the class of 1935. She was married to Elbert McCormick in St. Paul's Church, Florence, Ky., July 2, 1935 and has since resided in Gallatin County. She was a devout member of St. Joseph's Church, Warsaw, Ky., where she was president of the Altar Society for four years. She had but two objectives in life, her church and her family. She was a model of all motherly virtues and her bright, pleasant smile will be missed by all who knew her.

Christina was thoroughly prepared to go. Her heart-broken children Gary McCormick and Roberta Poole; and her husband, Elbert McCormick, have the sweet consolation of knowing that she is now enjoying her eternal reward. After services by Father Ruschman at St. Joseph's Church, Warsaw, Ky., her mortal remains were laid to rest in the church cemetery there. Her pallbearers were six of her first cousins: G. W. Ryan, Bernard Ryan, Richard Ryan, Joseph Ryan of Walton; Harold Dempsey, Dayton, Ohio; and Joseph Dempsey, Cincinnati, Ohio. 11-24

Here's a basic receipt for scrambled eggs, as given by USDA. Beat 6 eggs until light and fluffy. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt, a dash of pepper, and one-third cup milk. Place 2 tablespoons butter, margarine, or other cooking fat or oil in the frying pan and heat until it just bubbles. Add egg mixture; cook until firm, but not hard, stirring constantly. Serve immediately. Serves 6. Diluted evaporated milk used instead of fresh milk gives extra flavor and richness.

Here's another. A HEAT PUMP also makes sultry summer days more enjoyable. It pumps heat out of a home... extracts humidity that causes mildew, musty odors, that "sticky" feeling. The remaining cool indoor air is filtered: cleansed of dust, pollen and other air-borne irritants to protect health... make housework a breeze. When winter comes... the HEAT PUMP reverses itself automatically... to provide heat. Read about it in FREE illustrated brochure.

(To Late For Last Week)

It is with regret we learn of the death of one of our neighbors, Miss Loretta Goedde passed away on Sunday afternoon at her home here. She had been ill for many weeks and after an attempted operation and several days stay in St. Elizabeth Hospital she was returned to her home where she was lovingly cared for by her mother and her sister Miss Morella. She also leaves three brothers, John, Bernard and Joseph all living here. Our sympathies are with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Raceland, Ky., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Denser and Mr. and Mrs. William Denser.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp Jr. and son spent the weekend with his parents.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Flora Maddox, who passed away on Sunday evening. One of our cherished memories of childhood is having her as a friend. Our sympathy is with her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger had as callers on Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cooper and daughter and Mrs. J. A. Keeney. Little Paul Hunt has been ill for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carsee Brinkley have as guests on Monday here sister Mrs. Ron Eton and daughters.

This neighborhood was shocked to learn of the sudden death of Gordon Adams who was well known here where he had many relatives and friends. Besides his widow and children he is survived by his father, Lester Adams and sister Miss Evelyn Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp called on their grandson and family Mr. and Mrs. Randall Binder on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children spent several days here the past week; and also enjoyed the company of Mrs. John H. Klette and daughter Ruth.

Meat takes a smaller yearly bite from your pay today than it did 40 years ago. According to a recent publication of the Economic Research Service, 4.5 percent of our take-home pay was needed to purchase meat in 1961; four decades ago, 6.7 percent was spent on meat.

UNDERGROUND SYSTEM—The new underground system will be paid beneath trench 20 feet lower than the present system. Excavation is seen looking west from Philadelphia Street on Fifth Street in Covington.

A $30,000 relocation project of the underground electric system of the Union Light, Heat and Power Company is now under construction.

The Kentucky approach to the new Ohio River Bridge has made necessary a major relocation of the electric system in Covington on Fifth Street between Crescent Avenue and Philadelphia Street.

Three submarine cables carrying electric power run under the Ohio River from the West End Power Station at Front and Rose Streets in Cincinnati and enter the electric system at Second Street and Crescent Avenue in Covington.

Due to the Ohio River Bridge approach a rearrangement of the electric system on the Kentucky side had to be made.

In order not to have any interruption to electric service an entirely new conduit system is being built 20 feet lower than the present system. It will be connected by two new manholes at each end on Fifth Street.

An unusual construction situation developed since the excavation had to be made in a filled area formerly a dump.

Under normal conditions the depth of the trench would have required special equipment as well as unusual precautions for safety and would have been time consuming.

To expedite the project a wide trench was dug with power equipment. Then the normal trenching and duct-laying operations could be performed safely. A bulldozer was used to fill the trench.

When the project is completed the new cables will be installed and the old ones removed.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to everyone who helped in the sudden death of Christina (Maddin) McCormick, especially Father Ruschman for his visits and consoling words, to Hamilton Funeral Home, to the many friends and relatives for flowers, Spiritual Bouquets and food, also to the neighbors for preparing the grave, and to the pallbearers. Your acts of kindness will never be forgotten.

Judy Courtney, senior at Simon Kenton High School, has been awarded the Crisco Trophy for outstanding work in home economics. Judy has majored in Home Economics, is the most improved student in her field, displays qualities of cooperation, enthusiasm, creativity and helpfulness, and is in the F.H.A. Hall of Fame.

Judy Courtney

The coveted gold trophy was presented to Judy at Simon Kenton's Honor Day Program by her teacher, Mrs. Gayle McElroy. In awarding the Crisco Trophy, Mrs. McElroy congratulated Judy on the excellence she has shown in her work and said that she felt certain that her achievement in home economics would be an inspiration to other students for many years to come.

Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Courtney of Eads Road and is the second recipient of this award at Simon Kenton. Last year's winner was Joyce Swango of the Piner-Bracht Road. We are very appreciative of the Proctor and Gamble Company of Cincinnati for making the trophy available to top-notch home economic students.

Big Bone State Park To Add 150 Acres

Plans are under way to increase the size of Big Bone State Park in Boone County, adding 150 acres to the present tract of 18 acres, state officials announced.

The acquisition, which will cost about $40,000, will include the purchase of four parcels of land, the largest of which is 118 acres, and the lease of four additional acres.

The 18 acres now in use include a shelter house, parking area and picnic grounds. A natural history museum probably will be constructed on the new land, it was said.

Plans tentatively also call for these additions to the park:

A boat dock to serve small craft on Big Bone Creek which will be widened within the next few months.

The original nucleus of the park was purchased in 1959 by the Big Bone Historical Society at a price of approximately $5000. That land, in turn was deeded to the State of Kentucky.

Later, the society purchased an adjoining lot for $750. Then the Boone County Fiscal Court deeded two more acres to the state.

Don't call games on account of darkness. It's easy to extend daylight hours into the cool of evening — with a few floodlights and spotlights under eaves or in trees. Prowlers hate the lights that you find so welcome when you return home late at night.

Devotional Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:51-58.

When God Has Won

Lesson for June 24, 1962

THE bloodiest book in the Bible is the last one, Revelation. Weird and terrible, its pictures tell the story of the war between good and evil, between God and Satan. In this war God's servants suffer agonies, and are indeed tempted to despair. Yet in the end the victory is God's, and his faithful people share it. A note running from Dr. Foreman first to last is "overcome," "conquer," "victory." While all the books of the Bible point forward, more or less, this is specially true of Revelation, which through all the red fog and the darkness focuses on God's final triumph.

God keeps promises

As every one is aware, this strange book has aroused innumerable arguments over its precise meaning, especially in details. But the main point is agreed on by all serious students of it: GOD WILL WIN. This does not get rid of all the questions we may have about it. These last two chapters, for example: Do they refer to something still in the future, or do they refer to something going on now? Are these pictures of heaven, or are they pictures of this earth in some future era? Let us venture a suggestion which might include both these possibilities. Let us try taking what is said in these famous and beautiful chapters, as an assurance, made in words pictures, of what it will be like when God's great war with evil on this earth and in this universe is crowned with victory. If you like to think of this as in heaven (because we have heard this so often at funerals), or on the renewed earth in a new universe, either way this is the kind of world which it is God's intention to bring forth, the kind of world which will be a fit home for his people. It is a world in which all the good promises of God will be fulfilled.

What manner of world will it be, the world of the heart's desire of the God who is Love? We can note only a very few of its special glories. For one thing, it is a world with evil shut out. Not only has that great serpent, the deceiver of men, been destroyed at long last, but all those human beings who have said to evil, "Be thou my good, are shut out,—all the unclean, the cowards, those who love and make lies. Evil, as we have all long since discovered, has many forms. Wickedness is only one form of it. There is also suffering, and this can be of the heart and mind, not only of the body. But there shall be no more pain, no more crying nor tears; so we know that when God has won his victory, all the dark burdens that weigh now on the souls of men, even those griefs in which no evil mingles,—these will all have vanished. The last enemy, Death, will lie conquered, and only Life fill all God's new world. "And night shall be no more." Considering how often, in the Bible and out, darkness is a symbol of ignorance and error, we may believe, and the Christian church does believe, that in God's world, when it finally dawns, (and indeed in heaven now) the mists of half-knowledge and groping ignorance that now surround even the wisest mind, will be blown away in the dawn-wind of eternity. "—and God Himself will be with them"

Best of all, and including all that is good,—God himself will be with his people; giver of life, of light, of healing and of comfort. Here some one may think of a question. Are not all these things true in this life, here and now? Do we not have eternal life? Is not God here on earth as he is everywhere? Are there not rare spirits in whom God has driven out evil? Does the Spirit of God not already bring light and healing and peace?

Yes, this is true. God grants to his people, here and now, such "foretastes of heaven" as assure of his presence and power, stir us to strive with him, and give sure promise of victory at last. Heaven has its colonies on earth. Wherever true, unselfish love has its flower and fruit, wherever faith and hope join with love to make this dark life brighter,—in every Christian heart and home, in every fellowship where the Spirit of Christ draws all together, there God's world already comes.

NEIGHBORS AND FENCES

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Maybe Walt and Jerry don't realize the paradox in this scene. They're simply leaning on the fence while their youngsters enjoy the new sliding board in Walt's backyard.

But fences once implied enmity... fear... selfishness. They are first cousins to the walls the ancients built around their cities.

Centuries of Christian influence have implanted a different spirit in men's hearts. A fence today can add interest and beauty to neighbors' gardens while keeping Walt and Jerry's kids from running across the flower beds.

There are countless evidences of Christian influence in our community today. The Church has elevated human ideals. Faithful worship and spiritual growth bring us closer to those ideals.

PATRONS SERVED BY RURAL CARRIERS

The recent National Rural Mail Box Improvement Week showed new colors and appearance to those traveling on roads covered by rural carriers. Majority of rural patrons responded quickly to correct any faulty conditions, pointed the posts or supports and mail boxes, and, in many instances, replaced old with a new box. To these patrons, the Post Office Department thanks you very much.

Some rural carriers have stated that it is a pleasure to serve the reconditioned boxes, now firmly fastened to their posts or supports. As all rural patrons know, rural carriers provides for many important services, including the sale of postage stamps and envelopes, the acceptance of money orders, and the delivery and acceptance of parcel post.

If your club is interested in conservation, you can find a lot of information in a new booklet, "How to Hold Your Conservation Meeting," which is available from the Forest Service, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C. The booklet gives step-by-step instruction in how to manage a club program dealing with the conservation of natural resources.

Many of the crop varieties being grown today weren't even known to farmers 10 years ago.

LTB Social Club Meets

The June meeting of the L. T. B. Social Club was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Auton with two members absent. A visitor Mrs. Jean Webster was welcomed. Mrs. Ruby Baumgartner resigned as she has moved to Cincinnati.

The hostess received a pitcher and glass set as a hostess gift. Our packages were auctioned off and money realized was turned over to cards for the sick committee.

Mrs. Anna Mae Sasher has a new baby son and received a suit from the club and gifts from several of the members. Refreshments were served.

Ryland Homemakers Meet

Beautiful handmade yellow roses arranged in a white china bowl was used for the center piece of the dining table when the Ryland Homemakers Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Hugh Craigmyle. The flower arrangement leaders Mrs. A. R. Hicks and Miss Ruth Schmidt demonstrated the various ways to use yard flowers to get the best effect, their arrangements were placed throughout the home.

Mrs. Everett Wilson gave the devotion relating to the first chapter of Psalms. Mrs. Harold Halfhill presided over the business session and she urged members to send their reservations to her by June 28 for the National Home Demonstration Council meeting in Lexington.

Garden leader, Mrs. J. H. Lawson gave the landscape lesson and related that from June 1 until July 15 is perhaps the last time to prune evergreens in Ky. they have made their spring growth by that time. Members told of their experience and joy they encountered in the planting of different kinds of trees and shrubs this year.

Arrangements were made for the annual picnic July 10 at Big Bone Park and a tour of the Boone County Airport.

Mrs. A. R. Hicks was co-hostess and Mrs. Craigmyle was assisted by her daughter Mrs. Edwin Miller and granddaughter Diane Miller is serving guests Mrs. Phyllis Morris and members, Mesdames George Campbell, William Damon, C. J. Castleberry, Anthony Wolf, William P. Schwall, Harold Halfhill, Leslie Smith, J. H. Lawson, F. B. Hermes, J. K. Belew, Everett Wilson, W. A. Covington and Miss Ruth Schmidt.

Disk Tobacco Beds Now

If tobacco setting is finished and there is no further need for plants the tobacco plant bed can be disked or plowed now and sown to soybeans or cow peas.

This practice is part of a system, says Ira Massie, U.K. Ag Extension Service specialist, to improve the plant bed soil for the coming year.

Fertilize the bed sites with 15 to 20 pounds of an 0-20-20 analysis fertilizer, Massie says, or equivalent, to grow a heavy crop of legumes to shade out grasses and weeds.

In late August or early September, plow or disk the legume crop and in October, treat the site for weed control. This destroys all live grass roots so that wildfire bacteria (and others) have no place to live over winter.

Hybrid Corn Test Results For 1961

The UK Ag Experiment Station agronomy department has released its annual progress report on results of corn hybrid performance testing in 1961.

The report covers the 1961 testing, and also includes some three-year and two-year averages.

It shows that 1961 was a most favorable year for corn production in Kentucky, the per-acre yield of 55 bushels was the highest in Kentucky history, and that corn production is improving steadily.

The state-wide average in the tests for 1961 was 114.6 bushels an acre. In Western Kentucky locations (Wickliffe, Owensboro and Hopkinsville) the average was 101.8 bushels; for Eastern Kentucky (Lexington and Quicksand) 133.4 bushels an acre.

Kenneth Martin and Frank Loeffel, agronomists said 60 hybrids were evaluated; these were all commercially-available hybrids, from 13 firms. They also tested a number of "open pedigree" hybrids produced by certified seed producers of the state. The report covers yields, moisture content (harvest date), erect plants, ear height and ratings for resistance to northern and southern corn leaf blight.

More detailed data than in the report has been sent county agents in a special mimeographed report, they said, for study purposes.

Loeffel emphasized that growers should, when possible, choose a corn hybrid on which trials have been conducted three years, rather than one of those tested a shorter time. The longer the testing period, he says, the better the "prediction value" of the data obtained.

AT YOUR SERVICE!

Southern's Rail-Highway Service has grown up!

THE INFANT, "growing-pains" days are behind us now. Our rapidly expanding Rail-Highway Service makes available to Southern shippers today a "grown-up" piggyback service developed, organized and operated by key personnel selected for their specialized knowledge and experience in both rail and motor carrier transportation.

Southern now has 646 aluminum containers, forty of which are insulated and equipped with modern machinery for freezing and heating. To transport the containers over the highway, we have 391 trailer chassis. Containers can be taken off the chassis for rail movement, or containers and chassis can remain together and move in trailer units. Service is available to a growing number of cities along our lines and to most important off-line cities.

Today on the Southern we are trying in every way possible to furnish efficient, low-cost, competitively priced transportation so vital to the growing South and its future. We are constantly seeking to increase our usefulness to our customers. Doing this, we automatically increase our value and usefulness to the South as well. Our modern Rail-Highway Service—combining the best of both rail and highway transportation in one convenient package—is still another way we are doing just that. There will be many more—and all in the South will benefit.

Kentucky Not Too Efficient in Corn Crop

Is Kentucky keeping up with other states in efficient corn productions? No, says Frank Loeffel, U. K. Ag Experiment Station agronomist—altho he admits that Kentucky has made much progress in the last 12 years.

Last year (1961) Kentucky's per-acre average was 55 bushels, the best yield ever. Yet other corn-growing states, notably Illinois and Indiana, had a yield of 77 and 74, respectively, in 1961.

Loeffel says the picture, for instance, in 1912 in this state was poor. The average yield was 27 bushels an acre. Little progress was made until 1942, with thereafter a steady improvement to 1955. Yields ranged then from 30 bushels to 40 bushels an acre.

A second increase period occurred between 1955 and 1961, when yields ranged from 40 to 55 bushels in 1961.

But, he says, other states still are keeping ahead of Kentucky's very respectable per acre yield.

For increased efficiency, he recommends five things:

(1) Plant early (April 20 to May 15); (2) Plant from 12,000 to 18,000 stalks an acre; (3) test soils and fertilize for top yields; (4) Control weeds (with consideration to chemicals at planting time); and (5) Select a good hybrid that meets the individual farm's needs.

Wheel-Track Corn Planting Recommended Time-Saver

Plant corn as you plow, says Lyle Leonard, U.K. Ag Extension Service conservation specialist.

How? By wheel-track planting. Here's how it is done:

Start plowing with the corn planter on the tractor or hitched behind. Have the planter adjusted to drop seed corn in the tractor wheel tracks. (Compaction by the tractor wheels makes a good seed bed in the track.) Plant while the soil is moist.

The system was developed because farmers frequently would get ground plowed (or disked) harrowed and ready for planting. Then a hard rain would wash out the preparation work. Re-doing it cost money.

Leonard notes that loose soil between the tracks absorbs more rainfall and washes less.

Modern methods of production, harvesting, processing, storage, and transportation now provide farm-fresh foods at all times.

Hospital Committee Reports

The June meeting of the Board of Directors of the Boone County Hospital Association was held in the offices of the Florence Building and Loan Tuesday evening, June 19th and many important plans were discussed.

Mrs. Phillip Ferranti reported on the plans to participate in the Lion's Festival to be held at the Latoria Race Track on July 5, 6 and 7. Quarters are being erected and complete First Aid Facilities will be a part of the display. Trained nurses will be on hand to explain the hospital program and to render service if such is needed.

It is hoped that those attending this event will visit the hospital display as it will point out the progress that has been made by those who have devoted their time and effort to it. It is hoped that this project will be put on the November ballot and qualify for the $500,000 gift from the Hill-Burton Fund.

Boone Jaycees to Sponsor Beauty Pageant July 21

The Boone County Jaycees have announced they will sponsor the Miss Boone County Beauty Pageant of 1962. This marks the sixth consecutive year and the opening of a new era in having the affair, for the first time, at the New Latoria Race Track, Florence, Ky., to be held on July 21, at 7:30 p. m.

The Boone County Jaycees are not only having a fine beauty pageant, but will also provide top-notch entertainment for all who attend.

The Beauty Pageant will consist of mostly beautiful girls from Boone, Campbell and Kenton Counties. Also, the Boone County High School Band will play.

The Master of Ceremonies will be the very popular singer, Carl Dobkins, Jr., who will sing some of his top hit records. Carl is a very fine young man who has had many performances for teenage dances, television, radio, etc.

As in the past, and always in the future, the Boone County Jaycees are helping hands for the young and old alike.

This year the concessions and the parking facilities of the Pageant will be handled by the Boy Scouts of Boone County, who will receive the profits.

The large and beautiful trophies will be on display at the different business places throughout the county.

There will be gift certificates of all kinds and cash awards given to the winners.

New Electric Office Opens In Walton

A new office building designed to improve service for Union Light, Heat and Power Company customers in the Walton area, opened Monday, June 25th.

The new office is located at 190 North Main Street in Walton. It has facilities that include a drive-in pay window which will enable customers to complete bill payments, and related matters without leaving their automobiles. Customers will enter and leave from the Dixie Highway.

A parking lot also has been constructed for motorists requiring more time to complete their business with the company.

Another customer service is a night depository, convenient for the payment of bills at times other than the regular business hours of 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., Monday through Friday.

The new building is 50x30 feet and is electrically heated and air conditioned. It has Thermo-glass display windows in the front and side. ULH&P occupies approximately 1200 square feet of usable space for office and display purposes.

Polio Clinic In Boone County Is Great Success

Area residents of all ages turned out to receive the oral Sabin vaccine in Boone County on Sunday June 24th. 15,000 people received this vaccine in the county with clinics being held at the Boone County High School, Hebron School, Walton School and Burlington School.

The Boone County Medical Society and the Boone County Health Department wishes to take this opportunity to thank all Doctors, Nurses, Pharmacists, Auxiliary members, firemen, dispatchers, bankers, Boy Scouts and janitors of schools, who helped in any way to make this clinic such a success. If it had not been for the splendid teamwork of the volunteers, none of this could have been possible. We certainly appreciate the fine cooperation shown by everyone. It was "you" as an individual in the various communities that made this county-wide clinic such a big success.

KENTUCKIANS

in
By Gil Kingsbury

It's Been Quiet:

With lawmakers home for the holidays, it has been real quiet in the capital city. Now, however, the members of the House and Senate are returning.

The lull gave the Civil War Centennial Committee the opportunity to tell about a Kentucky spy and the famous pioneer engine, the General. The other day the engine huffed and puffed its way from Atlanta to Chattanooga, thus repeating its race of 100 years ago.

Kentuckian Captured:

It was the idea of James Andrews, the Kentuckian, to steal the General and ride 100 miles from Marietta to Chattanooga, burning all the bridges along the way.

The plot failed and Mr. Andrews, a professional spy, was caught along with eight others. The Civil War Centennial Commission dutifully reported that all were put to death on the gallows.

The re-enactment had one interesting episode. The General was forced to stop while a high school drum majorette strutted her stuff on the railroad tracks.

Withholding Tax:

A lot of Kentuckians working in Washington live across the Potomac in Virginia. Until recently, there was no Virginia withholding tax on salaries and wages.

Well, all that's been changed and the Old Dominion State has now put into operation its new system of deductions. There will, of course be some exceptions to the withholding system but by and large, Kentuckians will have to pay up.

Political Campaigns:

We thought that Kentuckians back home, engaged in political campaigns, might be interested in the campaigns in the nearby Maryland suburbs. We report on good authority that baby-kissing is out and the cocktail circuit has taken over. Slogans, of course, are still in evidence. When candidate, blistering his opponent, declares "Tawes Has Flaws," Another one exclaims "If you vote for Maloney you're full of baloney." And a third candidate, name of Hume, proudly announces that "Hume is Where the Heart is."

Notice For Bids

Sealed bids will be accepted until 8:00 p.m. on July 12, 1962 at the office of the Superintendent of Schools located on the second floor of the Dixie State Bank Building at Walton, Kentucky, for the following items to be supplied during the 1962-63 school year.

A People In Peril

Lesson for July 1, 1962

AMERICANS are conditioned not only by temperament, but by the movies and the TV programs we like to see,—conditioned to hair-breadth escapes. The hero must not have too easy a time of it. He must barely squeak through. But it must be an escape; the ending has to be a happy one, with the cavalry or Superman or Dick Tracy or Perry Mason or somebody triumphing again.

In real life it doesn't always work like that. There are genuine tragedies, there are unhappy endings, what ought to come out on top doesn't always do this. The Bible stories we are going to have a chance to study during the next five weeks are stories of a people in peril. But the people either did not see their danger, or if they saw it they did not do what was necessary to save the situation; and so the people perished.

People who think of the Bible as a book of comfort only, must prepare for a shock when reading this part of the Old Testament. This is the tale, not of a narrow escape but of a narrow failure to escape.

A young leader

King Josiah was a young man on the throne and he wanted to do what was right. The prophets told him, and it was quite true, that unless the nation turned to God it would be destroyed. Josiah knew what that meant; it meant getting rid of the idols, false gods, whose shrines were everywhere in the land. So he got rid of them. He took a courageous stand for the true God. But the nation went right on the downward slide, and the final crash turned out to be only a few years away.

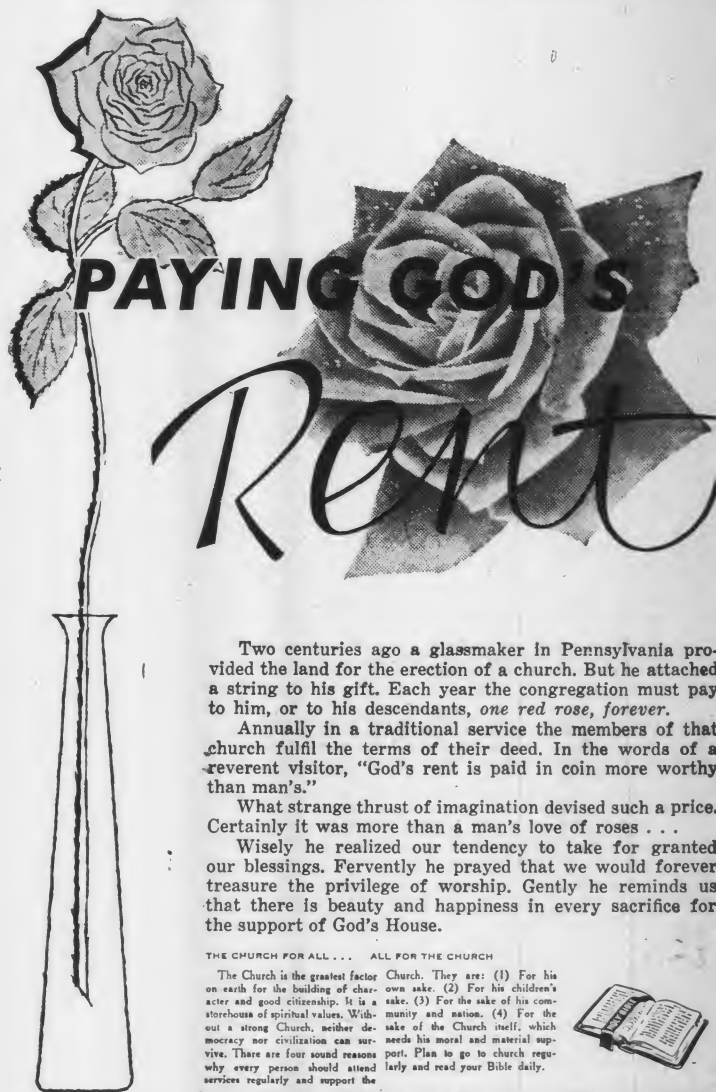

Why was this? What did King Josiah do that was wrong? The truth seems to be that he did nothing particularly wrong; but he was acting alone. No one backed him up. He did not persuade any one else to his point of view. He destroyed the "high places," (pagan shrines and altars) and he compelled all citizens to worship at Jerusalem. But it was reform from the top down; there was nothing popular about it. We can see how this works in our own country. A president may urge much needed reforms, he may have a sensitive social conscience; but unless there is something contagious about his idealism or his conscience, he remains a lone voice crying in a wilderness.

When a man is sick, sometimes the best thing for him is a shot in the arm. But this is an emergency measure. It would be far better if the man had been living wisely, building up his health by wise habits of eating, exercise and so on. Josiah's reform, sincere as he was, amounted to no more than a sort of shot in the arm. The disease of Godlessness was deep-seated. It was not to be rooted out by a mere change in the place where God was to be worshipped. It was to be cured by a king telling the people to worship the one true God, and to make sure they did this, destroying their idols. The revival, so called, of Josiah, would have been more effective if the people had thrown away their idols themselves. True goodness, true religion, never can be commanded. It must come from within.

Too little, too late

Certain kinds of illness can be cured by diet. Apples, for example, are excellent helps in the cure of some conditions. But one slice of apple a day is not going to help a man who needs half a dozen; and furthermore, if the man's illness has progressed far enough, a whole bushel of apples won't help him. They are plenty, but they are too late. When tuberculosis strikes, complete rest is the road to cure, if cure is possible. But to rest five minutes after each meal is too little; while if the patient's condition is ignored until he is in "St. Peter's Ward" at death's very door, resting all day and night will do not a bit of good; it is now too late. So in the days of Josiah, so many a time since, a nation has gone down to ruin not for lack of good prescriptions but because the nation did what was right too little—and too late.

Who is most to blame for national catastrophes? False prophets? Well-meaning but feeble reformers? Or the masses of everyday people?

Two centuries ago a glassmaker in Pennsylvania provided the land for the erection of a church. But he attached a string to his gift. Each year the congregation must pay to him, or to his descendants, one red rose, forever.

Annually in a traditional service the members of that church fulfil the terms of their deed. In the words of a reverent visitor, "God's rent is paid in coin more worthy than man's."

What strange thrust of imagination devised such a price. Certainly it was more than a man's love of roses...

Wisely he realized our tendency to take for granted our blessings. Fervently he prayed that we would forever treasure the privilege of worship. Gently he reminds us that there is beauty and happiness in every sacrifice for the support of God's House.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

Enjoy Florida Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Jarman and children, Daniel, Corky and Mike, of 73 South Main Street, enjoyed a visit to Sarasota Jungle Gardens during their recent vacation on Florida's Lower West Coast. The visitors mingled with mlamingos and other rare wildfowl from every continent roaming freely in these world-famous gardens. Other points of interest in Junge Gardens were hundreds of unusually colorful tropical plantings, huge Royal Pams bordering jungle trails, and brilliant macaws and cockatoos which pose with visitors for pictures.

Kenton County Young Republicans Are "Tops"

At the Saturday evening banquet of the Kentucky Young Republican Club, June 16, at Lexington, the Kenton County Young Republican Club was chosen the best club in the state for the past year. Kenton County had won the award in 1961 also, and this was the first time that a club had won the best club award in two successive years. Taylor County was given the best new club award. Both of these clubs are from counties that comprise part of the new Fourth District.

Howard Dickey, Lexington, was elected chairman of the group. Two of the four vice chairmen elected were from the new Fourth District: Jewell Rattliff of Campbellsville, and Roger Schnitzler of Alexandria, were elected at the Saturday afternoon session. Lora Larkins was chosen Fourth District chairwoman, and Herman Rattliff was chosen Fourth District chairman by club members from this district.

If the winner is between the ages of 18 and 21, the Jaycees will sponsor her in the "Miss Kentucky Pageant" in Lexington, and the winner of this will go to the "Miss America Pageant" in Atlantic City.

If the winner is a high school senior, the Jaycees will sponsor her in the "Miss Junior Miss Pageant" at Henderson, Ky.

Any girl residing in Kentucky, single, and between the ages of 15 through 22 inclusive, may call Eugene Cahill, 282-1346, or Chester Henderson, 282-2673.

Proceeds will help send the Boone County High School Band to the National Jaycee Convention of 1963 in Louisville, Ky. This will be a great opportunity for the band to obtain national recognition.

The Jaycees have undertaken a project to install road signs for all county roads throughout Boone County. If their beauty pageant is a success this project will be completed within the coming year.

July 2 Deadline For "New Wheat Farm" Applications

Farmers who wish to be considered for a "new wheat farm" allotment for 1963 on a farm which not now have a wheat allotment should get in touch with the A.S.C.S. County Office right away, J. Lassing Huey, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization Conservation County Committee, said today. Such farmers have until July 2 to file applications for such an allotment. (Because the usual program deadline of July 1 occurs this year on Sunday, the 1962 deadline is extended to the end of business on Monday, July 2).

Under the wheat allotment-marketing quota program, a "new farm" is a farm on which there is no wheat acreage, including acreage considered as wheat under the Conservation Reserve or the Great Plains program, for any of the years 1960, 1961 or 1962.

The chairman emphasized that formal application for a "new wheat farm" application must be made in writing on a form provided for that purpose, and the application must be filed at the ASCS County Office by the July 2 deadline.

Hog Price Peak Seen For Late This Summer

Hog prices to farmers probably will move up to about $17 or $18 a hundred pounds during the summer, then decline during the fall.

That's one prediction of the UK Ag Extension Service agricultural economics department in its bi-weekly outlook letter, issued this week.

Although prices probably will decline late this summer or early fall, says Wilmer Browning, economist, they probably will average nearly as high as 1961 levels.

He noted that slaughter rates now are above last year's levels, but are expected to decline this summer. This is one reason prices are expected to peak at $17 to $18 a hundredweight.

It is expected that hog slaughter rates will again increase after the summer decline; thus, prices probably will drop again. But, Browning says, prices probably will hold the last half of 1962 at levels fairly near those of the same period of 1961.

The letter noted that hog production began increasing in late 1960. Since that time, slaughter rates have been rising. Hog prices averaged below previous year levels since October 1961 except in January of this year when they were the same as for January 1961.

To the People of The City of Walton

The members of City Council have been endeavoring to prepare a financial report for publication, however, the auditing firm retained by the City does not have the report completed at this time.

There are, however, some outstanding bills that must be met, and it is the consensus of opinion of Council that the City must meet its financial obligations. With these thoughts in mind, Council feels that the following legislation is a very necessary step at this time.

The future plans for the revenue received from the car and truck license is to deposit this revenue in a special fund to be used for street repair, however, it will be necessary at this time to deposit the revenue in the general fund to be used for general operating expenses of the City.

This may permit Council to borrow funds to meet a portion of the City's obligations and also for urgently needed street repair.

There is also discussion at the present time in regard to a small fee being placed on waste collection to try to keep the City sound financially.

1-26 WALTON CITY COUNCIL

Ordinance 1962-5

An Ordinance providing for a Tax on Automobile and Truck Owners who live within the Corporate Limits of the City of Walton, Kentucky, or are engaged in business in the Corporate Limits, or regularly employed within the Corporate Limits, and the penalty for failure to pay same.

WHEREAS, it appears to the members of the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, that the existing revenues collected by the City of Walton are inadequate to satisfy its outstanding obligations and to pay its current operational expenses, and

WHEREAS, a new source of revenue must be found in order for the City to operate and meet its outstanding obligations, and

WHEREAS, the Council is of the opinion a tax on automobile and truck owners is a fair and definite source of additional revenue that would help solve the financial dilemma of the City of Walton, Ky.

1. NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF WALTON, KENTUCKY, that all owners of cars and trucks who live within the corporate limits of the City of Walton, Kentucky, or are engaged in business in the corporate limits, or regularly employed within the corporate limits of Walton, Kentucky be taxed the sum of $5.00 a year for each and every vehicle so owned. Upon the payment of said tax, the city shall place a sticker on the windshield of the cars or trucks as evidence of the payment of said tax.

2. That all persons found guilty of violating this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than $3.00 and not more than $25.00.

3. THAT THIS ORDINANCE SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT AFTER ITS PASSAGE AND LAW REQUIRES AND AFTER AUGUST 1st, 1962.

4. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance shall be deemed to be repealed.

Honey, which is plentiful right now can be served in many different ways, on bread, breakfast cereals, pancakes, or waffles, for example. When using honey as a sirup, you may want to dilute it with hot water. This makes it less sweet and easier to pour.

WHAT'S WATT---

In a Low HOUSEPOWER Home?

Scraggly, old fashioned wiring greatly reduces the light output of your lamps.

It prevents all the power from getting through to appliances, too! So, they strain to do a job. Blow out fuses! Even wear out faster! Hamper instead of help!

Yet, it's easy enough to get the full HOUSEPOWER you need for carefree electrical living.

Any rewiring costs . . . however modest . . . can be budgeted through our WIRE ON TIME Plan. Payments as low as two-dollars a month can be made with regular electric bills. Call your electrical contractor . . . listed in your phone book's Yellow Pages . . . for details.

Is it natural for children to crave sweets? Researchers say NO. Then why the candy habit? Probably because adults use sweets as rewards, bribes and special treats. This makes the habit a learned one, not a natural one. The wise mother offers snacks that have more than just energy value, such as carrots, fruit juices, bread and butter.

Walton Homemakers Hold Final Meeting At F. Penick Home

For their final meeting of the year, the Walton Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Frank Penick Sr. Jones Rd. on May 25th at 6:30 p.m.

As the lesson for the month was "Casserole Cookery," we started our meeting with a casserole supper prepared by our lesson leaders, Mrs. Penick and Mrs. Bob Simpson.

Our menu consisted of two delicious casseroles, Beef Stroganoff and Chicken Almond Pie with Biscuit Tossed Salad, Carrot, Pineapple and Orange Jello Salad, Ice Tea, Coffee, and French Rye Bread with Strawberry Shortcake for desert.

The lesson was given during our meal. Different recipes, ways of preparing, heating, and serving casseroles, were discussed. We learned how to use attractive, appetizing color combinations, and how to plan your food so that you can provide well-balanced meals for your family. We also discussed different types of serving dishes.

The meal and the lesson were greatly enjoyed by all the members. We want to thank the lesson readers for preparing the meal, and Mrs. Penick for the use of her home and kitchen.

In the following business meeting, we elected our officers for the coming year. These were Mrs. Edward Lay - President, Mrs. Charles Simpson - Vice President, Mrs. Frank Penick - Secretary, Mrs. Lay appointed her committees for the coming year. Our lessons, leaders, and meeting places for the next Homemakers year were discussed.

We closed our meeting with a recreation period led by Mrs. James Borden. We had a period of games, a White Elephant Sale and distribution of our "Secret Pal" gifts. We have made this a part of each meeting and it has been thoroughly enjoyed.

Members present were: Mrs. Edward Lay, Mrs. Charles Simpson, Mrs. Bob Simpson, Mrs. Robert Coyle, Mrs. James Borden, Mrs. Jim Woods and Mrs. Homer Winburn and Mrs. Frank Penick. We were glad to have Mrs. Gertrude Paparotta, Home Demonstration Agent of Boone Co., as guest.

Our next meeting will be in September. We invite anyone who wishes to learn more about the art of homemaking and also to have an enjoyable evening to join us.

Boone County Health Department Gives Full Annual Report

We have prepared a brief summary of the activities of the Boone County Health Department for the year 1961. We want to say "Thank You" to individuals, civic and volunteer agencies and all who helped to make our program possible.

The Health Department's total program is by its very nature in the Ounce of Prevention basket. Its purpose can be summed up in three statements.

1. Promotion of education in all phases of health;
2. Carrying out a program designed to prevent the spread of communicable disease in the community;
3. Enforcement of public health laws.

It seems reasonable to assume that as the average citizen becomes better acquainted with this health department he will be more inclined to avail himself of the services which are offered and will more clearly understand the safeguards which have been established for the while community to make it a healthful place in which to live.

With our constantly changing environment it becomes necessary to tailor health activities to meet new problems as they arise. Many health problems which once occupied a major portion of the health workers' time are being solved, while new problems are becoming more apparent.

Wa-Na Yearly Report

If someone were to ask you who have been the busiest women in Walton during the time between September, 1961, and June, 1962, would you know what answer to give? You say that you'd have to think about it awhile? Then let me help you think by telling you the activities of one group of women I know.

In October, these ladies prepared for and with the sponsorship of the Benton-Bonard Department Store, put on a very pretty style show, showing the needs for the entire family during the fall and winter season. Also, during this month the kindergarten, which this group sponsors, went into new quarters, giving them more room and better facilities.

In January, they went to work in the kitchen and had a bake sale at Coppin's Department Store, Covington.

February found these ladies energetic enough to get up out of their easy chairs on a Sunday afternoon and collect for the Heart Fund Drive. This endeavor proved to be very successful.

Annual Meeting Is Set For August 20

The local Southern States Cooperative annual membership meeting for the Walton area will be held on August 20, at the Walton-Vernon School. The action came at a recent annual planning conference held by Lipscomb Farm Supply, local Southern States Agency.

A special feature of this year's meeting will be color slides of local farmers taken with their own enterprises, the group decided.

In addition to elections and other business matters, the group voted to show a color film entitled "Jimmy Gets the Answers." It takes viewers on an extensive tour of the vast and varied workings of the cooperative's seed and farm supply division.

Willing Workers' Class Met With Mrs. Marie Berkshire

Mrs. Fredrica Mann had an interesting devotional. After the business session Mrs. Mann had brought along some song books and suggested the group "sing along with Fredrica." Mrs. Moore led the songs suggested by different ones. Mrs. Berkshire was assisted in entertaining by her Mother Mrs. Harvey Vest, her daughter Mrs. Robert Huston, and Granddaughter Barbara.

Those enjoying the pleasant evening were, Mrs. Charles Ransler Sr., Miss Louise Conrad, Miss Rachel Acree, Mrs. Fredrica Mann, Rev. and Mrs. Wm Moore, Miss Mary Ransler, Mrs. Julia Rouse, Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Doan, Miss Mary West, Mrs. Jane H. The big 1962 annual meeting and farm show of the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative will be held on Tuesday, July 17, at the Boone County Fairgrounds in Burlington, according to C. A. Richardson, co-op manager.

The four-hour program will consist of entertainment by professional performers, a beauty contest, two drawings for free prizes, a business meeting and two presentations dealing with the progress of rural electricity and electrical safety.

Local beauties, 16 to 22 years of age, previously unmarried and members of co-op consumer's family, are eligible to compete in the beauty contest.

The young lady selected by the judges will be crowned "Miss Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative of 1962." She will also represent Owen County RECC in the annual state beauty contest which will be held in Louisville at the Kentucky State Fair and Exposition Center in September.

Applications for the beauty contest may be obtained from the Owen County RECC office in Owenton.

Visitors, in addition to members, are invited to attend the show and will be entertained by six professional acts. These include the Miamians, a balancing act which combines skill and daring; Chuck and Rita Brown, in a zany act of mixed emotions to keep the audience guessing if Chuck will survive his capers on a shaky framework high above the stage; Miss Naomi, with a juggling act to dazzle the beholder; Ruby Haag with a delightful performance as she puts her trained dogs through difficult chores on the tightrope; Pedro Morales, Jr., who juggles barrels, logs and other items with his feet; Florine Oler at the organ to play requests from the audience and render many favorite tunes.

This top-talent will present a fast-paced, well-rounded, one hour variety show.

Consumer members are encouraged to register for the valuable prizes that will be given away at two drawings during the program.

Antibiotics In Dairy Feeds Not Mastitis Preventative

Putting antibiotics into dairy feeds won't necessarily prevent or reduce mastitis losses, says Durward Olds, UK Ag Experiment Station dairy researcher.

That's because such antibiotics, added to dairy cows' rations, must be at a low enough level to prevent antibiotic contamination of the milk. But at such low levels, Olds says, the antibiotics can not control mastitis.

"Antibiotics are commonly added to grain rations of beef cattle, poultry, swine and calves. This generally results in faster and more efficient growth with fewer disease losses. Antibiotic feeding seems to be helpful in preventing certain digestive tract disturbances, foot rot and respiratory infections."

But, he added, there is no experimental evidence to demonstrate that antibiotics in the feed of dairy cattle did prevent or control mastitis.

"A few studies have shown that feeding aureomycin or terramycin will cause a slight increase in milk production. However, other studies indicate there is not evidence that feeding antibiotics increases milk production or reduces mastitis losses."

A new short-stemmed Easter lily will be seen on the market during the spring holidays. The Georgian lily one of the most widely used Easter lilies, is normally a long-stemmed plant that's unwieldy when grown in a pot; it's blooms usually sold as cut flowers. USDA's Agricultural Research Service has found that Georgia lilies grow shorter stems when treated with the chemical phosfon, making a compact lily that is ideal as a potted plant.

5. The school building properties described herein shall be operated on a fiscal year basis commencing February 2 of each year and ending February 1 of the following year. The first fiscal period shall end on February 1, 1963. On that basis the income and revenues of said property shall be set apart into a separate and special fund to be used for the retirement of the aforesaid bonds and maintaining said property.

There shall be and there is hereby created an account to be known as the "City of Walton Refunding and School Building Bond and Interest Redemption Fund of 1962" (hereinafter called the Bond Fund), to be deposited with the payee bank of said bonds, into which there shall be set aside from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds the amount received from the purchaser representing accrued interest, plus an additional amount sufficient to provide for interest until August 1, 1963, on $175,000 of such bonds, and there shall also be set aside into said Fund from the gross income and revenues of the property such sums, which when added to such amount, will equal the amounts set out in the table in section 2 of this ordinance if said 355 bonds are sold to bear interest at the rate of 4% per annum, in ample time to pay the interest and principal as they fall due, which amounts are hereby exclusively pledged to and shall be used only for the purpose of paying the interest on and the principal of said bonds as and when they mature. In the event said bonds are sold to bear an interest rate or rates other than at the rate assumed, said figures shall be automatically adjusted accordingly.

In any event, there shall be set aside into said Bond Fund and there are pledged such amounts as may from year to year be necessary to meet the principal and interest requirements of the outstanding City of Walton Refunding and School Building Revenue Bonds dated August 1, 1962.

The balance of the income and revenue remaining after the aforesaid payments into the Bond Fund have been made shall be set aside into a maintenance fund and used for the maintenance of said school property and to pay the cost of insuring said property against loss or damage by fire, windstorm or other calamity, in an amount substantially equal to either at least the amount of the bonds at any time outstanding or the maximum insurable value of the improvement, whichever is lesser. Such insurance shall be for the use and benefit of the holder or holders of any bond or bonds.

It is further agreed that in case the buildings on said premises, or any of them, are totally destroyed by fire, windstorm or other hazard covered by insurance, the City shall have the right to expend such proceeds to restore the property; that if such proceeds are not expended by the City for restoration of said property at the earliest practicable date, then all such insurance proceeds shall be used for the purpose of redeeming said outstanding bonds, and said property shall be and become the property of the Board, in which case the City shall convey said property to the Board free and clear of all encumbrances. In the event of partial destruction by fire, windstorm or other hazard covered by insurance, it is agreed between the parties that the proceeds of such insurance shall be used solely and only for the purpose of making the necessary replacements and repairs to the buildings and improvements located thereon, provided further that if following such partial or complete destruction any principal or interest payment is due and there are no other funds available for said payments, such insurance proceeds must be applied to the defaulted payments.

6. The City hereby covenants and agrees with the holder or holders of the bonds herein authorized that it will faithfully and punctually perform all duties with reference to the school property which are required by the Constitution and laws of Kentucky, including the making and collection of reasonable and sufficient rentals for said property, and will segregate the revenues of said property and make application of the respective funds created by this ordinance.

The City further covenants to maintain said property and to take all steps necessary to produce annually for the Board a sum sufficient to pay the rental charges for said property as provided in such Contract, Lease and Option dated as of August 1, 1962, which has been submitted to the City and is hereby ordered accepted and executed by the Mayor and the City Clerk. The City binds and obligates itself not to sell, mortgage or in any manner dispose of said property except by the mortgage provided in sections 4 and 7 hereof, until all of the bonds herein authorized shall have been paid in full, both as to principal and interest.

For the further protection of the holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued and the coupons attached thereto, a statutory mortgage lien upon said property and all improvements thereon is granted and created by section 162.120 through 162.290 of Kentucky Revised Statutes, which said statutory mortgage lien is hereby recognized and declared to be valid and binding upon the City and the property herein referred to and shall take effect immediately.

Any holder of said bonds or any of the coupons, either at law or in equity, by suit or other legal proceedings, may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by the Constitution and statutes of Kentucky, including the charging and collection of sufficient rent, the segregation of income and the application thereof, and may by such action compel the performance of all duties imposed upon the City in so far as the failure to perform such duties affects the interest of any holder of the bonds or coupons herein authorized.

If there be any default in the payment of the principal or of interest on any of said bonds, then, upon the filing of suit by any holder of any of said bonds or any of the coupons, any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer the property, with power to charge and collect rents sufficient to provide for the payment of interest and principal required by said bonds and maintain the maintenance and insurance fund herein provided for. The reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses of the bondholder or bondholders obtaining the appointment of a receiver shall be taxed as costs and shall be a charge against the revenues of the project.

8. The bonds authorized to be issued hereunder shall not be entitled to priority one over the other, regardless of the fact that they may be issued and delivered at different times.

9. While any of the bonds herein authorized are outstanding, the City shall not issue any additional bonds payable from the revenues of said property unless the lien to secure such additional bonds is made inferior and subordinate in all respects to the lien securing the bonds hereto the lien securing the bonds here-authorized.

10. So long as any of the bonds are outstanding, the City shall keep proper books and records (separate from all other records and accounts) of all transactions regarding said bonds. It will furnish to the original purchaser of said bonds and to the holder of any of said bonds, upon written request, not more than thirty days after the close of each fiscal period, complete operating and income statements certified by the City auditors and will grant to any holder or holders of twenty-five per cent of the bonds then outstanding the right at all reasonable times to inspect the property and all records and accounts of the City relating thereto.

11. That said $355,000 of bonds, numbered 1 to 355, inclusive, shall be sold at public sale immediately after legal and reasonable advertising, and the Mayor and City Clerk are hereby authorized and directed to make such advertising. That bidders shall be required to bid at least 100 and accrued interest and must name an interest rate or rates in multiples of 1/4 of 1%, not to exceed 4 3/4%. That the City Council shall, in a resolution accepting the successful bid, determine the exact rate or rates of interest which said bonds shall bear. That the Notice of Bond Sale which is published, the Further Information as to Sale of Bonds with reference to the bonds herein authorized and the Bid Form which shall be used by bidders for the bonds herein authorized shall be substantially in the forms attached to the minutes of the meeting at which this ordinance was proposed and introduced. That the proceeds of the sale of said bonds shall be used for refunding the outstanding City of Walton School Building Revenue Bonds, dated November 1, 1953, and school building purposes and shall be expended on the property described herein.

12. Upon the sale and delivery of said bonds, there shall be first paid all expenses incident to the authorization sale and delivery of the bonds. Then the amount of $189,000 representing principal and additional interest of outstanding City of Walton School Building Revenue Bonds, dated November 1, 1953, shall be deposited in the City of Walton School Building Bond and Interest Redemption Fund of 1953, established in connection with the issuance of such bonds dated November 1, 1953. Prior to the delivery of the bonds herein authorized an additional amount shall be on hand in such fund sufficient to pay all interest on such bonds dated November 1, 1953, to November 1, 1962, and such amount and said amount of $189,000 shall be held in escrow only for the purpose of refunding and retiring said bonds dated November 1, 1953. Then the amount received from the purchaser as representing accrued interest thereon, plus an additional amount so that the total amount will be the equivalent of interest for one year on $175,000 of such bonds herein authorized shall immediately be deposited in the Bond Fund herein established. The City Treasurer is authorized to sign whatever checks are necessary to accomplish that purpose. The entire remaining proceeds shall thereafter be devoted exclusively to payment of costs of the school building and appurtenances upon the property described herein and according to the plans and specifications duly approved and filed, as provided by KRS 162.160.

That pending expenditure of the proceeds then remaining, such funds shall be deposited until needed for construction purposes, in a special construction account in a bank or banks, called the "City of Walton, Kentucky, School Construction Account of 1962." Said bank or banks shall invest for the benefit of said account such portion of said fund as is designated by the Board of Education in United States Government obligations maturing at such time or times as to make such funds available when needed for construction purposes, and any of such funds not so invested shall be earmarked and secured by a pledge of an equivalent amount of United States Government obligations or bonds of the issue herein authorized, until expended. The money in that account shall be expended by payments made to defray the costs of construction of the school building herein referred to and to purchase school equipment and fixtures to be installed in or on such property, such payments, with the exception of those for school equipment or fixtures, to be made upon checks drawn upon said bank by the City Treasurer, countersigned by a representative of said Board of Education (to be designated by a written resolution of said Board) and accompanied in detachable form by a voucher in duplicate entitled "Authorization for Payment" signed by the architect or engineer having supervision of the construction of said school building, in substantially the following form:

earned by and payable to said party, its successors or assigns, for labor, materials, work or services furnished under an existing contract with the City of Walton, Kentucky, relating to the construction of certain school building improvements financed by the issuance of City of Walton Refunding and School Building Revenue Bonds, dated August 1, 1962, or for other work or services in connection therewith. It is further certified that in our opinion all of said labor, materials, work and/or services were furnished within the boundaries of the property described in the ordinance of the City Council of the City authorizing said bonds, which property is encumbered by said bond issue, or were furnished in connection with improvements located within the boundaries of said property.

The City Treasurer is hereby authorized to execute such checks from time to time in the necessary amounts upon the aforesaid voucher or "Authorization for Payment" being executed by the architect or engineer and presented to the City Treasurer, without any further meetings, authorizations, or ordinance or resolutions, provided, however, that checks for such school equipment and fixtures shall not require any voucher. Such checks, so long as the authentication voucher (Authorization for Payment) shall remain attached thereto, shall be fully negotiable, and a bank shall be authorized to honor and pay the same, provided it assumes the responsibility for the propriety of all endorsements, or all endorsements to it are guaranteed by a bank. Upon the payment of each such check the authenticating original voucher attached thereto shall be retained by said bank and surrendered to the City Treasurer at the time of the final accounting between the Treasurer and the bank (with the City Treasurer retaining the duplicate voucher). After the architect certifies that the construction has been completed and paid for, any surplus remaining in the Construction Account may be transferred to the Bond Fund.

13. If for any reason the funds obtained by the sale of said bond issue are not properly allocated or if there is any misapplication of the proceeds, such improper allocation or misapplication shall not affect the validity of any bonds issued in accordance with this ordinance.

women in America, and Christian family life; these were the topics for the programs in the monthly meetings. These meetings were held this year in their new Club room, which kept them busy for a few days getting necessary items. Oh, yes, they also renewed their youth a little by watching the talented dancers from Lexington perform. There was one thing that was never satisfactorily explained though, that was, "why the cops hide in order to catch speeders."

Now these ladies didn't just become informed and make money, they donated money to many causes and groups, such as Veterans' Hospital, United Fine Arts Fund, the summer program sponsored by the Lions Club, the Walton Girl Scouts, Band Boosters Club, and exchange student, and a scholarship of $100 to a high school graduate, Virginia Kerns, to be used for further education. In addition they built permanent shelves in the new kindergarten room, which makes it nice for the wee ones and the teacher, Mrs. James Webster.

Have you decided on an answer to my question? I'm sure after reading the facts just given that you agree with me that these ladies, members of the Walton-Wa-Na Club, are about the busiest bodies in town.

23 Years Deaf

Lesson for July 8, 1962

Dr. Foreman Readers of the Bible are inclined to blame the people of Israel for not paying attention to the prophets who spoke to them in the name and with the message of God. We think we could not have been so foolish as those people were.

But we can't throw too many stones. We have to remember that the true prophets were in a small minority, and also that the false prophets said what people wanted to hear. Isn't it true today that we would rather listen to cheerful predictions than gloomy ones?

What is God Doing?

In times of deep trouble, such as war or other disaster, a common question especially among religious people is: What is God doing? Why doesn't he stop these disasters? Now there are some calamities which we can be saved from only if we ourselves do something about it. God will not save us from just any jam we care to get into. Those long-ago Israelites, for example, had plenty of warning. Jeremiah and others too had told them and told them again, just what was going to be, unless the nation radically changed its ways. Read the terrible 19th chapter, where Jeremiah predicts that these elegant city people will end by becoming cannibals, out of sheer desperate starvation. God says: "I will break this city so that it cannot be mended." Through Jeremiah

God draws an accurate picture of exactly how God will bring this to pass.

Why No Believers?

Twenty-three years is a long time. Jeremiah began to preach when he was only a youth, let us say around twenty or so. He was a middle-aged man when finally the storm came. But in 23 years no one had listened. Yet (said Jeremiah) though "I have spoken persistently unto you, you have neither listened, nor inclined your ears to hear."—that is to say, they hadn't heard and didn't want to hear the truth.

Why this fatal, this suicidal, willful deafness on the nation's part? It was partly, as already said, that they did not like to hear what they considered gloomy, doomy predictions. They liked to think that if they were just cheerful enough, circumstances would change to match their mood. But there was something else more deep-reaching. Jeremiah made it plain over and over (so often that he himself wearied of his own preaching and wished he could stop, even wished he had never been born)—made it plain that the nation was not such that it could make a valid claim on God. You could put it in two sentences: The people said, "We are God's people, he won't let us get hurt; while Jeremiah said, "God's people? You don't act like it!"

Justice!

What was needed, in God's sight, was not a change in the place of worship. King Josiah had "reformed" the state religion that far, but a hypocrite's worship is just as distasteful to the God of righteousness in one place as another. In one of Jeremiah's famous sermons (chap. 7) he warns against bragging that they had the one true Temple. What God really desires is a people who practice justice between man and man.

The voice of many a preacher summons proud America in these days to repent. But now as then it is a mistake to think of sin as just personal faults. The sins of society, dishonesty and greed in political and social and economic life, are more far-reaching and just as fatal in undermining a nation's character and strength, as are purely individual sins. Let no one claim that social justice is merely "political"! To say that, you will have to be as deaf to Jeremiah now as his doomed people were then.

c'mon... put it over the plate

You are witnessing one of the frustrations in Ted's life. Like his namesake, the Red Sox slugger, Ted likes to tag a good fast ball and send it over the fence. But, today, our batting-practice pitcher just can't seem to find the plate.

Another frustration in Ted's life will occur next Sunday morning. Like every American youngster Ted needs religious training. But Ted's parents, who should be offering him opportunity and encouragement in spiritual growth, can't seem to find the Church.

Our children deserve the full spiritual opportunity which our free heritage has preserved for them. Today it is their turn to develop the power with which God endowed them. And our assignment, like the batting-practice pitcher's, is to offer them our best . . . and not lost control.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOONE COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT

The local health department is an official agency established by provisions of Kentucky State Law, commissioned with the responsibility of promoting better community health. The governing body is the local board of health which consists of the county judge, three physicians, one dentist and a member of the fiscal court. The health officer is the administrative head of the department. At this time, Boone County does not have a health officer. The responsibility of the health department lies in the prevention of illness and the promotion of good health for the entire community. Thus, every person in the community is directly or indirectly served. The health department does not act as a welfare agency providing free medical care to those who cannot afford it. Medical care is the responsibility of the private physician.

Most community-wide health problems which a local health department will encounter are in one of the seven basic fields of public health endeavor:

- 1, Communicable disease control;
- 2, Chronic disease control;
- 3, Maternal and child health;
- 4, Environmental sanitation;
- 5, Laboratory services;
- 6, Vital statistics; and
- 7, Public health education.

Following an annual program plan, the work was carried on through pre-school clinics, school health examinations, office clinics, field visits, talks and conferences with school and community groups.

The health department assists the schools in complying with the school health code, which calls for physical examinations in the first, fifth and ninth grades. Parents are informed of defects found and recommendations are made for corrections. There were 73 children examined in pre-school round-ups and 1784 school health examinations given by the clinician, Dr. George T. Donovan.

Forty-nine children were referred to their family physicians for defects. 403 vision tests were given. 52 physical examinations were given teachers in the county and 14 physsicals for school bus drivers, cafeteria workers and other food handlers.

There were 2379 dental inspections made. Many children needed dental care. 276 referrals were made to private dentists. 76 of these referrals were completed.

The control of communicable diseases included immunizations, some of which were given in the schools and others in the office. There were 593 DPT injections; 989 polio, 184 smallpox vaccinations; 77 typhoid, and 36 other immunizations given during the year by the public health nurses, Mrs. Mary Cress and Mrs. Helen Blank. There were 49 immunization clinics held with an attendance of 1794.

Tuberculosis control consists of case finding and field visits to active cases and contacts. It costs less to prevent TB than it does to cure it. Tuberculosis is a preventable disease and it is also a curable disease, if found and treated early. Early TB may have no symptoms. The only way to find tuberculosis early is to have a chest x-ray. There were 11 new admissions of active cases during the year. The public health nurses made 117 field visits to the active cases.

Those people suffering from a chronic disease, such as heart, cancer, diabetes, etc., are visited by the nurses every so often in order that the nurses may give certain instructions to some member of the family on how to give shots, bed baths and how to make the patient more comfortable. The nutritionist also works with these patients if she is asked by the doctor. She helps plan suitable and nutritious diets. This is especially true for the diabetes cases. There were 42 new admissions to service for cancer, diabetes, heart and other chronic diseases. One field visit was made to a cancer case, two field visits to diabetes cases, 31 visits to heart cases and 52 visits to other chronic cases.

The health department continues to distribute bicillin for rheumatic fever patients and at present a total of 35 cases are being supplied with in the county.

During the year there were six new admissions to Crippled Children's Services with two referrals to Crippled Children's Clinic completed. People living continually in one community tend to build up natural immunity to their surroundings, but when one moves from place to place, he is exposed to more disease. There really is very little news in the proper operation of health department programs dealing with water, sewage, food and milk. These are routine needs that are a part of our community health picture. Sanitation services of the health department include regular inspections of water samples, restaurants, schools, hotels, motels, groceries and others. Here are some of the activities for 1961 as carried on by the two sanitarians of the local health department, Mr. W. H. Jones and Mr. Thomas C. Purcell:

426 inspections of restaurants and groceries; 24 inspections of school cafeterias; 1 inspection of nursing home and hospital; 25 inspections of trailer parks 29 inspections of public buildings, including schools; 63 inspections of hotels, motels, etc.; 38 persons bitten by rabid animals; 34 animals quarantined; 14 animal heads submitted to the laboratory at the State Department of Health; 10 immunization clinics for dogs; 170 dogs immunized in rabies clinics; 32 Pasteurized milk samples taken and sent to the laboratory; 203 water samples taken from schools, community supply, bathing areas, and other sources; 52 nuisance complaints investigated; 29 septic tank systems installed, and 96 field visits made to waste disposal works.

Effort has been made to work in harmony with all councils, clubs, and organizations for the betterment of sanitary conditions throughout the county. We feel that what progress has been made in the field of sanitation is due to the fine support and cooperation given to the health department by the citizens of Boone County.

Records are a very important part of any office, especially so in a health department. All births and deaths within the county are recorded in the files of the local health department. During the year there were eight births and 95 deaths recorded in the county. The original documents are sent to the Division of Vital Statistics. It is with the help of the physicians and funeral directors within the county that these records are kept so accurately.

An active contribution is made by the clerical member of the staff by her influence in public relations and public education by direct contact with the many people who seek help from the health department. Clerical duties in the Boone County Health Department afford ample opportunity for service. A clerk is quite a useful person. This person at Boone County Health Department happens to be Mrs. Sue Ellen Jarman, who proves to be quite efficient in all of her many duties.

Believing that education is one of our greatest weapons in prevention of disease, the nutritionist, Mrs. Edna Risen, and the health educator, Betty Walker, who are in the county one day a week, have given talks to classroom pupils, shown films on health in general. They have met with community groups also to provide promotion for better health for everyone concerned. The work of the health department, good food habits, dental health and personal hygiene have been emphasized in these talks to students and community groups. The nutritionist has given 27 health talks to children with a total attendance of 2428. She has given 3 talks to community groups with a total attendance of 110.

Mrs. Mildred Shipp served as health educator until the first of September. She resigned to continue her teaching career. Miss Betty Walker filled the position left vacant by Mrs. Shipp. During the year 36 newspaper articles were written. Pamphlets and health teaching materials have been furnished to the different schools in the county. The widespread interest in quick cures, medical short cuts, "pep-up" pills and the like is pretty good evidence that sound health education is urgently needed. The health educator gave 5 talks to various groups with a total attendance of 445.

At the present time, there are two public health nurses employed by the Boone County Health Department. They are Mrs. Mary Cress and Mrs. Helen Blank.

In the field of public health, we all have found enjoyment as well as heartache from our employment. Each day brings something new in the activities of the health department. The work changes from year to year. We have learned by experience to take the changes in stride and really get much enjoyment from our work in the public health field.

We welcome your constructive criticism and any suggestions that might help us render better service.

We extend to you a personal invitation to visit us and to become better acquainted with your health department staff and its activities.

Southern's Rail-Highway Service has grown up!

THE INFANT, "growing-pains" days are behind us now. Our rapidly expanding Rail-Highway Service makes available to Southern shippers today a "grown-up" piggyback service developed, organized and operated by key personnel selected for their specialized knowledge and experience in both rail and motor carrier transportation.

Southern now has 646 aluminum containers, forty of which are insulated and equipped with modern machinery for freezing and heating. To transport the containers over the highway, we have 391 trailer chassis. Containers can be taken off the chassis for rail movement, or containers and chassis can remain together and move in trailer units. Service is available to a growing number of cities along our lines and to most important off-line cities.

Today on the Southern we are trying in every way possible to furnish efficient, low-cost, competitively priced transportation so vital to the growing South and its future. We are constantly seeking to increase our usefulness to our customers. Doing this, we automatically increase our value and usefulness to the South as well. Our modern Rail-Highway Service - combining the best of both rail and highway transportation in one convenient package - is still another way we are doing just that. There will be many more - and all in the South will benefit.

Schools Should Teach Morals, Educators Say

Three Kentucky sectarian educators, speaking at a recent University of Kentucky conference on moral and spiritual values, agreed that public schools can and should play a leading role in the character development of children. They were unanimous in the opinion that the teaching of moral and spiritual values in public schools need not infringe upon the Constitutional requirement for separation of church and state. Such principles can be taught successfully, the educators held, without resorting to sectarian teachings. The speakers were Dr. Rollin S. Burhans, a Baptist, president of Kentucky Southern College, Louisville; Dr. John A. Reifsnnyder, Catholic, associate professor of education at Villa Madonna College, Covington, and Dr. Herbert S. Waller, rabbi of Adath Israel Temple, Louisville. Each of the educators emphasized the great need for increased attention to the teaching of moral and spiritual values. Said Dr. Burhans: "Since World War I, there has been a moral breakdown in civilization." Father Reifsnnyder declared that "America is on the brink of a moral precipice." Rabbi Waller asserted that "the crisis of our age is a crisis of values."

Boone County Republican Club Holds Meeting

The Boone County Republican Club held their regular monthly meeting Monday evening at Southern Trails Restaurant.

Committees were appointed for a county wide registration campaign and plans for the annual country style picnic August 12th were made.

Senator Thurston B. Morton and Clyde Middleton, candidate for Congress will be guest speakers. All interested parties are invited. The place for the picnic will be announced later.

Walton Firemen To Hold Picnic August 10-11

On Friday and Saturday night August 10th and 11th the firemen will hold a picnic on their training grounds on High School Court. There will be booths and refreshments and rides for the kiddies.

This picnic will differ from previous picnics as there will be no wheels and no booths of gambling, only games of skill, watch this paper for more details.

This picnic was a last resort when all efforts by the local Volunteers to raise money to open their bowling lanes failed.

Also this year the firemen are raising two crops of tobacco, both crops are doing well, and the firemen are proud of their crops, and would like to use this medium to thank everyone who made it possible for us to have this tobacco, those who gave us plants, who helped prepare the ground, those who loaned us farm equipment to set the tobacco and everyone who in any way made it possible for us to get these two crops set out. Your kindness is appreciated and will long be remembered.

The firemen need barn room for 1.3 acres of tobacco, if you have barn room and want to donate or rent it to the firemen contact Chick Worthington at Ryan Hardware and Implement Co.

The Firemen have 8 new American LaFrance Pressurized Dry Chemical Fire Extinguishers, all are brand new in their original boxes. These extinguishers are ideal for your boat, truck, farm equipment or around the house or barn, special price only $11.99. See any fireman.

Remember your Fire Dept. in this time of great need, if you are going to be away on vacation or will be unable to attend the picnic and would like to help them out, drop your donation in the mail today to Walton Fire Dept., Walton, Ky.

GRAND OPENING

The Grand Opening of Stewart's Restaurant, Independence, Ky., will be held Saturday, July 14th. Free desert and drinks will be served with lunch, also suckers and balloons for the kiddies.

Councilor Attends Meeting

Emma M. Whiting No. 56 Daughters of America, was honored at the regular meeting Monday, July 9, by the attendance of the State Councilor, Mrs. Esther Meyers who presented her new Deputy of Emma M. Whiting No. 56 to the Council, Mrs. Edith Haggard.

Kentuckians Urged To Register Before Sept. 9 Deadline

Secretary of State Henry Carter today urged unregistered Kentuckians to register before Sept. 9 to vote in the Nov. 6 general election.

State law provides that voters register in county clerk's offices or in temporary branch offices. Eligible Boone Counties who are not sure where to register should check with the county clerk in the court house at Burlington.

Carter, chairman of the State Registration and Purgation Board, said registration books in county court-houses will be closed Sept. 9 through Nov. 11. State law requires the books be closed 59 days prior to and five days after an election.

The State Constitution provides that "every citizen of the United States of the age of 18 years who has resided in the state one year, and in the county six months, and in the precinct in which he offers to vote 60 days next preceding the election, shall be a voter in said precinct and not elsewhere."

Persons who will reach 18 years of age by the Nov. 6 election may register, Carter pointed out, before the Sept. 9 deadline.

O, God—Why?

Lesson for July 15, 1962

DOES it seem to you that this world doesn't make sense? Move over; you've got company. The bench that will seat all the people who find this world a maddening puzzle, will have to be a long one. And you will find distinguished company there. Here comes a man in the robes of a far-away land. Yet you can tell from the look in his eye Dr. Foreman that he is one of the world's truly distinguished men. For he has about him the look of a genuine prophet, a man of God. Habakkuk does not come to the inquirer's bench at first like a man with all the answers. He brings questions, not answers. The few pages that remain to us of his prophecies are unique, for other prophets come to us with their minds made up; Habakkuk (so to speak) makes up his mind in public. The answer he seeks comes to him, not from him.

A Time of Violence

Habakkuk breaks out with a cry of "how long?" and "why?" He lived in the time when the nation of Judah was in the grip of what today we call a crime wave... only that was more like a tide. It was a time of violence, of brutality and lawlessness, of perverted "justice." What Habakkuk cannot understand is why God does not at once put a stop to it. He was not the first nor the last man to be so discouraged about the state of the world that he gives up hope of human help and believes that only some sudden act of God can sweep the many evils aside and usher in peace and justice. But God stays his hand. It seems clear to Habakkuk that God will not intervene,—and this only adds to his desperation. God does not always do what we want him to do, and, particularly, God does not always do what we want him to do when we want him to do it. We are like children—impatient if God does not operate on our schedule. But God has his own plans and times. He never comes too late.

Scourge of God

Now the Lord gives Habakkuk an answer, an amazing answer. "I am rousing the Chaldeans," God tells the prophet. That would be as shocking in Habakkuk's ears as if some one were to tell us that God is rousing the Russians. Chapter 1:5-11 gives a grim picture of the Chaldeans. Any Israelites would have agreed 100% with it. This was a cruel, strong, ruthless, plundering, tyrannical, atheist nation. They are well armed, "they come for violence; terror of them goes before them." God does not paint them in pretty colors. What would seem strange and incredible to Habakkuk is not the darkly violent description of the Chaldeans, the nation all other nations feared and hated; what Habakkuk would find all but impossible to believe was that God would stir them up.

Yet that was the fact. Those cruel people were "the scourge of God," to punish the people of God for their own sins. The prophet's question, we remember, was, Why doesn't God do something about the sinfulness of this nation? God's answer is: I am even now preparing a terrible scourge with which to lash this people for their crimes. And the name of the scourge is—Chaldeans!

A Lesson for Faith

This answer still does not satisfy the unhappy prophet. How is it that a just and good God, to say nothing of his wisdom,—how is it he will use such a wicked nation as the Chaldeans to punish his own people? Space fails to tell all that Habakkuk learned in this time of crisis about the ways of God. One thing was that God is in control. He sets bounds to evil. Neither on this earth nor anywhere in his creation does God offer his throne to Satan. Nowhere does God relinquish control.

Another thing the prophet learns is that we have to look beneath the surface of things to see the truth. All things must be judged, not by what can be seen in a moment's glance, but by the long run. Habakkuk learns that God does not pay all his accounts in October, but God does pay. "The arrogant man shall not abide," as Hitler's ghost could tell you. He who would understand the ways of God must be a patient man of faith, for the man of faith, in contact with the mighty God, shall forever live.

FISHERMEN

Dad and Butch are both getting a big kick out of this. If Butch catches a fish—even a minnow—it's hard to say who will be the prouder.

We suspect, though, that it will be Dad. He'd probably give this little man all the fish in the ocean, if he could!

He is giving him things that really count. Good clean fun and happiness, a sense of sportsmanship, and that special man-to-man bond between father and son. And because his son means so much to him, Dad takes Butch to the services of their church each week.

Boys have to do a lot of growing to get to be men. It takes a lot to keep them growing the right way. Weekly church and church school attendance is a big step forward. Don't keep your child from taking it!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

U. A. Geographic Chairman Named For Business Division

Appointment of top Boone, Campbell and Kenton county chairmen in the geographic business division of the United Appeal for the Community Chest and Red Cross has been announced by Arthur E. Match, general chairman for Northern Kentucky, and Stanley W. Britton, Kentucky geographic business chairman.

The United Appeal supports 126 volunteer health, welfare and character building agencies. The goal for the campaign, which opens officially on September 4, has been set at $7,005,437.

Some $61,000 of the increase is for six new agencies, including the Campbell County Boys' Club, which recognizes the need for a supervised program for underprivileged boys."

Registration of other entries will be on Wednesday, 2:00 to 7:00 p. m., except fresh foods, which should be registered on Thursday morning at 8:30, and continue through 10:00, when judging of exhibits will start.

Also, the Dairy Show will start at 10 a. m., according to W. J. Scott, superintendent.

John E. Crigler, president of the Fair Board, stated that this will be the 30th annual fair, with the complete program for four days, ending with an English Saddle Horse Show on Saturday night, August 18.

Undergoes Surgery

Word was received recently by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Auton that their son, R. W. Cooke, of the Philippine Islands, underwent surgery, but is improving nicely. Mr. Cooke and family have been living near Basa Airfield, in the Philippines, for nearly two years. He is a General Electric representative. They lived on Manor Drive, Taylor Mill Pike, before they left.

Gets M. P. Training

Pvt. Jerry E. Kinman

Army Private Jerry E. Kinman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Kinman, Route 1, Dry Ridge, recently completed eight weeks of military police training at The Provost Marshal General School, Ft. Gordon, Ga. Kinman was instructed in such subjects as civil and military law, traffic control, map reading, prisoner-of-war control and self-defense. The 21-year-old soldier entered the Army last January. He attended Grant County High School.

Matter To Be Placed On November Ballot

The more than 1,000 members of the Boone County Hospital Association and hundreds of others who are solidly behind this progressive program for our community, were elated when members of our Fiscal Court approved and voted unanimously that the matter be placed on the November ballot for the approval by the voters. It is felt that with this endorsement and the offers of support that have come from the many other civic minded groups in the county, the dream of a new hospital for Boone County can become a reality. Let's all plan now to go to the polls in November and vote "Yes" and keep in mind that the Hill-Burton people are standing with a check for approximately $500,000, ready to present it whenever we indicate that we are all pulling together for one of the greatest institutions any community can have.

Evidence of the sincerity of those who are working towards this goal was the Boone County Hospital Association display at the very successful Florence Lions Club Festival held at the Latonia Race Track on July 5-6-7. Hundreds of people saw and visited the Hospital tent, where Registered Nurses were on hand at all times and complete First Aid facilities were provided by the Red Cross. Members of the Hospital Board were also present to explain the new hospital plans and answer questions. The erection and manning of this exhibit was an example of the teamwork of this dedicated group.

Much credit for the entire hospital program is due Mrs. Phillip Farranti. As chairman, of the committee and ably assisted by Ralph Smith and John Stemler, she has proven her excellence as a planner and supervisor. By her direction the tent was purchased, lettered, equipped and erected. Many people came to her assistance and the carpenter work was done by Carl Parker and Phillip Farranti of Florence. Material and labor for the counters were furnished by the Walton Lumber Company. Much of the sewing on curtains, chair covers, etc., was done by Mrs. Chester Edwards of Florence. Mr. Bradstreet of Red Cross came forward with the offer of coats, sheets, pillows, stretchers and medical supplies. Dr. J. F. Daugherty assisted in scheduling the

Boone County Boy On Jungle Mission In Brazil for Summer

Having departed from the Greater Cincinnati Airport shortly after midnight, July 14, and after having landed at four Central and South American countries, Ray Prigge arrived at Belem, Brazil, at 7:00 p. m., the same day, to carry out an interesting summer assignment.

From Belem, Ray will travel by Jeep and boat several hundred miles up the Amazon River to a point where a group of Brazilian farmers are attempting to clear an area in the dense jungle and make the land tillable. Here Ray will find himself among people who speak only the Portuguese language, and who have almost completely lost touch with civilization. He will live with them in thatched huts and exist for the most part on the fish, animals and fruits that are found in that part of the world. His work will be to aid these people with the training that he has received in the field of agronomy, and which will include soil testing, forestry, sanitation and related subjects.

In view of the fact that much of this area has not been explored by man and remains virgin jungle, Ray looks forward with great interest to this unusual assignment. He will return in the fall to resume his studies for his Masters Degree at the University of Kentucky.

Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Prigge, who reside on Route 42, south of Union, and his assignment in Brazil is being sponsored by the Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard—356-5858

Mrs. Charles Colcord of Williams-town, who underwent major surgery last Friday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, is doing very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. William Binder and son visited with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nunery of Roselawn, Friday evening.

Mrs. Ralph Howard received word this week that her brother and wife, who reside at Indianapolis, are leaving their home there and going to California with their daughters to make their home.

The wedding of Miss Nancy Turner of Sidney Drive and Mr. Kenneth Gosney of Independence, took place Saturday evening at the Calvary Baptist Church. We wish both of these couples lots of happiness in their marriage.

The rains did a lot of damage in Kenton County, especially at Sand-fordtown, where the creek waters turned over trailer homes and tore houses apart and cost lots of loss in every way. Our sympathy is extended to all those who were in that territory and lost their homes.

Patriotism

Lesson for July 22, 1962

PATRIOTISM is called love of one's country, but it means more than that. "Country" can mean hills and valleys, rivers and mountains, as we sing in our hymn "My Country, 'tis of Thee . . ." But while these physical surroundings can stir our hearts (and even plain and ugly landscapes can seem beautiful if they spell Home), real patriotism means a love and loyalty to the people who live in the land, our fellow-citizens.

Patriot In Jail

In our time the accusation is sometimes brought against the Christian ministry that it is unpatriotic, which in the present situation usually means "communist." This accusation is wildly false, but it is not new. Men of God—just because they were true men of God—have been called bad names like traitor, more than once. A notable example is the Biblical prophet Jeremiah. He was easily the most unpopular man in the country. Few believed him or believed in him. From the ruling class right down to the masses, he was considered to be a bad character. More than once he was put in jail or under house arrest as a dangerous character. Yet he was, as history acclaims him, one of the great patriots of the Jewish people.

How do we know he was a patriot if his contemporaries could not see him in that light? For one thing, we now know, as his contemporaries would have known in time, that he was right. What he said would come true, did come true.

Realism

Another reason why we can see that he was a real patriot was that he did not pretend that all was well with his nation. He was brave and clear-sighted enough to speak out against abuses in church and state. He swung a strong axe against the trees of evil that overshadowed the land. He talked very plainly about the sins and crimes of men at the top. He did not even pretend to believe that his country could come out victorious after any war they chose to get into. He did not agree that God loved the children of Israel better than he loved any other nation, or that only in Israel could servants of God be found. He even publicly called Nebuchadnezzar, an invading king, a servant of God. About the future of his country he had no illusions. He saw that their only hope was to yield to Nebuchadnezzar and to become a part of their empire; but this the Israelites could not think of doing. Their recipe for national security was military alliance with Egypt, a suicidal policy as Jeremiah tried to tell them. So they accused Jeremiah of being an enemy of his country. But how much is a country helped by people who can never see anything wrong in it?

A True Patriot

In all the hullabaloo over Jeremiah, people in his city either did not know, or would not notice, some facts that marked the man as a genuine patriot. For one thing, he went to some trouble to buy land, in an area already controlled by invading armies. The prophet thus expressed in a practical (and expensive) way his conviction that (so to speak) there would always be a Judah. Furthermore, though we know he had opportunities to do so, he never went over or "defected" as we say, to the Babylonians. And at the end, so as to stay with his own people, he chose banishment, poverty and death rather than live in comfort in Babylon. In the one-sided war between his country and Babylon, he could see that Babylon was stronger by far; but his own people were his own, and he loved them.

Prof. Harold Berman once said: "If we really want to defeat communism there is only one way to do it . . . It is the one thing that people who talk about fighting communism generally fail to mention. We must construct a social order in which the goals of justice, mercy and morality take precedence over economic security, political power and technological progress." Some would call the writer of such lines no patriot; but what he says is in the noble tradition of Jeremiah the prophet.

Give Us This Day

Harvest time makes a man think.

The bread God gives us has to be cut, threshed, shipped, baked, wrapped and delivered before it ever reaches our mouths. And long before, it had to be sowed in a ploughed field, cultivated, irrigated, and fretted over a thousand times.

Lots of work in it for man. No gift wrapping with a ribbon around it.

But don't think we could get along without God! Leave out His part and there would be no harvest — no point in all our work.

So wheat inspires worship! And every Sunday in Church reminds us that we never labor alone . . . that our labors gain fruitfulness from God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

Slime Mold In Lawns No Cause For Alarm

A condition in home lawns called slime mold may soon appear, but there is no cause for alarm. No lasting damage is caused by the mold says E. M. Johnson, U.K. Ag Experiment plant pathologist.

Sometimes, after wet weather, Johnson says, patches of a bluish-gray, powdery mold may appear in scattered areas of the lawn. Leaves and stems of grasses, clover, plantain, dandelion, and other plants may be covered with the mold. When plants are shaken, clouds of the spores can be seen in the air.

The molds generally appear in rainy periods during two or three weeks in July and August. Shortly after the rains cease, the molds disappear, without having caused any appreciable harm.

Tips Given by UK On Burley Cultivation

Kentucky burley fields are approaching the stage of growth now when cultivation of fields—to cut weeds and grasses, and break up crusted soil—should be stopped.

When plants are 12 to 15 inches high and leaf-length averages 12 to 15 inches, or more, says Ira Massie, UK Ag Extension Service specialist, cultivation should stop. Plowing will delay growth and retard plant development due to root-pruning. Use a hoe for weeds and grasses in and around plants, he advises.

When field cultivation is possible, Massie says, and work with machinery after the first cultivation should be "shallow." That is, farmers should use implements suitable for light cultivation and which will not dig deep into the earth and prune roots. One such device is the spike-tooth harrow.

Don't work wet soil, and remember that if black shank is a problem, the infection can be carried to other fields on implements and equipment such as wagons, tractors, etc. It also can be carried from field to field on workers' shoes.

This summer the colorful musical drama, "The Stephen Foster Story," goes into its fourth season (June 23-Sept. 3) at My Old Kentucky Home State Park, Bardstown.

Albright Training Union

The Albright Training Union of First Baptist Church, Walton, had a cook-out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Greene, on Saturday, July 7th.

Members present and families were: Mr. and Mrs. Henson, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Struve, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Gouge, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kacaba, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Husnik, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duchemin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Soden, and guests, Bro. and Mrs. J. R. Tackett and son, Danny.

Food Poisoning Is Summer Danger!

Food poisoning can spoil many outings and vacations this summer, warns the Boone County Department of Health. Health authorities estimate there are as many as 1,000,000 cases of preventable food poisoning each year in the United States. The California State Department of Health reports 100,000 cases annually in that state alone.

The most frequent cause of food poisoning is failure to keep foods properly refrigerated in warm weather. This applies to cooked as well as uncooked foods. Outbreaks have even resulted from placing cooked chickens on tables previously used for uncooked chickens.

For example, at a large company annual picnic in Indiana, during August, 1959, the lunch included baked ham sandwiches. After the ham was cooked it was allowed to remain unrefrigerated for some time before serving. At the height of the picnic about 1,000 of the 1,700 picnickers were stricken with abdominal cramps, nausea, vomiting and diarrhea. The two hospitals in the area were quickly swamped and a local armory and high school were put into emergency service.

United States Public Health Service scientists have shown that bacteria commonly causing food poisoning will grow and multiply in foods at temperatures as low as 42 degrees Fahrenheit. Perishable foods should therefore be stored at no higher than 40 degrees.

In addition to poultry and meat, particularly processed meats, foods most commonly affected are fish, custards, and cream-filled pastries. Although highly distressing, food poisoning is usually not serious and seldom fatal. At the first sign, which is usually sudden, call a doctor and is possible, go to bed.

BOONE HOSPITAL IS ONE STEP NEARER REALITY

nurses, and Mr. C. C. Wallard of the Latonia track was always on hand to assist in every way possible. Also deserving much credit for the part they played by being on duty and serving those who needed it, were the following nurses of our community. From Florence, Mrs. Sarah Sayre, Mrs. Ann Gray, Mrs. Elizabeth Rouse, Mrs. Gloria Ralsen, Mrs. Chester Edwards, Mrs. Jean Burns, Mrs. Kenneth Perkins; from Hebron, Mrs. Howard Ravenscraft, Mrs. Bess Kottmyer, Mrs. Robert Greene; from Union, Mrs. Kitty Flaig; from Erlanger, Mrs. Ruth Burns; and from Covington, Miss Wilma Wilson.

Plans for being represented at the Boone County Fair with a similar exhibit will be discussed at the next meeting of the Hospital Board, and it is expected that further plans will be considered. The Fiscal Court will employ an architect in the very near future, and it is expected that progress will be stepped up from that point and construction begun in 1963. Present plans are for a modern completely equipped hospital of 50 beds, with central facilities for expansion to 100 beds when required.

U.S. Dept. of Agriculture food specialists say that high fat content is not essential to produce good eating quality in cooked lamb and that lean cuts can be tender.

KENTUCKIANS

in WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

Some Humor:

Even though Congress is behind schedule, some humor has crept into proceedings. Republicans have accused the Democrats of trying to capture the great Kentuckian, Abraham Lincoln.

Recently, two Democrats from Indiana jammed through Congress a bill setting up a Lincoln National Boyhood Memorial in Spencer County, Indiana. That led to charges of kidnapping the GOP patron saint.

Yes, the Democrats admit we are trying to take over. But you, they charge the Republicans, are trying to kidnap Thomas Jefferson.

Another Story:

All these developments brought up another story about Lincoln. Seems as though a cabinet officer rushed to the president to announce that "two of your friends, are saying scandalous things about you and are making derogatory remarks."

Whereupon the Kentuckian replied, "That's strange! I can't remember doing any favors for them."

Such, even in those days, was the life of a politician.

Industrial Development:

Kentucky's drive to get new industry has won national attention. Therefore, some figures from the Department of Commerce might prove interesting.

There are, says Uncle Sam, about 400 industries who are seeking new plant sites each year. And there are 14,000 organizations and communities trying to entice those industries into their areas.

All of which is to say that competition is keen and you've really got to put your best foot forward.

Sunday Driving:

Those who take those Sunday trips with the family often return home exhausted. And there's good reason for it, if figures from the Federal Bureau of Public Roads can be accepted.

For example, in Kentucky alone there are more than 1,280,000 driver's licenses in force. And it seems that on some Sundays everybody is out.

California, incidentally, taps the nation with more than nine million drivers. New York is second and Pennsylvania third. Ohio has almost 5 million and Indiana 2.3 million.

Whatever the style of cooking, eggs respond best to low heat. To hard-cook eggs for summer salads and other dishes, start the eggs in cold water. Heat just to simmering. Then lower the heat, cover, and let the eggs barely simmer for about 20 minutes. Run cold water over the eggs right away to stop cooking and prevent a dark ring from forming around the yolk.

New Bethel WMS Meets

The W. M. S. of New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, met Tuesday, July 10, for its regular meeting with 18 members present. The devotional was led by Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Vevie Webster and Mrs. Alice Chapman.

An interesting program, the topic of which, "They That Keep My Ways," was led by Mrs. Mary Porter and assisted by the following members: Mrs. Dorothy Porter, "The Baptist Way"; Mrs. Gladys Alford, "The Way On Home Fields"; Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, "The Way On Evangelism"; Mrs. Elizabeth Kemper, "The Way In Stewardship," and Mrs. Blanche Ransom, "Let Me Introduce."

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Gwendolyn Dunn, and opened by repeating in unison the watchwords for the year.

Mrs. Blanche Ransom acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Dora Burchett.

The Hickory Grove Church will act as hostess for the W. M. U. quarterly meeting July 24, at 10 a. m. Bring your sandwich and meet at the church by 9:30 a. m. Ways will be provided for those in need of transportation. Let's win the banner for attendance!

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Tallent, Editor—356-2589

Mrs. Edith Piper and Mrs. Farie Cooper vacationed recently in Florida and Nassau.

The Taylor Mill Volunteer Dept. Festival had to be cancelled because of the rain and will be held next weekend.

The biggest news in the County is the terrible flood along Banklick Creek. The Ray Cain family who have lived in this area, first on Hands road and later in Taylor, and who recently bought a house on Bullock Penn Road were practically washed out. The creek came up almost to their second floor in a wall of water and ruined everything in the house. One house on LLL highway was washed away, and so many trailers ruined. We think of the destruction of atom bombs, but the forces of nature can bring havoc in the wink of an eye also.

Mrs. Thelma Tomlin cut her hand while picking up broken glass at her laundry, and had to have 3 stitches taken in it.

Bob and Dick Richardson had a bicycle wreck on Lipscomb Road last Wednesday and both of them suffered a lot of abrasions and Dick went into shock, scaring his Mother badly. They are both sore, but are getting along fine now.

Bro. M. M. McFarland visited Bro. and Mrs. George Kelly last week and attended church at Oak Ridge Baptist Church on Sunday. He left Monday for his sons' home in Ga., and then will return to his home in Fla.

Mrs. Bill Harris and children returned this week from a long vacation in Florida where they visited her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carter and children returned to their home in Florida after a lengthy visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins have returned from a 7 months sojourn in Long Beach, Miss., but will only be here about a month before returning to Mississippi.

Mrs. Shirley Tallent and son Kevin returned Saturday evening from a two weeks visit with relatives in Mississippi.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the members of the M. Y. F., wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to those who donated cakes, pies, money, and came to our festival.

Elm Tree Defoliation
Due to "Combination"

Defoliation of elm trees, apparently occurring over the state now, can be caused by a combination of several things, says R. A. Chapman, UK Ag Experiment Station plant pathologist.

Chapman attributes the defoliation to this combination: Low vigor by the elm trees to start with, perhaps caused by nearby paved areas, extensive construction work as is occurring at the UK campus now (where the condition has been noticed), elm mosaic disease and presence of a leaf-spotting fungus called Phyllosticta.

"The Phyllosticta disease is necessary for the condition," Chapman says. "The other disturbances are probably contributing factors."

Most of the affected trees will benefit from applications of fertilizer. Put the fertilizer—any commercial type—in holes spaced about 2 feet apart all around the tree. Punch these holes under the branches, beginning about 3 feet out from the trunk. Use about 2 to 4 pounds of fertilizer for each inch of three-trunk diameter. Measure the trunk diameter about four feet from the ground.

Hog Cholera Vaccination Is Again Urged by U. S.

Kentucky hog producers are urged again to vaccinate their pigs against cholera.

The anti-cholera campaign, says Grady Sellards, UK Ag Extension Service swine specialist, is the U. S. D. A.'s continuing program against the costly disease. Eventual eradication is the goal.

Dr. R. J. Anderson, USDA Agricultural Research Service, points out that vaccination of pigs in transit (shipment) is particularly important. "Pigs in shipment have a greater chance of exposure to the disease." There are proposed regulations to require cholera vaccination for all feeding and breeding swine shipped across state lines.

Only about 45 percent of U. S. hogs are now immunized against cholera, Sellards said. Generally, vaccination is done two weeks after weaning.

There were more than 5,000 outbreaks of hog cholera in the U. S. last year, in some 46 states. The disease costs the industry about $50 million a year. It kills more pigs after weaning age than any other single swine disease.

Kentucky Hunters And Fishermen Are Abundant Providers

Kentucky's hunters and fishermen are providers of meat for the table far beyond the expectations of the housewives of the Commonwealth, according to a survey conducted by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

Value of meat, harvested from the fields and streams each year amounts to almost six million dollars and even that figure may be low, the charts and tables used in the statewide roundup reveal.

Almost as surprising as the overall worth of this food is the fact that over two-thirds of the valuation is provided by game killed in the fields, this being $3,964,221.75, while fishes from Kentucky waters that reached the tables were valued at $1,937,925.55, bringing the overall food valuation from fish and wild animals and birds to $5,937,147.30.

The meat from the fields was valued at 75 cents per pound while the price tag put on the fishes read 35 cents per pound. (Of course, much of this fish product and of the game harvested cannot be sold or bought, but the valuation still is there, notwithstanding.)

Research shows that during 1961-62 hunting season almost a million and one-half rabbits were harvested at a gross weight of 2,955,678 pounds; gray squirrels harvested totaled 1,672,770, with a weight of 1,254,577 pounds; All species were tabulated in this manner with the gross weight of the various species as follows: quail, 235,440; fox squirrel, 410,822; deer, 210,080; ducks, 118,244; geese 59,395; grouse, 40,025; woodcock, 1,284, and turkey 84 pounds, bringing the combined weight of all these species to 5,285,629 pounds. This multiplied by the 75 cents per pound valuation sets the total worth at $3,964,221.75.

From the fishing standpoint it was determined that there were 316,398 persons who purchased fishing licenses during 1960. And according to creel censuses taken in all sections of the state and in all types of fishing, each fisherman fished an average of 15 times that year with a catch of 45 fish on these trips. Their weight multiplied by the number of fish harvested revealed that each fisherman caught 13.5 pounds of fish that year. Thus it was found that the total weight of fish harvested was 4,271,373, at an average price of 35 cents per pound, or a valuation of $1,494,980.55. That was the value of fish harvested by sports fishermen. The commercial boys sold $477,945 worth of fish, bringing the total value of fish caught in one-year period to $1,972,925.55.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—359-4441

(Too Late for Last Week)

Miss Emma Yates is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Crawford, of Maysville.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp enjoyed a long weekend in the Smoky Mountains.

Howard Noel visited relatives in Owenton, Ky., recently.

Mrs. Gladys Byrne tells us she is due for a rest and has chosen the two weeks from July 28 to Aug. 14.

A real treat came to those who attended the W.S.C.S. meeting at the home of Mrs. J. J. Barnett, on Thursday evening. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Don Keeney, vice president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Dewey Parsons, program chairman, then introduced Miss Wynona King, a missionary home on furlough from Nigeria. She showed such interesting slides of scenes in that country and told much of the life and needs of these people where she is a teacher in a teachers' college. She also had a most interesting display of the excellent handwork of the people of that country. Miss King will return to her field the first part of next year and we wish her to know that our thoughts and prayers go with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snowden and children and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brueggan and daughters left recently for a vacation in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and sons are on a vacation in New Orleans, La.

Vastine-Hoffman

Miss June Vastine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Vastine, of Whites Tower, became the bride of Mr. Howard Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hoffman, of Staffordsburg Road, on Saturday afternoon, July 14. The ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. Elmer Kidwell, on Richwood Road. A reception was given in the evening at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple have an apartment at 38th and Decoursey, Latonia. Best wishes go with them.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

The Staffordsburg Homemakers Club enjoyed the annual picnic on Tuesday of last week. We met, quite a carefree bunch, at the beautiful picnic grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fredericks at White Villa. As a special treat for the day we had a caterer to prepare the luncheon. We all missed one of our members, Mrs. Mabel Vanlandingham, who has been seriously ill. Good news is that she is getting better. Swimming, softball, shuffle-board were enjoyed by the youngsters and some not so young.

Among those present, and I'm not sure I got all names, were: Martha

Ryland Homemakers

Mr. R. J. Robb conducted a guided tour through the Greater Cincinnati Airport of Boone County for the Ryland Homemakers Club on their outing day recently. Mr. Robb gave interesting facts on the airport, began commercial operations Jan. 10, 1947, started with 20 flights daily, now average 400 flights daily. The airport ranks 18th in the nation and consists of approximately 2000 acres of which 1200 is tillable, 750 acres are devoted to raising Blue Grass seed, Corn, Oats, Tobacco, Hay, Apples, Peaches and wheat are the principle crops grown. For those visitors who have never seen tobacco there are several round beds of it at the entrance of the grounds.

A courtesy visit through the Barkley House Motel was next on the agenda, and then the group motored to the picnic area of U.S. Dam 38 on the Ohio river, where lunch was enjoyed by the following Mesdames J. H. Busy homemakers like to do as much of their shopping as possible in one place. For this reason, many grocery stores also sell non-food items such as pots and pans and nylon hosiery. Such stores account for more than 90 percent of retail food sales.

Eastern Caterpillar In Peach, Fruit Trees

Peach and cherry trees of this state now are becoming the "home" of the Eastern tent caterpillar, a pest that makes unsightly, conspicuous silken nests in tree crotches and branches.

R. L. Miller, U. K. Ag Extension Service entomologist, says these caterpillars are distinctive looking and easily identified. At this time they are about an inch and a quarter long, have a white stripe running the length of the body on top, flanked by a gold band. The head is black, and the sides of the body have blue dots surrounded by black areas. Caterpillars have buff-colored tufts of hair of fuzz.

The pests feed on leaves of the cherry tree -- their favorite host tree -- or wherever they are located, then return to the web. Often they will leave the web to crawl on houses, driveways, sidewalks, etc. to find a place to change into adults. They are considered a first-class nuisance.

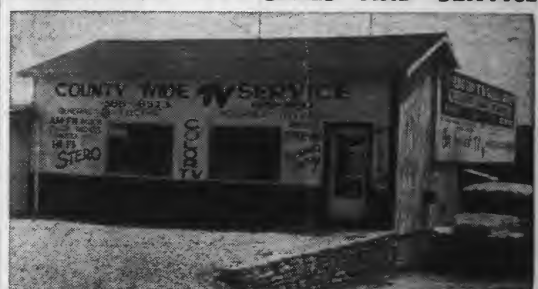

Control can be obtained by either removing the web from the crotch with a long stick, or by cutting off the host limb or branch. Torches also can be used to burn them out though this may be hazardous.

Trunks and leaves of trees can be sprayed with 50 percent strength DDT wettable powder at the rate of 3 tablespoonful per gallon of water. Use on trees where caterpillars are noticed.

Miller notes these caterpillars will not bite or harm children.

Smoke is the real killer in a fire. And crawling on the floor to escape the smoke is not the answer--poisonous gases lurk near the floor when a building is burning. Tests show that the purest air in a burning house is about four feet from the floor.

Beyond the Tears

Lesson for July 29, 1962

Dr. Foreman and dire predictions came true, and he was not surprised, though every one else was more than surprised, they were thunderstruck. But he did not rub it in. What the people did not realize was that he grieved over the tragedy and the tears of his people more than the people themselves, if possible. His fellow-citizens had long since typed him as a man who looked on the dark side of things by choice, indeed a man who enjoyed being gloomy, and took pleasure in other people's distress.

Life Goes On

A major disaster fell on the city of Jerusalem and the surrounding territory of Judah, when the army of Babylon marched in. Or rather when they marched away; for in returning to Babylon the army took with them a notable roster of V.I.P.'s. Think of it: Not only the king, the high executive, and all the palace staff both of officials and servants; but all the classes of the common people who had intelligence, strength and skill. Those who would be interested in seeing how a poet of those days looked at the desolation of his city, should read the "Lamentations" which are anonymous in the original, but which tradition ascribes to Jeremiah himself. It looked like a completely hopeless situation. Yet the prophet wrote a letter to the exiles, without a word of condemnation in it, encouraging them to settle down where they were, to build houses, plant gardens, live normal happy lives.

"A Future and a Hope"

One difference between dogs, cats and other beasts on the one side, and mankind on the other, is that the race of man lives much in the future and in the past. We are particularly unhappy when we see no future. Ours is a dark time for this reason; many shudder at the danger of the atomic age looming with sinister horror over the heads of all the little children of the world. The younger generation is peculiar in being the first younger generation in recorded time that was not envied by those who are older. What we desire, what we can scarcely find, is (in Jeremiah's words) a future and a hope. That was the two-fold promise that the prophet made to his defeated people: Can God make us the same promise today? Only a prophet could answer that question for certain. But one thing we may notice: The future for Israel, bright as it was destined to be (and this is regarded as one of the great Biblical prophecies yet to be fulfilled) was a future with an IF in it.

The New Covenant; the New Israel
The prophets of the Bible seldom explain their prophecies. They left it to the Holy Spirit, if He will, to illumine the minds of those who in future centuries would read these ancient prophecies. Now there are two prophecies of Jeremiah in particular, both of them messages of hope which the Christian generally understands as not ever completely fulfilled. They are partly fulfilled in each generation; but completely in none. One of these prophecies is that of the New Covenant (Chapter 31). Have we reached the time, has the world ever reached a time, when the law of God is written in all men's hearts, and when all men from the least to the greatest, shall know the Lord? No, we are a long way from this blessed future, to all appearances. Then that prophecy about the Branch: Has any one person ever fulfilled the words about the "righteous Branch"? Has any earthly monarch merited the title? The Christian Church thinks not; and so as the "New Israel" bound to God through the "new covenant" in Christ's blood, looks forward still to a new heaven wherein dwells righteousness.

FIRST DATE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It was in May, several years ago that Mildred moved next door. That was a break for Eric. It is so easy to get acquainted with one's neighbors.

The first date naturally called for careful strategy. You don't want to seem too eager — but you want to know what she likes ... and what she's like. Eric's and Mildred's first date was a Youth Fellowship supper at the church.

Eric happens to be a leader of this group. And Mildred happens to be an earnest Christian girl.

Of course, happens is a very broad word. It means that Eric's and Mildred's parents had once decided that a son or a daughter ought to be given the advantage of religious training.

Now Eric and Mildred are engaged. And everybody says they were meant for each other. And the altar before which they take their vows will be the heart of the religious life of their family. Thus it happens!

200,000 scapegoats

Rail operating workers have every right to be indignant and resentful. They have been the target of a hypocritical campaign of misinformation and distortion by railroad management, intent on making them the scapegoats for the industry's increasing failure to meet its public service obligations.

Is this "featherbedding"? Government statistics show that the productivity of rail operating employees has increased more than that of almost any other group of workers. Interstate Commerce Commission figures report a climb in revenue traffic units per man-hour-worked, from 731.9 in 1936 to 1488.6 in 1960—an increase of 103.4%.

Is this "featherbedding"? Railroadings is hazard-our even with a standard-size crew. Last year 62 railroad operating employees lost their lives and 10,410 were injured. Of the injured, many lost limbs or were otherwise permanently disabled. Cutting the crew size, as management now demands, would mean even more men killed and injured. Remember, railroad workers are on the job in all extremes of weather. Operating under quasi-military discipline, they have direct responsibility for the lives of fellow employees and the public as well, and for the safe movement of millions of dollars worth of equipment and property.

Is this "featherbedding"? The men who man the trains now work under burdensome conditions: irregular hours and work-days; on call for duty 24 hours a day, no differential pay for night work; inadequate overtime rates; no premium Sunday or holiday pay for road-train crews; no reimbursement for required away-from-home expense. Obviously there is a need for modernization of work rules where such conditions exist.

The "featherbedding" tag — the scapegoat role — clearly doesn't fit America's skilled, experienced rail-oaders. The labor organizations to which these work-ers belong are committed to setting the records straight.

Teenage boys gobble up more of the weekly food money than any other member of the family. In January 1962, the estimated cost of a week's food supply for one growing male, age 16 to 19, was $8.20. This was on a low-cost plan. If the family followed a "moderate" cost plan, his food bill would have been $11.20, and on a liberal plan, $12.60.

Tobacco Production In 1962 Forecast at 4 Percent Over '61

Production of all types of tobacco in the U. S. in 1962 is forecast at 2,141 million pounds, a jump of 4 percent above the 1961 production. U. S. burley tobacco production, which furnishes a big percentage of the U. S. total, is estimated at 610 million pounds for 1962 about 30 million pounds or 5 percent above the 1961 production.

Kentucky, the big burley producer, is expected to harvest some 13,000 more acres in 1962 than in 1961 for an estimated total yield of 397.6 million pounds, some 17,800 pounds above the 1961 production. These forecasts are in the U. K. Ag Extension Service agricultural economics department's bi-weekly business outlook letter, issued this week. The letter noted that the current U. S. crop is in good condition due to favorable weather in late winter and early spring.

Other crop category forecasts: Dark-Fired Tobacco: Overall production of Types 22 and 23 is expected to be up about 5 percent in 1962. In Kentucky, the Type 22 production is estimated at 6,400 acres compared to 6,300 in 1961, and Type 23, about 6,500 acres compared to 6,300 in 1961.

Corn: Estimated at 3.5 billion bushels in 1962 for the U. S., down slightly from 1961. Kentucky, 1962 acreage is estimated at 1,116,000 acres, about the same as 1961.

Hay: Estimated about the same levels in the U. S. as in 1961, but down slightly for Kentucky.

Soybeans: Estimated as increasing to about 215,000 acres in Kentucky in 1962, a 7 percent increase over 1961. U. S. acreage probably will be up about 2 percent.

U. A. Special Gifts Chairmen Named By Arthur E. Molch

The appointment of chairmen for the solicitation of special gifts in Kenton, Boone and Campbell Counties for the 1962-63 United Appeal in Northern Kentucky has been announced by Arthur E. Molch, general chairman for the United Appeal in Northern Kentucky, and Stanley W. Britton, geographic division chairman for Kentucky.

Mitchell, will head a similar group in Kenton County, while William W. Thomas, Jr., of 101 Orchard Hill Dr., Ft. Thomas, serves as chairman for Campbell County.

Teams headed by this trio will call upon those givers throughout the three northern counties, whose generosity to the United Appeal is a matter of continuing record.

This year's campaign for the support of 126 health, welfare and character building agencies seeks to raise $7,005,437. The campaign will kick-off officially on September 4th.

Mrs. Foote is a member of the board of the Northern Kentucky Mental Health Association, a United Appeal agency. She also has been active in the United Fine Arts campaigns, the Florence Women's Club, and the Cincinnati Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta.

Hughes is manager of a data processing research group for Proctor & Gamble. He has been an active campaigner for the United Appeal in Kenton for the past two years.

Thomas is manager of maintenance supplies and equipment in the buying department of Proctor & Gamble. He served as a campaigner in the Initial Gifts division of the UA campaign last year.

Fireman Burned In Blaze

Four volunteer firemen were burned slightly in battling a fire that destroyed a building formerly known as the Alpha Club on Madison pike at Bullock Pen road, Kenton County, early Monday.

The fire created such intense heat that trees 200 feet away were scorched, firemen said.

The injured firemen, who suffered burn on the shoulders or arms, were Harold Murphy, Ralph Hoppenjans, Ray Halten and Joseph Moss, all of the Independence Department.

Store sheets flat, with as few folds as possible and without a lot of weight on top. Cotton is less flexible than some other fibers and tends to wear along creases. For this reason, try not to fold sheets exactly the same way every time. Also, ironing in the folds is not wise. Extra pressure and strain at the fold can cause the fiber to weaken.

For pickled or spiced eggs, just drop peeled eggs into beet or sweet pickle juice and let stand to season for several hours or longer in the refrigerator.

R. S. CLEMENTS

Funeral services for Richard S. Clements, retired Pendleton County farmer, who died July 24th at the Dry Ridge Convalescent Home, were held last Friday at 2:00 p. m., in the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home. Burial was in the Bellevue Cemetery. Mr. Clements, 89, had been living at Demossville.

Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Glenora Wentworth, of Covington, and Mrs. Fleeta Sullivan, Boone County, and two sons, Harold Clements, of Demossville, and Lloyd Clements, of Walton.

Basket Picnic Planned

Senator Thurston Morton, who will seek reelection in November, will be at the "old fashioned basket picnic," to be held at the Vaughn Hemphill farm, 2 miles West of Constance, Ky., on Sunday, August 12, from 3:30 to 8:00 p. m.

Clyde Middleton, Republican candidate for Congress from the Fourth District of Kentucky, will also be present. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Completes Army Course

Army Pvt. Patrick A. Knaley, 24, whose wife, Mary Jane, lives at 23 Ridgeway Ave., Florence, recently completed the eight-week parts supply course at The Armor Center at Fort Knox.

Knaley entered the Army last February and completed basic training at the fort. A 1956 graduate of St. Henry High School, Erlanger, he was employed at Albers Super Market, Erlanger, prior to entering the Army.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Knaley, live at 58 Goodridge Dr., Florence.

Fellowship Meeting

The Assembly of God Church at Dry Ridge, Ky., on Old Lexington Pike, is having a fellowship meeting August 11th at 7:30 p. m.

Everyone is cordially invited to come and be with us on that date.

$7500 In Premiums, Awards and Prizes At Boone Co. Fair

Over $7500.00 will be paid in premiums, awards and prizes at the 30th annual 4-H and Utopia Fair, August 15-18, at Burlington.

The four-day and night fair will include exhibits, music, entertainment, and recreation that cannot be found anywhere except at an old-fashioned county fair.

There will be horse shows, pony shows, cattle shows, baby shows and beauty contests for the entertainment of the public.

According to Lillard Scott, the registration of horses is larger this year than usual with most of the barn space being taken. A new 24-stall horse barn is being built to accommodate the overflow of horses, according to John Cigler, president of the Fair Board.

Complete plans have been made for the Miss Boone County Fair Pageant, which will be held August 15 at 8:00 p. m. Those who wish to enter must do so at once. Call Robert Matheny, 586-6942.

FRAUD IS CHARGED AT AUTO RACE BOWL

A charge of fraud against the operator of an auto race bowl accused of refusing to refund admission prices after calling off races Saturday night, will be heard before Judge C. L. Cropper in Boone County Court.

Charles F. Buck, Dayton, O., alleged operator of the Northern Kentucky Race Bowl, U.S. 24, was arrested and jailed by Sheriff Melvin Collins after a near-riot at the track. State troopers quelled the disturbance.

State police said an announcement was made to the crowd that the sprinkler truck had broken down and as a result the track was so dusty that the races would not be run. The announcer said that the tickets would be honored Sunday.

Many of the patrons demanded their money. When they did not get it they commenced shouting and pushing, police said.

Many of the crop varieties being grown today weren't even known to farmers 10 years ago.

Second Oral Polio Clinic In County To Be Held August 5th

Fall Classes Are Scheduled by Red Cross In Cincinnati

The Cincinnati Area Red Cross announced today the scheduling of fall classes in "Mother and Baby Care," and "Care of the Sick and Injured," for local residents. Interested persons are urged to enroll now by calling Red Cross Nursing Services at 721-2665.

Helping to care for a new baby when he arrives won't be such an ordeal for a new father if he attends a Red Cross "Mother and Baby Care" course with his wife. Couples who are expecting their first baby are invited to register now for classes scheduled to begin Tuesday, Sept. 4; Wednesday, Sept. 5; Thursday, Sept. 6, and Monday, Sept. 17. Each class will meet for two hours, 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., once a week for six weeks.

Fathers, as well as mothers become adept at changing diapers, and learn simple holds to be used when bathing, feeding, or carrying the baby. A film and instruction in the mouth-to-mouth method of artificial resuscitation and knowledge of how to guard against infection and communicable disease are also important phases of the baby care training.

For homemakers, two classes in "Care of the Sick and Injured" will commence on Friday, Sept. 7. Classes will meet once a week for seven weeks with a choice of an afternoon class, 1:30 to 3:30 p. m., or an evening class, 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. These classes cover a variety of home nursing procedures, and includes a section on disaster nursing and another on do-it-yourself construction of sick-room items from materials in the home.

These six classes will be taught at the Red Cross Memorial Building, 720 Sycamore Street, by specially trained Red Cross nurses who will help class members learn these skills in classes and have the chance to discuss procedures, watch them demonstrated, and practice them.

Nursing Service is one of 16 Red Cross services supported through the United Appeal, the joint fund campaign of the Red Cross and the Community Chest.

Walton Kindergarten Registration Today

Kindergarten registration for the coming year will be held today, Thursday, August 2, from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m., in the kindergarten room at the Walton Baptist Church. The registration fee is $2.00. Tuition is $8.00 without transportation, and $11.00 with transportation within the city limits.

A child must be 5 years old before December 31, 1962, to attend.

This is a State approved kindergarten and Mrs. Queenie Webster will be director again this year.

State Income Tax Refund Checks Are Mailed Kentuckians

State income-tax refund checks—399,022 of them—have been mailed to Kentucky taxpayers for their 1961 returns, according to Kentucky Revenue Commissioner James Marcum. Three thousand more refund claims are still under investigation by the State Department of Revenue.

The refund checks total $8,520,975, compared with $8,877,911 refunded to 404,424 taxpayers during the same period last year.

Marcum said the procedure of making investigations before paying the questionable refunds saves money and time in the long run. The Federal Government usually pays the refunds and asks questions later, but this involves a much greater volume of returns, he said.

Last year 49,804 claims were carried over into the 1961-62 fiscal year and were paid after July 1, 1961. These refunds totaled $1,572,741. During the present month, only 15,588 refunds totaling $684,751 have been authorized.

Marcum said the smaller carry-over is due mainly to the fact that fewer refund claims were filed this year than last. The lower number of claims reflects cuts made in the State income-tax when the 3 percent sales tax was levied last year.

During fiscal year 1961-62, individuals paid $36,969,433 in State income taxes, compared with $48,350,417 for 1960-61.

Officials also wish to remind everyone that those who missed Type III should start now with Type I and pick up the Type III later from some other source.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Botes returned recently from a vacation in McKenzie and Greenfield, Tenn.

Mrs. Alma Yates and Miss Emma Yates visited relatives in Ohio on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Asch and children spent several days last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Ballard Peyton, in Charleston, W. Va.

The Oak Ridge Baptist Church voted to continue their revival until next Friday, Aug. 3rd. If you want to hear some good revival preaching and singing, come to the services, which are at 8 o'clock each evening.

Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins.

Mrs. Chester Tallent and son, Kevin, drove to Camp Cedarmore on Friday and brought Linda Hallingsworth from Oak Ridge and four girls from Verona, home from G.A. Camp.

We were glad to hear that Mrs. Florence Barnes is improving from her recent operations and has been able to be up and about some the past few days.

The North Bend Association WMU meeting which was held at Hickory Grove Baptist Church last Tuesday was very successful. There were more members present than have attended a summer meeting in several years, and the program was excellent. Beautiful music was sung by Rev. and Mrs. Cliff Keville of Piner Baptist Church. Mrs. J. R. Tackett of Walton gave a most inspiring report of the YWA camp at Ridgecrest, and Mrs. W. S. Wall, missionary to the Isleta Indians of Albuquerque, N. M., spoke of their work among the Indians. Mrs. Zay Ogden, chairman for the day, is to be congratulated on the excellent program.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Metcalfe and son visited her sister, Mrs. Houston Ishmael, in Allentown, Pa., last week, then went to Atlanta, Ga., and visited their friend, Mr. James Sewell.

Mrs. Gladys Byrne is having her hands full with her 7 fox terrier puppies. The mother dog got sick when the puppies were 3 weeks old and Mrs. Byrne is having to hand feed the 7 puppies every 3 hours, and she says she can't fill them up.

An old adage, indeed, that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

The "kids" on the farm are models of youthful efficiency. But they go a-fishin' whenever they can.

The business men, the housewives, the schoolchildren — they need their fishin' too!

But there is another way in which the old adage is true: ALL WORKING and no PRAYING leaves man a dull soul!

The God who created us never intended us to be able to get along without Him.

Our hands may sow seed, but they can't make it grow. Our minds may work out problems, but they can't solve the world's chaos. All of our efficiency hasn't brought us lasting happiness or firm hope.

But when we turn to our Christian faith, and seek its power through regular worship in our Churches — then we find the things we need and want most!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

To Be Held Here Friday, Saturday

"Once again we ask the people of Walton and surrounding community to support us at our annual picnic. We, at first, tried to do without a festival this year but pressing financial problems forced us into it.

"This picnic will be different from all other picnics we have had in the past, in that there will be no chance games. The games we have this year are all skill games, no chances, no bingo, and no wheels. We are endeavoring to have a picnic that ALL can, in good faith, attend and we expect a good crowd.

"There will be rides for the children, a horse-shoe pitching contest, dart games, guess your weight and age, ponies, basketball, shooting gallery, and of course fine fish sandwiches and drinks and many, many others.

"To be very plain about this, we, the firemen do not enjoy putting on this picnic, as a matter of fact, it's darn hard work, but we are forced into this because we have to HAVE the money.

"Come out Friday and Saturday nights and have a good time, spend a little money and help yourselves by supporting your fire department."

Union Baptist Church Observes Its 75th Anniversary, July 29

A near capacity crowd watched the pageant which climaxed the observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Union Baptist Church, of Union, Ky., Sunday afternoon, July 29, in the church's sanctuary. Rev. W. G. Potts, one of the early pastors of the church, preached the morning sermon from a text from the Book of Acts: "They Took Courage and Went Forward." Rev. Roy Stewart, present pastor, presided over both services.

Rev. Potts, pastor at Union from October 1919 to October 1920, was accompanied by his daughter and her husband. She was the first baby born in the church's first parsonage.

During the morning service, Mrs. Mattie Cook, of Erlanger, who became a member of Union Baptist Church during the first year of its organization, reminisced of the early days of the church. She was presented a corsage, in the pageant, by Cindy Stephens and Pamela Tanner, the church's two youngest members.

Nearly 150 people from surrounding communities, as well as the local church, worked together to make the combined Homecoming and Anniversary observance a smooth-running program from kitchen to sanctuary. More than half of these took part in the pageant, which began with the historical setting of the early church, pointed up the highlights of its history, and ended with the challenge of the future.

Costumed in the dress of that day, the choir presented the early organizational scenes. Descendants of messengers from the surrounding churches who helped organize the church in January, 1887, represented their ancestors.

Rev. James R. Armstrong, present pastor of Big Bone Baptist Church, with Rev. Stewart, depicted the transferring of the deed to the original building from the mother church, Big Bone, to the new group.

Members of the men's classes reenacted snatches of business meetings past and present. The last of the pageant was widely representative of the entire church and Sunday school.

Readers for the pageant were C. Woodrow McKay, Donal Tanner and Mrs. Donald Brown. Mrs. Brown was also assistant director. The pageant was written and directed by Mrs. Woodrow McKay. Music was by James Chase, church music director with Mrs. Charles Bowman, organist, at the organ.

Roy Widener, Rev. Ray and Mrs. Elmer Nae co-steering committee for the activities. Other committee: R. K. Newman, Mrs. publicity; Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. hospitality; Mrs. Rev. and Mrs. decoration; Mr. R. H. Smith, costume; Mr. Charles F. McCabbe, Ray Stewart.

Disease Risks Greater As Hog Raising Is Upped

Because there is a greater risk of disease as hog producers increase the number of hogs they are raising, top sanitation is required in management says Grady Sellards, UK Ag Extension specialist.

Here are some tips:
Clean all farrowing quarters thoroughly with scalding lye water, or steam the quarters each time they are used. Wash bred sows with warm water and soap immediately before the are placed in farrowing stalls. Keep pigs and shoats off heavily used hog lots.

Check the entire herd when you visit a farm to buy stock, particularly pigs and shoats. Buy animals tested against Bangs disease and leptospirosis. Quarantine newly purchased animals for your herd at least 30 days before mixing them with your herd, then retest these new animals if possible.

Important: Buy from reputable breeders who guarantee the quality of their stock.

Keep close watch on all litters in your farrowing and when any become diseased, move them out immediately. This may prevent spread of an outbreak.

Try this salad dressing for cottage cheese: ¼ cup lemon juice, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons honey, 1 tablespoon celery seed, 1 tablespoon chopped chives or onion, and paprika or coarsely-ground black pepper. Beat these ingredients together with 1 cup of cottage cheese until smooth. Serve on fruit salad, over a lettuce wedge, on a tossed green salad, or tossed with a cabbage-fruit salad.

From Mary Jo Dixon:

Dear Friends:

Greetings from your IFYE in Turkey. This is the first in a series of letters that I will be writing during my stay here in Turkey.

To help acquaint you with Turkey, I can say it is a bridge between East and West, geographically and culturally. The European portion of Turkey is about the size of New Hampshire, while the Asiatic portion is somewhat larger than the combined areas of Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

I arrived in Turkey June 21, following an orientation program in Washington, D. C. where we received a week of intensive training. After our arrival in Ankara, the capital city of Turkey, we received another week of training about our host country. Then we departed for our first host families.

My first home is located in Amasya, which is east of Ankara. Like the entire country, Amasya is a very historic spot. The town was first built in 3,000 B. C. The Hittites are believed to have been the first organized society to live here.

I am only a few miles from the home of Gul Isik, who visited my home in June as an IFYE from Turkey. I hope I will get to meet her family as she did mine.

My family here consists of my host mother and father, a two-year-old sister, and a grandmother. We live in a very nice apartment building in Amasya and go out to the village each day to their 250 acre farm. Both my host mother and father are Bargains, bargains, bargains and more bargains will be the big amusement treat Wednesday, August 15—Coca-Cola Day at Coney Island.

Nickel Coca-Cola, nickel ride tickets free with every bottle of Coca-Cola, all rides reduced—some slashed as much as 50 percent—and many other rides just five cents.

Sixty thousand free ride tickets will be distributed to thousands of amusement seekers on what is traditionally one of Coney's biggest days of the year. Special booths will be set up at strategic locations throughout the park selling tickets for nickel Coke. Each ticket for Coca-Cola will be accompanied by a free 5-cent ride ticket.

Nickel Cake and free 5-cent ride tickets will be available all day long. The Wildcat, Shooting Star, Miniature Golf, the fabulous $100,000 Turnpike, the breath-taking Wild Mouse, The Crazy Orbit and the Speek—Coney favorites all—will carry reduced prices.

Swimming at popular Sunlite Pool will be cut to 60 cents for adults and 45 cents for children.

learning English, as are many people throughout Turkey.

Last night we went to the movies; one of them was a Tarzan show. Just like in the States, the people enjoy movies. Sitting out on the balcony talking to the neighbors is another pleasure of my family that I also enjoy. Turkish families do not have television in their homes as you find in most of the U. S. homes. Instead, they go for walks along the river or in a park, or they visit with neighbors over a hot glass of tea. (I enjoy the tea very much. Even along the roadside, you can stop at the smallest dwelling and be served tea in very nice little glasses used only for tea.)

It is not strange to hear American music on the radio, for they play many European and American songs. Speaking of music, one thing I've seen in the parts of Turkey I have visited is people walking down the streets singing without any feeling of embarrassment.

The land and climate remind me of that in the western United States, particularly California. Yesterday I was amazed when I noticed that the temperature was 140 degrees F. The climate is very dry and pleasant, so you don't realize how hot it is.

My host family and their friends and relatives have welcomed me into their homes very nicely. In Turkey you have warm hearts and a hot glass of tea awaiting your arrival. For example, in a strage village our car broke down, while we were waiting for it to be fixed, several women came up with water and dron (a drink of water and yogurt mixed) to make our waiting more pleasant. The hospitality here is really wonderful.

My next home will be in Sivas, Turkey, which is southwest of Amasya. I will write again from Sivas.

Your IFYE in Turkey,
Mary Jo Dixon.

A ten percent increase in International Farm Youth Exchange participation was recorded in 1961. Last year, 108 U. S. delegates from 40 states went to 41 countries, while 109 exchanges visited the U. S. These IFYE's stayed in rural homes, learning the way of life in another country by actually living as members of families there.

Bagworms Need Control Work Now

This is the season when bagworms so named because they live and feed in a spindle-shaped cocoon -- can damage ornamental evergreen trees and shrubs severely.

They also will attack other trees, says R. L. Miller, U. K. Ag. Extension Service entomologist.

Life cycle of this unusual insect include overwintering as eggs in the bag left from the previous spring and summer; the eggs hatch the following spring into little caterpillars which immediately start to spin new bags from bits of foliage upon which they are feeding. As the caterpillars grow they continue to enlarge their cocoons.

Miller says the bags frequently go unnoticed during the spring and early summer until extensive damage has been done.

Control can be obtained three ways:

1. HAND-PICKING: If only a few trees are affected, pull the cocoons from the limbs and burn them. Each cocoon may contain as many as 200 eggs.

2. Make a spray of 3 tablespoons of lead arsenate in a gallon of water and apply to the tree while worms are small.

3. If caterpillars are large, lead arsenate will NOT control them. Use one tablespoonful of Malathion (57 percent strength emulsifiable concentrate) in one gallon of water as a spray.

Dinitro Weed Controller For Snap Bean Crop

Dinitro, a weed-control material recommended in Kentucky for snap bean crop production, did just as well as several experimental materials last season.

So, say James Herron and D. J. Cotter, U.K. Ag Experiment Station researchers, the material will remain this year as the recommended one. It is used as a spray.

Herron and Cotter said Dinitro plots, which got 4 and 6 pounds actual material an acre, yielded 12.4 pounds and 10.6 pounds of bean per plot (20 feet of row) last season. A check plot yielded 4.3 pounds for the same space.

Experimental materials used (but which did not significantly out-perform Dinitro) were Casaron, Diphentamid, Radox-T, Eptam and Ambler.

There are 186,160,311 acres in the National Forest System of this country. In May, the U.S. population count reached 186,160,311, so at that time we each owned, theoretically, one acre of land in the National Forest System.

Jacobs-Masters Wedding Takes Place August 4

On the evening of August 4th, at 7:30 p.m. at the Bullitsburg Baptist Church a beautiful double ring ceremony was performed uniting Miss Shirley Kay Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dunn of Erlanger, Ky., and Mr. Kenneth Ray Masters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Masters of Hebron, Ky., in a candle light service.

The bride given in marriage by her father was radiant in her chapel length sateen gown. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long tapered sleeves and scoop neckline. Her bouffant veil was held in place by a queens crown of silver. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Her attendants wore street length frocks with nylon net over skirts, with matching picture hats, they carried bouquets of green and white carnations.

Donald Stamper, cousin of the bride was best man. Harold Jacobs, brother of the bride and Carl Kinman brother-in-law of the groom were ushers.

The mother of the bride chose a blue sheath, her accessories were blue, she wore an orchid corsage.

The grooms mother was in a black and white arnel Jersey and wore a white orchid corsage.

The ceremony was followed by a reception in the church reception room.

The couple departed for a brief trip and now are residing at Hebron.

The bride is employed by the U. S. government in Cincinnati, O.

The groom works for Kelly Brothers Lumber Co., at Latonia, Ky.

THE CUMBERLAND RIVER meandering lazily through miles of beautiful, rugged Eastern Kentucky, rushes to a climax at Cumberland Falls State Park. A moonbow, one of two in the world, appears at the 68-foot-high falls at full moon. Nearby are excellent accommodations—DuPont Lodge, house-keeping cottages and tent and trailer camping areas with a complete, modern service building. Vacationers find excellent swimming at the lakeside beach or hilltop pool. DuPont Lodge and the 1,100-acre park are open all year. In the middle of lush Cumberland National Forest, the park is located between U.S. 25-W and U.S. 27, approximately 18 miles from Corbin and Williamsburg, Ky.

NEW BETHEL W. M. S.

Thursday, August 3rd marked a long remembered day when the W.M.S. of New Bethel Church met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Porter, the occasion, to observe a prayer retreat and book study.

The meeting opened with the rendition of the beautiful hymn "Teach Me to Pray Lord" Mrs. Adeline Reed, accompanied by Mrs. Blanche Ransom.

Mrs. Gladys Alford had charge of the prayer retreat, and with the aid of many scripture references and prayers, led us into a deeper knowledge of prayer.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Dunn, in her efficient manner, taught the book, "Enlistment for Missions." Mrs. Rose Hamilton gave us a living picture, in quaint costume, of the early W.M.S. woman. This was greatly enjoyed by all.

At the noon hour Mrs. Porter escorted us into the dining area, where a bountiful covered dish luncheon awaited.

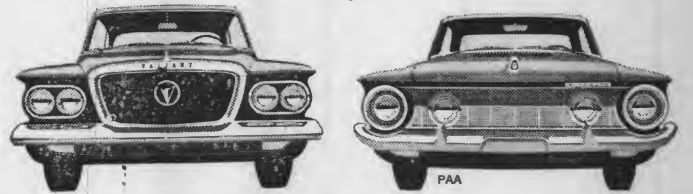

Those present were: Mesdames, Adeline Reed, Rose Hamilton, Margaret Chapman, Effie Clemens, Dorothy Porter, Gertie Brewster, Gladys Alford, Lillian Stephenson, Phyllis Stephenson, Susie Glare, Pearl Overby, Elizabeth Kemper, Carrie Sturgeon, Flonnie Edgington, Vivie Webster, Lena Bell Harris, Alice Smith, Blanche Ransom, Marian Searcy, Gwendolyn Dunn, Alice Chapman, Dora Burchett, Mary Porter, Lillie May Cook.

After the completion of the study, in the afternoon, we went our various ways assuring the hostess it had been a wonderful day.

Homemakers are finding head lettuce a lot fresher and cleaner these days, due to a new mobil packing van that moves right into the field so workers can film, wrap and pack the lettuce while it's at the peak of freshness. This new and faster handling brings you a more vitamin-rich and less expensive product. Excess leaves are trimmed in the field, which cuts handling costs and keeps more of the vitamin-rich outer leaves on the head.

Forage Quality Not Reason Summer Milk Production Slumps

A decline in pasture quality isn't the only reason for summer milk-production slumps, says E. C. Scheidenhelm, U. K. Ag Extension Service dairy specialist.

Researchers have found that individual cows react differently to excessive heat and humidity changes. Scheidenhelm says Missouri workers discovered this about cows in one test:

High-producing cows don't stand heat as well as low-producers. Humidity (moisture content of the air) changes affected cows more than had previously thought. When temperature gets above 65 degrees F., milk production starts to decline. When relative humidity gets 70 percent or more and temperatures are high, there is a sharp drop in milk production. Individual cows vary considerably in their ability to withstand high temperatures and humidities. And, after cows have been suffering from high temperatures and/or humidities for certain periods, it takes about 10 days for cows to get milk production back up.

Humidity of course can not be controlled outside, but ample shade for hot days will help the temperature situation.

UK Economist Sees Trying Era Ahead

"The 1960's are likely to be more trying for all of us," delegates to last week's Kentucky School of Banking were told by Dr. John T. Masten, professor of economics at the University of Kentucky. Although higher wages and profits will be more closely related to economic efficiency rather than the product of inflation, Dr. Masten sees no threat of a deep depression. "The disappointing sixties may have arrived, but not the depressed sixties," he told the assembled bankers.

In very hot weather, bees may spend more time cooling their hives than producing honey or pollinating crops. Cooling is done by the bees flapping their wings to evaporate water they take into the hives. As temperatures rise above 100 degrees, the bees use more water. Research has shown that be colonies die within 24 hours when temperatures are over 100 degrees and no water is available.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger started out on Sunday afternoon with no special destination. Soon they found themselves at Kelat where they visited a while with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brannock.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Lou Ervin is making enough progress that he may soon be able to return to his home.

Miss Diane Collins and her brother John Ray spent several days the past week with their uncle's family Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sturgeon.

We are expecting the D.S. Rev. John Warthington to fill the pulpit here on Aug. 5 and hold the quarterly meeting following the worship service.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp enjoyed the company of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rapp and son on Sunday.

Mrs. D. Binder, Mrs. B. Rich, Mrs. L. J. Rapp, Mrs. Lee Faulkner and Mrs. J. A. Keeney visited on Tuesday with Mrs. J. C. Beall. They found her feeling fine. We all hope for her much improvement following another trip to the hospital in the near future.

Cook snap beans in a small amount of water until tender. Use the liquid, too, because some of the food value is there. Beans can be served alone, or combined with other vegetables and protein foods for casseroles, or served cold in salads.

SKIN ITCH DON'T SCRATCH IT!

Scratching spreads infection, causing MORE pain. Apply quick-drying ITCH-ME-NOT instead. Itching quiets down in minutes, and antiseptic action helps speed healing. Fine for eczema, insect bites, foot itch, other surface rashes. If not pleased, your 48¢ back at any drug store. TODAY at Brakefield's Drug Store, Walton, Ky.

Green Peach Aphid Buildup Noted In State Burley Plots

The green peach aphid apparently is building up in state burley tobacco fields, says the W. K. Ag Extension Service entomology department.

Spraying or dusting in the near future is recommended to control these tiny, sucking pests which can damage tobacco badly, says Richard L. Miller, entomologist.

The tiny insects are greenish color and soft-bodied. They are about 1-16th of an inch long. They generally cluster on the underside of tobacco leaves. They exude a honey-dew substance that attracts flies, wasps and ants, and induces a mold. Their feeding makes tobacco leaves curl down and turn thin, chaffy or yellowish in color.

Miller recommends sprays or dusts of any of these: Thiodan, Malathion, and Diazinon. Parathion dust also is effective. Undersides of leaves should be covered thoroughly regardless of type, dust or spray. If sprays are used, 30 to 50 gallons of water an acre is recommended for thorough coverage. Follow safety precautions with any insecticide.

Spot check fields at intervals to determine infestations, Miller says. And, when spot-checking, check several widely separated places in the field. This could be the center and the four corners, etc.

Treatment is recommended if the temperature is below 90 degrees F. If above that for periods, Miller says, the aphids seem to die. He noted susceptible varieties include KY 10, KY 61 and Experimental 12.

The materials recommended above can be combined with other chemicals which are being applied to control hornworms or budworms.

Economists predict that by 1975 our nation will need 47 percent more red meat than we now produce.

Responsibility

Lesson for August 12, 1962

"RESPONSIBLE" and "re-sponsible" are words perhaps hard to define, but they will strike any thinking person as important words. We all know in a general way what they mean.

When we speak of an irresponsible person we speak in disparaging tones; we don't trust a person like that. An irresponsible person can't be depended on to do what he is expected to do. The difference between an irresponsible person and an absent-minded one is not that one remembers what he is supposed to do and the other one doesn't; they both will forget. But the absent minded man is overwhelmed by regret and mortification at having forgotten, while the irresponsible one doesn't care, even if he forgets a dozen times.

Single, Plural and Collective
To be responsible means that someone is expecting you to do a job or to be a particular kind of person. It means also that you are expected to give an account of yourself to some one. You are responsible for the job and to the boss, or the inspector, whoever gets your report. No matter how high your perch is in society, you are always responsible to some one: the President of the U.S.A. is responsible to the people, and we judge presidents by how well they carry that responsibility.

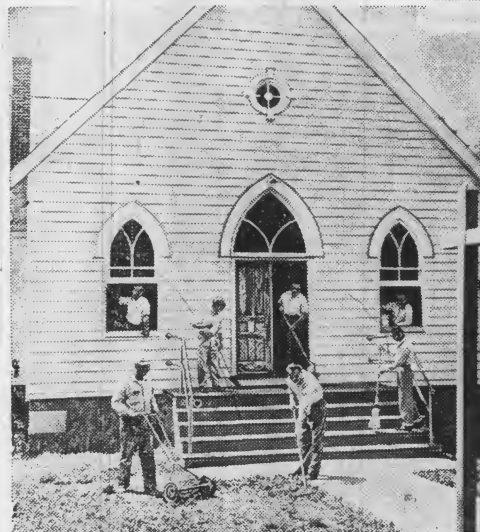

But more than individuals can be responsible. A whole group of persons can be responsible in the same way, to the same person and for the same work, like a class in school with a problem to solve. This we can call plural responsibility. Again there is collective responsibility, as when Jacob, in the Genesis story, holds all his sons responsible for the welfare of Joseph. We can say that a community is responsible for its own health—that again is collective responsibility.

Responsible Prophet
The Bible prophet who spoke most clearly on this subject was the Prophet Ezekiel. He was not the first, to be sure. The prophets generally had laid more emphasis on collective than on individual responsibility; but they did not forget the individual. When Nathan woke David's conscience by saying "Thou art the man," that was individual responsibility. When King Ahab stole Naboth's vineyard and Elijah paid the king a fearsome visit, that was individual responsibility. But when the prophets warned, threatened or comforted, they spoke most often to the nation as a whole. That is collective responsibility.

Ezekiel was made to understand clearly his own personal responsibility, and how responsibility can be rightly shifted from one person to another. (See esp. chaps. 2 and 3.) It was his concern to warn the people; whether they paid attention or not was not his worry. It was his duty to tell the truth, theirs to believe it. If the people refused to listen after Ezekiel had given them God's message, that was their sin, not his. On the other hand, if he failed to warn them of coming danger, their blood would be on the prophet's head.

How does this apply today to a school teacher? a minister, an editor, a writer?
Fixing the Blame
The first thing after an airplane crash is to set up an investigation not only in order to avoid similar accidents thereafter, but to fix the blame for the one that did happen. It is very seldom that one single person is responsible for a great calamity. But who shall say who was to blame and how much? Take a historical event far back enough so that we don't get excited over it: the downfall of Jerusalem for example. Who was, or were, to blame? Israel went to smash; Israel was to blame. Easy to say; but who was "Israel"? Israel was the people at large; they might have revolted against their government and sided with the prophet; but they didn't, psychologically maybe they couldn't. Who was Israel? It was the kings, but kings, like executives then and since, ask advice from many counselors. The yes-men who should sometimes have been no-men, these were surely to blame. False prophets, short-sighted policy makers, a citizenry too lazy to think for themselves—they are all responsible. But only God knows how much.

THE LORD'S WORK

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend service regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The dignity of willing labor is one of the principles which Christianity has established among us. It is a natural by-product of a faith whose founder was the Carpenter of Nazareth, whose first adherents were fishermen of Galilee.

Those who are eager to serve God and their fellow men find rich opportunities in the life of the Church. There are tasks for a man's hands, for his voice, for his pen, for his mind. There are needs that our offerings cannot supply . . . challenges that call for the talents and time of earnest men and women.

That friendly church which inspires us on Sunday is busy with the Lord's work all week. That man in the next pew is finding new happiness in willing Christian service. Are you?

KENTUCKIANS

WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Big Time Diggings:

Two famous scientists are—or soon will be—in Kentucky digging into the earth at Big Bone State Park.

Dr. Frank C. Whitmore, J.D. and Dr. Louis Ray are members of the U. S. Geological Survey. They work out of Washington, searching far and wide for secrets locked in the earth.

Big Bone Park:

At Big Bone State Park they will be participating in one of the biggest scientific fossil hunts ever carried out in that area. University of Nebraska explorers will be with them.

Dr. Whitmore is a New Englander, a graduate of Harvard and an explorer with experience in the Southeast Pacific. He's going to probe the earth of Kentucky for ancient bones. He'll set up collections for future study.

A Neighbor:

You might say that Dr. Ray is almost a neighbor. While the nation's capital is his official headquarters, he owns a farm along the Ohio River at Rockport.

In his research in Boone County, Dr. Ray will try to trace the advance and retreat of the glacier.

During the ice age the glacier crashed its way into the Northern Kentucky area.

Hope of Success:

Both men, big time explorers, feel that success will crown their efforts.

For example, Dr. Whitmore did some preliminary work last year and in a space 20-foot square, he recovered an old tusk, a caribou antler, muskox tooth and the jaw of a prehistoric bison.

Hot Weather Means Care by Poultrymen

Summer's hot weather is here, and good poultrymen will maintain flock efficiency in these conditions, says Kenneth Bean, UK Ag Extension Service poultryman. He recommends, as guards against hot weather troubles:

Keep fresh air moving through the house; do this by removing ridge ventilators, opening side ventilators, removing windows.

Keep plenty of watering space with clean, fresh, cool water before the birds at all times. Layers need much more water in summer months for proper functioning. The same is true of broilers, in that they need plenty of water to keep their bodies cool.

Gather eggs more often. Higher temperatures cause egg deterioration more rapidly. Cool them quickly—and do not put freshly gathered eggs in hot cases. Store empty cases in the egg cooler to avoid loss of quality through having to cool the case, too, at storage time.

Persistent Love

Lesson for August 19, 1962

"LOVE" comes without reason, goes without reason. "Love" can be easily hurt, "Love" washes out in a rainy day like a cheap scarf exposed to the weather.

We put quotation marks around
"love" of which that can be true;
for it is not genuine love, only a cheap substitute invented by teenage romancers.
The Christian religion is a religion of love; but the love of which we speak has no more resemblance to the thing that crooners mumble about, than it has to a ham sandwich. Love as we meet it in the Bible is not a merely human word. Whatever genuine love human beings have, is based on, modeled on and called into existence by the love of God.
The ancient prophets, among them Ezekiel, speak very strongly of the love God has for his people in this world—a love which persists in spite of all that men do to discourage God. If you were God, any affection you might have felt for the human race would have evaporated long since; so let us all be thankful you are not God
His love is everlasting.

Blessing

In the brief passage Ezek.
34:23-31 three ideas stand out.
Each of these points up what God's love is, or rather how his love is shown. God's love is not (as ours sometimes is) a feeling to be cherished in secret. It is always made known—to those who have eyes to see.

First of the three ideas we select for underscoring, is blessing. The reader notices that the prophet does not say, as we might have expected him to do, "I will give you a blessing." He says rather,
"I will make you a blessing."
God's love comes in fullness not to those who try to hold it for themselves. The best way to express our sonship to God is to pass on the blessings he gives us.

Yes, but some one asks, does not that keep us robbed of happiness?
Quite the contrary; there is no such great happiness in holding on to blessings as there is in sharing them. Do people ever thank God for you? You may not be able to answer that, because you don't know.

Peace

Another great word here is "Peace." God makes a covenant —an agreement—of love with his people. Every dealing of God with men is rooted and founded in love.
This cannot be otherwise if God is love. But this prophet brings out the way love is shown—and one way is the way of peace. Our God, the only true God, is a God of peace, not strife, anger, violence. There is something wrong with the picture when so-called and self-labeled Christians keep sniping at one another and calling names. There may be no possibility of union between your church and some other; but even where that is true, you do not manifest your Christianity by calling names and "running down" other Christians who do not believe just in the way you do.
Furthermore, to take another illustration, it ought to hurt our consciences that the so-called Christian nations of the world seem to be the most violent war-makers. As individuals, as churches, as a nation, do we really act as if we belonged to the God of peace?

Security

A third great idea, a third great promise of God to his true people, is security. We know, if we have any experience at all, that God guarantees no man security from all human and earthly troubles.
Commentators are not all agreed whether this reference in Ezekiel to security should be taken literally or not. One thing should be clear: If not even the prophet Ezekiel was immune from troubles (he lost his wife, and mourned deeply the fall of Jerusalem), God's people should not expect total freedom from pain, frustration and death, not to mention other ills. So those who think we should take the part about security literally, usually believe it must mean at some time after the last judgment, not now. However this may be, the believer in God can be assured that God will not let him be wholly destroyed, not even by death. To the Christian, death is not the final crash; it is God's summons to a world of glory. The Christian has the deepest security of all—security against the fear of death.

God's Greatest Gift

I saw a miracle today. I visited a family with a tiny baby, and as I looked at him and held his chubby hand in mine, I felt the thrill that comes to me each time I gaze upon a new life.

In my work as a minister, I call upon many families. I see many babies. Yet that thrill is always there. For of all God's great gifts, this is the greatest.
Nowhere, I think, does His power stand more truly revealed to us than when we see a small being, created in His image.

As I held this baby today, I knew a special gladness because his parents are members of my church and stand ready to bring up their son in the full, rich light of religious training. Would that all blessed babes were so fortunate! It is God who gives us our children—but it is we who must teach them the meaning of His love, His truth, and His eternal understanding.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Social Security Facts:

Edward J. Bolte, Field Representative, Covington Social Security Office, gave a tip today on how people who plan to retire can get their first social security checks without any delays.

"Inquire before you retire is a good rule to remember," he said. Whether you've decided to retire or not, you should visit the social security office three months before you reach retirement age. "We won't tell you whether you should retire," he explained, "but we will tell you when to apply for social security."

By checking with the social security office three months before you retire, you can help speed your first check, he said. The social security representative will help you in claiming benefits for yourself and your family. He'll help you get whatever proofs are needed to complete your application. For example, Mr. Bolte said, you'll probably need to prove your age. The office can tell you whether any of the documents you have will do.

Mr. Bolte added that you should check with social security even if you are still working. You don't have to quite work entirely to get social security benefits. Many people have this wrong impression, he said, and they are losing social security payments.

Before coming to the social security office, it's a good idea to call ahead. There may be something you will need to bring with you. The social security representative can tell you what to bring and the best time to come in.

stitute, not listed above, should contact Supt. Robinson.

Borrowed from Dixie State Bank $15,000 against the anticipated revenue for the 1962-63 school year. This money to be used for necessary expenses of getting the school year started.

Purchased roll-away bleachers for the stage. The bleachers will seat 120 people. The bleachers in the gym will be remodeled to make the seating more comfortable.

The board declined to participate in the Northern Kentucky Vocational School. There was some original planning to send 11th and 12th grade students to the school. However, the board felt the cost was too great and also the money spent on this project could be put to better use in our Vocational and Industrial Arts Departments next year.

Voted to purchase a used bus to help transport children in the Walton area. This will relieve the problem of some buses having to start so early in the morning.

Voted to pay the monthly bills and salaries.

First Grade Registration, Aug. 29

Parents of children entering the first grade should keep in mind that August 29 has been set for registration. This was not published with the school calendar last week. It is felt that by taking time for first grade registration before school starts, the parents and children can become better acquainted with the teachers. The first grade teachers and the elementary principal will be at the Walton School at 1:00 p. m., on Wednesday, August 29, for this purpose, so take advantage of this opportunity to talk with the folks who will start your youngster on his way to a formal education. Also, keep in mind that all children entering school must, in addition to smallpox, be immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, polio and whooping cough. This is state law and will be enforced.

Rose Marlowe Circle

Agriculture Is Not Slipping, Teachers Told

The often voiced opinion that agriculture is a declining industry was rapped in a recent speech at the University of Kentucky by Dr. Roy M. Kottman, dean of the College of Agriculture at Ohio State University. Addressing the Kentucky Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association, Dr. Kottman said many "otherwise intelligent people" erroneously gauge the position of agriculture with the rise and fall of numbers of people employed in farming.

Although labor presently employed in farm production is less than half what it was in 1920, Dr. Kottman told his UK audience that efficiency and scientific application in farming is at an all-time high.

To support his claim, he cited that production of meat per animal is up 20 per cent, that the yield per acre of crops has increased 30 per cent, that the number of tractors as a measure of mechanization is up 40 per cent, and that the use of chemicals has increased 50 per cent.

"These tremendous records of efficiency reflect the true picture of agriculture—a growing, expanding, dynamic segment of America's economy," Dr. Kottman declared.

Poison Algae May Appear In Ponds In Hot Spells

With summer's hottest weather in prospect the chance of livestock being poisoned by poison algae increases, says James Herron, U. K. Ag Experiment Station weed control specialist. Algae form a blue-green scum on ponds and, in some cases, cover the entire surface.

Control measures: Use 8 pounds of copper sulfate (bluestone) for each million gallons of water in the pond. Consult Extension Leaflet 191 for control measures, how to determine pond capacities, etc.

When copper sulfate is used at the recommended rate, 8 pounds a million gallons of water, fish will not be injured, Herron says.

Pigs and chickens seem more susceptible to algae-poisoning, Herron says, than other animals. This may be because these animals drink from pond edges where the algae may tend to concentrate.

UK President Sees Education Crisis

Increased financial support from an enlightened citizenry is the key to solution of the crisis which confronts public higher education. That was the theme of an address by University of Kentucky President Frank G. Dickey in a program marking the 100th anniversary of American land-grant colleges and universities. "The availability of low-cost higher education in the United States is a measure of contemporary democracy, of political responsibility and of real common sense," the UK president declared.

U.S. farmers have twice as much invested in machinery as the steel industry and five times as much as the automobile industry.

Boy Scouts Learn Self-Reliance and Team Work at Camp

Last week 250 Boy Scouts and their adult leaders, representing the Catholic and Protestant churches, schools, civic and service sponsors, formed a closely-knit community of campers. The site was the Dan Beard Council's wilderness camp, Camp Powderhorn, in Boone County.

Boys came from the northern Kentucky communities of Florence, Covington, Alexandria, Latonia, Cold Springs, Hebron, Walton, Burlington, Warsaw, Glencoe, Owenton, Wheatley New Liberty, Crittenden, Union, Williamstown, Dry Ridge and Falmouth. One Scout Troop came from Cincinnati to help complete this Citizenship in Miniature Community.

For six days these Boy Scouts governed themselves and their activities. Working, playing and achieving together they learned self-reliance and team work. Each Scout Troop lived in its own campsite and prepared all its own meals out in the open. The Scouts camped in tents and made rustic furniture and camp gadgets to make their stay as comfortable as possible.

WITH AN AUTOMATIC DISHWASHER

Just imagine the wonderful extra hours you'd have for family, friends, community and other activities . . . if you had one!

And a DISHWASHER provides wonderful extra health protection, too. It removes more food spoiling bacteria and disease producing virus from tableware . . . than ordinary hand dishwashing ever could.

Reason: A DISHWASHER uses scalding water to get dishes hygienically clean . . . that hands could never stand. They, of course, will stay lovelier, longer . . . out of the dishpan.

Compare the various DISHWASHER makes and models now on display . . . CG&E's Fourth and Main Lobby, downtown Cincinnati . . . where a fascinating exhibit from "The Wonderful World of the Brothers Grimm," now playing at the CAPITOL Theater can also be seen.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—359-4441

Since our pastor, Rev. Roy Hunt, and family are on vacation, he planned a layman's day observance. Mr. George Finnell, Jr. was in charge of the service, and the message was brought by Mr. Robert E. Rich. We congratulate both of them and will say that they gave us facts and statistics on which we will ponder for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent the weekend with Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin and family of LaGrange, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Childers have as a guest for a few days, her niece, little Miss Kathy England.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Marcum called on Mr.

and Mrs. Carsee Brinkley, Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney visited her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Pinguely, of Fort Thomas, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barnett and family of Mayfield Drive, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett, Saturday evening.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Mabel Gatewood is improving.

A small party from here attended the 50-50 Club on Friday, bringing home a few prizes. Those going were Mrs. Don Keeney and sons, Mrs. Charles Dorsey, Mrs. Elizabeth Barberick, Miss Ruth Schmidt, and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rector spent the past week seeing Kentucky from east to west.

Mrs. David Irvine spent Sunday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. Caroline Armstrong, and brother, Harry.

The W. S. C. S. met at the church on Thursday evening with Mrs. John Snowden as program leader. The program was opened by singing "Praise Him, Praise Him," followed by prayer. Mrs. Snowden was well fitted to give a talk on Americans of the Southwest, having spent some time in that section. This made the program even more interesting. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. E. B. Rich. Mrs. J. A. Keeney gave the devotional, telling of the wonderful work of Mrs. James Dickson, the wife of a missionary in Taiwan. Following this, refreshments were served by Miss Helen Richardson and Mrs. Donald Keeney. Others present were Mrs. Melvin Brueggem, Mrs. Geo. Finnell, Jr., Mrs. David Kennedy, Mrs. Cecil Faulkner, Mrs. Dawson Ballinger and Mrs. J. J. Barnett.

(Too Late for Last Week)

The M. Y. F. and ball teams of Staffordsburg church are sponsoring an ice cream supper on August 18. Sandwiches and soft drinks will also be on the menu. Hope you can come.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger had as guests the latter part of last week Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Von Ryswyk of Phoenix, Ariz. They brought greetings from the Chester Ballinger family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Losey enjoyed the company of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gilligan and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gilligan and family of Batavia, Ohio, on Sunday afternoon. They also called on Dr. and Mrs. Dawson Losey.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp and family spent a few days the past week at Prestonburg, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Carsee Brinkley and son, Robert, returned recently from a trip to Alabama, to visit relatives and on to Florida for some rather successful fishing.

Glad to report that Lou Ervin is home and doing quite well.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney had as guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and boys and Harry Armstrong.

Her many friends here regret to know that Mrs. Mabel Gatewood, who recently suffered a fall, has since had a severe heart attack and later suffered a stroke. She is in Booth Hospital and on the critical list.

Howard Noel visited relatives over the weekend.

Mrs. Mary Northcutt visited relatives here over the weekend.

Miss Emma Yates was the guest of Mrs. J. A. Keeney on Wednesday afternoon and both visited Thomas Borkers, who suffered a fall recently but who is improving.

Mrs. George Finnell is improving after a few weeks' illness.

Priming Burley Crops Can Increase Profits

Priming burley crops can mean considerable extra profit to the grower, says C. E. Bortner, U. K. Ag Experiment Station scientist.

Properly primed crops may increase yields and money return from 12 to 15 percent. This could figure out to $200 to $300 an acre.

Priming is pulling the ripe leaves from the bottom of the plant before stalk-harvesting is done. The primed leaves are tied together with a string and cured in barns just as the stalk-cut tobacco.

Generally, two primings a season are all that Kentucky farmers will care to do. About three to five ripe leaves are picked each time through the field.

Bortner cautions that leaves to be primed should be lemon-yellow before picking. Occasionally primers will find bottom leaves (in the flyings or lower lug grades) that are brown. These should be kept separate from the lemon-yellow leaves during curing.

The 1962 tobacco crop is growing rapidly and priming time should be here now, Bortner said. Remember: Prime only lemon-yellow leaves and let the upper leaves cure out to a dappled lemon-yellow before cutting.

New Fly-Killers Now On Market

Several new fly-killers are on the market this summer and will do a good job controlling these pests, says R. L. Miller, U. K. Ag Extension Service entomologist.

Cygon (Dimethoate): A phosphate insecticide with residual (lasting) control of about 8 weeks under average conditions. It has been cleared for use on walls of dairy, poultry and hog buildings (when these structures are empty) and for maggot control in litter under hen cages.

Anti-Resistant DDT: This material, when added to the old standby DDT, is a fly-killer as deadly as DDT ever was in its "best" days. One test application killed flies for 5 to 8 weeks.

DDT can be used safely only on the outdoors of barns.

Others: DDVP, Dipterex, Diazinon, Ronnel (Korlan) and Malathion. All these (longtime insecticides) have been okayed for use in dairy barns. Do not put any of these materials on animals, feed or milk equipment.

Apply sprays to areas where flies rest. In barns, spray walls, light cords, rafters, pipes and window facings. Apply to manure piles, garbage cans, barn floors and fences.

Dry baits should be applied daily until flies are under control. Then apply them weekly as needed.

For good fly control: Remember: Fly control begins with sanitation then chemical control. Get rid of sewage and garbage regularly, keep garbage cans tightly lidded, use screens on buildings, use proper insecticides (observing safety and label precautions), and eliminate breeding places.

4-H Club Winners Are Announced

The 30th annual Boone County 4-H and Utopia Fair was one of the outstanding fairs in its history, according to John E. Crigler, president of the Fair Board. Many people attending the fair stated to the fair board members that this was one of the best fairs they had attended. Exhibitors, who attend fairs throughout Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, complimented the fair board for having the best organized and smoothest running fair that they had attended.

This year's fair was one of the largest attended fairs and there was over $7,200 given in premiums, awards and prizes. A new $6,000 horse barn has been constructed. Even with this increase in horse stalls, horses were housed in both the cattle barns. The horse show classes were larger than in previous years; also more outstanding horses were shown. This made for a fine quality horse show, according to Lillard Scott, superintendent of the horse show.

All department heads were pleased with the number of entries in each of the classes. The 4-H Club entries were of higher quality than in previous years, according to 4-H Club leaders and Mrs. Gertrude Papprotta and Wayne Siningar, Boone County Extension Agents.

Mr. Crigler stated that the fair would not have been possible without the volunteer leadership and free time that the 4-H leaders, homemakers, and public spirited citizens gave. He thanks each of them who participated. He also said that plans have already started for a bigger and better fair in 1963. Improvements will be made on the fairgrounds, keeping in mind that the fair is for the betterment of Boone County and put on for the people.

Beginning Again

Lesson for August 26, 1962

IT IS hard enough to share experiences even with those who are near and dear. "The heart knows its own bitterness, and a stranger does not intermeddle with its joy," the old proverb says. When the experiences we are invited to share are those of people dead for more than two thousand years, sharing their experience may seem impossible. Yet such is the universal reach and meaning of the Bible, where we find this ancient story, that we can learn something for our own lives.

Nothing is harder than beginning again, especially beginning again on the scene of a failure or a disaster. Yet that is just what the Hebrew people, exiled from their beloved Jerusalem, had to do. Really, their home city was not there any more. The glories of the city Solomon built have never returned, to this day. All around the returning exiles were the ruins of the old city, in the midst of which they must slowly build a new one.

We remember that the little nation of Judah had been smashed, and that its destruction was God's will, to punish the nation for its sins. Before the crash, few would believe it could happen. But after the crash, the mood of the nation changed at once from a silly optimism to a deep and bitter pessimism. From singing the song "We are God's people and he will not let anything destroy us," they sang a different tune—how different can be seen by reading the book of "Lamentations" written at this time. From being all hope, they plunged violently to no-hope. God had turned against them, they felt. And so he had. But until the prophets persuaded them otherwise, they did not think God could ever forgive them. The prophets had to preach over and over again: Just as for sin there must be punishment, so for repentance there is forgiveness. God punishes his own children, but he does not disown them.

After Disaster

The clock and the calendar do not run backward. What's done is done. Not even the Lord in heaven would restore Jerusalem as it was. But few disasters are totally without remedy. The storm leaves wrecks behind it—but it passes on. There is always an afterwards to the worst of calamities. It may be that a few readers of this column will be able to survive the terrors of a nuclear war, so-called. It would not be like any war ever fought before, and if you do survive, it may be five hundred miles to the nearest person who survived as you did. You will have many other problems and much distress; but one thing will be sure—that kind of "war" can happen once but not again. You will have lived through the worst disaster in human history; and after that, other things will be mild and tame by comparison. But the thing you will have to remember (the books will be burned up and what you know you won't get from books any more)—you must remember that God is always on both sides of every disaster: before and after, he is there.

After Confusion

The well-known passage from Isaiah about making a straight road in the wilderness brings up a picture of a vast desert in which it is very easy to be lost and die... unless you keep to the road. The road to life is narrow and hard to find, Jesus said; but there is such a road. Lost in woods or on the desert, or in a snowstorm, people are very likely to move around in circles, instead of following a straight line. So in our confused time, with the best minds hardly knowing what to do next, and nobody knowing how to bring about peace, if more people would listen to God there would be less confusion in the world. A national magazine not long ago carried a debate between an agnostic and Billy Graham on the question: Should our elected leaders be religious men? Billy Graham was surely right: they ought to be men of faith, for one reason in particular, the God-fearing man does try to hear the voice of the God of truth. Such a leader may make mistakes; but surely he is better off than the man who does not think there is a God to listen to!

THE RELIGION OF THE GREEN LIGHT

Go and sin no more... go and teach... go up higher! Again and again Christ gave the simple command: "GO."

And this positive emphasis on dedicated action best expresses the spirit of His teaching.

Christianity continues to inspire earnest, believing, determined souls eager to translate their faith into constructive and unselfish effort.

In every congregation energetic Christians find opportunities without number for service to Christ and their fellow man.

So GO to Church.

And keep on GOING.

Explore those exciting realms of spiritual adventure to which Christ wants you to GO.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

UK Conferees Seek More Science Fairs

Educators attending a recent conference at the University of Kentucky explored methods of promoting a greater number of youth science fairs at the local, regional and state levels. Purpose of the fairs would be to interest more boys and girls in the study of science. The conferees also head a report on the Kentucky Science Talent Search, a program aimed at the discovery of youths who have scientific minds and who aspire to follow careers in science.

Walton Mayor Reveals Facts, Figures...

This article is being written to inform the citizens of Walton of the financial condition of the town. Through means of the Grapevine, I hear there is some resentment regarding the automobile stickers. It is my belief that if the public knew the truth of the financial status of our town they would understand the need of additional revenue, so therefore I write this article.

First, I would like for you to know that for a number of years it has been necessary for the City to borrow from $5,000 to $8,000 each year on operate on. On May 8, 1961, it was obtained by the previous Council to borrow $6,000 to be used for current expenses. One of the objectives of this present Council and Mayor was to manage in such a way as not to have to borrow any money. So far as of August 6, 1962, we have not borrowed any.

I realize it is impossible to give a complete picture of the financial picture on paper, but I will try. We wished to publish the audit of the City's books with comments thereon, but even at this present time our auditors have been unable to render an account that we feel we could accept. I feel that this is not a fault of the auditors but the information furnished them. I hope the above paragraph will answer the question that I have heard many times of "Why haven't you published an audit?"

As of January 1, 1962, $10,295.30 was on hand. Now to enlighten you on some of the larger current expenses paid by the City this year. As you may or may not know, our City building is not paid for. As of January 1, 1962, we owed $11,000 on it. This year we have paid $1,000, plus $387.50 for coupons due on the bonds. We have paid to the Walton-Boone County Planning and Zoning $325.00 for services rendered and to be rendered. On April 13, we paid J. B. Johnson Insurance Agency the sum of $656.27 for Workmen's Compensation and Public Liability. On the same date we paid to Dan Roberts Insurance Agency $214.63 for insurance on police cruiser.

I realize the above items are expected expenses. But in addition to this, there is an average expense each month of around $1,000.00. This includes salaries, five different light bills, garbage pick-up and disposal, upkeep and repair on City equipment, plus many other expenses, including $84.00 per month paid to the Waterworks for water hydrant service. This is a rental fee.

Now for the "Surprise" or "Problem" expenses we inherited when we took office.

On January 29, 1962, the F. & M. Construction Company sent their representative to our City demanding $1,900.00 (which was past due) for the building of Locust Street. This street had been ordered built by the previous Council with the expectation of the abutting property owners paying for same. Later it was discovered that there were no abutting property owners as the street did not belong to the City, but to the Southern Railroad. The fact was we (the City of Walton) had built a street for the Southern Railroad. This was paid for from the general fund.

Still staggering from this blow, on February 29, we met another one full in the face on the following day (March 1) when we paid $1,066.66 to the Internal Revenue Department for withholding taxes that had been withheld from the City employee's pay but had not been paid to the Revenue Department. This amount should have been paid quarterly throughout 1961. This too was paid from our regular fund. Added to this on March 9, we issued a check to Marvin Baker (maintenance man) in the amount of $40.00 to reimburse him for too much money withheld from his pay check.

Between the two events mentioned above another accident occurred which cost the City $172.10. One cold, frosty morning our pickup truck was involved in an accident with Mr. G. E. Huey. Our driver admitted his fault. We began checking to see which local insurance company had the truck insured, to soon find, to our sorrow, that the truck was not insured. Every other vehicle was, but not this one. So we paid to have Dr. Huey's car repaired. Then we had the truck insured, this cost an additional $31.20.

This incident suggested that a thorough check should be made on all city insurance policies. I could not find a policy for the City Building. I was assured by several who should have known that the building was covered with insurance. Yet no policy could be found, no one knew who it was insured with or for how much. After much checking searching and calling of anyone who might have reason to know about the insurance, we found there was no insurance and had not been since 1957. We insured this immediately. The insurance cost us $87.06.

All the above bills were paid and we still had money. Things seemed to be going good. Then one Saturday morning the mail was delivered and I received a letter from Mr. R. C. Durr. In it he asked what we intended to do about his bill for work done in the City in the fall of 1961. Stating the work had been some nine months and nothing had been heard from us. I called the office of Mr. Durr on Saturday afternoon but could not reach the bookkeeper. I knew the story even though I did not talk with the bookkeeper. It had to be the building of Central Avenue (High School Court) and Maloney Drive. Since Mr. Durr's letter did not carry any figures, I checked at the City Hall to find the amount due Mr. Durr. It was the sickening sum of $9,416.49. This record at the City Hall was not in the form of a bill. If it had been we would have been aware that it was not paid. The record that we had was an appropriate sheet showing what each property owner owed. No one had informed us of this unpaid bill. True enough several of the property owners on Maloney Drive paid their assessments after we took office, but since this work was done in the fall of 1961 we assumed the bill had been paid. But to our sad awakening it was not. I made a trip to Mr. Durr's office personally and talked with him, apologizing for this oversight of our City. Mr. Durr was more than nice about the entire situation. Soon after this conversation we paid him $1,000.00. Later we were able to pay an additional $2,400.00, leaving a balance of a little more than $6,000.00.

Another problem which we inherited was paying the bill for the Beaver Grade Water Line, which was installed late in the year of 1961. $5,621.20 was due Mr. Jav Harris, who had installed the line. The time of his contract was up and he wanted, and I might add was entitled to his money. This line was to be paid for by abutting property owners. But as legal advertising had not been done, it was not yet time for the property owners to pay. We had no other choice but to pay out of the regular fund. This was done. Since that time most of the property owners have paid their assessments. Although most have paid, there is still $958.19 owed to the City on this project. Efforts are being made to collect the unpaid amount. But until it is collected the general fund must bear the load.

Another $113.36 was spent paying old debts, one of these in the amount of $63.68 had been due for three years.

When we took office the firm of Rouse, Rankin & Co., public accountants, were taking care of books both for the City and the Waterworks Department, which are two different functions altogether. For this service they were receiving $100.00 per month. Due to the efficiency of our new City Clerk and her willingness to work, we began to wonder if we could not do without the monthly assistance of Rouse, Rankin & Co. Mentioning this to the accountants, they were willing for Miss Hill to assume a greater part of their work, which will result in a savings for the City and also the Waterworks Dept.

All of the above has been about debts we owned and what we were able to do about them. Now let me tell you the other side. "The debts we owe and are presently not able to do anything about."

When the new highway, I-75, was being constructed it was brought to the attention of the previous Council that a water line should be placed under this road, in the event that the town should grow, it perhaps would move in a westwardly direction. This would mean that a part of the town would be on either side of I-75. If this should happen then there would be the need of water on the west side of the new highway. With these thoughts in mind the previous Council began investigating the cost of the proposed water line.

The following account of the transaction was given me by a man who was a member of the Council at that time. This man was Mr. Bryan Rector, who has given me permission to use his name in this statement. He states as follows: "The first estimated cost was approximately $5,000. This seemed fair enough. Work was started. The next report was that it was more costly than had been anticipated. Already $7,700.00 had been spent and it would take an additional $1,000 to complete it. What did the Council wish to do? With $7,700 already invested there was little choice but to invest another $1,000 to see the job completed. This was agreed upon. Work continued."

What I have not told you, as yet, is that the construction company of W. L. Harper, who was installing the water line, was working on a time and material contract. When the job was completed and the final bill submitted to the City, it was not for the estimated $8,700.00. Neither was it for around $10,000, not even an enormous $15,000, but a shocking $17,016.04. We heard of this before we took office, but did not receive the bill until some time later (a matter of several weeks) when it was submitted by Mr. Noel Walton, who was City Engineer at the time the work was done.

A special meeting was called. We invited Mr. Jim Cook, who was W. L. Harper's construction foreman on the job. We told him we felt the price was unreasonable. Nothing seemed to be accomplished at this meeting. Later another special meeting was called. All the former Council, Mayor, Engineer and Attorney were invited. Mr. Cook attended this meeting also. Our present attorney, Mr. Blackburn, pointed out to Mr. Cook and all that were present, that the time and material contract entered into by Mr. Cook with the 1961 officials of the town was not enforceable, since the Kentucky Statutes said that no City Council, without a vote of 2/3 majority could impose upon a town a debt greater than what it would be able to pay in one year. After a long discussion at this meeting, Mr. Cook altered his figures to $13,000.00. As the City Council, we felt we had done a good night's work, but not good enough as we felt the figure was still too high.

Although Mr. Cook's contract, as has been mentioned, is unenforceable, the fact still remains that he did the work, it was accepted by the City Engineer and therefore he is entitled to a just and fair price for his services. The problem faced by the present Council is what is a fair price and how shall we pay it. As I understand the matter, after a decision is reached, it will have to be presented to the people for a vote in order that we meet the requirements of the law referred to above. We are planning another special meeting in the near future for this purpose.

So much for the Golden Waterline under I-75.

Please bear in mind that we still owe Mr. R. C. Durr the before mentioned debt in the amount of $6,016.49. This too must be paid this year.

We also owe Mr. Truett DeMoisey, previous attorney for the City, for legal work done at that time, the sum of $110.68. We have a bill for this amount. Miss Hill, our Clerk, tells me that Mr. DeMoisey has informed her that we owe him an additional bill, but he did not state the amount.

We also have a bill from Mr. Noel Walton, former engineer of the City, in the amount of $1,895.02. Our records show a balance owned him in the amount of $1,795.02. Even at the best, it is bad enough. Mr. Walton stated in a letter to me that he did not make a practice of billing cities repeatedly for payment but would be forced to charge interest at the rate of 6% beginning July 1, 1962. He asked for prompt settlement.

The above mentioned debts total $21,022.18.

Do these facts and figures help you to understand why $5.00 stickers for vehicles has been required?

May I impress upon you again, all these debts were made in 1961 or prior. At any rate none have been made by the present Council. Presently we have no bills made by us other than what have incurred since our last regular meeting Thursday night, August 9, 1962.

On the date of this writing, Aug. 6, 1962, we had a balance in the Dixie State Bank of $2,269.16. Of this amount, $1,875.00 is money derived from the sale of 375 City stickers. Without this we could not pay this month's current bills of approximately $1,000.00. The 375 stickers sold is only a little over half what should be sold. We intend to see that everyone included in the auto sticker Ordinance buys a sticker. Since the first of this year we have received through delinquent taxes, occupational licenses, parking meters, assessments and other methods of revenue the amount of $11,343.26. Added to cash on hand as of January 1, 1962 you have a total of $21,602.56. With this we have paid the earlier mentioned bills and kept up the regular expense which will average in a round figure of near a $1,000 per month.

You might be interested to know that the insurance alone carried by the City of City property, vehicles and the firemen and their equipment costs over $2,200.00 per year.

I feel that in the light of these facts and even others that space does not permit to mention, this is a time for the City of Walton not to be picking, complaining and rebelling, but a time for concentrated cooperation.

I might add in closing the revenue derived from the city stickers is not sufficient to meet the demands being made on our City. Not as a matter of choice but of necessity, I believe that a charge of at least $1.00 per month will have to be made for garbage pickup and disposal. Of course, the final decision on this will be in the hands of the Council. But I do advocate it.

Citizens, we have these debts staring us in the face, whether we like them or not. I know of only two things to do with a debt: either dodge it or pay it. If you are the person or persons that I believe you to be, you will not want to dodge these debts, so therefore we must pay them. If you know of anything else to do with the debt or a better way to pay them, speaking for the Council, and myself for sure, we welcome your "Know How."

Your Mayor, KELLY KENNEDY

Egg Price Forecast
Issued In UK Letter

Egg prices in Kentucky are expected to average about 33 cents a dozen the next two months, says Everett Mackey, UK Ag Extension Service economist.

The price probably will reach 36 cents a dozen the latter part of this year, he says. His forecast was in the department's bi-weekly outlook letter this week.

Broiler prices probably will be up a cent a pound from last year, he continued, and may go to a top of 13.5 cents a pound sometime this year.

Turkey use is expected to remain up, with steady to stronger prices anticipated. Last year's record turkey crop—about two turkeys per family in the U. S.—is expected to be reduced this year.

Mackey said increased output in poultry (eggs, broilers, turkeys, etc.) since 1949 relative to other livestock products has accounted for the relatively steady drop in poultry prices.

Next year's egg prices (through June) probably will follow this year's pattern. A trend toward a higher summer and fall hatch of layer replacements will continue, and probably bring larger supplies of eggs sometime in 1963.

The slight jump in broiler prices due to a seasonal demand for fryers and a relatively reduced supply of this item. This supply probably will be reduced further the latter part of this year.

Turkey use (by consumers) probably will show only a slight decline this year from last year. Government purchases, if made, probably will be far below last year's record 60,000,000 pounds.

Fresh uncooked chicken should be loosely wrapped in wax paper or other wrap, kept in the coldest non-freezing part of the refrigerator and used within three days.

"Comfortable Braking Distance" Is Many Feet

Once started, automobiles are more difficult to get stopped than one imagines.

That's why drivers are always amazed at what safety engineers have established as "comfortable braking distances" for various speeds. Here are some CBDs sent the U. K. Agricultural Extension Service for safe-driving information.

If your car is traveling at 20 miles an hour, the "comfortable braking distance" is 51 feet. (Presumably a sharp, quick application of brakes would stop the car in a fewer number of feet.)

At 30 miles an hour, the distance to stop is 104 feet. At 40 miles an hour, it is 202 feet, and at 50 miles an hour, 316 feet.

But at 60 and 70 miles an hour, the "comfortable braking distance" is up considerably. It is, respectively, 455 feet and 650 feet.

The distances listed are on dry pavement, the engineers stress. Or wet, snowy or icy pavements, the distances are greater.

The 1960 all farm accident total resulted in 11,300 deaths and 950,000 disabling injuries.

Wheat Referendum Voter Eligibility Is Explained by Huey

Eligible wheat producers in Boone County should be sure to cast their ballots in the national wheat marketing quota referendum to be held today (August 30), J. Lassing Huey, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, reminds growers.

Growers eligible to vote in the referendum will be those who produce more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain in 1963 in any of the 39 commercial wheat states.

However, any producers who signed applications under the feed wheat provisions permitting them to grow wheat for use as feed on the farm for 1962 will not be eligible to vote in the referendum on quotas for the 1963 crop, Mr. Huey pointed out.

At least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum August 30 must approve marketing quotas if they are to become effective.

In general, the 1963 wheat program which will be in effect under existing legislation provides for farm acreage allotments set on the basis of a minimum national wheat allotment of 55 million acres. The minimum price support would be at a national average of $1.82 per bushel (75 percent of parity) under a quota program. Marketing quota penalties would apply to the "excess" wheat of growers with more than 15 acres of wheat who did not comply with their acreage allotments.

If farmers disapprove marketing quotas, there would be no restriction wheat marketing in 1963. However, under the law, acreage allotments would remain in effect and would be used to determine eligibility for price support at the 50-percent-of-parity rate required by law if quotas are not approved. Under this rate, the national average price support for wheat would be about $1.21 per bushel. However, farmers who do not stay within their acreage allotments would not be eligible for price support.

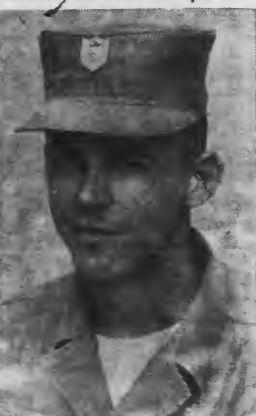

NANNIE TANNER

Services for Mrs. Nannie Tanner, 85, who died Friday at her home on U. S. Highway 42, Florence, were held at 10:30 a. m., Monday at the Stith Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery.

A native of Boone County, she was a life-long resident there. She and her husband, Lonnie, were married 68 years in December. She was active in church affairs at Florence Christian Church.

She also leaves two sons, Kenneth, of Edgewood, and W. Russell, of Florence; a brother, Sam Rouse, of Ft. Thomas, and two grandchildren.

Mary Jo Dixon Writes of Her Second Host Family In Turkey, As Boone's IFYE Delegate

"The two apple pies I made one day for my host family in Sivas disappeared faster than ice cream on a hot day," writes Mary Jo Dixon, Boone County, of her second host family in Turkey. Mary Jo is one of Kentucky's three International Farm Youth Exchange delegates this year. She is living with rural families in Turkey for about five-and-a-half months.

"Never did I realize how cooling hot tea could be—but I'm learning," Mary Jo writes. "I drink very much tea but no milk. The Turks serve a mixture of yogurt and water, which is similar to buttermilk. They also eat a lot of eggplant, tomatoes, and onions. The food is highly seasoned, in most cases, but not with salt. They usually serve soup, vegetables, wheat, and bread. Occasionally, we have meat, but not very often, as it is difficult to keep it without refrigeration."

"In Sivas, I really got to work with my hosts for the first time. I felt right at home when we threshed wheat; I drove the tractor pulling a wooden sled over the grain. My host family had one of the three tractors in the village, which made them a leading family. Those who did not have tractors used oxen to pull the sleds."

"After the wheat is removed from the fields here, they burn the straw rather than plowing it under. After the wheat is threshed, the women wash it in large water troughs. They scatter it on the roofs of their homes to dry. When it dries, they store it in large bags until it is used."

"The homes here are very interesting. Many are yellow with red tile of flat roofs with hay on top. They are usually two stories high and made of a combination of mud, concrete and straw."

"The first floor of my host family's home had four rooms and a large hall. As you entered the front door, a bench for the family's shoes was on the left. Here one removed his outdoor shoes and slipped on a pair of house shoes. One of the downstairs rooms was a family living room and along one wall was a bench covered with rugs and pillows. Also there was a table and a few chairs. Whenever a guest came to the house, the door to this room was closed—with the women inside. Guests were taken upstairs to a very nice living room. The rest of the downstairs was composed of the kitchen and a bedroom."

"The living room upstairs had several arm chairs, a bench along one of the walls, and many small tables used to set tea glasses on. The windows in this room had glass panes but no screens. Along one wall hung a beautiful hand-made Turkish rug. The average Turkish rug takes from six to eight months for one woman to make."

"The streets in the village are dirt or rock. In Sivas, the streets had a steady stream of water flowing down them. An English interpretation for the name of this village is 'water town'. Most of the villages do not have this abundant water supply, however."

"Every village has a school and a mosque. At certain times, during the day, you can hear a singer at the mosque calling the people to prayer. I've seen several women stop their work when this happens, get out their prayer rugs, and kneel in prayer."

I was the first American most people in Sivas had ever seen. Each time I stepped outside, people gathered around to look at me, my clothes, my red hair, and my freckles."

The IFYE program, through which Mary Jo is in Turkey, is sponsored by the National 4-H Club Foundation on behalf of the Cooperative Extension Service. The purpose of the IFYE program is to promote world understanding through young rural people living and working as members of families in other countries.

Foundations

Lesson for September 2, 1962

Dr. Foreman

IT HAD been 50 years since the great Temple of Solomon was burned to the ground, and the beautiful objects of silver and gold, which were so famous, had been carted off as loot by the invaders from the Euphrates. Fifty years is a long time. Men now with grey beards, 60 years old or so, had been young children when the city fell to Nebuchadnezzar. But old people remember far-past events better than most young ones do; and the splendor of Solomon's temple was not to be forgotten.

Foundations

But though not forgotten, Solomon's temple could not be replaced either. The first great public work undertaken by the returned exiles, who brought no wealth with them, was to begin the erection of a temple on the site of the old. When the foundation was laid, the old men wept, because they remembered the magnificence of the old temple and realized that this would never look like that. But the young people shouted for joy, for they had never seen a temple at all. And the young ones were right, for those foundations were to bear the weight of a temple that was destined to last as long as Solomon's, or even longer. It would become a center of religious life for thousands of worshippers. Its successor, even if a king built it (and a king did), would never be loved as this one would be. Incidentally this became the temple where our book of Psalms was first used as a hymn-book.

But it all began with the foundations. All foundations look alike; and they don't look like much. It takes imagination to see a shrine for God rising above the dusty rock of the foundations.

Foundations of Life

All this might suggest to us a parable. Saint Paul once called Christians a temple of the Lord, so we may apply his parable to ourselves. All lives are built on foundations of some kind. Jesus spoke of two houses, perhaps just alike except that one was built on rock and the other one built on sand. Foundations may be out of sight, indeed have to be out of sight if they go down far enough to do some good. Scaffolding is necessary but temporary; foundations are necessary from first day to last. Each human life is built on other lives. The kind of home which a father and especially a mother make, the kind of care they give their children, the spirit of the home, the faith and hope and love of that home, are a foundation on which a good life can be built. A home where there are doubt and hopelessness and hate, a home from which the children escape as soon as they possibly can, is a foundation for the life of a criminal or a beastnik. The probation officer of a large city said that all kinds of juvenile delinquents, with all sorts of backgrounds, had come under his eye; but never yet had he seen a juvenile delinquent from a home where husband and wife lived in harmony.

On What Shall A Nation's Walls Be Set?

Nations like persons have foundations, good or bad. People sometimes wonder if we deceive ourselves when we prefer a democratic state to any other kind. Looking at other experiments in democracy, with the exception of the northern European nations, so-called democracies will not seem very attractive. Is there anything special about American democracy (which is a child, or a first cousin, of the democracies in northern Europe just mentioned)? Yes, there is, and this should be said in thankfulness and without pride, for we had nothing to do with it. There was a long, long period of growth, of trial and error, of practice, you might say, in democratic processes, before we started it over here. We blame the Congolese for making a mess of their country the minute they reach freedom. But would we have done any better with our nation if we had had no foundations? And it should not be forgotten that a corner-stone of our foundation is a long-time faith. "In God we trust" as a motto is worth little; as a foundation it is indispensable.

SHARING

Sharing isn't one of those things that come naturally. It takes a fair bit of "character building" before two youngsters get to the point where they're happy to go fifty-fifty on so much as a bottle of pop!

Fred and Marilyn, as it happens, have learned a lot about sharing in church. For, many years ago, Christ clearly demonstrated that man should be neither selfish nor greedy, and that to live successfully he must learn to give not only of himself, but of his possessions.

In a small, childlike, but completely joyous way, Fred and Marilyn are putting these teachings into practice — just as in many more serious ways, they will be putting other teachings of the Church into use, throughout their lives.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

MORNING VIEW

Mrs. Bessie Forehan, 359-4894

Mrs. Juanita Mullins and daughters, Debbie and Dianne, and Mrs. Loretta Parr visited her son, Bernie Parr, and family of Huntington, W. Va., last week. They went down on the train Monday and Mr. Parr drove down over the weekend and they returned with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duncan and children have been visiting her parents in Paducah, Ky., the past week.

Mr. Russell Cook was taken to Booth Hospital on Friday by the Kenton Life Squad. He is slightly improved at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Shell had as Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jones and family, of Independence, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Sipple and family, of Covington.

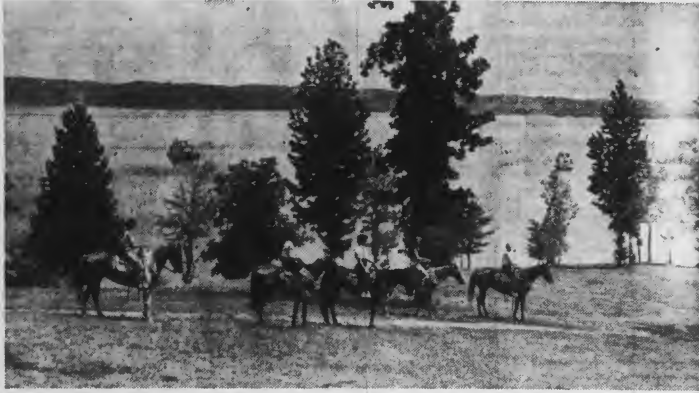

Beverly and Joann Rust, Carol and Judy Baker and Lara Gregory attended the Food and Home Show at the Cincinnati Zoo, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brady had as Sunday guests, Mrs. F. C. Brothers and daughters, Bernice and Jenni, of Decoursey, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caminiti and children, Rodney, Judy and Joe, of Cincinnati.

Beverly and Joann Rust and Carol and Judy Baker were Tuesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brownfield and family, of Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Herzog and son, Greg, of Covington, visited Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Robinson and family, over the weekend.

Mr. Roscoe Spencer and brother, Cardy, of Covington, took a trip to Sky Bridge, Sunday.

BEAUTIFUL KENTUCKY LAKE STATE PARK in southwestern Kentucky offers a fun-filled vacation all year round. Horseback riding is a popular summer sport, along with fishing, water skiing, motorboating and sailing on the 184-mile-long lake. A sand beach and a modern pool overlooking the lake appeal to swimmers. Excellent catches of crappie, largemouth and striped bass and catfish are taken from the lake. Vacationers have a wide choice of accommodations, too — comfortable, fully-equipped cottages, the Kenlake Hotel and a modern tent camping and trailer area with central service building. A paved airstrip permits private plane owners to fly directly to the park. Located near the intersection of U.S. 68, Ky. 80 and Ky. 94, approximately 14 miles from Benton, Ky., the park is on main routes of auto travel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. (Mose) Schadler and family, of Atlanta, Ind., were home for a visit over the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schadler and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bachman. Mrs. Lois Martin and little daughter, Carla Jean, and her son, Rusty, who is now working for Mase in the window cleaning business, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Forehan and Sue Lightner were Sunday guests of Mrs. May Forehan, who has been ill, but is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkins and Mrs. Mamie Abner and two grandchildren, from New Jersey, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. Earls, last Thursday.

group. Naturally, the western section includes all counties lying to the west of this demarcation tier of counties.

According to surveys and bag checks conducted last season by biologist and conservation officers Ken-hunters bagged 1,672,770 squirrels. The bushytail, as this figure reveals, is one of the heaviest game animals in Kentucky and attracts a large number of hunters in all sections of the state. Rifles or shotguns may be used by the hunter except rifles above .243 caliber are illegal.

Clothes on the line and corn shocks in the field are fast becoming symbols of yesterday. The housewife with her clothes dryer and the farmer with his grain dryer are both beating the weather by drying mechanically.

R AISEN bread makes a charming tea snack when it's sliced thin, buttered, rolled and toasted in the oven until just golden. Fasten with toothpick before toasting. For a quick cookie treat blend together miniature marshmallows, chopped walnuts, raisins and melted bittersweet chocolate. Spread over graham crackers or vanilla wafers and let stand until cool.

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE Yummy Squares (Serves 8)

1 No. 2 1/2 size can fruit cocktail
1/2 cup undiluted frozen orange juice concentrate 2 cups miniature marshmallows
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 cup graham cracker crumbs
Drain fruit cocktail thoroughly. Combine orange juice concentrate, marshmallows and salt; stir over low heat until marshmallows melt. Cool. Fold whipped cream into marshmallow mixture. Fold in 2 cups fruit, reserving remainder for garnish. Sprinkle crumbs over bottom of 8-inch square pan and spoon creamy mixture over them. Chill overnight. Cut into squares and serve topped with remaining fruit cocktail.

Make a delicious vegetable casserole by lining a buttered baking dish with strips of cooked carrots, covered with cooked or canned green beans and topping with mashed potato. Bake at 400°F. for 30 minutes.

For something new in desserts try a combination of crushed strawberries, sliced peaches sweetened with powdered sugar. Spoon over warm buttered shortcake.

Sponge cake fingers made from leftover cake take on appeal when they're dipped in melted semi-sweet chocolate, then rolled in chopped nuts.

Squirrel Season Open In Kentucky

Kentucky's squirrel hunters will take to the fields in a section of the state designated as the "Western" part on August 15 with early reports indicating a good supply of bushy-tails, the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources reports.

For those residents of the "Eastern Section" hunting will not be permitted until August 26. The seasons have been divided into two phases in each section of the state with a full 90 days hunting provided in each area.

After the "kickoff" on Aug. 15 in the western section, the season continues through October 31, reopens on November 15 and continues through November 26. For the eastern section the season opens on August 26 and continues through October 31, reopens on November 15 and continues through December 7. The bag limit is six with a possession limit of 12 after two or more days of hunting.

The area designated as Eastern includes these counties: Lewis, Rowan, Menifee, Powell, Estill, Jackson, Rockcastle, Pulaski, and Wayne and all counties lying to the east of this

Hog Diseases Next On State Program

With its battle against cattle brucellosis almost won, the State Department of Agriculture is leveling an attack on hog cholera, hog brucellosis and other infectious hog diseases.

The Department's Division of Livestock Sanitation expects cattle brucellosis to be under control in all 120 counties during 1963. Each county is now in some phase of the program in which the division gives free tests and pays farmers for infected animals which are destroyed. Ninety-one counties are now "modified certified brucellosis areas," meaning the infection rate is less than 1 per cent of cattle within the county, Agriculture Commissioner Emerson Beauchamp reports. The area brucellosis program began in Kentucky in 1957.

Boone County is a modified certified brucellosis area.

Of the 91 counties certified as modified-certified brucellosis areas, 22 are re-certifications, Dr. Hammermeister reported. Twenty-eight counties are in the testing phase and one is in the petitioning phase. The Division has testing laboratories at Hopkinsville and Frankfort.

Brucellosis in cattle causes undulant fever in humans.

25-Day Duck Hunting Season Opens Dec. 6

A 25-day duck hunting season, beginning December 6 and continuing through December 30, has been decreed for Kentucky by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Fish and Wildlife Resources Commission.

The season is shorter by five days than that of last year, while the daily bag limit of two may not include more than one mallard, or one black duck, or two wood ducks or one hooded merganser. It is pointed out that although a hunter may harvest two ducks a day, he may take but one mallard which is the principal target for Kentucky hunters. The possession limit of four, after two or more days of hunting, may include two mallards, or two black ducks, or one of each or two wood ducks or one hooded merganser. The cut in the bag limit of mallards and the shorter season were brought about by the third poor hatching season in a row for these ducks in the northern nesting grounds and this caused the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service to shorten the season and to reduce the bag on mallards.

ANNOUNCEMENT

There has been some question in the minds of many people as to whether the Erlanger Tobacco Market will continue operation due to Boyd Elliott's death.

The Erlanger Tobacco Market WILL OPERATE AS USUAL. We have employed Mr. E. G. Anderson, of Robersonville, North Carolina, to manage the market for us. The old personnel will continue to be connected with the market. Mr. Anderson has had 27 years experience in warehouse operation and comes highly recommended. My advice is to get your tobacco on the market early because Mr. Anderson says he is going to build the best market in Kentucky at Erlanger.

We also want you to know that we appreciate your past business. We are sure you would be wise to come to Erlanger again this year.

Friedman, of Independence, and the groom, Thomas Strain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Strain, of Morning View, were married in a double ring ceremony on July 21st, at 10:00 a. m., in St. Cecelia Church, Independence, by Father Bamberger, pastor. It was a rainbow wedding. A cousin of the bride, Miss Carol Hayes, was maid of honor, and a brother of the groom, Mr. James Edward Strain, was best man. Fruit Juice Snow Is Cool Summer Dessert

For a cool-looking, cool-tasting summer dessert, here's a suggestion from Elizabeth Helton, UK Extension specialist in foods and nutrition. End light summer meals with a tasty "fruit juice snow."

Fruit juice snow can be made with any frozen concentrated fruit juice, but Miss Helton suggests using frozen orange juice concentrate this month, since it is plentiful and low-priced. For fruit juice snow to serve eight, only one 6-ounce can of frozen juice is needed.

Mix 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup sugar, and 1/8 teaspoon salt in a small saucepan. Add 1/2 cup water. Place over low heat, stirring constantly until the gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat; stir in 3/4 cup water and 1 can frozen orange juice.

Chill until slightly thicker than an unbeaten egg white. Then add unbeaten egg whites from 2 eggs. Beat until the mixture is light and fluffy. Spoon into dessert dishes and chill until firm.

This recipe comes from the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service circular 582, "Desserts," which is available at your local county Extension office.

An hour's factory labor in 1959 would buy 2.1 pounds of round steak compared to 1.8 pounds in 1939 or 1.2 pounds in 1929, according to the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture.

How To Remove Scratches, Spots From Wood Finishes

Flower vases and cool summer drinks often leave circles on table or chest tops. Kathryn Sebree, UK Extension specialist in home furnishings, gives some suggestions on treating these and other blemishes on wood surfaces.

Often, you can remove circles or spots caused by sweating containers by treating them immediately with turpentine on a cloth. If treatment is delayed, you may need to rub the spot with pumice powder and raw linseed oil. Keep the powder well-moistened with the oil to prevent scratching the wood.

When hot or sweating dishes cause deep white spots, rub the stains with salad oil and salt, she recommends. Dip your finger in the oil, then in the salt, and rub the spots. Quite a bit of rubbing may be needed to remove these stains.

Light scratches on furniture may be rubbed with a mixture of equal parts of boiled linseed oil, turpentine and white vinegar. Deep scratches in dark furniture will disappear if a small amount of iodine or burnt umber is applied to the scratch. Then cover the treated area with colored wax.

Avoid leaving plastic mats or mats with foam backs on a table, vanity or chest for long periods, Miss Sebree warns. These sometimes cause the wood finish beneath them to look cloudy or white.

No more "turned" shirt collars. U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists have found a way to make longer-lasting collars and cuffs for men's cotton wash-and-wear shirts. An interliner of wash-and-wear fabric is bonded to outer layers of untreated cotton cloth. Together, the give shirt collars and cuffs the wash-wear qualities of the interliner and the high resistance to fraying and abrasion of the untreated cotton.

Last year, the United States exported 41 million long tons of agricultural products, about four times the combined weight of every man, woman and child in the nation.

Out of the recent $27 million National Road Test comes significant new information on pavement performance.

Sponsored by the American Association of State Highway Officials, this road test was the most scientific ever conducted.

Side by side on 5 loops near Ottawa, Illinois, concrete and asphalt test sections carried the same truck traffic for two years. After the impact of more than 1,100,000 loads, the surviving concrete still averaged "very good," while most of the surviving asphalt averaged "fair." Here is further evidence that concrete can give taxpayers long-range riding comfort and lower upkeep costs for their new streets, roads and highways.

KENTUCKIANS

WASHINGTON
 By Gil Kingberry

Roads and Forests:
 Congress has been doing a lot of talking—and taken some action—on new roads and highways.
 One of the most interesting projects in a state where tourist trade is important is the program for forest trails and roads.
 Under a suggested program Kentucky would get 271 miles of forest roads and trails in the next ten years. The cost would be about $5 million.
 Here's our word of warning: Don't cheer yet. The legislation hasn't passed.
Big Roads:
 There's also a move underfoot to pay the states for roads already constructed and are now a part of the interstate system.
 For example, Kentucky 56 miles of such roadway and if Congress approves, the Commonwealth would get about $30 million.
 Again: Don't cheer. The bill is still pending.
To the Future:
 Lawmakers also are looking to the future in road building, allocating money so the states can plan their construction ahead of time.
 Under the program Kentucky would get $68 million for the fiscal year of 1963. There would be another $70 million for 1965.
A Breakdown:
 Most of the money planned for those years would go into the big interstate system—a total of $106 million.
 Another $14 million would be allocated to the primary road system, the program under which Uncle Sam pays half and the state pays half.

 We might make a prediction at this point: Next year the interstate system will be expanded and Kentucky will get added mileage.

Hay that's harvested while it is at the proper moisture point will have the most total digestible nutrients, test show. By feeding top quality hay that's high in total digestible nutrients, farmers can cut feed cost.

To avoid slips on freshly-polished floors, be sure that self-polishing waxes are thoroughly dry before you walk on them. Twenty minutes is usually allowed for drying—30 minutes in humid weather. Any wax that must be polished should be applied in a thin even coat and buffed thoroughly. Too much wax and too little buffing can create a hazard.

More Rigid Laws Needed Governing Door-to-Door Sales

An attorney, Asa M. Rouse, of Walton, writes the sentiments of the entire City of Walton, in regard to the brutal beating of one of our citizens, Ira Dixon, recently and suggests a remedy in the following letter:

Senator James C. Ware
Covington, Kentucky

On Saturday night, August 25th, a dear old friend of mine, Ira Dixon, was brutally beaten by a furnace cleaner who, it is now obvious, had set-up the robbery attempt for that night when he solicited Mr. Dixon's house that day.

Ira Dixon is in his seventies, is colored and is loved by everyone in Walton who knows him, which nearly everybody does. I used to work with him cleaning yards when I was but a small boy and even when in high school. There are very few people for whom I have more respect than I do Ira.

Which brings me to the point of my letter. Ira's beating, described by State Detective Algin Roberts as being the worst of its kind he ever saw, is your fault and mine—to some extent. When are we going to get smart enough to enact legislation to help prevent these crimes perpetrated by the door-to-door hoodlums?

One thought on possible legislation to curb these occurrences is to require ANY door-to-door person to register with the County Clerk or the Sheriff, be fingerprinted and otherwise cataloged. Fingerprinting, just as a thing itself, has a psychological effect that helps prevent crime, so say the experts.

Do you have any idea how many door-to-door solicitors or salesmen are really felons with records, some as long as your arm? I didn't realize it until I looked into it, but this door-to-door gimmick is one of the slickest tools in the hoodlum repertoire today.

Let's take this tool away from him as quickly as possible.

Sincerely yours,
ASA M. ROUSE.

Dog Damage In County Amounts To $176.40 for Year

Boone County property owners have received a $176.40 share of the $37,218.63 reimbursement that has been made to Kentucky property owners for losses due to dogs, Agriculture Commissioner Emerson Beauchamp announced. Payments were for losses occurring between July 1, 1961, and June 30, 1962. Beauchamp declared that payments have been made on the basis of the full, current market value of the animals destroyed or injured. These latest indemnities bring to $330,397.81 the total amount of payments that have been made from the State Livestock Fund since it was started eight years ago. He explained that these payments were made from the State Livestock Fund that is accumulated from the sale of dog licenses. Of each $1.50 annual license sold, 75 cents is sent to the State to administer the licensing program and create a fund for the payment of indemnities for legitimate claims. In order for a claim to be valid, Beauchamp said, three conditions must be met: 1. The ownership of the dog or dogs causing the damage must be unknown. 2. The county where the loss occurs must be in compliance with the dog law through the sale of licenses and the operation of a dog pound. 3. The owner sustaining the loss must not own or harbor any unlicensed dogs.

State Dog Law Administrator, Karl W. Vick, reports that indemnity checks have been mailed out to 692 claimants in 67 counties.

Boone County property owners receiving indemnities and the amounts of the payments follow:

A. W. Bingham, Kelly Road 126, Burlington, $25.20.
Nellie Grant, Route 1, Burlington, $27.00.
Nellie Grant, 2548 Petersburg Rd., Burlington, $43.20.
August Trapp, Jr., Route 1, Union, $52.20.
Remley Williams, Route 1, Verona, $28.80.

Boone High Schools Are Above Average In Drop-Out Rate

A six-year trend study just completed on the holding power and whereabouts of recent graduates of all Kentucky high schools shows that Boone County high schools ranked above the state average in terms of low average drop-out rate.

The study, made by the research division of the State Department of Education, shows that of 260 students who entered the ninth grade during the 1957 school year, 204 or 78.5 per cent were graduated from high school in 1961.

The state average of students who entered the ninth grade of public high schools in 1957 and went on to be graduated in 1961 is 61.4 per cent. The average for both public and non-public schools is 63 per cent.

Figures for the 1961 graduating class are the latest available. The whereabouts of 1962 graduates will be included in an annual report all school principals make to the Department of Education in October. This annual report is the primary source of data for the depth study.

The study also shows that County schools were below the state average in the percentage of 1961 graduates who entered college. Of the students who were graduated in 1961, 61 or 29.9 per cent of the class entered college during the fall of 1961. The state average of 1961 graduates who entered college during 1961 was 36.7 per cent.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Wendell P. Butler said the drop-out problem is one that must be faced squarely by individual school districts. "There is a high degree of correlation between the quality of a school district's educational program and the number of students who drop out," Butler said. "The best receipt for eliminating drop-outs is a good teacher in the classroom," he added.

Cub Tractor To Be Awarded at State Fair, Sept. 11th

Farm Bureau members are urged to attend the Kentucky State Fair on Tuesday, Sept. 11th, Farm Bureau-Rural Electric Day. Attractive prizes will be awarded to lucky winners.

"Tapping a long list of outstanding attendance prizes to be awarded that day is a new cub tractor. It will be presented to a lucky Farm Bureau member through the courtesy of the International Harvester dealers in Kentucky," says Frank Jackson, president of the Kenton County Farm Bureau.

The winner may choose between the Farmall Cub and the International Cub La Boy tractor.

To be eligible for the tractor and other prizes to be given on Farm Bureau Day, you must be a Farm Bureau member in good standing and you must register as a Farm Bureau member at the 1962 State Fair before the drawing.

Walton-Verona School Enrollment Largest In History

The Walton-Verona Schools have opened this year with the largest enrollment in the history of the district. A total enrollment of 619, with 157 of these in grades nine through twelve, got off to a fine start on Tuesday. The enrollment is broken down as follows:

Verona School
Grades 3 and 4	36
Grade 5A	25
Grade 5B	24
Grade 6A	24
Grade 6B	24
Grade 7	35
Total	168

Walton School
Grade 1A	31
Grade 1B	30
Grade 2A	30
Grade 2B	31
Grade 3	37
Grade 4	43
Total	202

Walton-Verona High School
Grade 7	27
Grade 8A	32
Grade 8B	33
Grade 9A	21
Grade 9B	24
Grade 10A	26
Grade 10B	23
Grade 11A	18
Grade 11B	17
Grade 12	28
Total	249

There is a very crowded condition in the third and fourth grade rooms. Teachers cannot do a good job teaching nor can children do a good job under these conditions. There is a space at the Verona school for a room. Plans are under way to hire another teacher and make the necessary changes in moving students to correct the situation. Probably by the time this article is read the change will have been made. Parents are requested to please remember that whatever change is made will be made to give boys and girls a better learning situation while they are in the classroom.

United Appeal Drive "Blasts Off" On September 4th

On September 4th the United Appeal 1962-63 campaign got underway with its usual tremendous thrust.

In Boone County the Geographic Business Chairman, Noel Walton, reported excellent progress with business solicitations. Special Gifts Chairman, Mrs. Wm. F. Foote, also indicated her chairman were receiving excellent response to the United Appeal.

Here are a few facts about United Appeal for Boone Counties as reported by Col. Marshall H. Thomas, Boone County United Appeal Chairman:

1. The $7,000,000 plus goal for the greater Cincinnati five county area will represent about 90% of all money collected there voluntarily for charitable purposes this year. This is without question, the one BIG campaign.

2. Due to United Appeal efforts of the past two years, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Catholic Youth Services have been able to double their activities in Northern Kentucky. These are just three of the 126 organizations in United Appeal.

3. For every $1.00 given in Boone County we get back approximately $3.00 in services.

4. It is estimated that one out of two of all Boone County residents are serviced in some way by one of United Appeal's agencies.

Water Requirements Listed For Farm Family, Animals

Did you ever take water for granted—just because you can turn on the tap and get all you want?

Then look at this list of daily requirements of the average farm family—humans and animals:

They are, says the UK Ag Experiment Station agricultural engineering department:

Each family member, 50 gallons; each milking cow, 35 gallons; each dry cow, 12 gallons; each beef cow, 12 gallons; each hog, 4 gallons; each sheep, 2 gallons; each 100 chickens, 6 gallons.

These figures are useful for two reasons: They give you a basis on which to figure the type or capacity pump you may need to buy, and they show that precious water is often taken for granted.

Start and Finish

Lesson for September 9, 1962

THE TWO parts or stages of any job, or of any enterprise, which are the hardest, are starting and finishing. It is more difficult to set a great liner on her way, harder to bring it through the harbor traffic at the end of the voyage, than to handle the ship on open water in mid-voyage. It is harder for a student to get himself organized and get to work, than it is to keep going once he has started. And it is harder to bring that term paper together as it ought to be finished up, than it was to write on and on. What were the critical moments in the historic space flight of Col. John Glenn? Getting off the pad and into orbit, and re-entering the atmosphere and being picked up by a ship, were much trickier and dangerous than roaring through space at 17,000 miles an hour.

The Blueprint's Getting Yellow

Once there was a church that decided to build a new sanctuary. They employed an architect, who drew up plans, and had blueprints made. Then the church officers began to be afraid they didn't have quite enough money, so they put off starting . . . and kept on putting it off for years. Nobody had a bad conscience about it, because they had started, hadn't they? But finally it dawned on a new preacher there that the blueprints were actually lost. And when after quite a search he found them, they had begun to look yellow. Not only that, but the town had changed so much that the old blueprints were out of date. Something like that happened in Jerusalem long ago when the second Temple was started. It was 20 years between the time the foundations were finished, and the final work on the building. Indeed if it had not been for those persistent prophets, Haggai and Zechariah, who knows when the Temple would have been finished?

These prophets were an interesting contrast. Zechariah was a dreamer of dreams, a seer of visions; much of his prophecy is obscure to this day. Haggai was no mystic, every word of his prophecy can be plainly understood. But prosaic as Haggai was, and fanciful as Zechariah was, they united on one point: The Temple must be FINISHED. Starting is not enough.

Things Don't Finish Themselves

A mistake that lazy people make is to think that by some kind of magic, things will finish themselves. Who has not known the amateur gardener who in springtime was full of enthusiasm, but whose garden by midsummer looked like the prize weed-bed that it was? Every school knows about the teen-age 'drop-outs,' the boys and girls who can't take the time or the trouble to finish high school and so all their lives are under the handicap of not having even a high school diploma. Many a woman has a bureau drawer filled with things she started but didn't finish—pieces of sewing, maybe a pile of unfinished letters, photographs she meant to put in her album but stuck in here till they're all curled and mixed up. Teachers of language know too well the student who starts easily enough, and expects the going to be easier and easier once he has passed the first week's lessons . . . and when it doesn't turn out that way, he gives up and gives out.

A Thing Unfinished

A thing unfinished is that way either because it couldn't possibly be finished no matter what, or because although it could have been finished not a soul was willing to work hard enough to get the job done. If a thing stays unfinished because it couldn't be helped, maybe it is a sign of lack of foresight on somebody's part. There is such a thing as starting too soon. Jesus told a parable about a man who started a house when he did not have and could not get money to finish it. One such house stood in a village for years, known for a generation as "So-and-so's Folly." Or maybe the thing is unfinished because no one has the ambition or the gumption to do what it takes to do it right. A contractor once said that he banished the word "practically" from his organization. A thing "practically" done is done all but the most difficult part! A thing unfinished may as well not have been begun.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Do you suppose Susie wants an addition for her doll family? Or ice cream and cake for supper tonight? Or a new pair of fancy black patent-leather shoes?

I'm Susie's mother, but I wouldn't know! You'd have to have seven league boots to keep apace with her active little mind!

For instance, she'd overheard us discussing our new family policy of having a suggestion box. Susie was determined to get into the act too. It is typical of her, typical of our family. We enjoy doing things together. We believe in unity in work, in play, and in prayer.

We center our family activities about the Church. The children go to Church School—Susie can hardly wait for each Sunday morning—and my husband is active in the Men's Club. I am president of the woman's group in our parish. Yet—it does take a lot of time and effort. But I am never happier than when I am doing church work, because I know how truly worthwhile it is.

Don't forget that your church needs workers too! Just as you need the Church!

Large pieces of cooked meat may be frozen for later use if adequately wrapped. Put the meat in the freezer as soon as possible after the meal. Pack the meat compactly and be sure the wrapping fits snugly against it. The quality of leftover meat is about the same whether it is frozen or kept in the refrigerator; the advantage of freezing is that the meat keeps safely for a longer time.

Full Speed Ahead For United Appeal Drive In This County

Mr. Noel Walton, Boone County Geographic Business Chairman, reported excellent progress for his United Appeal business campaign. Response was especially strong in the first week in Walton and Burlington.

Both Mr. Asa Rouse and Mr. Nelson Applegate of Burlington deserve applause and will surely be far over their respective goals by the first official report luncheon on Wednesday, Sept. 19. Last year at this same luncheon Boone County's report electrified the entire five county area chairmen by being so far ahead in Geographic Business solicitations. We hope to be able to do the same this year.

Special Gifts Chairman, Mrs. Wm. F. Foote, had fine reports from Dr. and Mrs. Gaines Huey co-chairmen in Walton and Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Dougherty, co-chairmen in the Florence area.

To show why United Appeal needs your gift: The recent Sandfordtown flood (very close to Boone County) cost United Appeal agencies almost $20,000 in helping families, who were flooded out there, to get back on their feet. Two Boone County families were flooded also and received approximately $500 in goods and services.

The Walton tornado cost United Appeal agencies $22,500. One disaster like this costs far more than our Boone County quota.

Walton Literary Club Holds First Meeting At Lusby Residence

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Dan W. Bedinger, who in her usual pleasing manner, extended greetings to members and guests. While in business session, Mrs. Bedinger announced that the members of the Walton Club were invited to attend the dedication program of the new meeting place of the Warsaw Womens Club.

The members were pleased to have as their guest speaker, Miss Kathleen Wellman, from the School of Fashion and Modeling in Cincinnati. She gave an interesting and very informative talk. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Alan H. Gaines.

To Improve Electric Service

The Union Light, Heat and Power Company is spending $4½ million in 1962 to improve its gas and electric service in Northern Kentucky, William H. Zimmer, president announced Thursday.

Every year for the past decade, ULH&P has engaged in multi-million dollar expansion projects to improve its facilities and better customer service, Mr. Zimmer stated.

The year 1961 was a banner year in ULH&P expenditures in Northern Kentucky, with $5.7 million being spent for new property, plant and equipment, Mr. Zimmer cited.

Nearly $3 million was spent by the company in mining the huge liquid propane storage cavern 450 feet underground and erecting an adjacent gas processing plant. These new facilities, located in the Constance-Erlanger area, are used to augment the gas supply of customers during periods of extremely cold weather.

This year's $4½ million program calls for construction of new electric feeder and transmission lines, substations, and extension and replacement of gas mains.

ULH&P now has more than $40 million invested in property, plant and equipment in the Northern Kentucky area. A total of 1,217 Northern Kentuckians, with a payroll of

File For Farm Gas Tax Refund by September 30

Farmers have until September 30 to file for Federal tax refunds on gasoline used for farming purposes during the past fiscal year (July 1, 1961 to June 30, 1962). This reminder comes from Stephen Q. Allen, UK Extension specialist in agricultural economics.

Farmers must use Federal Internal Revenue Service Form 2240 to file for this refund. These forms are available from the office of the District Director of Internal Revenue, Louisville 2, Ky., or from your county Extension agent's office.

The amount of the tax refund is 4 cents for each gallon of gasoline used for agricultural purposes off the highways, Allen concludes.

Keep Children Physically Fit For School

Many six-year-olds started out on life's first big adventure—school—and it is hoped every child began this happy journey in the best physical condition possible.

If your child is in good health, you can be sure he will be able to do his best in school. See that your child gets a thorough physical and dental examination from your family physician and dentist and is properly immunized.

Kentucky law now requires a pre-school examination for all first graders and immunization before the age of one year for smallpox, tetanus, polio, diphtheria and whooping cough. Children entering school for the first time must present a certificate stating that they have been immunized against these diseases, with the exception of whooping cough.

Following the pre-school examination, your child should have regular medical and dental checkups throughout the school life.

If your child has a health problem, let the school know what it is and what has been done to correct the condition so the teachers can better fit him into the school program.

School is a place to practice good health habits. These should be taught and practiced at home, long before the child starts to school. Before starting in the first grade he should know how to use a drinking fountain, the toilet, and wash basin correctly. He should know to brush his teeth after eating and to wash his hands with soap and water after play, before and after eating and after using the toilet.

He should also know to keep his fingers out of his mouth, to keep foreign objects out of his mouth, nose and ears, and to cover his coughs and sneezes with a handkerchief.

Qualifications of Office Are Given

The voters of the Walton-Verona School District will have the responsibility of filling three vacancies on the Board of Education in November at the November election on the even numbered years voters first Board of Education ballots. This being an even numbered calendar year there will be an election of three members of the board of education to take office on the first Monday in January. These three offices are held by David Houston, Chairman, Clarence Vest and Charles Worthington. The other two positions on the board, which are held by Arthur Doggett and George Black, will be vacant in 1964 and will have to be filled in the 1964 November election.

The qualifications of a board member are as follows: (1) must be twenty-four years of age, (2) must be a citizen of Kentucky for at least three years preceding the election and be a voter of the school district, (3) must have completed the eighth grade in the common schools or have the equivalent of an eighth grade education determined by an examination, (4) must not hold any political office in the district, (5) must not be in the business of selling to the board of education and (6) must not have been removed from membership on a board of education for cause.

A board member is eligible for reelection unless he becomes disqualified. Also a board member shall vacate his office if he becomes interested in any contract or claims against the board, if he is nominated or elected to any office in the district or if he moves from the district. No member of a board of education shall vote regarding the appointment or employment in any capacity of any person related to him.

The County Clerk shall cause to be printed on the ballot the names of legally eligible candidates in whose behalf he is petitioned to do so in writing by not less than fifty legal voters of the Walton-Verona School district. For the coming election, since there are three vacancies to fill, no voter may sign more than three petitions. These petitions must be presented to the County Clerk not (Continued On Page Seven)

Make sure he eats the right kind of foods—start his day with a good breakfast, see that he gets the proper amount of sleep and exercise and eliminates regularly, and dress him appropriately according to the weather.

Giving your child a good start in his early years is insurance for his success and happiness in his school career.

Leadership

Lesson for September 16, 1962

A MAN who succeeds in doing what no man has ever done before is a great man, provided what he does is worth doing. A man who succeeds where others have failed, is even greater—again supposing that what he does is a good thing to do. Nehemiah was such a man. He would be a success anywhere, and not only at the time and place where he lived. The first we hear of him, he is a member of the royal court in what is now Iran, the ancient Persia. He was evidently a man the king trusted, one to whom the king gave much power. Yet he was one of the down-trodden Jews, as they were at that time. Nehemiah himself is a fine example of what happened to the Jews who were taken into captivity. They were not put into dungeons, only some of the more prominent ones suffered that fate. Most were left to sink or swim, and being Jews they generally swam. Nehemiah showed how far they could rise if they had the chance.

The Time and the Man

A glance at the calendar helps us to understand the genius of this man. It was now about 140 years after Jerusalem had been destroyed, or 90 years after the Temple had been started. But in all that time no one had ever succeeded in getting a stable government in Jerusalem or to build practical protection against their numerous enemies. In those days every going city had to have a wall around it; but in 140 years the city wall had been lying in ruins exactly as Nebuchadnezzar's primitive bull-dozers had left it. This was all news to Nehemiah when he first heard of it; it was a shock, too. That this should be so, goes to show that prosperous Jews like Nehemiah had no notion of the poverty-stricken, danger-filled lives the Jerusalem Jews had been living.

When Nehemiah, with government backing, went to see what he could do in Jerusalem, by building the wall as his Number One project he became the man of the hour. Five generations had passed; Nehemiah had been needed long before now; but at last he arrived and took charge.

Knowledge and Leadership

What are the qualities that make a man a hero? What are the characteristics of a "man of the hour"? Nehemiah is a very good example. He was a successful leader partly because of what today we would call "know-how," a penetrating understanding of a situation, an accurate aim at the heart of his problem, and above all an art in getting people to do what they ought to do. Sometimes a leader learns on the job, so to speak, as Abraham Lincoln did. Sometimes he comes to his great task already knowing what to do and how to do it. But if he neither knows nor can learn, he is no leader. Nehemiah's genius lay chiefly in this: he was able to make handicaps work with him, not against him. The people had always been a quarrelsome lot, as the Old Testament shows us. There were many cross-currents, of jealousy in the dusty rubble-filled insignificant village that wanted to be a city again. These had defeated other men, no doubt. But Nehemiah put these jealousies to work. He had the goldsmiths working at one section of that wall, and the priests somewhere else. He pitted them against one another, and so induced them to do their best work.

Leadership and Faith

Readers may be interested in studying the story of Nehemiah to see what were the various ways in which he showed his power of leadership. But one of his qualities was vital, and must not be overlooked: Faith. The book called by his name, though filled with action, begins and ends with prayer. This man had faith in himself; self-respect was a notable quality in his make-up. He had faith in people if rightly led. But first and last his faith was in God. He could undertake the impossible because he believed God would do it, and what God wills, can be done. Nehemiah makes it quite clear that while he worked and planned, his energy would have faded, his undertakings miscarried, if he had not been sustained by the God in whom he constantly trusted.

LIFE'S LABORATORY

Have you ever thought of your life as a laboratory? There are no test tubes, and no scientific textbooks to aid us in our study, but we've been given other aids more important still. We call them God's formulas for living.

ARE WE AFRAID? Then we may test the Christ-given formula, "Be not afraid, only believe."

ARE WE LONELY? Then we reach for the promise of the Lord, "And I, I am with you always..."

DO WE DOUBT THAT GOD CARES? Then we can analyze for ourselves the message of the Christ, "God so loved the world that He gave His Son..."

These are only a few of the formulas for our lives.

To test them we must first know them. The Church is ready to teach. We shall need direction also. The Church offers us the help of consecrated pastors and leaders.

Let's go to Church and learn the transforming power of God's formulas in the laboratories of our lives.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Watching your weight? Then take advantage of summer vegetables to help you stick to your diet. Most of them are low in calories and high in minerals and vitamins. But watch the seasoners you use. Rich sauces or lots of butter or fat add many calories. Serve the vegetables raw, or, when you cook them, bake, broil or steam them. Then add no-calorie seasoners, such as spices and herbs or a dash of lemon juice or vinegar.

Just like every summer for years, one of this summer's favorite foods has been a "hot dog on a bun." The weiner or "hot dog" is the most popular and best-selling sausage product in this country. Recipes vary for the weiner, but it usually contains about 60 percent beef, 40 percent pork and spices.

Once we thought that cherry pits were good for nothing more than making wishes. Now we find this isn't so. Researchers have found that cherry pits make excellent charcoal briquets. How long before you'll be using them at your backyard cookouts? Maybe soon, maybe never. It depends on whether the cherry pits will be economically feasible, and the researchers are looking into that now.

Cotton is still king with U.S. consumers, in spite of all the man-made fabrics on the market. USDA's Economic Research Service reports that we in the U.S. used an average of 22 pounds of cotton per person last year, 11 pounds of synthetic fibers, and 3 pounds of wool.

WALTON-VERONA SCHOOL NEWS

The enrollment of the schools has increased to 623 at the beginning of the second week. The administration and teachers are very happy and pleased with the fine way that school has started. After shifting some of the elementary students and employing additional teachers we have a very fine situation in that there are no split rooms in either school. There are two rooms for each grade with enrollments of from 24 to 31. There seems to be a very fine attitude on the part of parents, students and teachers and for this everyone is grateful.

LUNCHROOM MENU

The Verona and Walton lunchrooms are preparing the same daily menu. With few exceptions during the year the same lunch will be served in both schools. The following is the menu for the week of September 17-21.

Monday: Coney Island, Baked Beans, Pineapple Salad, White Cake with Chocolate Sauce and Milk.

Tuesday: Chili, Carrot Sticks, Peanut Butter Sandwich, Brownies and Milk.

Wednesday: Salisbury Steak, Mashed Potatoes, Buttered Peas,

Milk, Bread and Butter and Ice Cream.

Thursday: Barbecue on Bun, Potato Salad, Celery Sticks, Cherry Pie and Milk.

Friday: Macaroni & Cheese, Green Beans, Carrot Sticks, Peach Half, Hot Rolls and Butter and Milk.

School Board Vacancies

less than 45 days nor more than 60 days before the election date. In this case the dates for filing petitions would be from Sept. 7 up to and including Sept. 21.

The voters of the Walton-Verona School District should give this serious thought and be ready an election day to vote for three dedicated people. Dedicated in the sense that they have only one objective for serving on the board and that objective being to do their best to provide the best possible school for the boys and girls of the Walton and Verona communities. The voters as well as the men and women that may be candidates need to be aware of what is involved in being a board member. It is one of the most important offices that a person can be elected to. It is a job of great responsibility to voters as well as the children, a job of little or no thanks, a job that offers great criticism and a job which does not pay one penny. On the other hand it is a job in which a person can feel a great deal of pride and have a feeling that you are serving and accomplishing something for the greatest group of people in the world; the children of Walton-Verona.

Secretary Freeman Commends Work Of ASCS Employees

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman recently paid tribute to Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office employees for their role in bringing the benefits of the emergency wheat and feed grain programs to the farmers of the Nation. He stated that the public owes ASCS employees gratitude for their part in successfully launching a program that is saving taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars.

Speaking in Minneapolis, at the annual convention of National Association of ASCS County Office Employees, the Secretary said:

"The new programs enacted last year, which we were able to initiate so successfully only because of the effective operation of county ASCS offices, reversed the trend of nearly a decade of ever-increasing surpluses, and resulted in a $1 billion jump in farm income . . .

"The rise in farm income generated by these programs is helping business in rural areas and small towns. It has already resulted in a substantial rise in production and sales of farm machinery and equipment, thus demonstrating once again how the level of farm income affects business and industry.

Dubois Winter Oat Is Top Yields In U.K. Variety Tests

Dubois winter oat (one of four recommended winter oat varieties for Kentucky use) was the top yielder in a two-location planting test conducted this season by the U. K. Ag Experiment Station.

Dubois averaged 55.4 bushels an acre in tests at the Lexington Experiment Station and the Princeton Experiment Substation. There were 42 varieties or selections in the two tests (their average was 55.1), according to Randolph Richards, Princeton, and James Shane, Lexington, agronomists. Results of the other recommended varieties were: Forke-door, 53.2; Bronco, 51.3, and Atlantic, 44.9.

Highest yielder of the entire test was KYXP 54-1630, with 77.2 bushels for the two locations. This is a Kentucky experimental line.

The agronomists noted that the recommended varieties performed very well again, demonstrating that they are best for Kentucky use. Certified seed of these varieties is recommended for top performance.

Complete data on the winter oats test are in a mimeographed pamphlet entitled "Yield Results from the 1962 Kentucky Small Grain Trials." This may be obtained by writing Mr. Shane, Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky., or Mr. Richards, Box 675, Princeton, Ky.

Planting Dates Vary For Winter Wheats

Planting dates for winter wheats vary in this state, depending on Hessian fly-resistance principally.

There are five recommended winter wheat varieties for Kentucky, says S. H. Phillips, UK Ag Extension Service agronomist. They are Monon, Knox, Vermillion, Todd and Dual.

Monon, he says, is a short-strawed early variety and a potential high yielder. It is more resistant to smut than Knox, for instance, and is Hessian fly-resistant. It can be planted from Sept. 5 to Oct. 20.

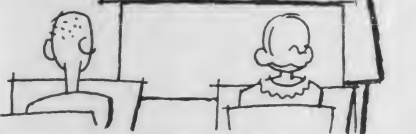

Knox and Vermillion are similar to Monon, and more resistant to loose smut than the others. But they are NOT Hessian fly-resistant. They should NOT be planted before Oct. 6 in Northern Kentucky and not before Oct. 15 in southern and western Kentucky.

Dual and Todd are later-maturing varieties, good yielders and are Hessian fly-resistant. They can be planted, as Monon, from Sept. 5 to Oct. 20. Phillips says certified seed should be used for best performance. This includes the ability to control loose smut. Use from 1 to 1½ bushels of seed per acre.

All the Kentucky recommended varieties are soft red winter wheats. Hard red winter wheats or white wheats should not be planted in Kentucky as there is a chance of their being discounted at receiving mills after harvest.

Look For Top Quality In The Frozen Foods You Buy

How can you be sure you're getting top quality in the frozen foods you buy?

As a shopper, you have no way of knowing what has happened to the foods before they reach the retail store. But you can watch out for poor handling there and take proper care of the foods after you buy them. If frozen fruits and vegetables are not properly handled, at any time after they are packaged, they will lose color, flavor, texture, and nutritive value.

The U.S. Department of Agricultural Research Service gives these suggestions for getting the most for your frozen food money:

At the market, check the temperature of the food case, if possible. An indicator often is inside; it should register zero degrees or below. The case itself should be clean and the food stacked no higher than the fill line. Be sure you choose packages that are clean and firm. Avoid buying misshapen packages; this may mean the food was thawed and refrozen.

Also make sure packaging materials are not torn, crushed or juice-stained. Frozen food that is exposed or poorly packaged dries out and develops off-flavors quickly.

The rest of the task of keeping frozen food quality high is up to you the reserchers say.

Select frozen foods at last—just before you go through the check-out line. Ask the checker to put your frozen foods in a double grocery bag or insulated food carrier; this is especially important during hot weather. As soon as you've bought your groceries, go home and put the frozen items into the freezer immediately. Then remember to use them within a few months.

Fruits and vegetables will last from 8 to 12 months. But don't try to keep TV dinners or meat pies more than 3 months, the USDA researchers warn. Ice cream should be eaten the same month it is bought.

The above storage times are for foods that are high quality when you buy them and that are kept zero degrees or below in storage. It's a good idea to try one or two packages out of each lot soon after you bring them home to see if you can expect the rest to hold their good quality for the planned storage period.

KENTUCKIANS

WASHINGTON By Gil Kingsbury

Former Kentuckian:

A new man has taken over a new division in the Bureau of Public Roads, a former Kentucky highway engineer, Robert Baker. He's going to do research on transportation, including such Buck Rogers' projects at automatic highways.

Mr. Baker comes to Washington from Ohio State University but for three years he was with the Kentucky Highway Department doing research. It's a pretty important job.

Recreation Areas:

If the Congress passes the "river" legislation now before it, Kentucky can expect more recreational areas and more tourist dollars to add to its growing fund.

Preliminary steps have been taken to build new lakes near Pikeville, near Grayson, near London and Corbin, and in Taylor and Green counties. All this is in addition to the big one, Barkley Lake in Western Kentucky.

On top of that, money has been set aside for surveys on the Licking River and also on Kinniconick Creek near Vanceburg.

Recent Suit:

That recent suit challenging the congressional re-districting of Kentucky brings up some information from the Census Bureau. You know who has the largest district? One Bruce Alger, Texas Republican, who represents 950,000 persons. In contrast is Congressman John Bennett of Michigan, also a Republican, who votes for 177,000 persons.

Kentucky's district population ranges from 300,000 to more than 600,000.

Migration:

We've heard a lot about the migration of Kentuckians to other states. According to the Census Bureau, the migration of Southerners to other sections is on the decline. And the exodus of Midwesterners is on the upswing.

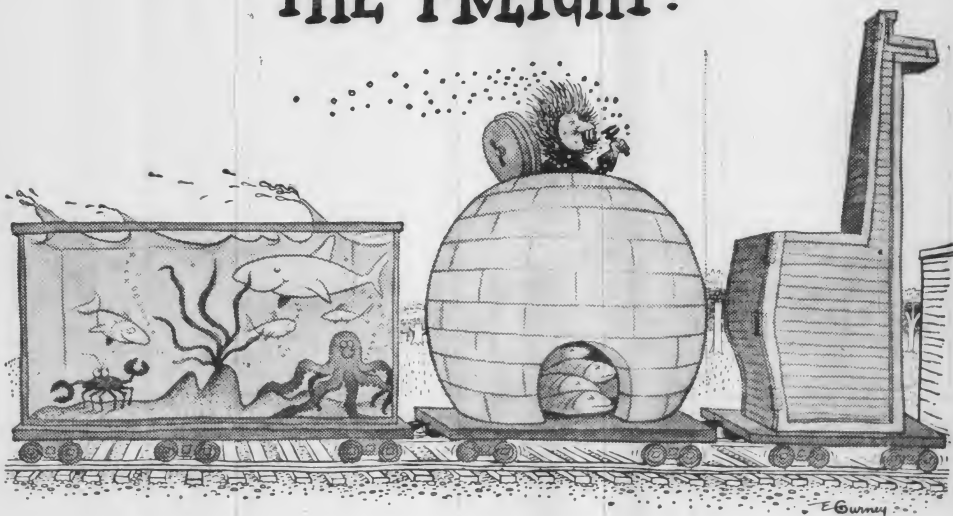

One factor, however, remains constant. Rural folks are still on the move, going to town to make a living.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM HAS THE RIGHT CAR...WHATEVER THE FREIGHT!

OUR artist is highly imaginative, but he is on the right track. You don't see cars like these on the Southern today, but don't bet that you never will. If enough of our customers ever want them, we'll furnish them — just as we are supplying right now an ever-increasing number and variety of special-purpose freight cars custom-designed to meet specific shipping needs.

Here are some "for instances"...

Our "BIG JOHN" lightweight aluminum-body covered hopper car, of 5,000 cubic-foot capacity, that can carry a load of 100-tons-plus.

Our easy-load, easy-unload "all-door" freight car with roll-up sides that extend the length of the car.

Our high-capacity, lightweight wood-chip car that can handle more than twice the volume of chips as the formerly used standard hopper car.

Our "Super-Cushion" box car with a special hydraulic shock absorption device that "soaks up" damage-producing shocks.

Our multi-level automobile carriers that haul as many as 12 standard cars or 18 "compacts" from automobile assembly plants to distribution points on the railroad.

Our largest-in-the-world, jumbo box car, so big (10,000 cubic feet) that skylights are provided in the roof to illuminate the car's interior.

Our special container-carrying car in Rail-Highway Service, offering the best of both rail and highway transportation in one package.

Our open type, lumber-hauling "chain car" that eliminates as much as 80% of manual loading costs, one shipper said.

Most of these special-purpose cars were designed by Southern in our never-ending effort to increase our usefulness to our customers, and to the South. Many new types of freight cars have been introduced by Southern Railway in recent years. Many more are coming. We are breaking with tradition to lower our customers' packaging, handling and transportation costs.

Like we said, don't bet on the future. The fact that something has "never been done" means to us that maybe it's time to do it! Especially, if it will help us increase our usefulness to the territory we serve. All in the South benefit!

Sod Webworm May Damage Your Lawn

Irregular brown areas in your lawn? Possibly caused by the sod webworm, says Kenton County Agent William T. Strow.

R. L. Miller, UK Ag Extension Service entomologist, says the damaged areas usually are confined to areas exposed to sunlight. The pest itself is the larva (worm) of the lawn moth. The lawn moth is a grayish brown moth; it has two thin projections from in front of the head. These moths fly short distances in a jerky, erratic pattern, and hide in the grass where they lay their eggs. There are several generations a year of the moths; thus damage can occur several times a season.

Control measures:

1. Sevin, 50 percent strength wettable powder. Put one cup of the powder in 15 to 20 gallons of water. Spray lawns in late afternoon, after sprinkling lawn thoroughly. Do not water the lawn after Sevin application for two days. Pets and children can play on the lawn one day after the application.

2. Diazinon, Chlordane, Dieldrin or Toxaphene. Use in the liquid form first, then sprinkle the yard with enough water to wash the material into the top quarter-inch of soil. (Liquid form means the form in which the material is received from the dealer, such as emulsifiable concentrate. Mix this with water and apply from a sprinkling can).

Too much water applied will wash the insecticide below the insect level to be effective. Do not allow children or pets onto the lawn until the material has been thoroughly washed off the grass, and the grass has dried completely.

I-75 Open From Covington To Williamstown

Kentucky officially opened another important section of its Interstate Highway system, last Friday.

State officials participated in ribbon cutting ceremonies dedicating some eleven miles of I-75 between Florence in Boone County and Fifth Street in Covington, Kenton County.

The new 11-mile section is part of Interstate construction in Northern Kentucky which will cost $35 million and will include a new Cincinnati-Covington bridge across the Ohio River.

With the opening, traffic may now travel on I-75 from Fifth Street in Covington to just South of Williamstown in Grant County, a distance of about 38 miles. A five-mile section of I-75 between Dry Ridge and Williamstown was opened to traffic in August without ceremony.

Paving is underway on another 12-mile section of I-75 in Scott County from Georgetown northward. It will be opened to traffic this year.

Grade and drain work is "well along" on the remaining portion between the Scott County paving and Williamstown, according to highway officials. It is scheduled for completion in 1963, as is the section from Georgetown southward to a temporary tie-in with U. S. 25 north of Lexington.

Eventually I-75 will join with I-64 (the principal East-West Interstate route across Kentucky) near Lexington and continue southward to the Tennessee border. A four-mile section from Saxton in Whitley County to the Tennessee line will also be completed this year.

When completed, I-75 in Kentucky will extend 186 miles from the new Cincinnati-Covington bridge to the Tennessee border, traversing 11 Kentucky counties.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Bible Materials: Malachi.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 119:1-10.

The Best for God
Lesson for September 23, 1962

EVERY priest and every minister you see is what he is because he chose to be so. He follows what Roman Catholics call "Vocation" and Protestants a "Call." — that is, he believed it was God's will that he should be a priest or a minister as the case might be, and so he of his own free will followed the Spirit's guidance.

In the old He-Dr. Foreman brew days it was different. No man had to decide anything about a call to the ministry, that is to say the priesthood. A man was either born into a family of priests or not. If not, there was no way by which he could become one. On the other hand, if he was born the son of a priest, there was no getting out of it unless he was seriously crippled. The effect of this, naturally, was that many men were priests who had no liking for their work and perhaps very little capacity for it. They would get through their work at the temple as quickly and easily as they could. They were much more interested in the pay than in the service.

God Wants the Best

This was the situation which the prophet Malachi faced. Religion was at a low ebb in Jerusalem and thereabouts. People offered to God the least they could get by with. With the priests' bad example before them, the every-day worshippers grew quite indifferent to the whole business or religion. God got the tag-ends, tag-ends of sacrifices (lambs that were sick anyhow, for example), tag-ends of money, and probably small tag-ends of time. Anything would do for God, it was thought. Malachi tried to break through this piggish indifference. We do not know how successful he was, but we do know what he tried to do. He tried to help God's people recover the conviction that God is real, all-good and almighty. He is every man's best friend. The Israelites were not only treating God shabbily, they were actually robbing him. If a man wants his friend to have the best, what must we think—what must God think—of men who not only treat God and his laws and his service with contempt, and actually give God the worst instead of the best?

God Gets the Worst

This is not a parable from olden times. Its something we can observe in almost any church. Who gets the best of the church member's money? Not God, not always. The family car, the mortgage payments, clothes and parties to "keep up with the Joneses," one hundred and one things get the best of the family income, and they offer God, through his church, part of what's left after they have provided for everything else.

God gets the worst of time, too. Is time set apart for Bible reading an important part of the day? Is the time spent in Bible reading and prayer combined, as much as is spent in listening to the weather reports on the radio? Is the time set apart for personal religion a time when one is most wide-awake, or most sleepy? As for Sundays, the story is the same. The flimsiest excuses serve to excuse absences from church.

Test of Reality

Here's some one complaining that religion does not seem real, God doesn't seem real. No wonder! The test of the reality of a man's faith is not the nice words he sings about it in church. The test is in what he puts into it. This situation of boredom and lack of interest can't be cured first of all by putting more time and money into the church. That comes later, not first. The best of your talents; the best of your time, the best of your mind and heart for prayer and opening your mind to God's word; if you are willing to give that much, you will find your religion growing real.

There is one more thing that must be said, especially to fathers and mothers, teachers and friends of young people. The boys and girls you love are your most precious possession—you may say. But rightly speaking they are not your possession at all. God lent them to you. Many a boy or girl who has wanted to enter God's service in the church, has been talked or bullied out of it by older people. Don't rob God of his greatly needed helpers!

SUPPORT YOUR UNITED APPEAL

do you remember?

Do you remember the first time you listened to a sea shell? And when you watched a sunflower turn toward the sun? And when you tried to guess where the pot of gold was at the end of the rainbow? Life is full of sweet mysteries for the young. Do you remember?

In fact, life reveals even more sweet mysteries as we grow older. When we think of these things, the mysteries of life, of God's care of us, of the wonders of the universe—you, know, that's a way of praying! Yes, just thinking about God.

Fortunately, too, we have the Church—your church—a place to contemplate such things, to pray, to ask questions, and give thanks to Almighty God. Go to the church of your choice this Sunday. There you will find some of the answers . . . to some of these wondrous mysteries.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"THE VILLAGE INN" is the official name of the new 56-room lodge at Kentucky Dam Village State Park near Gilbertsville, which was dedicated in July. Mrs. Charles M. Hoge of Frankfort, a State Highway Department employee, suggested the name in a name-the-lodge contest. Entries were received from 2,144 people. Mrs. Hoge's was the earliest-postmarked of three entries suggesting "The Village Inn." Eleven people suggested "Village Inn." Her prize is a week's vacation at the park, where she will be a guest at The Village Inn. The new lodge, first of eight being dedicated this year, has a 300-seat dining room and an outdoor swimming pool. Each air-conditioned room has a private balcony overlooking Kentucky Lake.

Social Security Facts:

A bit of excitement recently came along to liven up the routine, according to Jim Myers, Field Representative of the Covington social security district office. Word came in that Snow White and crew had started picking a crop, and the owner of the farm wanted to know what to do about their social security. Upon inquiry, it was found that the crew leader was not the fairy tale character but was Jake White, better known to his friends and fellow workers as "Snow" White.

In telling the story of "Snow" White, Mr. Myers noted that some farm operators in this area are still not completely familiar with the rules on reporting earnings of seasonal and migrant farm workers. We went on to explain that if the farmer hires an individual, then the farmer is responsible for taking care of reporting his wages to social security.

Mr. Myers gives this advice for those who will need to make social security reports for farm labor:

1. Keep a record of each employee's name and social security number exactly as shown on his social security card.
2. Keep an accurate record of the cash wages paid to each employee.

If you have that information you will have all you need to make up your report at the end of the year.

WILMINGTON W.M.S.

The W. M. S. of Wilmington Baptist Church, Fiskburg, met last Wednesday at 10:30 a. m. for an all-day meeting.

The morning services were the Royal program. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Bagby. A song, "Have Thine Own Way Lord," was sung by the group. Mrs. Naomi Spegal had charge of the roll call and reading of the minutes. The morning program was called with prayer by Mrs. Blanche Harker. A delicious pot-luck lunch was served and enjoyed by all.

The afternoon program was on State Missions, which is a very needy cause in our own State of Kentucky.

Those present were Mrs. Annie Collins, Mrs. Ada Spegal, Mrs. Wilma Mullins, Mrs. Marietta Wilson, Mrs. Naomi Spegal, Mrs. Blanche Harker, Mrs. Lena Bagby, Mrs. Sarah McGibney, and the pastor, Dr. W. F. McGibney.

Several cards, visits and phone calls were made to the sick. Prayers all through the day were for so many needs of the State missions. Closing prayer was by Mrs. McGibney.

KENTUCKIANS

WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

New Commissioner:

The Atomic Energy Commission has a new member, a Kentuckian. He is James Thomas Ramey, a native of Eddyville. He takes over the job after serving as executive director of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy.

His friends describe him as a brilliant man, a graduate of Amherst and Columbia. And to prove their contention, they point to Ramey's Phi Beta Kappa key.

A Basketball Player:

Ramey's fame as a student, however, is also matched by his fame as a basketball player.

Back in the 1930's, while an Amherst student, he won his letter as a player. Today, however, his hobby is something else. He raises camellias in a small greenhouse attached to his home in Maryland. He also likes to fish.

Devotion To Duty:

While acting as director of the Joint Congressional Committee, the Kentucky native earned a reputation as a hard driver. He, himself, works hard and he expects those around him to do the same thing.

He's in favor of the atomic testing program but would like to see disarmament. However, he is convinced that disarmament is not possible under world conditions.

A Classmate:

Dr. Ramey married a Columbia University classmate and Mrs. Ramey is a student in her own right. She has a doctor's degree and is an associate professor at Georgetown University.

The Rameys have two children. A son is a student at the Ramey alma mater, Amherst. A 16-year old daughter is a high school student.

A simple moisture test for silage is to squeeze a handful. If it springs right back it's too dry. If it comes back gradually it's just right. If it remains in a compact mass it is too wet.

We were proud to have as our first assembly speaker of the year, Ronnie Tackett, who told us of the wonderful experiences he had this summer while attending a ten-day International Relations Institute at the University of Louisville. This was a great honor indeed for there were only 38 seniors attending this Institute out of all the seniors in Kentucky. Rannie feels that the Institute was wonderful and especially the chance that he had to meet the delegates from 28 different countries.

We will be having assembly programs planned each week this year, as we did last, and Mr. Doan invites any parents and visitors to come to our assembly programs.

On September 13, the Student Council held its first meeting of the new school year. There are many things we hope to do this year. One of the first things on the list will be a trip to Danville, September 28, for a meeting of the Kentucky Association of Student Councils. At this conference we hope to learn new and better ways of fulfilling our duties as Student Council members. We hope that we will also be able to learn ways of building up school spirit and creating interest in our school.

With the assistance of Mrs. Carry Sturgeon and Mrs. Mattie Orr, the officers for the coming year were installed. We are happy to welcome Mrs. Gladys Alford as president.

Plans were discussed for a church nursery. If you are interested in donating for this worthy cause, please contact Mrs. Lillian Stephenson.

The program was led by Mrs. Mary Porter and opened with the hymn, "I Love to Tell the Story." The subject for study this month was "International Students." Mrs. Mattie Orr gave the call to prayer. Those participating in the program were Mrs. Lillie Mae Cook, Mrs.

Marian Searcy, Mrs. Gwynola Dunn, Mrs. Dora Burchett, and Mrs. Lillian Stephenson. The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Vevie Webster.

The Week of Prayer for State Missions was observed with a good average attendance for the five days. This proved inspirational for those who attended. We thank our pastor's wife for so graciously leading the program each day.

this is a job

Do you see it? NO. Because it is not there. It's in Tennessee. It's in Ohio. That's why your son or daughter has to move to Tennessee or Ohio to find the job that can't be found in Kentucky.

There have been only 6,370 new jobs created in Kentucky in the last two years compared to 26,995 in our neighboring state of Tennessee. But do you know that it has cost you, the tax payers of Kentucky, almost 5 million dollars to try to attract these few jobs to Kentucky...while the people of Tennessee spent less than one million dollars in their successful campaign to bring jobs to their state?

Clyde Middleton wants action. Middleton plans to work with existing citizen's committees...committees that work to attract new industries and create new jobs, all at very little cost to the tax payers...lending his valuable assistance as a Congressman to help make the programs move forward. Where these committees do not exist, he will help form them. Clyde Middleton has the business experience that enables him to understand and assist local development groups. And he is studying the economic development programs of other states, such as Tennessee; and will make the facts known to you. A program of progress through action of the individual.

Parents and children that are interested in educational T.V. programs will be happy to learn that there are some very fine programs scheduled this fall. The following date and times should be marked and every effort made to see the programs.

On Friday, Sept. 28, (7:30-8:30 p.m. EDT) a documentary film, entitled "Meet Comrade Student" can be seen. This was filmed in Moscow and portrays Russia's grim commitment to education. It is a study of Soviet primary, secondary and trade school education methods "Meet Comrade Student" marches you inside a Pioneer Youth Palace where youngsters are taught to live and die for a Communist vision of a new world order.

Starting October 13 on Saturday afternoons from 12:30 to 1:30 NBC-TV will televise a children's show entitled "Exploring." This program is designed for children 5 to 11 years old and will use puppets to teach mathematics, animations to explain the history of words, and dance to make certain social studies concepts come alive. The show will be in color.

ABC-TV will start a new daily program on Monday Oct. 1 at 4:30 p.m. This will be a 20 minutes covering everything that fascinates and stimulates children. A trip to the moon, comical animals in the zoo, and a trip aboard an atomic submarine are just a few of the things that will be seen on this program.

Designed to interest children in books, a program called "Reading Room" will be launched on the CBS-TV networks Saturday, Sept. 22 from 12:30 to 1:00 p.m. EDT Highlighting the program will be a panel discussion by youngsters on the book of the week. Such categories as stories of the West, history, travel and adventure, nature and outdoor life will be covered.

Signs of basketball are beginning to appear at the schools. The high school class tournament has been held during the week. The winner of the class tournament will play the men teachers on Thursday night, Sept. 20 at 7:30. This game is open to the public at no charge. This game was very exciting last year and promises to be interesting this year so come out Thursday and take advantage of an opportunity to visit with the teachers and have some fun watching a good basketball game.

Carl, who lived in this area all his life, is now a young lawyer in Houston, Texas. We hope his baby recovers completely.

Floyd Colston is still laid up as a result of the accident on his garbage truck a couple of weeks ago. He has a badly cut arm which is slow healing. He has had to get a new truck as his old one was a total loss. We hope he recovers soon.

Milk is used as a barometer of fallout not because it is particularly likely to be dangerous, but because it is available in all seasons and in all parts of the U. S., and thus is a good test material.

Since 1950, the number of milk cows in the U. S. has declined 4½ million, but the milk supply continues at a record rate. Average milk production per cow has increased from 5,314 pounds a year to 7,004 pounds.

Per capita consumption of meat in the U. S. averages 160 pounds per year, compared with 68 pounds in Russia.

MAKE-UP POLIO CLINIC

The Boone County Health Department will conduct a make-up clinic for those who did not receive the Type II polio vaccine that was given on Sunday, September 16. The clinic will be held on Friday, September 28 from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon at the Health Department in Florence.

Fall Festival, Sept. 30th

The St. Mary's and St. Matthew's Churches are having their Fall Festival on Sunday, September 30, at the St. Matthews School, White Villa. Sandwiches will be served. Booths and other entertainment will be featured. Proceeds will be used to pay on the debt of the school.

Rev. Al Griesinger, pastor, invites the public to attend.

LAST POLIO CLINIC HELD

Polio, the dread disease, was "stepped on," Sunday, Sept. 16, and it proved to be one of the greatest days in the history of the county—if you participated. There proved to be an increase in the number of people who came out to receive this vaccine. A total of 16,969 Boone Counties received the Type II vaccine, whereas 16,949 received the Type I on August 5.

Special thanks are given to all who helped in any manner with this program; a fine spirit of cooperation was present at all times and the citizens of Boone County are to be congratulated on this project.

Walton-Verona Class Tourney Is Won by Seniors

On Tuesday afternoon of last week the class basketball tournament got under way before an enthusiastic crowd of students.

In the first game, the Seniors had little trouble in building up a 24-6 first-quarter lead and rolled on to a 101-47 win over the Freshmen. Jimmie Mullins and Ronnie Tackett were the top point getters for the Seniors while Ronnie Brown was high point man for the Freshmen.

The second game proved to be very exciting and well played as the Sophomores and Juniors fought to a first quarter 13-13 tie. The second quarter was just as close and exciting and the half ended in a 20-20 deadlock. The Juniors proved to be the stronger in the second half as Steve Collins, Mike Jameison, Gary Williams and Gary Roden led the way to a 43-37 win. Dennis Rich and Richard Clements led the Sophomores in the scoring column.

On Wednesday afternoon, the finals of the class tourney were played, with the Seniors emerging as champions with an 84-49 win over Juniors. Tackett and Mullins were the leading scorers of the game with 35 and 31 points respectively.

The major topic at school on Thursday was the Thursday night battle between the Seniors and the men teachers. The question was—who would win? Like most games, it was a nip-and-tuck affair, and as the final horn sounded, the teachers were on top by a 61-56 margin.

A good size crowd witnessed some good shooting on the part of the Seniors and some very peculiar maneuvers by the out-of-shape teachers. With Jimmy Mullins and Ronnie Tackett leading the way the Seniors were on top at halftime by a 28-26 score. With their size and experience the teachers were able to gain a lead early in the second half and maintain this lead to the end. Harold Gadd, Jimmy Mullins and Ronnie Tackett did the scoring for the Seniors, while Stephenson, Shaw and Kellum proved to be the scoring punch for the teachers.

Boone County Now Under Quarantine Regulations

Boone County has been placed under federal and state quarantine regulations because of the spotted infestation of Japanese Beetles. This was made effective on Sept. 21st, according to the U.S. Plant Pest Control Division of the Dept. of Agriculture.

As stipulated in the quarantine no plants with roots, or soil, may be moved from the Quarantine Regulated Area, Boone, Campbell or Kenton Counties, unless it has been certified free of the pest Japanese Beetle.

Nursery stock may be made certifiable by applying granular insecticide to the soil as prescribed by the Plant Pest Control Division, USDA or other applicable means. Details concerning certification are available at the Plant Pest Control Division, District Office, 5158 Pleasant Ave., Fairfield, Ohio, Post Office Box 2031.

Although Boone County is now under quarantine for Japanese Beetle, the beetles are generally present only in the northern and eastern sections. Property owners who have beetle and desire control measures will find the granular insecticides, Aldrin, Heptachlor, or Dieldrin quite effective.

Basketball Practice Gets Under Way at Walton-Verona High

On Friday afternoon, Coaches Shaw and Brann held an organizational meeting for the 1962-63 edition of the Walton-Verona Bearcats.

Plans, rules and regulations were discussed in preparation for the first practice session on Monday afternoon. There were 48 boys from the 8th through the 12th grade at the Friday afternoon meeting and out of this number 41 turned out for practice on Monday. This is the largest number of candidates to report for basketball practice in several years. Aside from the fact that this is an unusually large number to turn out for basketball at Walton-Verona, it is also unusual that only nine of the boys are in the 11th and 12th grades. This means that a lot of 8th, 9th and 10th grade boys will be playing basketball this winter.

There are only four lettermen back from last year's team, these being Ronnie Tackett, 12th grade; Steve Collins, 11th grade, and two 10th graders by the names of Dennis Rich and Richard Clements.

In addition to being a team of little experience, the 1962-63 Bearcats will be one of the smallest teams to have ever played at Walton-Verona.

Rev. Gwinn Speaks At 4-H Achievement Day

Rev. Stanley Gwinn, pastor of the Florence Methodist Church, was the guest speaker at the District 4-H Achievement Day, held at the Boone County Fair Grounds, Saturday, Sept. 22nd.

Some 130 4-H members, parents, and Extension Agents from Campbell, Kenton, Bracken, Pendleton, Owen, Henry Trimble, Gallatin, Grant, Carroll and Boone counties, heard Rev. Gwinn's message on being a better person through 4-H club work. He pointed out the challenge to these youngsters to always do just a "little better" and to develop their potential fully, and that we all have undeveloped ability that can be used for the betterment of ourselves, our country; that these youngsters will be the leaders of tomorrow.

Boone County 4-H leaders and friends are well along with their plans for the 4-H auction to be held at Latonia Race Track, Saturday, Oct. 13, beginning at 10:00 a. m. Many articles already have been donated. The money made at this auction is to be used for the new District 4-H Camp now under construction in Nicholas County.

About $300 thousand dollars will be needed to build the camp. The 27-county area to be served by this camp has about 18,000 4-H'ers with more boys and girls joining each year. Central and Northern Kentucky has 115,000 young people of 4-H age—10-21 years of age.

Every year some boys and girls who want to go to 4-H Camp must be turned down because there's no room for them.

In Boone County, 1,000 boys and girls belong to the 4-H Club, and membership is growing. Last year, only 52 could go to 4-H Camp. A new 4-H Camp for this area would give many more Boone County boys and girls a chance to go to camp. Boone County's quota for the camp fund raising campaign is $11,000—that's $11.00 per member in the county, based on last year's enrollment. Are the boys and girls in this county worth that much to you?

For further information, call any 4-H leader, or the Extension office, 586-6412. Donated articles will be appreciated.

Fall-Planting of Alfalfa Shows Some Advantages

Alfalfa seedlings can be made in fall or spring, says George Corder, U. K. Ag Extension Service soils specialist — but fall seedings are somewhat more advantageous.

Some reasons for this: Fall farm chores are less pushing and there is time to do the planting. Fall-planted alfalfa will be ahead of weeds and grasses next spring. A full production of hay will come from a fall seeding next year—but a spring seeding will produce only half as much forage the same year.

Corder recommends: Test soil now to determine lime and fertilizer needs; apply and work in any limestone the test shows is needed; use at least 30 pounds (actual) nitrogen at seeding time unless the new seeding follows clover or tobacco.

Inoculate the seed. This should be done even though the current fall alfalfa seeding is following an alfalfa crop.

From 12 to 15 pounds of certified alfalfa seed an acre is recommended as the minimum. Varieties recommended for Kentucky are Narragansett, Vernal, Buffalo, Atlantic, Williamsburg, Ranger and DuPuits. Given proper soil treatment and crop management, all will give satisfactory yields.

Herald of Hope

Lesson for September 30, 1962

HE WAS a strange man, John the Baptist. Strange in many ways. His birth was a miracle, and yet in all his life he never performed one single miracle and never tried to. He came into this world by a miracle, and yet when he died with his head chopped off, no miracle was there to save him. He knew more about Jesus than Jesus' own brothers did; and yet he doubted Jesus in a public sort of way such as his brothers never showed. Jesus called him the greatest of men up to his time; yet the world, even the Christian world, pays more honor to many another ancient figure than to John.

In the Desert

People who dress in camel's hair clothes and eat locusts and wild honey as a regular diet are not common nowadays and they were not in John's day either. A man eccentric as he would not get many to listen to him nowadays; but John had a tremendous audience. The road from Jerusalem to Jericho was—and still is—a steep winding highway, infested with bandits; yet crowds would walk the fifteen miles or so from the city to where they could hear John preach and be baptized by him. No evangelist in America would set up his tent 15 miles from the nearest sizable town; but John did, and the people came. His sermons all could be boiled down to two sentences: Repent! He is coming! Considering everything, especially considering the fact that some people thought he must be Christ himself, John must have been a very remarkable character. He did not fit any pattern, then or now. His long stay in the wilderness, beginning when he was a boy (for no doubt his aged parents did not live till he grew up), made its mark on him. This was good and had its drawbacks too. A desert child, John would not be tied to the conventional, the customary. He had few if any human ties. He could look at the world, so to speak, from the sidelines, he had a fully detached view of life. On the other hand, because he lived all alone, he did not have the "common touch" that Jesus had. Unlike Jesus, John had nothing to say to the sorrowing and suffering of the world. Where Jesus saw the multitudes as sheep without a shepherd, John spoke of them as a "brood of vipers"—"snakes' babies, to put it in plain English.

In Hope

Yet the people, no matter what John might call them, however fierce his denunciation of them as sinners,—the people swarmed to hear him. The reader can think of reasons . . . and by the way, any one who is interested in John's story should read all the Bible material, not the few printed verses. One of the reasons, surely, why John was so popular in spite (you might say) of all his efforts (not to be, was that he preached just what the people wanted to hear about the future. The people who came to hear him and stayed to be baptized were poor, they were under the crushing heel of a long-staying occupation army.

In Confusion

Jesus indeed came, though as we saw, at first only John knew who he truly was. But he was not the kind of "Messiah" or God's Man John had expected. We know that a year or two later, when John was near his death in a dungeon, he, the preacher of hope, began to have doubts. He even sent to Jesus to ask if he, John, could be mistaken. We do not know whether what Jesus said to him by his messengers comforted him, but we may believe it did, for Jesus always knew the right thing to say. So we may feel sure that hope returned to him in the end. (Read about it in Luke chap. 7.) John is not the first or the last herald of hope who has been right about the hope, but wrong about how the hope comes true. John had thought the Messiah would be an Avenger, a Destroyer; Jesus came a man of peace, John looked for something spectacular; Jesus showed him miracles, but the kind he looked for. God has his own ways in his world, and we cannot dictate how he shall manage it. But we may be sure, as John learned, that "Jesus doeth all things well."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

SENATOR MORTON'S POSITION ON MEDICAL CARE FOR THE AGED...
A better plan that really offers MEDICINE and CARE!

THE MORTON MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PLAN IS NOT COMPULSORY AND IS NOT AN AUTOMATIC TAX INCREASE ON THE WORKING PEOPLE OF AMERICA

It Provides:

- ★ ALL Health needs . . . not just a few.
- ★ CHOICE of coverage best suited to your needs.
- ★ Coverage for short-term sickness AND prolonged illness.
- ★ Financing by those with BEST ABILITY TO PAY.
- ★ VOLUNTARY participation with responsibility shared by individual, state and federal government.

THE MORTON PLAN IS A TRUE MEDICAL AND CARE PROGRAM . . .

whereas, Medicare, a highly publicized political program, is filled with false hope, rigid qualifications, and complete disregard of the individual's needs, rights and ability to pay. Medicare would immediately place an enormous additional Social Security tax on the payrolls of Americans who are working to support and educate their families against already heavily mounting tax burdens.

Senator Morton has constantly worked for a sound medical and care program for the aged since he first introduced such a program in the House in 1949.

WALTON-VERONA SCHOOL NEWS

Carolyn Garriott, Reporter

The Y-teens had their first meeting on Sept. 12th, and elected their officers. President, Linda Duchemin, Vice President Darlene Poore, Secretary Shirley Baker, Treasurer June Poteet, Program Chairman Branda Treadway, Devotional Chairman Paulette Chance, and Reporter Brenda Duchemin. Also at the meeting we discussed several things that we planned to do this year in Y-teens.

On Sept. 21, the Y-teens had a Pot Luck supper and the installation of its officers. Many of the Y-teens attended and their seems to be much interest in the club. We are proud to have Mrs. Paul Beighle as our sponsor this year, and we all hope that the Y-teens may accomplish many things this year for our school and community.

The Walton-Verona Chapter of F.H.A. held its first meeting Thursday, Sept. 29th, at 7 p.m. New officers were installed at this time. They are: Lynda Worthington, President; Linda Duchemin, 1st Vice President; Marilyn Stephenson, 2nd Vice President; Elaine Fredericks, Secretary; Sandy Spillman, Treasurer; Branda Duchemin, Parliamentarian; Shirley Baker, Historian.

There are three offices which have not been filled as yet, therefore, they will be announced later. Our Chapter Mother for this year is Mrs. Chos. Worthington.

On Oct. 6, the officers will attend the Fall District Meeting at Pendleton County. At this meeting, leadership training will be given. We are very proud to have two District Officers in our Chapter. They are Sonja Hon, District President, and Brenda Treadway, District Parliamentarian. Miss Carole Ingledew is the District Advisor as well as Chapter Advisor.

If you ordered a 1961-62 year-book and have not picked it up, please do so as soon as possible. If you have no way to get it, call Lynda Worthington at 485-4559 and she will see that it is delivered to you.

We also urge you to order your 1962-63 "Dawn" as soon as you possibly can.

On Friday, Sept. 28th, we of the Student Council left the High School at 6:30 a.m. to attend the Kentucky Association of Student Councils Conference at Danville, Ky.

The Conference was held at Center College and Danville High School which is located on the College campus.

During the first General Session officers for the year 1963-64 were nominated. After the session we split up into discussion groups, we learned many things about the purpose of a Student Council. Next we had the second session. At this time we heard reports on National and State Student Council Workshops. When the session adjourned, we went to the new College cafeteria for lunch. Before the third General Session, we were provided with recreation in the High School cafeteria. During the third session, we elected the 1963-64 officers and had the installation service. The final session was adjourned about 4 p.m. We arrived in Walton shortly before 8 p.m.

All members who attended the Conference were inspired. Through the things we learned at the K.A.S.C. Conference, we hope to make our Council an outstanding one.

On Friday, Sept. 28th, we were proud to have Clyde Middleton as our assembly speaker. He spoke on "The Importance of Young People Understanding and Exercising their Right to Vote When They Become of Age." He explained the new division of our district and the counties involved. We wish to thank him for a very nice program.

Band Entertains At Verona School Tues.

On Tuesday afternoon, the Walton-Verona Band, under the direction of Mr. James Layne, entertained the Verona students with a musical program.

The purpose of this program was two-fold. First, as mentioned above, the students were entertained, and secondly, this was to be the beginning of the junior band program at the Verona school. Mr. Layne wanted to show the beginners what it would be like to be in the band.

All the fourth, fifth and sixth grade students in the Verona school who are interested in the band program were invited to buy or rent an instrument and start to work. Mr. Layne will be at the Verona school at the beginning of each day for individual practice on the instruments and to direct the Junior Band. Interest is running high for the Junior Band and it is hoped that this interest continued, because the success of the Junior Band determines, in a large degree, the success of the regular band.

L.T.B. Social Club

The L. T. B. Social Club held its September meeting at the home of Mrs. Edith Elberts, Independence. The president, Virginia Hogan, presided. Two members, Emma Auton and Martha McCormick were absent because of the serious illness of Mr. Auton. Birthday honors went to Emma Auton and a nice gift was sent to her by her "secret pal."

The hostess received a lovely gift, a set of bath towels. Three packages, donated by members, were auctioned off and the money put into the card and flower fund. Mrs. Mary R. Elbert was a guest. The hostess served sandwiches, coffee and Pepsi-Cola. The group adjourned at 10:30 to meet with the president, Virginia Hogan, in October.

Three new grain sorghums released this spring have short, strong stalks for easy harvest, and except for some bacterial leafspot, have shown little or no disease symptoms.

Gypsum In Pond Water Will Settle Murkiness

Muddy, murky pond water on the farm can be cleared up quickly with little cost and effort, says the U. K. Cooperative Extension Service.

Put in 12 pounds of gypsum for each 1,000 cubic feet of water. Add more if necessary. This rate is about 7 bags for a one-acre pond.

Gypsum, which does no harm to water for any household or livestock use, can be purchased cheaply. Check your local lumberyard which can order the gypsum along with a shipment of plaster, to take advantage of lower freight rates on carlot shipments. The gypsum may be used any time of the year.

SENATOR MORTON IS BETTER QUALIFIED TO REPRESENT YOU IN THE U.S. SENATE

Senator Morton's views are the views of Kentuckians from all sections of the state and all walks of life. His views are founded on valuable experience as a businessman, an employer, a congressman, a veteran, and as a senator in time of great national peril. There is no substitute for experience!

REVIEW SENATOR MORTON'S RECORD

As a BUSINESSMAN, Senator Morton successfully led Kentucky's Ballard Mills' expansion and increased use of farm products.

As a true friend of LABOR, Senator Morton guaranteed his employees a full 40-hour week when at the depth of the depression, only 25 hours production were needed to meet demand.

As a SERVICEMAN and VETERAN, Senator Morton has served his country well. 51 months of active naval duty—mostly at sea in the Pacific. He is a member of the American Legion, V. F. W. and Naval Reserve.

You are going to hire a United States Senator November 6. One of the applicants is Thruston Morton, your present senator. Senator Morton is for the American way of life, the free enterprise system, he is against socialized medicine, socialized business, he is against Communism. He is not a member of A. D. A. He is for the Monroe Doctrine, he is for getting the Communists out of Cuba, he is not a Left-Winger, he is a businessman, he has met a payroll. Senator Morton is a man of integrity—ability—experience.

As a CONGRESSMAN, Senator Morton was acclaimed by the COURIER-JOURNAL as an outstanding leader... and was re-elected twice.

As ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, Senator Morton helped shape our nation's foreign policy and made us all proud of his face-to-face negotiations with the Russians and other communist nations.

As your U. S. SENATOR, Senator Morton has served you admirably. He is a member of the two important Senate legislative committees: Finance and Commerce.

Sunday School Lesson

Do Beliefs Matter?
Lesson for October 7, 1962

SOME beliefs matter, some don't. What two historians think about an obscure Egyptian general about 2000 years before Christ, makes mighty little difference really, even if they fought a duel over it. No body likes to be disagreed with; but those who have listened to family quarrels will testify that the quarrel is often over something very trifling.

The one who is "right" could much better keep his (or her) mouth shut and let the other one think what he or she pleases; the truth in this argument may be so unimportant that it could be proved twice over and still make no difference.

Some beliefs do matter

All the same, some beliefs do matter. By "belief" we mean (for the moment) believing that something or other is true. By "matter" we mean make some important difference to somebody, either the believer himself or other persons. Still even this is not exactly definite. What does "important difference" mean? What is a "difference" and when does it begin to be important? This can perhaps be illustrated. Take the sentence: GOD IS LOVE. Suppose you woke up some morning and found that this sentence is not true? Suppose you had always believed it was true and now discovered you were wrong? It would certainly do away with the Christian religion. It would mean that it no longer made sense for you to try to love your neighbor or to love any one. If God is love, then human love is (so to speak) going with the current of the universe, it is being in harmony with God the Creator. If God is not love, then human love works against the universe, and must eventually be crushed by it. Henceforth it would be more god-like to live a life controlled by hate. So it does make all the difference in the world not only whether you believe in God but what kind of God you believe in.

"Saving faith"

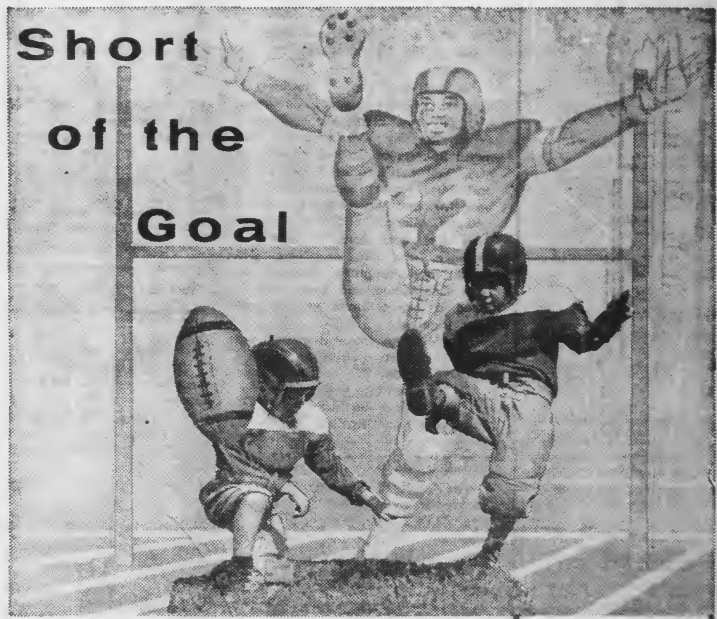

More about that next week. For now, the point is that some beliefs do matter, a great deal. The kind of belief which is vitally important is called "saving" faith. By this is meant faith that sets the believer over on the side of God, and not on the side against Him. God as a friend or God as an enemy, which? The question answers itself. God as a friend or God as a stranger? There's no argument as to which any sane person would prefer.

But there is one meaning of "belief" we have not mentioned yet. That is, believing in some one. This is the kind of belief that is closely kin to trust, confidence, reliance, commitment. I may believe about a certain bus that it is going to St. Louis and that the ticket I have in my pocket is good for the trip. I may believe any number of true facts about that bus but not all that believing is going to move me an inch nearer where I want to go. I have to trust myself to the bus, get on, take a seat and relax. That is believing in the bus.

So I may believe many true things about God, but unless I believe in God enough to trust myself to Him, I have not taken the step that sets me actually on the side of God. I have not yet had saving faith.

Results

Some of the results of faith that matters, or saving faith, cannot be observed by outsiders, not even by intimate friends. What you feel like deep down inside is something in and for yourself alone. But the Christian religion does not operate with invisible virtues and shadowy joys. People sometimes ask: So and so made a profession of faith long ago, but still he is one of the meanest men in town. It looks like not even belief in God makes much difference to him. Is this saving faith? The answer, of course, is that in such a case the profession of faith was only that—a profession, a matter of words. A man can say he believes, or even think he believes, without really doing so. Really and truly to believe in the true God as Christ has shown him to us, is bound to make a difference in the way we live, and not only in the way we think.

Larry is a fullback. You ought to see him finding those holes in the line... driving off tackle... slashing through the secondary. Oh, Larry has scored a dozen touchdowns!

But he can't kick an extra-point! The cross-bar is too high, the goal posts are too far away.

Just give Larry a year or two—with lots of practice. Then we'll win those close ones... 7-6... 14-13... 21-20!

Never worry about failure when its cause is being overcome. Don't lower the goal... keep trying. Grow stronger. You'll reach it!

That's one of the lessons of life that Larry has learned on Sundays when he goes to church with his family... one of many lessons that help us achieve our best every day of the week.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Boone Public Assistance

Public assistance payments to Boone Counties totaled $8,604 during the past month, the State Department of Economic Security announced this week.

A breakdown of the four categories of public assistance showed these figures for Boone County: needy aged received a total of $6,152 in August; the needy blind, $140; families receiving aid to dependent children, $1,746, and the totally and permanently disabled, $566.

Taking Road Bids

Bids for a grade, drain and traffic-bound surfacing project on Ky. 338 in Boone County will be received by the Highway Department on October 19, Commissioner of Highways Henry Ward announced this week.

The project will begin northwest of the Riddles Mill Road and extend 2.3 miles to the northwest.

This highway improvement is being financed through the state's Rural Secondary program, which is operated with two cents of the gasoline tax.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the Walton Fire Department for their prompt and courteous action in their response to the fire we had. Had it not been for these men it could have been a lot worse.

Prevent Insects In Farm Stored Grain

Corn harvest is just around the corner and the thrifty farmer who wants to feed the same amount of corn that was harvested will do well to control stored grain insects, according to Wm. T. Straw, Kenton County Agricultural Agent.

Clean your grain storage bins before storing new grain. Never put newly harvested grain in bins with old grain. Sweep out the bins and burn all debris because grain insects can breed in such material.

After thorough cleaning, spray the walls and floor before storing new grain. Use premium grade 57% malathion emulsion concentrate. One gallon of the concentrate should be mixed with 25 gallons of water. As soon as the surface is dry, the bins

Public Speaking

Part of a Chain of Meetings to be Held in Every Court House in Kentucky

Burlington Court House - Tuesday, Oct. 9

At 7:30 P. M.

It was announced today by Leo Lawson, Boone County Campaign Chairman for Re-Election of SENATOR THRUSTON B. MORTON, known as "Operation Alert" and sponsored by the Republican State Campaign Committee. The series of Simultaneous Meetings is one of the BIGGEST STATE-WIDE POLITICAL SPEAKING PROJECTS in the State's history.

JUDGE DON FOWLER of Lexington, Ky., will be principle speaker at the meeting here, held in the circuit Court Room in the Courthouse at Burlington, Ky. Mr. Lawson said the purpose of this great series of meetings, is to take the issues facing the State and Nation in this important election, DIRECTLY TO THE PEOPLE!

All of the 120 speakers participating in "Operation Alert" will speak from the same general theme, he said. EVERY CITIZEN OF BOONE COUNTY IS CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND!

are ready to receive grain.

For real severe cases of grain insect infestation, fumigation of bins may be required. For more detailed information on this subject, request leaflet number 236-A, prepared by the University of Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station and available at your County Agricultural Agent's office.

"The ADA, Americans for Democratic Action, is becoming an issue in the current Senatorial campaign," is was charged today by Leo Lawson, chairman of the campaign for re-election of Senator Thruston B. Morton in Boone County.

"ADA was founded in 1947 by Wilson W. Wyatt, who is currently running for the Senate from Kentucky against Senator Morton.

"Among the aims of ADA," Mr. Lawson said, "are loans and grants to communist countries, recognition of Red China, admission of Red China to the United Nations, abolition of the loyalty oath, price and wage controls, regimentation of agriculture and other socialistic doctrines not acceptable to the people of Boone County and Kentuckians generally.

An example of ADA aims, the campaign manager said, is the Freeman farm program, defeated by Democratic majorities in the House, which would give the Secretary of Agriculture "Power to take the farmers off the farm and to impose jail sentences on farmers for failure to comply with regulations."

"Programs of the ADA would greatly increase federal taxes and result in more deficit spending at the national level," Mr. Lawson said.

The following was pointed out as a recent ADA policy statement: "The current spending programs of the federal government, and the proposals for the next fiscal year are clearly inequitable to our need ... the level of federal spending must be raised by several billions of dollars a year if we are to realize the gains which are well within our grasp."

"These people care nothing about the future of the country or its welfare. All they think about is a spending spree at the people's expense," Mr. Lawson said.

We would like to extend our sympathy to Mr. Ray Williams and family of Staffordsburg, in the loss of Mrs. Williams, who passed away last Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

We also want to express sympathy to the family and parents of Billie Rich of Decoursey Road, who passed away suddenly last Wednesday at his home.

We are glad to know that Mrs. R. A. Ashcraft of East 36th St., Latonia, is back at her home after having surgery last week and she is doing nicely. She is the mother of Mrs. Norma Setters of Whites Tower.

Mrs. Lelia Barrow of Perrinton, Ohio, is recuperating after her illness at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barrow, the Enquirer man, in Latonia and Pinston Park.

Quite a crowd attended the sale at the Spaulding home at Fiskburg, Saturday. I understand they are leaving for Arizona for his health.

in WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

A Program:

We're going to report today on a program of interest to Kentuckians, the Area Redevelopment Administration. It's designed to help those distressed areas, region of chronic and persistent unemployment.

William Batt, Ohio-born official, heads that agency and what he has to say about luring new industry and creating new jobs is extremely important.

Years Ago:

About eight years ago he was head of the Toledo Industrial Development Council. His town was in bad shape. Jobs were scarce. Industry avoided the community.

It was his first job, he said, to sell the citizens of Toledo of itself. They had to get rid of a defeatist Kentucky included.

Today, such industrial tracts dot the state. They are equipped with facilities which industry needs. And the man who started all this, is now working on the federal level to help Kentucky communities.

Pride, says Mr. Batt, leads to progress.

A Letter Writer:

A congressman, not a Kentuckian, received this invitation the other day, an invitation to speak:

"I hope you can come, Congressman, because all of us would like to hear the dope from Washington."

When mixing beaten eggs with hot mixtures, pour the mixture slowly into the egg, stirring constantly. This avoids curdling and cooking the eggs.

Walton-Verona Cats Work Out; Spirit High

The Walton-Verona Bearcat basketball team is working out daily and interest and spirit is running high.

The coaches have not cut the squad and as a result there are still 35 boys reporting for practice each day. In order to give each boy equal opportunity, the coaches have divided the entire squad into groups of 17 or 18 each. Coach Shaw works one group for a period of time after school and then Coach Brann has a practice session with the other group.

The coaches are pleased with the fine attitude displayed by all of the boys. The spirit is high and as a result a lot of hard work is being done. Coach Shaw also expressed pleasure in that he will have some depth this year. He says that although there is not the size, experience or maybe the ability that some previous clubs have had, he will have about 10 or 12 boys that seems to have equal ability. This depth, plus the scrappy determination that is in evidence at the present time could surprise some people.

God

Lesson for October 14, 1962

WHAT is more important than God? Even to ask the question is absurd. The Bible is so filled with truth about God that a lifetime of study could not draw from the Scripture all that is there to be found. Because there is such an "embarrassment of riches" we have to make some selection here. We mention only a few great truths about God, all found in the 17th chapter of Acts. The passage, Acts 17:22-29, is part of a sermon Paul preached to a pagan audience in the city of Athens. If you had a chance to speak to educated non-Christians about God, how would you start? What would you say first?

Creator and Lord

Paul begins by reminding the Athenians that they were not atheists. Their trouble was that they believed in too many gods. They were so anxious not to neglect any god that they had actually put up an altar to "An Unknown God." Whoever was responsible for that altar must have felt there was some other God out of sight. Paul brings the word that this "unknown god" is after all, the true one. He is "the God"—the only one. No part of this earth is outside his realm... only that is saying too little; in this space-minded age Paul might well have said that God made the Universe and everything in it. He is the God of every star and every planet, no matter how many light-years away. As Creator, he does more than make worlds without number. He peoples them with inhabitants without number. He makes life possible here on this earth. Wherever in this vast universe life exists—if it does—there it is God who is both Creator and Preserver, and therefore Lord of heaven and earth, and of all their inhabitants.

"We are His offspring"

Further, God as Creator is Father of all. Paul shows his knowledge (we did not say, shows off his knowledge) by quoting from a Greek poet Aratus,—or another one, Cleanthes, who said the same thing. "We are his offspring." In plain English, we are children of God. Children, that is, in the sense that we are his creatures, we owe our existence to Him. There are three "levels" (so to speak) of the fatherhood of God. First He is the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; this is unique, no other is in the class with Christ. Second, He is Father of believers, Father of those who love Him and desire to live as His children. Third, He is Father of all men, though most men do not know this nor care, but are self-made orphans.

God is Spirit

Jesus had said long before this, "God is Spirit." Paul does not use this word but he speaks of what God is not. He does not live in shrines made by hand; He is not served by human hands; in Him we live and move and are; "the Deity is not like gold, or silver, or stone, a representation by the art and imagination of man." If we are God's offspring, then a human being is more nearly like God than anything else in the universe; so true is this, that when God set out to make his special and supreme revelation of himself, he did this through the man Christ Jesus. So Paul gently but plainly condemns all idols.

"That they might seek after Him"

A little boy said: "I like God. He hides and we have to find Him." There is truth in that. God is not obvious, we can go through life denying that He exists; but He is there all the time. Rather, He is here, here wherever we may be. He is not far from each one of us (and remember, Paul was speaking to non-Christians); yet nevertheless the Bible often speaks of man's seeking God. The point here is that God made man and has taken care of him, for one main purpose, namely that men might seek God in hope. God is not a silent God, He is not aloof and remote, deaf to man's cries. God wants to be wanted. He wants his children-by-creation to become His children-by-grace. But God will not force his way into any heart. He would rather be sought freely and eagerly than to compel men to worship him.

Just for a moment, close your eyes and picture the scene in your childhood home that you liked best. Was it the music box in the front room, the grandfather clock, the large, fragrant kitchen? Whatever you are thinking of, your memory is a treasure chest of things you hold dear.

Let your mind wander further. You will remember not only loving scenes and favorite objects, but family and friends, their ways, their thoughts, their talk. God and His goodness were mentioned often. Prayer was a common practice. There was faith and trust and a feeling of security.

Sunday was a special day, and all activities were centered around the church and the home.

Come back to the present a moment. The Church was home to you then! It can be your home now; a place of worship where the heart remembers and rejoices.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mrs. Ralph Howard—356-5858

Mr. and Mrs. K. Voss, of Decoursey and Mills Road, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy, born Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, weighing in at 8 pounds, 9½ ounces. He has been named Richard Thomas. Good luck to this young couple on their first blessing.

Mrs. Wm. Sharp, of Plantation Heights, has sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Vaughan, of Taylor Mill, and plans, in the near future, to move to Washington Courthouse, Ohio, with her daughter, who now lives there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Vaughan, having sold their home at Taylor Mill and Harris Pike, had quite a sale on Saturday, at which a large crowd was in attendance in spite of the drizzling rain and quite a few came without coats as it was nice and warm and sunny at noon.

CLYDE MIDDLETON PLEDGES...

I pledge to do these things for you. Things my opponent has failed to do.

- *To keep you well informed through regular reports to you, your organizations and your newspapers.
- Does my opponent keep you informed about Congressional legislation which could affect you? Do you hear from him only when you have a baby? Do you know he refused to let you know where he stands on vital issues through a debate in your local newspapers?
- *To stay well informed on your problems and opinions through regular visits to your county.
- We have repeatedly heard that my opponent has not been seen for a long, long time. How can he represent you if he doesn't know what you think?
- *To limit the areas in which the government can tell you what to do.
- Feed crops held down one year and milk prices knocked down the next year are an example of how one group (the dairy farmers) got caught in the middle. The next area the government tries to control may catch you.
- *To work very closely with local groups to create more jobs for Kentucky.
- Kentucky stands last among nine southeastern states in number of new jobs created in the last two years.
- *To vote only for spending that is really necessary.
- I believe your tax dollars are too valuable to be wasted. My opponent has repeatedly voted to spend your tax dollars wastefully. He is known as a "spender." For example, he has voted to build a multi-million dollar fish aquarium in Washington, D.C., to spend your money to build private fishing boats, etc.
- You need a man of action. Our country is facing the most critical time in its history. There is no room in Congress for a stale representative.

Let's hope they find his trouble and that he will soon be on the road to health again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Binder, of Rose-lawn, has as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard, Miss Barbara Sherman and Miss Janet Stanley.

Mrs. Thomas Nunery will entertain on Wednesday at her home on Rose-lawn Drive, the Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church of Covington, with Mrs. Howard Wil-loughby as co-hostess.

The next time you're in our shop for service or lubrication, let us check your wheel alignment. Wheels that are out of line drag tires sideways, causing uneven and excessive wear, literally burning away rubber on every turn of the wheel. Improperly aligned wheels cause hard steering that could lead to a costly accident.

We check and correct on modern equipment

sary time to this important position?

Is the candidate capable of recognizing and distinguishing between the policymaking functions of the board and administration?

Does the candidate know the political boundary and physical geography of the school district?

Does the candidate have the courage and ability to explain and enforce a rule, which might not be popular but which is proper?

Does the candidate understand that leadership often involves the turning of public opinion from an erroneous attitude to the acceptance of a feasible rule?

Is the candidate aware of the cross currents of thinking pertaining to the basic concepts of public education and will he remain loyal to his trust under stress?

Does the candidate have a laymen's relationship to public education?

Does the candidate make a habit of withholding judgment on critical issues until the facts are available?

Is the candidate able to carry on cheerfully when public appreciation of his efforts seem to be lacking?

Does the candidate have a sense of humor?

Does the candidate show evidence of knowledge of moral and spiritual values?

The ideal candidate, of course, would rate "yes" on all items of the check list. The voters will really decide in November what the passing grade should be for their communities.

In the near future another article explaining the duties of the school board will appear in this newspaper. This may also be of some help in reaching a decision as to who you want to vote for in the coming board election.

Teenage 4-H Club Names Officers at Recent Meeting

Forty-two boys and girls have joined the Boone County Teenage 4-H Club for the coming year. Membership in this club is open to all high school students living in or near Boone County. Wayne Sinsinger, the Assistant County Agriculture Agent, said that the majority of the club members attend Boone County High School, with some members attending the following high schools: Walton, St. Henry, Villa Madonna, Notre Dame Academy, and La Sallette Academy.

At the organizational meeting, Betty Maddox was elected president; Chettie Birch, vice president; Jane Schwenke, secretary; Sharon Sullivan, reporter; Joyce Rice and Geraldine Thoman, song and recreational leaders.

This club is run by its members with an effort being made to achieve a balance of project work, educational tours, speakers, and social activities. Most members are junior leaders and help adult leaders with the younger club members.

Last year's program for this club included speakers from the Kentucky State Department of Public Safety; a talent act; participation in the youth night, sponsored by the Boone County Civic Club; a record hop, open to all young people, and a trip to Michigan and Canada.

All members completed their projects and most members participated in all 4-H events. They were a great help to the adult project leaders.

THE ASIAN FLU MAY ATTACK THIS WINTER

One of our country's newer enemies, Asian flu, may attack this winter.

According to the U. S. Public Health Service, Asian flu occurs in two- or three-year cycles, and there hasn't been an epidemic since 1960. Scattered cases did occur this spring, however, just as they did before the severe fall epidemic of 1957. Last year, however, there were 27,664 cases of influenza "B" reported.

Protection against Asian and other types of flu calls for two doses of polyvalent vaccine, given one to two months apart. Those previously immunized should receive a booster dose. Shots should be taken as soon as possible so that immunization may be completed before November, when these epidemics usually begin.

All persons over 45 years of age, those with chronic illnesses, such as heart disease, or kidney trouble, and pregnant women need to be sure to get their immunizations early, since Asian flu striking anyone in these groups can cause severe complications—even death.

SK SENIOR WINS AWARD

Miss Linda Spegal

Linda Spegal, a senior at Simon Kenton High School, Independence, was recently awarded a letter of commendation for outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualification Test.

The test, for the 1962-63 Merit Program, was given in more than 16,000 high schools last spring. There were 28,700 Commended Students and, together with the Semi-finalists, they constitute about 2% of all secondary school seniors. To increase her scholarship opportunities, Linda's name, home address, and scores on the NMQST were sent to her first- and second-choice colleges.

The W-V Bearcats Suffer First Casualty Of 1962-63 Season

The Walton-Verona Bearcats suffered their first casualty of the season when Mike Jameison was ordered to bed with a case of hepatitis. This is a major blow to the Coaches and their plans because Mike seemed to be a sure starter.

Mike is one of the fastest, as well as one of the largest boys out of basketball. He was showing a lot of hustle and determination. With Mike lost to the club for some four or six weeks the coaches are faced with the problem of replacing him along with rounding out a starting combination. According to Coach Shaw there are about 8 or 10 boys that are fighting it out for the five starting positions. It seems that with size and ability being equal the determining factors in so far as starters are concerned will be hustle and determination. In other words those boys that have the greatest desire to play will win the starting spots.

In order to not have to cut some of the boys off of the squad at this early stage of the basketball season the coaches are still holding two practice sessions for some 48 or 50 boys. Coach Shaw holds practice for some 20 boys and then about 5 p.m. Coach Brann holds a session for the balance of the boys. The seventh grade has been added to this group and thereby making a larger number of boys out now than at the beginning of the season. This two practice session plan may cause some inconveniences by being a little late but it will at least give every boy an opportunity to play basketball where one practice session would not.

The coaches and boys hope that you are planning to come out and give them your support. They think you will be pleased with their efforts as well as being pleased with the changes made in the gym. With the World Series being so late this year it doesn't seem possible that the first game will be played two weeks from Friday. It is a home game so we will be seeing you.

Hospital Meeting Is Held at Hebron, Monday Evening

Led by the Boone County High School Band, the Hebron Fire Dept., Bobby Bobo of W.L.W., and a group of young ladies and Hospital Officials in convertibles, a long line of decorated automobiles wound their way thru several communities in the northern part of the county. A sound truck kept hundreds who watched from porches and lawns, advised about the big meeting to be held in the Lion's Club Community Building in Hebron Monday evening.

The meeting proved to be a big success. The story of the Boone County Hospital was explained and many questions were answered. Bobby Bobo, who is well known in this area from his leading role on the Mid-western Hayride, entertained the crowd with several numbers and autographs were signed for a large number. Bobby is a resident of Boone County and has offered to donate his time and talents in behalf of the proposed new hospital in this area. This announcement was met with great applause. His next program will be at the High School in Florence on the evening of October 29th when he will conduct a talent show. He will hold auditions at the Hall of Music in Union on the evenings of October 24th and 25th and anyone who would like to compete for the awards is invited to call Bobby Bobo for an appointment.

At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served and a large number remained to discuss the plans for the hospital.

Production Credit Association Is To Meet October 20

The Northern Kentucky Production Credit Association will hold its 29th annual stockholders' meeting, Saturday, October 20, 1962, beginning at 10 a. m., at the Grant County High School Gym, Dry Ridge.

This annual meeting promises to be the largest ever held by the association. Election of two directors is to take place. A large responsibility lies with the five directors of the association as they guide and govern this credit cooperative with loans outstanding of over $4,300,000—any all time high, and serving over 1,700 stockholders.

The main speaker will be Burl St. Clair, president of the Kentucky Farm Bureau. A gigantic prize giveaway will feature a television and chain saw plus many other prizes. Entertainment will be furnished by local talent plus selections by the Tunesmen, a gospel and barbershop quartet from Shelbyville, who were winners at the Kentucky State Fair this year.

All members of the association are urged to attend. Members must be present for the election of directors at 11:10 a. m. to be eligible for the prizes.

Overweight Remains Big Health Problem

Overweight is a major health problem of Americans. Dr. William W. Winternitz, associate professor of medicine at the University of Kentucky, says statistics shows there are five million to 15 million obese people in the country, depending on one's definition of "obese." Basically, he says, overweight conditions develop because one eats too much. "In the overwhelming number of cases, there is no trouble with the thyroid or any other gland," he declares.

Demonstration Of Fire Tactics Given Here Last Sunday

Now that Fire Prevention Week for the 1962 year is over, the danger of fires is not. Chief Chick Worthington says, lets be more fire conscious now that we will be burning leaves and grass, lets not give fires a place to start. Lets have fire prevention not for a week but for a year.

Chief Worthington would like also to thank the people who attended our program last Sunday afternoon at the fire grounds.

Chief Worthington led his Volunteers through several fire tactics, the burning of an automobile, propane gas fires, ladder demonstration and pit fires.

Several firemen from other town visited and witnessed the tactics of the local men, among them, Lonnie Webster of Lexington, Chief Berke-meier of Wilder and others.

Chief Worthington also stated that now is the time to join our rural Fire Protection Plan, and renew your present dues if you haven't paid them yet.

Remember if you don't belong to the fire protection plan and have a fire the charges are $100. for the call and $25.00 each hour we are on run, save yourself money and help us too, join today.

The regular meeting of the Kenton Elementary P.T.A. will be held in the school cafeteria at 8:00 p. m., Thursday, October 18th.

Refreshments will be served.

New School Bus To Arrive Soon

At the October 11th Board of Education meet, a Mr. Becker from the Rouse, Rankin and Company, Certified Public Accountants, was in attendance to discuss the recent audit made by his company. In August of 1962 the Rouse, Rankin and Co. completed an audit for the 1960-61 school year. Copies of this audit are available in the Superintendent's office if anyone should be interested.

The following business was transacted by the board.

Approved the September Treasurer's report which was as follows. General Fund August 31st balance $5,142.67; Receipts for the month $14,198.91; Disbursements for the month, $14,978.95; September 30th balance $4,362.63.

Building Fund August 31st balance $756.94; Receipts for the month $3,400.00; Disbursements for the month $247.24; September 30th balance $3,909.70.

Approved the 1962-63 Salary Schedule and Close Estimate Budget. A record budget of $195,336.70 includes $136,275.00 for teacher salaries. The $136,275.00 for teachers salaries is some $13,000.00 more than last year. Additional teachers were hired to take care increased enrollment and new courses offered in high school. This great increase in teacher salaries makes for less money in the operational budget and therefore causes some cuts in certain parts of the budget.

Requested state approval to substitute the money received from the Special Voted Building Tax for the Capital Outlay money received from the Foundation Program. This allows the board to use the Capital Outlay money for purposes rather than building and equipment.

Accepted the resignation of Miss Sarah Bayne.

Hired James Reed to teach Latin and seventh grade for one half day.

Hired Janice Doan to teach seventh grade for one half day.

Hired Howard Brann as a bus driver at a salary of $110. per month. Mr. Brann will start driving when the new bus arrives. The new bus is due for delivery in a few days. When the new bus arrives some of the routes will be changed to relieve a crowded condition as well as to make it possible to start the buses a little later in the morning.

Approved the payment of the monthly bills in the amount of $3,693.15 and the October payroll in the amount of approximately $11,500.00.

Complex Training

Army Sgt. Kelly Robinson, Sr., 26 whose wife, Maralita, lives on Route 1, Florence, recently completed eight weeks of intensive field training with other members of the 4th Armored Division at the Seventh Army Training Area in Grafenwohr, Germany.

Sgt. Robinson entered the Army in 1955, arrived overseas on this tour of duty last June, and is a construction specialist in Company D of a division's 24th Engineer Battalion in Furth. His parents live on Route 2, Burlington.

WALTON-VERONA SCHOOL NEWS

Carolyn Garriott, Reporter

Officers of the Walton-Verona Chapter of F. H. A. were glad they could attend the District Officers' Convention, held at Pendleton Memorial High School, near Falmouth, October 6. There were nine officers, two chapter mothers, two district officers, one member-at-large, and one advisor. The convention was mainly to explain each of the officer's duties. We learned very much from this meeting and are hoping it will help us to have a better F. H. A. Club.

Saturday, October 13, members of the Walton-Verona Band attended a massed Band Day at Eastern State College, Richmond. Our band was one of the 60 bands from the state of Kentucky that attended. We marched in the parade Saturday morning and then all the bands formed on the football field for the half-time show. Our band did a fine job and looked very nice in their new band uniforms. We all hope to attend again next year.

Last week for our assembly program, Mr. Padon, Public Relations Officer of the Kentucky Farm Bureau, spoke on the many different sections of agriculture and their points. We wish to thank him for his time and very interesting talk.

CARD OF THANKS

My sincere thanks to those who remembered me with prayers, cards, flowers and visits during my recent stay in the hospital and since I have returned home.

Son of God

Lesson for October 21, 1962

WHAT is there in the Christian religion that marks it as different from any other in the world? We have something or other in common with every religion, to be sure. It has been said that Christian religion and the most barbarous of jungle faiths have more in common than either of these has with atheism. But that is not the point. What do we have that is distinctive, unique, unlike any other religion whatsoever?

The reader will think of the answer at once: Jesus Christ. There is no equivalent of Jesus in any other religion. Alleged "opposite numbers" turn out, on inspection, to bear little resemblance to the Christians' Lord.

Because of the great importance Jesus Christ possesses, the church has thought much and long about Him and has said a great deal. It all grows out of what was said in the Bible about Him. Out of much more that could be said, three points are selected here, for highlighting, all from the Bible material.

Equality with God

First of all, the church teaches that Jesus Christ is divine. The most usual way to say this in the New Testament is to call Jesus the "Son of God." Now there are three kinds of "sons" of God recognized in the Bible. To repeat what was said in this column last week, at lowest level are all men, all human beings. By creation we are all children of God. But there is a great difference between being a son-by-creation and a son-by-faith-and-love. So the second level is the sonship of adoption, as Paul puts it in Romans 8, the intimate trusting conscious sonship of true Christians. The third level has only one person in it, Christ Jesus our Lord, the Son of God. The writers of the New Testament never (or very seldom indeed) call Jesus God directly; but the church reflecting through many years on what the Bible does say, long ago arrived at the conclusion that whatever it takes to make God God, Jesus Christ has and is. Yet Christ and the Father are not two Gods. The church came near saying that, but after a long debate concluded there cannot be two Gods; Jesus is not a second God, not a substitute or minor God. That is the meaning we see in Paul's saying that Christ was in the form of God, but did not think equality with God was a thing to be grasped.

"He emptied Himself"

Paul goes right on to say that Christ "emptied Himself" and was born in the likeness of men. The writer to the Hebrews goes farther than saying Jesus was "like" men. Christ, he says (Hebrews 2:14) "partook of the same nature" as his human brothers.

In other words, the church declares that not only as divine as the Father in heaven is, He is as human as you and I are. This was not a make-believe, not putting on a costume and pretending to be a man. It was really being a man. The church has never explained how this could be. If we knew how it could be, we would know as much as God knows.

Giver of life

There are many figures of speech in the Bible to indicate one thing: that Christ is the source of spiritual life for all who believe in Him. Jesus called Himself the vine, with His disciples as the branches. He called Himself bread, and water. (Note: He did not say cake; bread and water were then the minimum essentials for food and drink; Christ is not to be regarded as a luxury but as a necessity.) Those who believe in Him have eternal life, now. Eternal life (and this is a noteworthy point) is not merely a longer life. It means (as Saint John uses the words, and Jesus before him) a different quality of life. Mere everlastingness might not be such a good thing. Eternal life is the kind of life which deserves to be everlasting. What Christians are saying, to put a big idea into very small space, is that what Christ came to do was to bring to this earth, to any one who desires it, a new kind of life, so that we may become new persons.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

TO THE VOTERS OF BOONE COUNTY:

As you know, I am a candidate for re-election to Congress from our new Fourth District. I earnestly solicit your valuable support in the November election.

It has been my honor to represent the old Fourth District in Congress for the past 18 years and I believe that this experience qualifies me better to serve you. Due to my seniority, upon re-election and the retirement on January 3, 1963 of my dear friend, Congressman Spence, who is the Dean of the Kentucky Delegation, I shall then succeed to this most important role. In addition, I have been elected by the states of Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky to represent them on the Steering and Policy Committee of the House of Representatives. Therefore, you will not have to start all over again with a freshman Congressman at the bottom of the seniority ladder. In this connection also, there are only three members between me and the Chairman of the powerful Judiciary Committee.

Since our sessions in Congress are getting longer and more difficult each year it is an impossibility for me to see each of you personally as I would like to do. The very nature of my work in Congress is exacting and demanding. It requires that I leave my profession and my friends and remain away from Kentucky in order to represent you. This year, due to the unusual and uncertain conditions throughout the world and, notwithstanding the fact that I have to seek re-election, I am remaining at my post of duty in Washington where we are in session and will be longer than any other peacetime Congress in U. S. history. My attendance record, which exceeds 94% during the past 18 years, is further proof that I have been here taking care of YOUR business. Being a Congressman is NOT a part-time job and, believe me, there is no substitute for experience on Capitol Hill.

My opposition has asked "Is there a Frank Chelf?" and takes me to task for not being in Kentucky. Since I was elected to serve in Congress, that is where I shall be as long as we are in session, regardless of my personal political fortunes.

Since my opponent has taken a leave of absence from his job, all he has to do is to campaign for your vote and condemn me for not being back home.

I urge those who have lived in the old Fourth District to give me your continued endorsement. To those of you who have resided in the old Fifth District, I hope that you will give me a chance to prove my worth.

Bless you and yours always.

Sincerely,

FRANK CHELF
MEMBER OF CONGRESS

FISH FRY A SUCCESS

The fish fry sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Piner of Fiskburg Community Fire Department was a success, due to the cooperation and hard work of those who are interested in building up the community.

Serving began at 5:00 p. m., with fish, barbecue, coe slaw, tomato potato chips, pie, coffee and soft drinks. As the fish were cooked and doors, the smell just made everybody hungry for miles around.

The tables were beautifully arranged inside and outside of the Fire House, and everyone just had a very pleasant evening with their neighbors and friends.

The Fire Department is growing but you and your time is needed. This is your Fire Department—support it!

Bearcats To Honor Parents at Opener On November 2nd

On November 2nd, the Walton-Verona Bearcats will open the 1962-1963 basketball season with Brossart High School of Alexandria. This will be the most important date on the schedule and everyone is looking forward to this event. This will be "Parents Night," and every parent or guardian of all boys on the first and second teams, of the cheerleaders, and managers will be receiving a special invitation to attend this game as guest of the Athletic Dept. It is well that this "Parents Night" program has been planned for the first night because the boys and girls as well as the school people working with the boys and girls sometimes forget to give Mom and Dad the credit they deserve.

The coaches are running the boys through spirited workouts each day getting ready for this opener with Brossart. About the only thing for certain about the 1962-63 Bearcats is that they are small and inexperienced. The spirit is running high and the student body and faculty are very anxious for the basketball season to start.

Hospital Rally and Talent Show To Be Held at Florence, Monday, October 29

Proposed Boone County Hospital

Because of the increasing interest in the proposed new hospital for Boone County, dozens of inquiries are being received as to where it is to be built, how large it will be, who will operate it, and to what extent will the Federal Government help pay for it? It will be held in the auditorium of Boone County High School, beginning at 8:00 p. m., and the entire community is urged to attend.

In order to mix a good portion of pleasure along with the business of the meeting, a big talent show will

God Within
Lesson for October 28, 1962

SOMETIMES it looks as if the Church made it harder instead of easier to believe in God. The church talks about the Trinity, but we don't understand that.

It talks about the Holy Spirit, but that seems very hard to understand. On the contrary, the Church's teaching about the Holy Spirit (all the good of which we owe to the Bible Dr. Foreman in the first place) makes God much nearer than we would otherwise dare to think about Him. In fact, a definition of the Holy Spirit which many Christian teachers have expressed is just this: The Holy Spirit is God at work in the hearts of men. The Holy Spirit is God-within. You will never be any closer to God nor He to you, than you are to the Holy Spirit.

He will send . . . I will send . . .

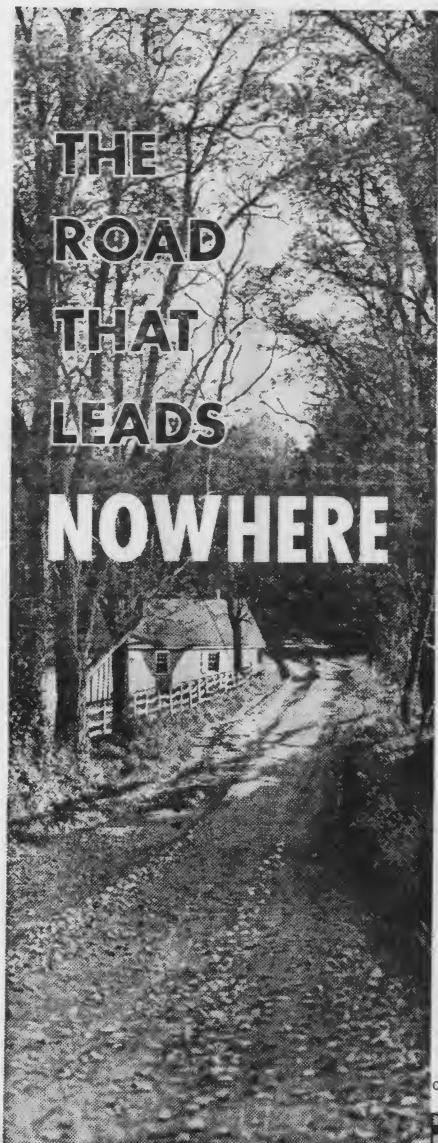

Of course no reader will suppose that he can find out all there is to know about God, in one single column in a newspaper. God cannot be shut up in a million books, and of course not in a few lines of print. The Bible material for this week's study gives much more than we can deal with in so short a space. All we can do is to point out three truths, all of them from the teaching of Jesus. First of all is that apparent contradiction: Jesus tells His disciples first that the Father will send them the Holy Spirit, and then that He (Christ) will do so. We are intended to put these two truths together. The Holy Spirit comes from the Father and comes from the Son of God, from Jesus Christ. Now if you insist on puzzles, there are puzzles in that simple statement. But let's bypass the puzzles, and look at what is plain. The least this can mean is that the Holy Spirit is like the Father and like the Son,—we might (using human terms of course) say that the Holy Spirit is in harmony with, and represents, both the Father and the Son, both the high God and our Lord Jesus. (One is no more and no less God than the other is.) Well, what is this? Another puzzle? No; this truth gives us a way to distinguish between alleged Spirits of God and the true Spirit. If the "Spirit" leads a man to do what is not Christ-like, then we may be sure that whatever he has in his heart, it is not the Spirit whom Christ has sent.

Truth and Conscience

Jesus furthermore calls the Holy Spirit the "Spirit of Truth." Some Christians understand this to mean that wherever men are moving in the direction of truth—any truth, scientific, economic, intellectual, religious—there the Holy Spirit is at work. Now of course, if God is a god of truth, his Spirit will never support a lie. And we may well believe that God is concerned with truth of every kind and in every aspect of life. But it is also true that the Holy Spirit is most especially concerned with truth about God and about his relation to the world and particularly to man. It is quite possible, it happens every day, that men who have no religion and do not believe in God at all, make scientific explorations and discoveries that are true and even valuable. But no one is likely to learn much about God who does not seek the help of the Holy Spirit. To put this another way, only God can introduce us to God.

What a normal human being wants, however, is not mere bare truth, he wants not only to know, he wants to do. This is particularly true in the Christian religion. Like its mother-religion of Judaism, Christianity has always been interested in action. Right living is quite as important as right thinking, the two cannot be separated. So the Holy Spirit is called the "Counselor." This is a better translation than "Comforter" or "Advocate" though it may include those other meanings. The word suggests that God-within is not a presence only, but a guiding presence. Put into simple language, this means that the more Godlike, the more Christ-like, a person is, the more he will do what is right in the sight of God. We can't live with people without learning their ways; and we cannot live with God without learning—humbly but truly—more and more of His will.

The road pictured here bears the time-worn marks of many travellers. Apparently it leads to some distant village or serves perhaps as a link between more vital thoroughfares.

But in reality this road does neither. Once, no doubt, it had a destination, but today it fades away into the woods a few miles beyond—a "dead end."

How many lives are like this road? They have promising beginnings, but instead of continuing to worthwhile goals, they wander aimlessly to final dead ends.

The Church teaches us to build useful lives and guides us toward noble achievements and ambitions. Regular attendance at church services gives greater assurance that our pathway of life will not lead us astray. On the contrary, it leads straight to the house of the peaceful mind and the contented heart.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

Proclamation

Whereas, it has come to my attention that each year at Halloween time the begging by children, young people and, in some cases, adults, is on the increase. Many homes have been visited at least a week in advance of Halloween. We do not object to children enjoying this season of the year, but feel that it is being overdone.

Therefore, I do proclaim October 30 as begging night in Walton, Kentucky. In case of rain and children could not beg on October 30, then October 31 will be observed as begging night.

I ask all home owners or residents of our town not to issue treats of any kind until the above dates.

LTB Social Club Meets

The October meeting of the LTB Social Club was held at the home of Mrs. Virginia Hogan, Independence, who is president of the club.

Only one member was absent, Anna Sasher, of Walton, who was helping out in a sick relative's home. Members were masked and the various costumes were hilariously funny.

All former ill persons were reported well or nearly so, and no new ill ones were reported. Four packages donated by members were auctioned off and money was put in card and flower fund.

The hostess received three aprons as a hostess gift. Henrietta Perry received a lovely blouse from her "secret pal" for her birthday. Ruth Ann Elbert, of Independence, was voted in as a new member.

Plans were brought up to fill a basket with food, enough for a good Christmas dinner, for a needy family. The hostess served barbecue sandwiches and spiced layer cake.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mildred Auton, Independence.

CHELF'S SISTER IS ON PAYROLL AS CONGRESSMAN'S SECRETARY

Newspaper headlines like this appeared late last week. Following are direct quotations from these news stories:

"The sister of Rep. Frank Chelf (D., Lebanon) yesterday admitted she has been on the congressman's office payroll since 1958."

"Records in Washington show her paychecks totaled approximately $29,950 during the 4 1/2 years."

"In a telephone interview, Mrs. Mary Ellen Gruber, Louisville, said she worked as a secretary for her brother, but did not work in Washington. She declined to say what her specific duties are and refused to answer questions."

"Mrs. Gruber lives at the Weissinger-Goulbut Apartments, Third and Broadway, Louisville."

"There was no explanation why Mrs. Gruber lived outside the Fourth District. Rumors about her job have circulated for several months. One report said Mrs. Gruber clipped birth announcements from district newspapers and sent congratulations to the parents over Mr. Chelf's signature. This was not confirmed."

"Records show Mrs. Gruber was hired March 3, 1958. She still is on the payroll."

"Records in Washington show her pay checks totaled approximately $29,950 during the 4 1/2 years."

Here are our comments on this vital matter. We suspect the rumors that Mrs. Gruber clips birth announcements and writes letters to new parents may be true. Mrs. Gruber said in a telephone interview that she "writes a few letters for Frank" . . . that "I have only talked with him once in the last year" . . . "Oh dear, I hope I haven't said anything wrong" . . . Further, we have heard from people throughout the District that the only time they hear from Frank Chelf is when they have a baby. In fact, we have heard people refer to Frank Chelf as "the baby man".

We wonder whether the services of Frank Chelf's sister have been worth nearly $30,000.00 of your tax money especially when Frank Chelf himself receives $25,000.00 per year to be your congressman.

We have a hard time conceiving of anything that Frank Chelf's sister might be doing as a Congressman's secretary to earn over $6,000 a year when she doesn't live in Washington or even in Frank Chelf's District, but in Louisville.

In early September Clyde Middleton challenged Frank Chelf to a series of newspaper debates on the vital issues of the election. Clyde Middleton did this because he wanted you to know where he and his opponent stood on these vital matters. Frank Chelf never responded directly to the telegram that was sent him on this matter. However, he was quoted in the newspapers as not wanting to debate because he thought it would be a waste of time, that he was willing to stand on his record and that the people who cared knew where he stood.

This latest development of having his sister on his payroll makes us understand why Frank Chelf has been anxious to not let people know what his record really is. In addition to asking Mr. Chelf how he can justify the salary he pays his sister, there are other questions for which we would like to have answers, and for which you should have answers.

For example, why are whiskey billboards all over the 4th District suddenly blossoming forth with the slogan "Vote For Frank Chelf For Congress"?

Just what is the tie-in?

Has Frank Chelf done something in the past for this out of state whiskey firm, or has he promised to do something in the future?

We think Fourth District voters want a Congressman who deals openly and honestly with the people in the District, a Congressman who will put the interests of this District first— ahead of his relatives, the whiskey business, and campaign contributors who hide behind unsigned ads.

Student Borrowers
Doing Well At UK

University of Kentucky students who borrow money to finance their education are, as a group, recording better classroom marks than their more affluent colleagues. A recent survey by Ordie Davis, secretary of the UK Student Loan Committee, disclosed that 303 borrowers have an overall grade point average of 2.7, equivalent to a letter grade of B-minus. This is substantially higher than the 2.2 average for the student body as a whole.

Careful planning and thought should be given when landscaping the home was pointed out by Mrs. Morgan Metzger during her lesson on landscaping at a recent meeting of the Ryland Homemakers Club which met in the home of Mrs. Harold Holthill. Mrs. J. A. Koeney—359-4441

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw had as guests on Sunday her brothers family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Swinford and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swinford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richardson entertained their daughter Mrs. Russell Marshall and daughter Deborah on the weekend.

We are glad to have good reports from Mrs. Mable Gatewood who suffered a stroke a few months ago. Her speech is slowly returning and also the use of her hands.

A large number of the members of our Homemakers Club attended the annual meeting at Summit Hills on Thursday. It proved a most enjoyable event. The reports of the officers and standing committees were interesting and encouraging. Of special interest was the report of the reading chairman that the books read were much more on the educational and cultural topics than those read just for entertainment. Among the guests present were Judge Dressman and our new County Agent and wife Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Straw. Miss Venita Kelly in her most interesting way told of her recent trip to Europe and life as she saw it in free and communist countries. She called attention to the great differences between East and West Berlin.

Mrs. J. A. Koeney attended the revival services at Oak Island Church on Thursday evening and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rector. Also on Tuesday afternoon she called on her cousin Mrs. Ed Sanders of Covington.

We missed Mr. and Mrs. George Fennell Jr., and children on Sunday, but we are sure they enjoyed their drive to the Smokies.

We are glad to hear that Lybron Richardson who recently spent several days in the hospital was able to enjoy a drive on Sunday. Hope he will soon be entirely recovered.

Mrs. Linden Stephens and sons accompanied her mother Mrs. Runion on a drive on I-75 on Tuesday. A rather serious accident befell them in which all except the baby received wounds which kept them in the hospital to the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger and myself called on Mrs. Ethel Fooks and Mrs. Edith Hamilton on Sunday afternoon. Also visiting there were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson. Later they called on Mrs. Sophronia Mills, Miss Lavinia Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lipscomb. Also calling there was Mr. Batson Mills of Cincinnati.

Why Make Soil Tests?

Why should you check the oil, water, and gas in your car or truck? To determine the particular need. A soil test is the gauge of fertility for your farm. It tells you these important things (1) how much and what type or grade of fertilizer is needed, (2) what major plant nutrients you have in your soil, (3) how much lime is needed, and (4) where you need to apply lime and fertilizer.

A soil sample can be taken any time of year. The soil sample should be sent to the soil testing laboratory at least one month before recommendations are desired. This will allow sufficient time to obtain the results of the test and obtain the needed lime and fertilizer.

A pleasant breakfast can help prevent accidents. The man who leaves the breakfast table well-fed and happy will use better judgment in everything he does.

Calf Vaccination In Kenton County Set For Nov. 12 to 17

The fourth quarter period for calf-hood vaccination in the Kenton County Brucellosis Program is November 12 to 17. Stanley Bird, County Chairman, has announced. Calves eligible must be four to eight months old of either dairy or beef type.

Livestock producers are urged to cooperate fully and not allow the four to eight month age calf miss this vaccination canvas.

The immediate past vaccination period was August 18-21 when 35 producers vaccinated 109 head. Vaccination canvases were scheduled for February, May, August and November. Presumably the same plan will be in operation in 1963.

"Each producer who will have calves to be covered in the November 12-17 vaccination period will need to give a list of the number of calves to the committee. Also, the committee will need to know the road location of the farm, address and telephone number. This list may be turned in to a committee member or mailed to the office of the County Agricultural Agent, Room 5, Federal Building, Covington, or Box 145, Independence," Mr. Bird said.

Other members of the committee are: William Barnes, Frank Jackson, Herbert Hoffman, Jr., W. E. Durr, John Shaw, and Robert Scott, Jr. The vaccination will be done free of charge to the producer. The cost will be borne by the State and Federal Governments as a part of the national campaign to eliminate brucellosis in cattle. This disease not only causes heavy losses to livestock producers, but there is also a human health hazard. Undulant fever is the resultant infection in humans.

Through recent efforts by the Walton-Verona Board of Education and County Judge C. L. Cropper and favorable consideration by Commissioner Ward this dream will soon be a reality. In so far as is known locally there is no date set for starting this project however, the feeling is that work will start in the near future.

TOP U. A. CAMPAIGNER

United Apple campaigner in the Boone County precinct, based on assigned quotas, was D. West. West, a campaigner with 229, turned in a tremendous effort with 229, all quota. He was honored at a recent United Apple meeting, getting the campaigner's hat and blue ribbon for his top performance.

Boone County Geographic Commission, Marshall Thomas, a show pinner the blue ribbon on Mr. West. This county's report was the best ever.

DO WE NEED IT NOW? The need is already here. It will take at least two years to build, equip and staff our hospital, and before the first patient can be admitted. By then the need will be much greater. The Hill-Burton people have indicated an interest in paying half of the construction cost for us, if we vote "yes" on November. Many other communities are waiting in line for this gift, and if we do not accept it now, it may never be presented to us again.

CAN WE STAFF A HOSPITAL? The Boone County Medical Association has endorsed this hospital. We have letters from 28 specialists of northern Kentucky, indicating their desire to serve on the staff. Most of them live closer to Florence than they do to the Covington area hospital. Seventy-five registered nurses live in Boone County, and most of them have let us know that they are interested.

WHAT WILL THIS DO FOR OUR COUNTY? When our population becomes more immediately and more educated, more health conscious, and more mobile. When industry fails to grow with the population, we are (Continued on Page 6)

The Bible

Lesson for November 4, 1962

WHY the Bible? Some one might think that the Christian religion has a Bible just to keep up with the procession; for every religion in the world that has as many as a million members, has a Bible of some kind, and Christianity would be very odd if it did not. But this is not the reason we have a Bible. Is this the reason—that God can only in a written Word? Not at all. Did you ever stop to think that the whole Bible was written by persons who did not have a whole Bible? In fact, a great deal of the Bible is devoted to accounts of how God has been found in other ways as well as in the Bible. Is the reason for the Bible our need of a book of rules? No, the Bible itself does contain a few rules, but nearly every page of it is something else besides rules.

Inspired

One reason the church cherishes the Bible is because we believe it to be inspired by God himself. This does not mean that God dictated the various books of the Bible, certainly not in English. What we do mean is that God was at work in the entire process by which the Bible has come down to us. You would cherish every letter of one you love; if your loved one was (for instance) a teacher of art, you would not doubt be glad to have pictures or sculpture done by her pupils. Perhaps your friend the teacher did not paint this picture herself, but you can tell it must have been done by one of her pupils. "It looks like her," you say. In the same way, God did not hold the pen for the writers of the Bible; but persons who have assuredly known God, have through the ages recognized the unmistakable marks of God's thought and action here. It is as difficult to "prove" the inspiration of Scripture as to prove that Mozart was a great musician. But both the Bible and the music can be studied. Out of the study comes appreciation, and out of the appreciation grows the conviction of inspiration.

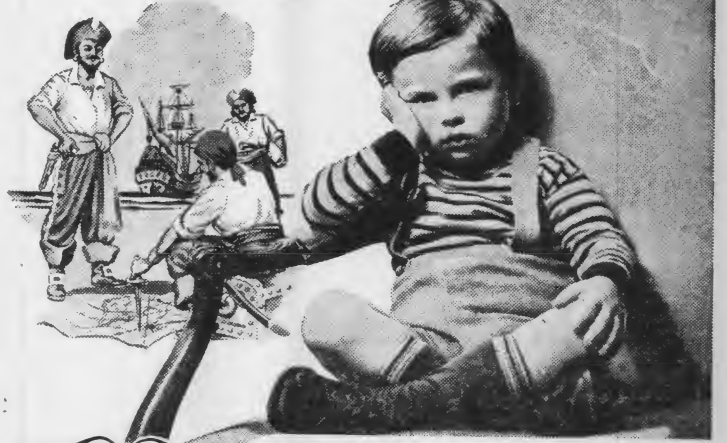

You can put up a shack on desert sands or at the edge of the swamp. But if what you want to erect is a skyscraper or a cathedral, you have to look for solid rock foundations.

So when you are building a life, as Jesus said, you need to build it on a rock, not on sand. We feel the need of a court of last resort, a Judge above all judges. We need an accurate compass, we need a dependable light, a map with roads plainly marked. Now the Bible is all of these things, and people who have discovered its value have used such words as these about it. For the Protestant Christian of every kind, in spite of all our smaller or greater differences, the Bible stands as the supreme authority, even above the church. We do not find codes of rules here; we find living men and women who had authentically known God. In their life-experiences and in their reflections and conclusions, we find again the will of God for ourselves.

Some treasured heirlooms are valued highly because they are irreplaceable. So the Bible is invaluable, because it is unique. Most books answer some questions. The Bible answers the central questions. The Bible gives us the answers we do not find elsewhere. The Bible speaks to our most agonized questionings, our most insatiable questions. What is my destiny, as a human being? Am I a kind of accident, along with other human beings, or are we all part of the plan of God? How can I, poor, sick as I am, come to terms with the high God? What is God like? What can I believe about Him, and what does He want me to do? When I come to the inevitable end of this life, and face the last dark doorway, the last toll-gate, what lies beyond? When I stand at the graveside of a loved one, must I stand forever alone? When I look into the vast reaches of space to the galaxies receding ever beyond our reach, do I find there only mindless energy or do I dare to see above all, above all, infinite and eternal love? The Bible and the Bible alone gives us the answers to such questions.

THAT'S A WONDERFUL STORY!

Yes, that's a wonderful story. Maybe he'll be president some day, or like the man in the story-book. Maybe his picture will one day be shown in an historic sketch—a flashback of the life of someone famous.

It could be you. It could be your own child, or someone you know. The young have dreams, the old have visions. But, from young dreams come realities.

The greatest reality is God. He is waiting . . . for you. He waits in your church. Relive the dreams of long ago this Sunday . . . in church we call those dreams, prayers! For prayer is often but a wish, and frequently a silent "thank you" sighed to God. You can face stern realities with stronger faith, if you have that faith renewed—often.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

Home Economics Teachers Hold Fall Meet at Alexandria

Home Economics teachers in the Northern Kentucky District met recently at the Brass Key in Alexandria for their fall dinner meeting. Mrs. Evelyn Ensor, Home Economics teacher at Lloyd High School, presided over the business session and the program was introduced by the vice-president, Ann Scott Giles of Dixie Heights.

Miss Mary Bell Vaughan, assistant director of Home Economics Education and State F.H.A. adviser from the Department of Education, Frankfort, spoke on "How F.H.A. Contributes Depth to the Total Home-making Program." She compared the teaching of home economics to a cooking kettle containing the ingredients of health, food, family relations, child development, management, clothing and housing. These principal ingredients are the seven major areas taught in vocational home economics classes today.

This "Homemaking Dish" is enriched by the addition of such "seasonings" as: citizenship training, development of values and self direction. Membership in the Future Homemakers organization contribute to these enrichments.

Miss Vaughn emphasized that new machines and new products have reduced the time necessary to do many of the homemaking tasks today, but have increased the need for better management on the part of the homemaker. For these reasons, home economics teachers are in the "people building business."

Miss Vaughn is ably qualified to speak on F.H.A., as she has been State Adviser since the organization came into existence in 1945. She was instrumental in Kentucky being the state to receive the first charter issued by the National Organization of Future Homemakers. Miss Vaughn also holds the American Homemaker degree, the highest honor that is awarded in the organization.

Miss Carolyn Perkins, State F.H.A. Parliamentarian, from the Bracken County Chapter, expressed to these teachers and their guests what she had gained from working on her state homemaker degree. To have received her state degree, Carolyn explained her activities in her local chapter, in other school organizations, in her community, her home and in the State F.H.A. Association.

Miss Maurine Collins area Home Economics Supervisor brought greetings from the Division of Vocational Education.

A delicious dinner was served to the home economics teachers and their administrators and guidance counselors, who were their special guests. Those attending from this area were: Miss Carol Ingledew and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Robinson from Walton-Verona, Mrs. Helen G. McElroy, Miss Helen Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis. Miss Richardson is Finance Director and Mr. Davis is assistant superintendent in the Kenton County School System.

Twelve students from Boone County are enrolled for the fall term at Morehead State College which has a record 2,990 in attendance. This is an increase of 136 over the 1961 fall enrollment of 2,854.

Hospital Rally and Talent Show Are Highly Successful

in trouble. We need their help to carry these extra expenses. Industry is sought by every community, and this gives them the opportunity to choose a location very carefully. Boone County has much to offer, but industry is not responding. We believe that a resounding "yes" for the hospital will make a difference. It will reveal a new spirit on the part of the people of Boone County. Just one industry such as recently chose Lexington as it's home, would bring employment to thousands and good roads, water, bigger and better schools to us all. We could become the greatest county in Kentucky.

November 6 is vital to the future of Boone County, and every voter carries the key.

Taylor Mill PTA Meets

The October meeting of the Taylor Mill P. T. A. was held recently with Mrs. James Feagan, president, presiding.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

A delicious dinner was served by our hostess. The next meeting will be in the church basement, Wednesday Nov. 7th with Janet Burns and Margie McMillian as hostess. The devotion will be given by Ruth Worthington.

Those present were: Mrs. Lillian Elliott, Edna Callen, Elaine Mastin and two daughters, Goldie Glenn, Janet Burns and daughter, Ruth Worthington, Ula LaFollett, Margie McMillian, Ester Glenn, Nannie Cliff Fisk, Ruby Worthington, Lilly Kandy, Gladys Colston and Edna Colston. Oak Hill Homemakers

The Oak Hill Homemakers held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Berkemeier, of Needmore St., Walton. There were eight members present.

The lesson for the month was, "The Buying and Preparation of Different Cuts of Meat." The lesson showed how to tell younger meat from older by color, where the tender cuts were located and what they were and where the less tender cuts were and why they were less tender. We learned which cuts should be cooked by dry heat and which by moist heat.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Gibson, of Independence. The lesson to be presented is, "Mixing Periods of Furniture."

Anyone interested in meeting with us is cordially invited to do so.

Eye Testing Program Lions Club to Start

On Thursday, November 8th, the Walton Lions Club will start their famous eye testing program. Children of grades 2, 4, 6, 8, 11 and any other child in school that seems to be having trouble with their eyes will be given an eye test. The eye testing machine is operated by mothers who are gracious enough to give of their time to learn how to operate the machine and then conduct the actual testing program. Also as in the past the Lions Club is willing and very happy to purchase eye glasses for those children who need them and cannot afford to buy them.

The Walton-Verona Community should be very grateful and support the Lions in this noble effort.

JOIN A 4-H CLUB

The 1961-62 4-H Club year will soon be over and enrollments are being taken for the next club year. If you are between 10 and 20 years of age, it is hoped you will join this group. What project will you carry during the coming year? Maybe you will want to think about this some and talk it over with your parents and 4-H Club leaders. There are projects in about every farm crop, livestock, housekeeping, sewing, canning, foods, grooming, and many others.

If you are a senior 4-H member (over 14 years old) maybe projects such as Junior Leadership, Safety, Automotive Care and Safety, Tractor, Career Exploration, and Money Management is what you want. So be thinking about the project you want to take this next year. Your club will be reorganized soon. Oh, yes, do you have a friend who might like to join a 4-H Club? How about telling your friends about the 4-H program and inviting them to join.

Miss Betty Jane Code of Erlanger and Mr. Thomas Walter Code of Lexington spent the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Code and Larry.

To the Voters of Boone County:

We have the opportunity to go to the polls on November 6th and vote for a Bond Issue that will provide a modern hospital, giving us complete hospital service for the citizens of Boone County. If this issue is defeated in this election, it could be another ten years before we would have another opportunity to vote for a Boone County Hospital.

For a number of years we have relied on our neighbors to provide hospital service for Boone County, but Boone County being a fast growing community, the need for this most vital service is increasing and it could become an impossibility for the existing hospital facilities in our neighboring counties to give the proper service that will be needed for Boone County people.

I believe that the cost of this hospital could be counted as an investment in the future development of Boone County. This extra facility could be the deciding factor in bringing new industry into Boone County—this would indirectly benefit all of the citizens.

Let's assume our responsibility for the care of our citizens in our own community and vote for this most important issue.

Respectfully,

Dan J. Roberts

VOTE FOR SENATOR MORTON

VOTE FOR YOUR KENTUCKY TEAM

AN APPEAL FROM SENATOR COOPER

Dear Friends:

The country does not need a rubber-stamp Congress.

It needs members who have respect for their responsibility to the people, members who will subject the proposals of the Administration to public examination and debate.

I support Senator Morton in his race for re-election with all my energy and enthusiasm. He is able, independent in thought, a man of conviction and integrity, and a Senator highly respected in the Senate and in Kentucky. I urge you to keep the Cooper-Morton team together.

Of the hundreds of recorded votes cast in the past 6 years while Senator Morton and I have served you in the U. S. Senate, we have voted on the opposite side of only 10% of the major issues, which means we have voted together 90% of the time!

I urge you to vote for Senator Morton and to work for his re-election on November 6th.

Sincerely yours,

John Sherman Cooper
United States Senator

Timely Assembly Program On Cuba

Little did Principal William C. Doan know at the beginning of school when he scheduled an assembly program on Cuba that the world would be facing a crisis that could plunge it into a nuclear war. Rev. W. W. Garriott, Pastor of the Walton Methodist Church along with his brother, has spent a considerable amount of time in Cuba. In their stay in Cuba the Garriott Brothers accumulated a great number of picture slides as well as a vast amount of knowledge about the Island of Cuba and her people. At 10 a.m. on Wednesday, November 7th, Rev. W. W. Garriott will be at the Walton-Verona Gymn with his slides and will present a program on Cuba that would be worthwhile for anyone to see. Any person that has the time and desire to know something about the Caribbean Island that is about to change the course of the world is invited and urged to attend this program.

Good Attendance At Homecoming Sunday at Kenton

Kenton Christian Assembly, Kenton, Ky., was honored last Sunday afternoon by a tremendous turn out of the ministry.

Twelve ministers cooperated in this meeting. This was a busy day for them since they had Sunday School and Church Services in their own churches in the morning. Then they drove to Kenton, Ky., for the afternoon service for over two hours of enjoyable time. Most of them had to hurry to return to their churches for the evening services.

Reverend Wiley G. Hinecker was the afternoon speaker. Reverend Hinecker is the Kentucky District Superintendent of the Assembly of God and makes his home at Crestwood, Ky. Sunday morning he ministered to the congregation of the Assembly of God Church at Beechwood, Ky.

Busy Session Held By the New Haven P.T.A., October 16

The October meeting of the New Haven P. T. A. was held Monday, October 16, at 7:30 p. m., with 47 parents and three teachers present.

Membership into the PTA was a gain taken by Mrs. Jean Ransom, membership chairman.

Rev. Ray Stewart delivered the devotional, followed by prayer.

Mrs. Henson again urged parents to get their money for reservations for the three symphony concerts to the teachers as soon as possible. Mrs. Henson informed the teachers that the PTA has set a budget of $14.00 to be given each teacher to purchase needs for their rooms. She also announced the fall conference, of the Sixth District of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held at 4:00 p. m., October 25, at the Alexandria Elementary School.

Mrs. Wanda Houston was appointed chairman of the Room Representatives. She passed out leaflets to each room's representative explaining their duties.

Mrs. Harry Rea was appointed magazine chairman.

Mrs. Betty Alexander, chairman of ways and means committee, announced plans have been made for a spaghetti dinner, to be given in the school cafeteria, Friday, November 16, in conjunction with Open House commemorating "American Education Week." Parents are invited to eat dinner and visit their children's classrooms and talk with the teachers. The menu will be spaghetti with or without meat balls, with cheese, tossed salad, rolls, home-made pie, coffee and milk for children. Adults $1.00, children 60 cents. The time for serving will be announced later.

There will also be a bake table of cookies and candy. Donations of these are being asked. Please call Mrs. Betty Alexander, 485-7223, or Mrs. Bert Tanner, 384-3199.

A round of thanks was given to Mrs. Sara Ashcraft, program chairman, for a fine, informative panel discussion, "Better Education for Every Child." Also to moderator, Mr. Bruce Ferguson, who so graciously accepted the chair for Rev. Ralph Hoffman, who is ill, and also to the fine panel of teachers, Mrs. Catherine Feagan, Mrs. Betty Rater, Mrs. Ora Presser and Mrs. Beth Ferguson. Parents attending the meeting certainly came away more enlightened on the difference of each child and why it is necessary to catalogue each one according to their capabilities to do school work, such as, the slow learner, the handicapped, the exceptional and the average child.

Mrs. Ora Presser reported on the new report cards and the new system of grading.

CAN YOU REFREEZE THAWED FOODS?

Can you refreeze foods after they have thawed? Until recently, experts said "never" but new research has changed the answer to "sometimes." When a frozen food thaws in your home—by accident or otherwise—discarding it is not always necessary, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

If the temperature of the food has not risen above ordinary refrigerator temperatures (40 degrees), then you may consider refreezing it, USDA researchers say—but be sure the food still has acceptable color, texture and odor. The process of refreezing it itself is no hazard; if the partially-thawed food is safe to eat, it is safe to refreeze.

Here are the facts from research by USDA's Agricultural Research Service and other agencies:

A rise in a food's temperature up to thawing impairs color, flavor and texture and the refreezing period causes further loss in quality. However, if the total time of the thawing and refreezing period is short enough, quality may still be high enough to justify refreezing.

No health hazard is involved if the temperature of the food has not risen above ordinary refrigerator temperatures (about 40 degrees). Food-poisoning bacteria have never been found to grow at temperatures below 38 degrees, and they grow very slow between 38 and 45 degrees. Other bacteria can grow slowly at these or even lower temperatures; but, although these bacteria cause off-odors and off-flavors that spoil food, they do not cause food poisoning.

Last year, the most dangerous hours for fires were between midnight and 6:00 in the morning, the hours of deep sleep, reports the National Safety Council. Most victims were on the ground floor and nearly 80 percent were in their bedrooms when fire was discovered. During National Fire Prevention Week, start having regular home fire drills, so the members of your family will know the safest things to do in case of fire.

• CHELF VOTES AGAINST STRONG CUBA STAND MIDDLETON URGES MILITARY BLOCKADE

ON SEPTEMBER 26, 1962, ON THE FLOOR OF CONGRESS, FRANK CHELF VOTED AGAINST A RESOLUTION URGING THE PRESIDENT TO TAKE STRONGER, MORE POSITIVE ACTION IN REGARD TO THE COMMUNIST MENACE IN CUBA. THE RESOLUTION THAT CHELF VOTED AGAINST URGED POLITICAL, DIPLOMATIC, ECONOMIC OR MILITARY ACTION AS MIGHT BE NECESSARY TO PREVENT THIS FOREIGN INVASION OF OUR HEMISPHERE.

• CHELF'S SISTER GETS $30,000 ON CONGRESSMAN'S PAYROLL

MRS. MARY ELLEN GRUBER, 3RD & BROADWAY, LOUISVILLE, HAS RECEIVED NEARLY $30,000 DURING THE PAST 4½ YEARS ON FRANK CHELF'S PAYROLL EVEN THOUGH SHE LIVES IN LOUISVILLE NOT IN WASHINGTON NOR EVEN IN THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

IN A TELEPHONE INTERVIEW MRS. GRUBER WOULD NOT SAY OPENLY WHAT SHE DID FOR HER BROTHER. RUMORS ABOUT HER JOB SAY THAT MRS. GRUBER CLIPS BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM DISTRICT NEWSPAPERS, AND SENDS CONGRATULATIONS TO THE PARENTS OVER MR. CHELF'S SIGNATURE. IS THIS WORTH $30,000 OF YOUR MONEY? YOU ARE THE ONES WHO ARE PAYING FOR IT.

• EISENHOWER, COOPER, MORTON URGE SUPPORT FOR MIDDLETON

EX-PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, SENATOR COOPER, AND SENATOR MORTON URGE YOU TO VOTE FOR CLYDE MIDDLETON..... BECAUSE THEY KNOW YOU WANT, AND NEED, GOOD REPRESENTATION IN WASHINGTON.

CLYDE MIDDLETON WILL CARRY ON THE TRADITION OF THESE MEN, ALL OF WHOM HAVE PLACED YOU, YOUR STATE, AND YOUR COUNTRY ABOVE SELFISH INTERESTS AND PARTY POLITICS.

and remember these things, too

Frank Chelf Uses Government Money to Help Win Primary— Sends Junk Mail Outside of District

In April, 1962, Frank Chelf, CLYDE MIDDLETON'S opponent, sent 128,000 pieces of free "junk" mail. He included Northern Kentucky even though Brent Spence, not Frank Chelf, represented Northern Kentucky at that time. "Free" means you paid for it. Frank Chelf abused his privileges and used government money (your money) for political purposes, to help him win the Democratic primary election. Then, when Congress recently voted on limiting this type "junk mailing," Frank Chelf was one of those who voted to continue it—at your, the taxpayers, expense.

Middleton's Opponent Refuses to Debate

CLYDE MIDDLETON challenged his opponent in September to debate the important issues of this campaign in the newspapers of this District. His opponent refused to do this. MIDDLETON wanted to debate because he wanted you to know how he and his opponent stand on important issues. MIDDLETON has sent his positions regularly to each newspaper in the District. His opponent has avoided giving his position on vital matters. CLYDE MIDDLETON does not believe in political maneuvering at the voters' expense.

Middleton Is Not A Rubber Stamp

MIDDLETON will vote for the things that are the best for you, putting your interest ahead of party politics. CLYDE MIDDLETON is a candidate who will not be a rubber stamp Congressman... unlike his opponent, who is proud to say that he will vote the way his party tells him.

Middleton Opposes Excessive Federal Control

CLYDE MIDDLETON believes you can run your own life. He wants to limit the areas in which the government can tell you what you can do. His opponent has voted for ever-increasing federal control of your life—showing he has little confidence in your intelligence and ability to make your own decisions.

Middleton Says "Stop Wasteful Spending"

CLYDE MIDDLETON is the only candidate who wants to save you tax dollars... to stop wasteful spending. His opponent has voted for ridiculous spending, including $10,000,000 of your tax dollars to build a fish aquarium in Washington, D.C., $3,000,000 to help build privately owned ocean-going fishing boats, an investigation to build a botanical garden in Hawaii, to make a national park at Cape Cod, Massachusetts. CLYDE MIDDLETON does not believe this type of spending makes sense in light of our huge national debt. He is for a balanced budget and a reduction of the national debt believing your money should not be wasted.

Middleton Pledges to Keep You Informed

CLYDE MIDDLETON is the only candidate who has pledged to keep you informed and truly represent you. His opponent hasn't been seen around his district very much in the last several years, even when Congress is not in session. He doesn't seem to make much effort to find out how the voters feel about important legislation. How can a Congressman represent you if he does not see you... doesn't know what you think. CLYDE MIDDLETON will keep you informed and he will keep himself informed on your problems.

DHIA Cows Better Producers, 30-Year Record Check Shows

When one checks national records of the last 30 years, value of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association program is quickly seen.

In 1930, says E. C. Scheidenhelm, UK Ag Extension Specialist in dairy science, U. S. DHIA cows averaged 7,642 pounds of milk and 303 pounds of butterfat; non-DHIA cows produced 4,435 pounds and 174 pounds of butterfat.

In 1961, the DHIA cows produced 10,796 pounds of milk each and 418 pounds of butterfat; non-DHIA cows produced 6,780 pounds and 254 pounds of butterfat. This was a difference of 4,016 pounds in favor of the DHIA cows.

and Democratic Administration bring you:

1 Really good medical-hospital care for your parents and for you, in your old age—under Social Security, and without the pauper's oath—with your own choice of doctors—costing you only 25c per week.

2 Federal aid for education, to help pay for better teaching, better schools, better education—with local control of how the Federal dollars are spent.

3 Fair prices for farm products—continuation and extension of the Democratic tobacco program—expansion of rural electrification—opposition to the Benson policy of liquidating 2,000 family farmers.

4 Tax reforms that will help American industry meet foreign competition, and reduce prices to American consumers—while preventing tax evaders from deducting yachts, hunting lodges, pleasure trips to Europe, etc. as "business expense."

5 Let the U.S. Government ACT for a square deal for everybody, instead of a lopsided deal that benefits only the rich, the privileged, the powerful.

6 Help Kentucky get its fair share of the money and jobs that the Nation has set up for its 48 BILLION-dollar Defense program—almost none of which is now spent in Kentucky, thanks largely to our do-nothing Senator Morton.

4-H Beef Project Planned

Spokesmen for the Boone County Livestock Improvement Association at a luncheon meeting on the farm of R. C. Crisler, Saturday, October 20, expressed a desire to promote the 4-H Beef project in the county.

Mr. Crisler and Mr. Roy Vive said they would help 4-H boys and girls secure good beef animals from the purebred herds. They felt that with the prominence that beef cattle hold in the county and with the excellent purebred herds in the county, that they could do a service both to the club members and to the county.

Mr. Fritz Lutz, a graduate of Michigan State University, and the herdsman on Mr. Crisler's farm, said he would work with the 4-H boys and girls in the beef project.

Boys and girls or parents interested in this 4-H beef project should contact Mr. Wayne Sinsinger, Assistant County Agricultural Agent of this county. Angus, Hereford and Short-horn cattle would be available.

Twenhofel PTA to Meet

The regular meeting of the Twenhofel P. T. A. will be held Monday, November 12, at 7:30 p. m., in the school cafeteria, with Mrs. William Adams, president, presiding.

Feed Grain Wheat Diverted Acres Open to Livestock

Beginning November 1, most of the acreage diverted under the 1962 feed grain and wheat programs will be released from program restrictions on grazing, J. Lossing Huey, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced. The authorization does not extend to (1) diverted acreage which is devoted to wildlife food plots, (2) diverted acreage on which grain or oilseed crops have matured in 1962.

The Chairman explained that the grazing restrictions are being relaxed as part of the general effort to keep provisions of farm programs in line with practical farming operations. Many farmers normally salvage dropped corn ears and other crop residue by turning livestock onto harvested cropland in the late fall. Since the diverted acreage on many farms is not fenced separately, the program change will permit these farmers to salvage this feed without being put to unreasonable work time and expense for protective fencing.

According to Mr. Huey, the main objective of the ban against livestock on diverted acres has been to prevent grazing that may partially offset the corn, grain sorghum, and wheat adjustment under the diversion programs. With killing frost likely by Nov. 1 over the main grain producing area, the objective of the no grazing ban would be satisfactorily met by that time. In addition the important reason for protection of the diverted acreages also will have passed in most areas, and there is small likelihood that conservation cover would be severely damaged by permitting livestock on this acreage on or after November 1st.

Ryan, Richards and Worthingt'n Winners In School Board Race

The Boone County $1.1 million hospital bond issue lost in Tuesday's election, 2,832 to 2,594. Proponents said they would have to do a lot of hard thinking before they tried to revive the issue. A two-thirds majority was required for passage.

The county commission form of government, requiring a simple majority, lost 2,804 to 2,043.

Thruston Morton led the ticket in this county with 3,394 votes, and Clyde Middleton was next with 3,244. Both are Republicans. Statewide, Mr. Morton was re-elected, while Middleton was defeated in a close race by Frank Chelf, the Democratic incumbent.

Chick Worthington, Walt Ryan and Elmer Richards were elected to the Walton-Verona Board of Education. Others running were Nick Welsh, Bill Mastin, and Jack Berkshire.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform
Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN
Bible Material: Genesis 1: 28-31;
Psalm 8; Matthew 6:24-34; Hebrews
2:6-10.
Devotional Reading: Hebrews 2:8-10.
Man
Lesson for November 11, 1962

Dr. Foreman here, tomorrow gone, and nothing else to be said. Men think their lives are so short and insignificant that it does not matter to any one what they do. Men have thought of themselves as so tied to this planet Earth that when it dies we shall die with it. Men have seen that we are animals, and so they think we need no more than animals do, food, a roof, a little place in the sunshine. What's right or wrong for a beast is right or wrong for us . . . and so forth.
Man the Master
The Bible gives no encouragement to any such mistakes. Man is much higher than a mere "higher animal." He is first of all a creature of God, that is the key to the meaning of his existence. "Thou hast made him," the poet-psalmist cries. This alone gives man a glory. The same hand that wrought the universe, the same Mind that conceived the galaxies, are the mind and the hand that designed and developed man and mankind. Not only so, but God has made man only a little lower than God, so far as this earth is concerned. On this earth, our home, God has set man as the master of all. Every living thing is placed under the control of man. Much that man does, especially the good that man does, is part of his continuing age-old struggle to be what God created and intended him to be: master of life on this planet. Every hospital you see is a battle-ground, a part of the long war against the tiny living things that cause disease,—germs and viruses. When you see a wheat field or a water tower, you see signs of man's conquest of hunger and thirst. When you see a clothing store, or turn on your furnace or light the wood in your fireplace, you are looking at part of man's long war with the climates in which he lives. Man is not meant by the high God to be the victim of his environment but to rise above it and control it.
Man the Slave
But that is not the whole story. The meaning of man is not to be found in his conquests alone, but in his service. Some master he must have. Man (it has been said) is "incurably religious." That is to say, some God man must have. He has a kind of worshipping instinct. The strange thing is that man is often found devoting him self and his talents to what is actually below him.
Jesus put it memorably. You cannot serve God and mammon. In other words, you cannot serve God and money. To serve God is to fulfill the purpose for which you were created. To serve money, to serve things, is to be a slave of what should serve man not ride him. Whatever a man hangs his heart on and depends on, that is God to him, said Martin Luther. Strange how man's idols man makes for himself!
Man the Spirit
Another mistake men make about themselves is to confuse themselves with their bodies. This is a natural mistake, because whatever we do or think, we can do or think only with the aid of our bodies. But that does not mean that the body is the most important part of us. It does not rate our major concentrated interest. It does not deserve the pampering we give it. Jesus asks why we put so much thought on caring for our bodies.
A lady selling a young people's encyclopedia went by appointment to a beautiful home where lived a family with several children. The lady of the house did not want the encyclopedia; too expensive she said. Her visitor pointed out. "As I came up the drive I noticed about $200 worth of play equipment—bicycle and what not—in the yard. Why do you spend all that for what's below their necks and begrudge the same money for their minds?" And she might well have added: "And how much do you spend for their souls?"

ROLL UP YOUR Sleeves

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

Copyright 1962, Keister Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Va.

It's November. And in many a local Church it's time to think about the budget for another year. This is cause for being thankful. Really it is! For aren't there many places in this world where men haven't any opportunity to support their Church . . . or any Church to support if they had opportunity?

And aren't there many places where men are compelled to work for causes they do not believe in . . . instead of free to work for a cause in which they do believe?

Frankly, much of the responsibility for keeping our land and our people what we want them to be rests with our Churches.

So let's rejoice in that happy American tradition — the Church budget.

And, in keeping with another fine tradition of our people, let's roll up our sleeves and help!

Boy Scouts Qualify In Recent Physical Tests at Burlington

The Burlington Fair Grounds, on October 19-20-21, was the location for the Big Eagle District Physical Fitness Fair. The event drew Scouts from three counties: Boone, Gallatin and Grant.

Seventy-five percent of the Scouts and leaders participating qualified for National Physical Standards in several tests, established by the President's Council on Physical Fitness for youth.

The tests passed by 75 percent were: Wall jump, running, push-ups and sit-ups. It was discovered that only about 25 percent of the boys could pass the pull-ups test. All test requirements were established by age groupings.

Four competitive events were also conducted on three age levels. Gold silver and bronze medals were awarded to the individual Scouts winning first, second and third place in the events. Events and winners were:

Rope climb, 11-12 years old, Gary Tucker, Charles Thornton, and Mike Rassman; 13-14 years old, Jerry Townson, Don Allen, and Darrell Brown; 15-16 years old, Dan Crocker, Dan Determine, and Mike Cross. 200 yard relay, 11-12 years old, Gary Tucker, Darrell Mullins, and Danny Stagemoller; 13-14 years old, Barry Hodges, Don Cornwell, and Barry Sanders; 15-16 years old, Don Jones, Don Determine, and Buddy Aylor. Standing broad jump, 11-12 years old, Gary Tucker, Allen Elleston, and Ronnie Stewart; 13-14 years old, Bill LeGrand, Larry Schuster, and Don Allen; 15-16 group, Don Determine, Wayne Widner, and Mike Cross. 50 yard dash, 11-12 group, Gary Tucker, Darrell Mullins, and Steve Corner; 13-14 group, Don Allen, Bill Webb, and Don Cornwell; 15-16 group, Don Determine, Don Crocker, and Mike Cross.

An inspirational compfire program followed all the events on Saturday evening. All the medals were presented while parents and friends looked on. The highlight was a filmed talk on physical fitness by Rev. Bob Richards, noted Olympic star for the United States.

Rev. Don Nunnally, of the Florence Christian Church, conducted Sunday morning church services on the camp grounds and tied in the physical fitness theme with his timely remarks to the 150 Scouts and leaders participating.

Know What To Do If A Home Fire Starts

Don't give a fire a place to start at home, says the UK Ag Extension Service. But, if one does, do you know what to do?

Fire Prevention Week brochures (October 7-13) gives these tips: Get everyone out of the building on fire before you do anything else. (This is the most important step).

Then: Call for help from the nearest telephone or make sure someone goes for help. Try to keep the fire from spreading if you can do so without risk of life.

Help the fire department, when it arrives, by getting water or indicating water sources, and help firemen move equipment if they need it. After the fire is extinguished, protect property against weather damage, etc.

Some general tips that will help: Make sure the fire call lists a specific address or location. Know your house floor plans, room locations, (especially those occupied by children, invalids or old people), water sources, access to farm buildings, whether toxic or flammable materials are stored in any of them, location of electrical master switches.

Have firefighting tools on hand and handy.

Farm Names Should Be Recorded By Dept. of Agriculture

Do you want to make the name of your farm official?

You may do this by recording the name with the State Department of Agriculture. The department's register shows that seven names of farms in Boone County are registered. The total for the state is 652, and the Blue Grass area includes some of the best-known names in the world.

Names of farms in this county registered with the department are: Ridgeway Farms, Springlake Stud, Birchgate Farm, Shadow Lawn Farm, Gunpowder Creek Farm, Gunpowder Creek Farm, Kennel and Pineview Acres.

The State law providing for the registration of farm names states "when any name has been recorded as the name of any farm in this state, that name shall not be recorded as the name of any other farm."

This means that once you have recorded your farm's name with the State no other farm may bear this name officially.

You may have the name of your farm recorded by sending $1 and the name and location to the Commissioner of Agriculture at Frankfort. The law provides that he "shall furnish the owner a certificate, issued under seal, setting forth the name and location of the farm and the name of the owner."

The names range from the sentimental through the practical and businesslike to the humorous. A farm in Ohio County belonging to a Beaver Dam dentist is recorded with the name Toothaches.

PLASTIC FILM CAN KILL

In recent months a number of infants and small children have died as a result of the misuse of very thin plastic film. This film is used for plastic bags to protect your clothing after cleaning and laundering, for packaging new linens, foods, toys, sporting goods and various other items.

But, thin plastic film can cling to the mouth and nose of infants, causing suffocation. By all means use caution and common sense. Never use a plastic bag as cover for mattresses or upholstery; never give a plastic bag to a child as a plaything; never use a plastic bag in a crib, play pen, or baby carriage, and never keep a plastic bag after it has served its useful purpose.

Keep plastic film away from children—destroy it—tear it up—tie it in a knot—throw it away. By doing this you may be saving a life!

1962 Burley Crop Production Estimated Up About 4 Percent

The UK Ag Extension Service economics department said this week that the 1962 burley crop is estimated at 603 million pounds.

This figure, the department said in its bi-weekly news letter, would be an estimated 4 percent above the 1961 production. Current yield forecasts are for an average of about 1,778 pounds an acre, down about 1 percent from last year's figure of 1,800 pounds an acre.

The increase in overall production was attributed to a 6 percent increase in acreage allotments for the 1962 crop, the report said.

A total supply level of 1 billion, 743 million pounds is expected. This is up about 36 million pounds from the 1961 crop. Total supply level, the economists explained, is a combination of stocks on hand and current production. Stocks alone are up about 13 million pounds from 1961.

But, the letter says, despite these gains, stocks still are at the second lowest level in 10 years. "Almost all burley stocks are owned today by the tobacco trade. Burley stocks held by the pools are only about 30 million pounds, having declined about 55 million pounds from 1961. The stocks of burley owned by the trade now are at record levels for October."

Burley use, the economists estimated, was up 3 percent over the previous year. It is estimated at 567 million pounds for the marketing year just finished and is a record total level of use. Domestic use of burley (which accounts for more than 90 percent of the market) rose an estimated 14 million pounds, the largest gain since 1951. Burley exports were up, too.

Cigarette manufacture increased about 2 percent, the report said. However, the rate of gain of filter cigarettes over non-filters appears to be slowing; this indicates cigarette-tobacco use gains will move more nearly in parallel with gains in cigarette use.

The report noted that between 1954 and 1961, estimated burley use in cigarettes rose 10 percent while cigarette production during the same period rose 31 percent, more than 3 times as rapidly.

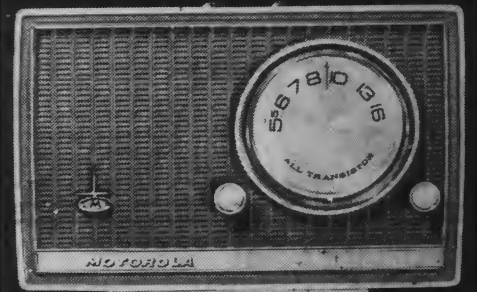

"All this difference comes from less total tobacco being used per cigarette," the report said.

The burley crop still is in a relatively favorable market (price) position, the report said, despite the fact production is up and total supply has increased. Relation of total burley supplies on hand to burley's disappearance (use) is the lowest since 1950.

"While manufacturers and dealers hold essentially all the current stocks, a continuation of present rates of market growth in use of burley make trade needs easily equal in size to the estimates of the crop coming to market," the report concludes.

Bearcats Win Opener 51-36

On Friday evening of last week, the Bearcats whipped the Mustangs of Brossart High School by a score of 51-36. There was a near capacity crowd on hand to witness this "Parents' Night" event. All parents of managers, cheerleaders and players were special guests of the Athletic Department and were recognized just before the game started.

The Bearcats scored first and were never behind. With Collins and Tackett leading the way, the first quarter score was 13-5. The half ended with the Bearcats on top by a 40-20 score. The second half was never in doubt and as the final horn sounded the Bearcats had a 51-36 victory.

The coaches were very pleased with the hustle that was displayed by the boys. This has been characteristic of the boys all fall in practice and was a great factor in this victory. The boys played better than average defense; however, their shooting was very poor, with a 30% average from the field and 40% at the free throw line it is quite evident that there will be some extra shooting drills for the 'Cats this week.

In the preliminary, the Bearkittens displayed the same spirit and hustle in waltzing to a 52-11 victory. Billy Gamble hit the first basket of the season and the boys were off to a 13-4 quarter lead. As they left the floor at the half the Bearkittens had an impressive 28- lead.

In every respect this was a very successful opener for the basketball season. With a near capacity crowd that displayed a lot of enthusiasm, "Parent Night" recognition, and the Walton-Verona Band entertaining the crowd in their new uniforms, a good time was had by all.

Reserve game box score: Walton-Verona by quarters, 13-28-43-52. Roden 2-0-4; Brown 6-1-13; Chapman 4-3-11; Gadd 3-2-8; Billy Gamble 2-1-5; Dave Gamble 1-1-3; Kacaba 1-0-2; Jones 1-0-2; Chipman 2-0-4; Sleet 0-0-0; Searcy 0-0-0; Colcord 0-0-0. Brossart by quarters, 4-6-8-11. McDonald 1-0-2; Clark 1-0-2; Strauss 0-2-2; House 0-1-1; Bezold 0-1-1; Beffermer 0-2-2; Jennings 0-1-1.

Varsity game box score: Walton-Verona by quarters, 13-30-40-51. Tackett 8-2-18; Strong 1-0-2; Collins 5-2-12; Clements 1-1-3; Rich 3-1-7; Simpson 0-2-2; Ryan 1-3-5; Chapman 1-0-2. Brossart by quarters 5-13-20-36. Enzweiler 0-1-1; Ewing 5-0-10; Schulkers 7-3-17; Reynolds 2-1-5; House 0-2-2; Stef-fer 0-1-1.

'Cats Have Two Foes During this Weekend

Fresh from an impressive victory last Friday, the Bearcats will tackle the Midway High School Blue Jays on Friday, November 9, and the Augusta High School Panthers of the Pensacola Conference, on Saturday, November 10. Not much is known of the strength of these two clubs. Both clubs defeated the Bearcats last year, however, they are not expected to be as strong as last year. Several of their key men graduated. Midway High School has had many fine basketball teams and were the state champs in 1937. They are always interesting to watch. Of course W-V and Augusta have always played close basketball games.

On Friday for a preliminary game the fans will be entertained by a freshman basketball game between the Grant County Braves and the Walton-Verona Bearcats. This game will start at 6:30 and should give fans a good idea as to what to expect in the future. Also a preliminary rather than the reserves is being planned for Saturday between Tuenhofel eight grade and the W-V eighth grade. This game will also start at 6:30.

The daily food allowance for each State mental hospital patient is now 11 cents more than the January 1960 allowance.

"Smallest Team In Ky" Giving their Best

This basketball season promises experiences for fans as well as players that no recent season has. The gym has been renovated with new glass backboards, new paint, and the seating arrangement has been changed so as to give a few more and better seats farther away from the playing floor. Also, the type of basketball team will make the season interesting to observe. The two smallest boys that started the 1961-62 season along with a group of smaller and inexperienced boys will make up the smallest team in the history of Walton-Verona and will no doubt be one of the smallest, if not the smallest, basketball team in the state. However, these boys thus far have displayed something that some of the teams of the past lacked and that being just plain old determination. In practice for the past six weeks each boy has shown a lot of pride and hustle.

Coach Don Shaw has announced that the starters come from the following six boys: Ronnie Tackett, 12th grade; Steve Collins, 11th grade; Howard Ryan, 11th grade; Richard Clements, 10th grade; Mike Simpson, 10th grade, and Dennis Rich, 10th grade. Coach Howard Brann's Baby Bearcats, or Reserves, will in all probability be represented by Dale Chapman, Billy Gamble, Jerry Roden, Dale Gadd, and Ronnie Brown.

Miss Carol Ingledew said that the girls leading the cheers and giving words of encouragement are: Lynda Worthington, Linda Duchemin, Jn Ann Houston, Darlene Poore, and Paulette Chance, with Carolyn Armstrong as alternate. The Baby Cats will be cheered on by Nancy Jones, Linda Vest and Vicki Logsdon.

The coaches were encouraged this week by the fact that Mike Jameison was back in school and seems to be getting over his recent illness. The doctor has informed Mike that he may be able to rejoin the basketball team soon, if everything goes well. This is good news because Mike's height is needed.

Managers are: Allen Rust, Paul Wilson, and David Doggett.

School Is Testing Eyes

New Haven school is again testing the eyesight of children, as they have done for several years, using the Florence Lions Club Vision Screening Tests. There are seven different eye tests and they are very thorough and highly recommended by the County Nurse.

The purpose of these tests are to determine whether a child needs visual correction and bring it to the attention of the parents.

Ladies attending the visual instruction class, taught by Dr. Ferd Metzger, Optometrist, Florence, were: Mrs. Gertrude Henson, Mrs. Ada Horton, Mrs. Mary Capito, Mrs. Gladys Griffin, Mrs. Almeda Rae, Mrs. Wanda Houston, Mrs. Sara Ashcraft, Mrs. Mary Lou Arnold, Mrs. Marie Cornelius, Mrs. Betty Diester, Mrs. Kathleen Wiley and Mrs. Mary Haynes.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all of my friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful of me while I was in the hospital and after I came home.

For the food, flowers and cards sent me and for the prayers offered for me. May God bless each and every one in a special way.

Mrs. Ethel Fooks. 11-45

NEW LODGE AT BUTLER STATE PARK DEDICATED

With the dedication of the new lodge at General Butler State Park, the Kentucky Department of Parks has opened its sixth new lodge in the last four months as part of the $18 million expansion program to make the Kentucky park system one of the best in the nation.

At the dedication of General Butler State Park's 25 room lodge, October 31, Gov. Bert Combs said:

"Kentucky has become nationally famous for its State parks. Our park lodges are recognized as the finest and most handsome in the United States. It is no wonder that the visitors to our parks increased from 6,250,000 in 1961 to 8,000,000 in 1962."

The General Butler lodge and dining room will remain open throughout the year.

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express my gratitude to all those friends whose kind words and deeds helped make my time of sorrow more bearable. Especially helpful were the prayers offered for me and my husband, Albert Parker. May God bless you all for your concern.

Many thanks to each one who sent cards or visited while my husband was sick. Many thanks also, for the gifts of food graciously given by so many friends after his departure from us. Gifts of flowers were tokens of sympathy that were also appreciated. Our special thanks goes to Rev. Roy Johnson, Rev. William Moore, Rev. J. R. Tackett, and Rev. G. W. Hoffman for their words of faith and comfort. Our sincere appreciation and thanks to Chambers and Grubbs for all their help in my time of grief.

Baby your wash with an AUTOMATIC DRYER

Cuddly soft and sweet smelling is how washables come out of an automatic clothes dryer.

Its gentle tumbling action babies washables . . . makes them last longer.

That's because there are no buffeting winds to stiffen . . . clothes pins to mark . . . or harsh sun's rays to streak and fade the things inside a dryer.

And things stay as clean as when they were taken from the washer, too. No dust and dirt can get inside a dryer.

State Tax Funds Allotted to Public Higher Education

Kentucky is leading all the states in the percentage increase of state tax funds allotted to public higher education, Gov. Bert Combs has reported.

Over the two-year period 1960-61 through 1962-63, the State's appropriation has jumped from a little less than $19.7 million to almost $29.6 million, an increase of more than 50 per cent.

The figures were revealed in a nationwide study recently completed by the University of Michigan. States coming closest to Kentucky's goal Hawaii and Rhode Island, each showed an increase of 46 per cent.

"Naturally, we're pleased with this statistic," Combs stated. "It is significant that these increases have been made possible almost entirely by the sales tax."

Since 1960, when the sales tax went into effect, Kentucky's annual allotment to public higher education has leaped from about $14.9 million to the present $29.6 million—an increase of nearly 100 per cent.

"After scores of years of being grounded," the Governor said, "Kentucky is finally getting the thrust needed to get its educational program into orbit."

The total nationwide allotment by the states for the fiscal year 1962-63 is about $1.8 billion. This is approximately $355 million greater than the 1960-61 total and represents a gain of about 24.5 per cent over the two-year period, the study shows.

KENTUCKIANS

WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Tourist Trade:

The Visitors Bureau in Washington recently paid tribute to those congressmen and senators who have distributed travel literature to tourists from back home.

Well, we tip our hat to the Kentucky delegation on Capitol Hill. They have Kentucky literature available and handy for Washingtonians who have a yen to visit the Blue Grass. The material goes pretty fast and we know of friends who have been persuaded to see Kentucky through such material.

Coming To Kentucky:

Brooks Hays is going to be a Kentucky visitor in mid-October to talk conservation at a conference in Louisville. We recommend him to your attention.

He's a former congressman, now on President Kennedy's White House staff. For some years he served in a similar capacity under General Eisenhower. Among lawmakers he got a reputation as an excellent story teller and his associates rate him to Alben Barkley in that entertaining category.

Washington Parties:

Recently some Washington friends staged a Sunday afternoon party for Lt.-Gov. Wilson Wyatt. The object was to raise money for his senatorial campaign in Kentucky.

Parties of that type are getting to be the rage in vote-less Washington. Citizens can't cast a ballot but they can contribute funds. There have been several such affairs to help candidates in Tennessee, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Virginia and California.

Employment:

We report on the increase in employment in Kentucky, up a healthy figure over last year.

The Department of Labor makes the report that the Kentucky Employment Service placed 61,000 people in jobs, an increase of more than 27 per cent over last year. Greatest number of jobs were found in factory work, a total of 14,609.

Kentucky no longer is losing to other states more than half of the teachers trained in this state, as it did in 1959. About 70 per cent of teacher graduates now stay to teach in Kentucky.

Father Ruefer Pleads For Used Clothing At Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day is the oldest and most cherished of our national holidays. It is also, thanks be to God, the one least tainted by commercialism.

The Pilgrim Fathers who established Thanksgiving Day in that russet and crimson New England autumn of 1621, intended it to be not only a day for giving prayerful thanks to Divine Providence for the blessing of freedom and survival during their hazardous first year, but also an occasion for sharing their bountiful harvest.

Appropriately linked with that pristine Thanksgiving Day spirit is the annual nationwide appeal of the American Catholic Bishops for serviceable used clothing, shoes, bedding and blankets in behalf of the destitute, the ragged and the homeless in other lands.

The clothing and materials donated in answer to this appeal will be baled, shipped and distributed by Catholic Relief Services which operates welfare programs in areas of need in 67 countries. In the distribution process, no distinction is made and no questions asked regarding the recipient's race, color, creed or national origin. The sole criterion employed is need.

During the week of November 18-25, All Saints Church, Ky. 16, Walton, will gladly and gratefully receive your bundle of usable clothing or bedding, and guarantee its delivery to worthy poor and afflicted persons desperately in need.

Give thanks this year by giving. If you do, your own Thanksgiving day will be a lot happier.

"BIG DIG" SITE—Scientists, diggers, observers, gather for a photograph as the crew reaches the ten-foot level below the surface bench mark and unearth prehistoric fossil remains.

KENTUCKY'S GRAVEYARD OF MONSTERS

Preliminary excavations by the archeologists who are starting a five-year "dig" at Big Bone Lick in Boone County are causing great excitement in scientific circles. For six weeks during July and August, using implements ranging from the bulldozer to the hand trowel, the eager scientists probed and drilled, scraped, dug and sampled in nature's unique trap that has caught and preserved animals for thousands of years in Northern Kentucky.

Irresistibly attracted by the salt in the mineral springs, great herds of animals began visiting the area far back in the ice age. A quagmire of tremendous depth was formed by the springs. Occasionally an animal would venture too far or be pushed out from firm footing to sink to its death in the quicksand.

Perhaps of more immediate interest to the average person are the plans being worked out to make the site attractive to people other than scientists. Kentucky's Department of

Augusta Defeated 70-62, On Saturday

The Walton-Verona Bearcats lost one and won one over the weekend as the Bluejays of Midway High School defeated them by a 72-40 score on Friday night, and then on Saturday nights, the 'Cats whipped the Panthers of Augusta, 70-62.

On Friday night, the Bearcats fell behind early in the game and were never a serious threat as Midway had an easy time winning their first game of the season. The Walton-Verona boys were out mugged on both boards by the high jumping Bluejays. Also, the Bearcats were outclassed in the shooting department as they hit a very poor 18% while Midway hit a respectable 39%.

In the preliminary, Friday night, the Grant County freshmen bested the Walton-Verona freshmen by a 37 to 28 score. The Bearkittens pulled into striking distance a couple of times but were not able to overcome the Grant County boys. Gabbart and Matley led the way for the winners as they scored 10 and 8 points, respectively. Dale Gadd and Ronnie Brown had 10 and 7 for the Walton-Verona club.

Quarter Scores
Walton-Verona	8	22	28	40
Midway	20	43	60	72

Walton-Verona: Tackett 15, Strong 0, Collins 13, Clement 2, Rich 2, Simpson 2, Ryan 4, Chapman 2. Midway: Hall 6, Colombia 2, Anthony 19, Mitchell 4, Jackson 9, Southworth 8, Owsley 14, Kennedy 10.

There was a different story Saturday night as the Bearcats hit a blistering 42% of their shots in defeating the Augusta High School of the PenSo-Gran Conference by a score of 70-62. This was the second win of the season for the Bearcats against one loss. This was a hard-fought game between two fairly even teams in terms of size, however, the good shooting of the 'Cats, along with their pressing defense seemed to keep the Augusta boys off balance. As a result, the Bearcats were in the lead most of the way with as much as a 14-point spread and as little as four points.

As has been quite evident all year the boys again displayed a fine attitude in their hustle and determination. (Continued on Page 7)

KENTUCKIANS

Change Pattern:

Those television comics who use those old-fashion, up-right telephones as symbolic of rural America will have to change their approach.

The REA has announced that this year it has approved enough loans to install 24,000 dial phones.

A report from the REA office here says that Kentucky has obtained $214 million in electric loans and close to $40 million in telephone loans in 27 years.

On Education:

Another report comes from federal officials on the status of education in Kentucky.

The state's appropriation has jumped almost 50 per cent and Kentucky leads the nation in the increase.

There have been increases across the nation—increases averaging about 25 per cent. Thus, Kentucky is gaining ground after years of foot-dragging.

On Cattle Raising:

More figures on beef production are available. Kentucky, according to the Department of Agriculture, has scored a good increase in the amount of beef slaughtered, about the top-ranking state in the South.

However, those same figures indicate room for improvement. Kentuckians, who like their steaks, still have to import a lot of beef from other states.

A Fine Citizen:

Kentucky has lost a fine citizen in recent days, E. V. Murphree, a native of Louisville, died of a heart attack. He was one of the handful of Americans who knew of the development of the atomic bomb.

Mr. Murphree, a graduate of the University of Kentucky, was brought to Washington as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission under President Truman. At his death he was president of a research company with 3000 scientists under his direction.

There'll be plenty of turkey for Thanksgiving this year but not as much as a year ago. Turkey growers have reduced production 16 per cent from last year, according to USDA's Statistical Reporting Service.

"We're Happy with Electric Heating,"

... say the Harold Pates, Collinsville, Ohio!

"I can control each room's electric baseboard, individually—make it warmer in the children's bedrooms and bathroom without overheating other rooms," Mrs. Pate says.

"And my draperies, walls, woodwork stay clean for a surprisingly long while."

Mr. Pate adds, "Our electric baseboards heat every room with the same even, draft-free warmth that feels just like sunshine."

Installation and operating costs are comparable to other heating systems. Maintenance costs are negligible.

God's Call

Lesson for November 18, 1962

THERE is a word older than the Christian religion to express what happens to a man when God gets hold of him. The word is "saved." To its hearers in times past the word meant rescued, delivered, set free. That is still what it means, though many Christians are not aware of it. Some people, especially people without religion, think that when a man becomes a Christian he gives up his freedom and thereafter lives a tied-down wretched life. Quite the contrary. The Christian is not tied, he is untied, not chained but free, set free.

Saved from what?

So much is said about this in the New Testament that we can take only one single passage of the many that have been listed for this lesson: Ephesians 2:1-10. The great word here is "made alive." The new Christian hasn't stopped living, he just never knew before what it is to live. The difference between before and after is the difference between death and life. What kind of life is the "dead" life? Three things are said of it: it is a life enslaved by the "spirit of disobedience"; it is a life enslaved to impulses and passions shared with the beasts; it is a life under "wrath." To put it into our everyday language, we may say that what God saves us from is (1) the habit of disobedience to God (and how self-destructive it is to be living in an enemy of Life!); (2) the habit of piggy self-indulgence; and (3) an existence shadowed by the constant fact that one has turned one's back on God himself. From all this, God calls us away.

Saved by what?

A reader will object at this point. Does this mean that all Christians were at one time criminals, outright and outrageous sinners? Do I have to be God's enemy before I can be his friend? Not at all. Many readers of these lines cannot remember a time when they did not think of themselves as Christians. In many cities there are "rescue missions" in the dirtiest and meanest parts of town, for derelicts, hoboes, down-and-outs. These rescue missions do a great deal of good. But there are also what can be called Prevention Missions if they do their job right; ordinary run-of-mine unpretentious main-line Christian churches, which by their life and work are every day saving their young people from starting on the road that ends in Skid Row.

Whether it's a prevention or a rescue mission, what we're all either dragged out of or kept out of, is all the same thing. So what is it that saves us? Again it's all the same. We are saved by "grace," that is, God might have let us go—"good riddance to bad rubbish." But instead, he cared intensely for us, the pure and holy God actually loved and loves the soiled and selfish race of man. The point is that it is not because we were so good, God was bound to save us. He was so good that he saved us.

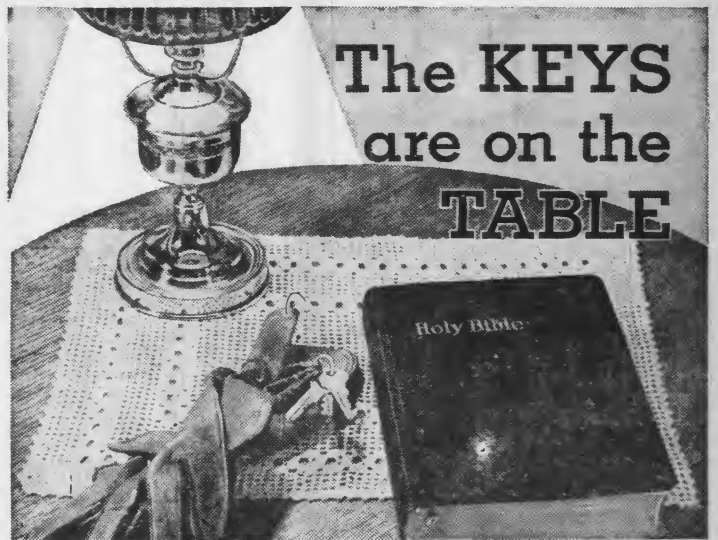

Saved through what?

One thing is made clear all through the Bible. If man—the race of man or some particular man—is going to be saved, he cannot save himself. God saves him; God's grace, that is to say his freely given love, saves us. But a life preserver will not hold a man up if he will not take hold of it. A word of wisdom might as well be a word of foolishness if no one pays any attention.

Saved for what?

If a lifeguard has rescued a drowning man at the beach, the rescued man will not be so silly as to set up a tent beside the lifeguard's chair and every five minutes for the rest of the summer come to thank the lifeguard again. He will be eternally grateful for having been rescued. But if he never thought before, he may well think now: My life was almost washed away, and now it has been given back to me: what shall I do with it? So when God's call comes to a person, it is not a call to a perpetual vacation, it is a call to work. We are saved not because what we have done earns the priceless love of God. We are saved to do the kind of work that God can do only through human beings—saved to work with God.

The KEYS are on the TABLE

It's strange how a man's mind works . . .

My wife had said, "The keys are on the table," and we both were thinking of the car keys. I have that abominable habit of laying them down wherever I put my gloves — and I'm always losing my gloves.

But when I saw the keys, I saw the Bible, too. We always keep it there even though we seldom read it.

"The keys are on the table." I am just enough of a philosopher to see the chance implication of those words. The keys to a great many things must lie within the covers of that Book. Perhaps the keys to all of the really important things for you, and for me, and for everyone else.

We've been searching far and wide for the keys to peace, and security, and fairness, and brotherhood.

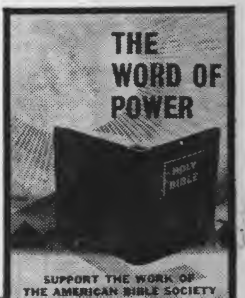

I wonder if the keys are on the table!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

Completes Airborne Course

Army PFC Robert L. Johnson, Jr., whose wife, Elizabeth, lives at 22 Wallace Ave., Florence, recently completed the four-week airborne course at The Infantry School at Ft. Benning, Ga.

The 25-year-old soldier, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Dickey, live at 310 Limaburg Road, Hebron, is a 1955 graduate of Boone County High School, Florence.

4-H Beef Project Planned

Spokesmen for the Boone County Livestock Improvement Association at a luncheon meeting on the farm of R. C. Crisler, Saturday, October 20, expressed a desire to promote the 4-H beef project in the county.

Mr. Crisler and Mr. Ray Vive said they would help 4-H boys and girls secure good beef animals from the purebred herds. They felt that with the prominence that beef cattle hold in the county and with the excellent purebred herds in the county, that they could do a service both to the club members and to the county.

Mr. Fritz Lutz, a graduate of Michigan State University, and the herdsman on Mr. Crisler's farm, said he would work with the 4-H boys and girls in the beef project.

Boys and girls or parents interested in this 4-H beef project should contact Mr. Wayne Sinsinger, Assistant County Agricultural Agent of this county. Angus, Hereford and Short-horn cattle would be available.

Attend P. T. A. Meeting

The Sixth District Congress of P. T. A., held at the Alexandria Elementary School, was attended by Mrs. W. W. Worthington, Mrs. John E. Childress, Mrs. Leo Ashcraft, and Mrs. Melvin Fisk, the officers of the Piner P. T. A.

An interesting discussion was given on the subject of beautifying our schools.

Twenhofel PTA to Meet

The regular meeting of the Twenhofel P. T. A. will be held Monday, November 12, at 7:30 p. m., in the school cafeteria, with Mrs. William Adams, president, presiding.

After the meeting, open house is planned in conjunction with observance of American Education Week, when parents may visit classrooms.

Feed Grain Wheat Diverted Acres Open to Livestock

Beginning November 1, most of the acreage diverted under the 1962 feed grain and wheat programs will be released from program restrictions on grazing, J. Lossing Huey, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced. The authorization does not extend to (1) diverted acreage which is devoted to wildlife food plots, (2) diverted acreage on which grain or oilseed crops have matured in 1962.

The Chairman explained that the grazing restrictions are being relaxed as part of the general effort to keep provisions of farm programs in line with practical farming operations. Many farmers normally salvage dropped corn ears and other crop residue by turning livestock onto harvested cropland in the late fall. Since the diverted acreage on many farms is not fenced separately, the program change will permit these farmers to salvage this feed without being put to unreasonable work time and expense for protective fencing.

According to Mr. Huey, the main objective of the ban against livestock on diverted acres has been to prevent grazing that may partially offset the corn, grain sorghum, and wheat adjustment under the diversion programs. With killing frost likely by Nov. 1 over the main grain producing area, the objective of the no grazing ban would be satisfactorily met by that time. In addition the important erosion or protection of the diverted acreages also will have passed in most areas, and there is small likelihood that conservation cover would be severely damaged by permitting livestock on this acreage on or after November 1st.

The county commission form of government, requiring a simple majority, lost 2,804 to 2,043.

Thurston Morton led the ticket in this county with 3,394 votes, and Clyde Middleton was next with 3,244. Both are Republicans. Statewide, Mr. Morton was re-elected, while Middleton was defeated in a close race by Frank Chelf, the Democratic incumbent.

Chick Worthington, Walt Ryan and Elmer Richards were elected to the Walton-Verona Board of Education. Others running were Nick Walsh, Bill Mastin, and Jack Berkshire.

According to reports, there were standees at both Florence precincts when the polls closed at 5 p. m.

Successful 4-H Club Auction at Florence Nets $1,623.94 Total

The 4-H Auction to raise money for the new District 4-H Leadership Training Center was a success reported the Auction Committee. The 4-H Committee, composed of Mr. Charles Tongret, Mrs. Nick Mikkelsen, Mrs. Almada Rea, Mr. Harold Kraus, Mrs. R. H. Smith, and Beckham Shields, wishes to thank all those who helped make it a success. These include all who donated to the auction; all workers who solicited for the sale; the Latonia Race Track Management; and auctioneers, Charles Tanner and Cecil Wayman who gave their services free. They also wish to thank all those who bought articles at the sale and the Boone County Homemakers for operating the food booth and donating much food.

A total of $1,623.94 was grossed on the auction with a net receipt of about $1,550.00 being realized. This money will be used as a part of Boone County's share in building the new 4-H Center that will be supervised by the University of Kentucky, and is located in Nicholas County. This $200,000.00 plus facility will be available to Boone County 4-H members, other youth groups, and approved adult organizations. The center is now under construction.

Man

Lesson for November 11, 1962

MOST people would call the Bible a book about God; and this is true. But there is something just as true, and for us very important: it is a book about man. Just as there are truths about God that will not be known unless God reveals them, so there are truths about man that have to be shown us. The race of man has seldom taken itself seriously enough. Men suppose they are like the beasts that perish; today Dr. Foreman here, tomorrow gone, and nothing else to be said. Men think their lives are so short and insignificant that it does not matter to any one what they do. Men have thought of themselves as so tied to this planet Earth that when it dies we shall die with it. Men have seen that we are animals, and so they think we need no more than animals do, food, a roof, a little place in the sunshine. What's right or wrong for a beast is right or wrong for us . . . and so forth

The Bible gives no encouragement to any such mistakes. Man is much higher than a mere "higher animal." He is first of all a creature of God, that is the key to the meaning of his existence. "Thou hast made him," the poet-psalmist cries. This alone gives man a glory. The same hand that wrought the universe, the same Mind that conceived the galaxies, are the mind and the hand that designed and developed man and mankind. Not only so, but God has made man only a little lower than God, so far as this earth is concerned. On this earth, our home, God has set man as the master of all. Every living thing is placed under the control of man. Much that man does, especially the good that man does, is part of his continuing age-old struggle to be what God created and intended him to be: master of life on this planet. Every hospital you see is a battle-ground, a part of the long war against the tiny living things that cause disease—germs and viruses. When you see a wheat field or a water tower, you see signs of man's conquest of hunger and thirst. When you see a clothing store, or turn on your furnace or light the wood in your fireplace, you are looking at part of man's long war with the climates in which he lives. Man is not meant by the high God to be the victim of his environment but to rise above it and control it

But that is not the whole story. The meaning of man is not to be found in his conquests alone, but in his service. Some master he must have. Man (it has been said) is "incurably religious." That is to say, some God man must have. He has a kind of worshipping instinct. The strange thing is that man is often found devoting himself and his talents to what is actually below him

Jesus put it memorably. You cannot serve God and mammon; in other words, you cannot serve God and money. To serve God is to fulfill the purpose for which you were created. To serve money, to serve things, is to be a slave of what should serve man, not ride him. Whatever a man hangs his heart on and depends on, that is God to him, said Martin Luther. Strange how man, idols man makes for himself!

Man the Spirit

Another mistake men make about themselves is to confuse themselves with their bodies. This is a natural mistake, because whatever we do or think, we can do or think only with the aid of our bodies. But that does not mean that the body is the most important part of us. It does not rate our major concentrated interest. It does not deserve the pampering we give it. Jesus asks why we put so much thought on caring for our bodies

A lady selling a young people's encyclopedia went by appointment to a beautiful home where lived a family with several children. The lady of the house did not want the encyclopedia, too expensive she said. Her visitor pointed out "As I came up the drive I noticed about $200 worth of play equipment—bicycles and what not—in the yard. Why do you spend all that for what's below their necks and begrudge the same money for their minds?" And she might well have added: "And how much do you spend for their souls?"

ROLL UP YOUR Sleeves

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's November. And in many a local Church it's time to think about the budget for another year.

This is cause for being thankful. Really it is! For aren't there many places in this world where men haven't any opportunity to support their Church . . . or any Church to support if they had opportunity?

And aren't there many places where men are compelled to work for causes they do not believe in . . . instead of free to work for a cause in which they do believe?

Frankly, much of the responsibility for keeping our land and our people what we want them to be rests with our Churches.

So let's rejoice in that happy American tradition—the Church budget.

And, in keeping with another fine tradition of our people, let's roll up our sleeves and help!

PLASTIC FILM CAN KILL

In recent months a number of infants and small children have died as a result of the misuse of very thin plastic film. This film is used for plastic bags to protect your clothing after cleaning and laundering, for packaging new linens, foods, toys, sporting goods and various other items.

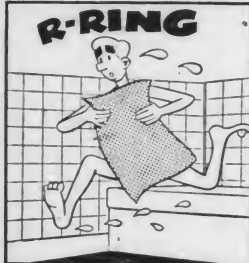

But, thin plastic film can cling to the mouth and nose of infants, causing suffocation.

By all means use caution and common sense. Never use a plastic bag as cover for mattresses or upholstery; never give a plastic bag to a child as a plaything; never use a plastic bag in a crib, play pen, or baby carriage, and never keep a plastic bag after it has served its useful purpose.

Keep plastic film away from children—destroy it—tear it up—tie it in a knot—throw it away. By doing this you may be saving a life!

1962 Burley Crop Production Estimated Up About 4 Percent

The UK Ag Extension Service economics department said this week that the 1962 burley crop is estimated at 603 million pounds.

This figure, the department said in its bi-weekly news letter, would be an estimated 4 percent above the 1961 production. Current yield forecasts are for an average of about 1,778 pounds on acre, down about 1 percent from last year's figure of 1,800 pounds on acre.

The increase in overall production was attributed to a 6 percent increase in acreage allotments for the 1962 crop, the report said.

A total supply level of 1 billion, 743 million pounds is expected. This is up about 36 million pounds from the 1961 crop. Total supply level, the economists explained, is a combination of stocks on hand and current production. Stocks alone are up about 13 million pounds from 1961.

But, the letter says, despite these gains, stocks still are at the second lowest level in 10 years. "Almost all burley stocks are owned today by the tobacco trade. Burley stocks held by the pools are only about 30 million pounds, having declined about 55 million pounds from 1961. The stocks of burley owned by the trade now are at record levels for October."

Burley use, the economists estimated, was up 3 percent over the previous year. It is estimated at 567 million pounds for the marketing year just finished and is a record total level of use. Domestic use of burley (which accounts for more than 90 percent of the market) rose an estimated 14 million pounds, the largest gain since 1951. Burley exports were up, too.

Cigarette manufacture increased about 2 percent, the report said. However, the rate of gain of filter cigarettes over non-filter appears to be slowing; this indicates cigarette-tobacco use gains will move more nearly in parallel with gains in cigarette use.

The report noted that between 1954 and 1961, estimated burley use in cigarettes rose 10 percent while cigarette production during the same period rose 31 percent, more than 3 times as rapidly.

"All this difference comes from less total tobacco being used per cigarette," the report said.

The burley crop still is in a relatively favorable market (price) position, the report said, despite the fact production is up and total supply has increased. Relation of total burley supplies on hand to burley's disappearance (use) is the lowest since 1950.

"While manufacturers and dealers hold essentially all the current stocks, a continuation of present rates of market growth in use of burley make trade needs easily equal in size to the estimates of the crop coming to market," the report concludes.

Boy Scouts Qualify In Recent Physical Tests at Burlington

The Burlington Fair Grounds, on October 19-20-21, was the location for the Big Eagle District Physical Fitness Fair. The event drew Scouts from three counties: Boone, Gallatin and Grant.

Seventy-five percent of the Scouts and leaders participating qualified for National Physical Standards in several tests, established by the President's Council on Physical Fitness for youth.

The tests passed by 75 percent were: Wall jump, running, push-ups and sit-ups. It was discovered that only about 25 percent of the boys could pass the pull-ups test. All test requirements were established by age groupings.

Four competitive events were also conducted on three age levels. Gold silver and bronze medals were awarded to the individual Scouts winning first, second and third place in the events. Events and winners were:

Rope climb, 11-12 years old, Gary Tucker, Charles Thornton, and Mike Rasmussen; 13-14 years old, Jerry Townsman, Don Allen, and Darrell Brown; 15-16 years old, Dan Crocker, Dan Determine, and Mike Cross. 200 yard relay, 11-12 years old, Gary Tucker, Darrell Mullins, and Danny Stagemoller; 13-14 years old, Barry Hodges, Don Cornwell, and Barry Sanders; 15-16 years old, Don Jones, Don Determine, and Buddy Aylor. Standing broad jump, 11-12 years old, Gary Tucker, Allen Elleston, and Ronnie Stewart; 13-14 years old, Bill LeGrand, Larry Schuster, and Don Allen; 15-16 group, Don Determine, Wayne Widner, and Mike Cross. 50 yard dash, 11-12 group, Gary Tucker, Darrell Mullins, and Steve Corner; 13-14 group, Don Allen, Bill Webb, and Don Cornwell; 15-16 group, Don Determine, Don Crocker, and Mike Cross.

An inspirational compfire program followed all the events on Saturday evening. All the medals were presented while parents and friends looked on. The highlight was a filmed talk on physical fitness by Rev. Bob Richards, noted Olympic star for the United States.

Rev. Don Nunnally, of the Florence Christian Church, conducted Sunday morning church services on the camp grounds and tied in the physical fitness theme with his timely remarks to the 150 Scouts and leaders participating.

Know What To Do If A Home Fire Starts

Don't give a fire a place to start at home, says the UK Ag Extension Service. But, if one does, do you know what to do?

Fire Prevention Week brochures (October 7-13) gives these tips: Get everyone out of the building on fire before you do anything else. (This is the most important step).

Then, Call for help from the nearest telephone or make sure someone goes for help. Try to keep the fire from spreading if you can do so without risk of life.

Help the fire department, when it arrives, by getting water or indicating water sources, and help firemen move equipment if they need it.

After the fire is extinguished, protect property against weather damage, etc.

Some general tips that will help: Make sure the fire call lists a specific address or location. Know your house-floor plans, room locations, especially those occupied by children, invalids or old people, water sources, access to farm buildings, whether toxic or flammable materials are stored in any of them, location of electrical master switches.

Have firefighting tools on hand and handy.

Farm Names Should Be Recorded By Dept. of Agriculture

Do you want to make the name of your farm official?

You may do this by recording the name with the State Department of Agriculture. The department's register shows that seven names of farms in Boone County are registered. The total for the state is 652, and the Blue Grass area includes some of the best-known names in the world.

Names of farms in this county registered with the department are Ridgeway Farms, Springlake Stud, Birchgate Farm, Shadow Lawn Farm, Gunpowder Creek Farm, Gunpowder Creek Farm Kennel and Pineview Acres.

The State law providing for the registration of farm names states "when any name has been recorded as the name of any farm in this state, that name shall not be recorded as the name of any other farm."

This means that once you have recorded your farm's name with the State no other farm may bear this name officially.

You may have the name of your farm recorded by sending $1 and the name and location to the Commissioner of Agriculture at Frankfort. The law provides that he "shall furnish the owner a certificate, issued under seal, setting forth the name and location of the farm and the name of the owner."

The names range from the sentimental through the practical and businesslike to the humorous. A farm in Ohio County belonging to a Beaver Dam dentist is recorded with the name Toothacres.

Bearcats Win Opener 51-36

On Friday evening of last week, the Bearcats whipped the Mustangs of Brossart High School by a score of 51-36. There was a near capacity crowd on hand to witness this "Parents' Night" event. All parents of managers, cheerleaders and players were special guests of the Athletic Department and were recognized just before the game started.

The Bearcats scored first and were never behind. With Collins and Tackett leading the way, the first quarter score was 13-5. The half ended with the Bearcats on top by a 40-20 score. The second half was never in doubt and as the final horn sounded the Bearcats had a 51-36 victory.

The coaches were very pleased with the hustle that was displayed by the boys. This has been characteristic of the boys all fall in practice and was a great factor in this victory. The boys played better than average defense; however, their shooting was very poor, with a 30% average from the field and 40% at the free throw line it is quite evident that there will be some extra shooting drills for the 'Cats this week.

In the preliminary, the Bearkittens displayed the same spirit and hustle in waltzing to a 52-11 victory. Billy Gamble hit the first basket of the season and the boys were off to a 13-4 quarter lead. As they left the floor at the half the Bearkittens had an impressive 28- lead.

In every respect this was a very successful opener for the basketball season. With a near capacity crowd that displayed a lot of enthusiasm, "Parent Night" recognition, and the Walton-Verona Band entertaining the crowd in their new uniforms, a good time was had by all.

Reserve game box score: Walton-Verona by quarters, 13-28-43-52. Roden 2-0-4; Brown 6-1-13; Chapman 4-3-11; Gadd 3-2-8; Billy Gamble 2-1-5; Dave Gamble 1-1-3; Kacaba 1-0-2; Jones 1-0-2; Chipman 2-0-4; Sleet 0-0-0; Searcy 0-0-0; Colcord 0-0-0. Brossart by quarters, 4-6-8-11. McDonald 1-0-2; Clark 1-0-2; Strauss 0-2-2; House 0-1-1; Bezold 0-1-1; Beffermer 0-2-2; Jennings 0-1-1.

Varsity game box score: Walton-Verona by quarters, 13-30-40-51. Tackett 8-2-18; Strong 1-0-2; Collins 5-2-12; Clements 1-1-3; Rich 3-1-7; Simpson 0-2-2; Ryan 1-3-5; Chapman 1-0-2. Brossart by quarters 5-13-20-36. Enzweiler 0-1-1; Ewing 5-0-10; Schulkers 7-3-17; Reynolds 2-1-5; House 0-2-2; Steffen 0-1-1.

'Cats Have Two Foes During this Weekend

Fresh from an impressive victory last Friday, the Bearcats will tackle the Midway High School Blue Jays on Friday, November 9, and the Augusta High School Panthers of the Pensacola Conference, on Saturday, November 10. Not much is known of the strength of these two clubs. Both clubs defeated the Bearcats last year, however, they are not expected to be as strong as last year. Several of their key men graduated. Midway High School has had many fine basketball teams and were the state champs in 1937. They are always interesting to watch. Of course W-V and Augusta have always played close basketball games.

On Friday for a preliminary game the fans will be entertained by a freshman basketball game between the Grant County Braves and the Walton-Verona Bearcats. This game will start at 6:30 and should give fans a good idea as to what to expect in the future. Also a preliminary rather than the reserves is being planned for Saturday between Twenhofel eighth grade and the W-V eighth grade. This game will also start at 6:30.

The daily food allowance for each State mental hospital patient is now 11 cents more than the January 1960 allowance.

"Smallest Team In Ky" Giving their Best

This basketball season promises experiences for fans as well as players that no recent season has. The gym has been renovated with new glass backboards, new paint, and the seating arrangement has been changed so as to give a few more and better seats farther away from the playing floor. Also, the type of basketball team will make the season interesting to observe. The two smallest boys that started the 1961-62 season along with a group of smaller and unexperienced boys will make up the smallest team in the history of Walton-Verona and will no doubt be one of the smallest, if not the smallest, basketball team in the state. However, these boys thus far have displayed something that some of the teams of the past lacked and that being just plain old determination. In practice for the past six weeks each boy has shown a lot of pride and hustle.

Coach Don Shaw has announced that the starters come from the following six boys: Ronnie Tackett, 12th grade; Steve Collins, 11th grade; Howard Ryan, 11th grade; Richard Clements, 10th grade; Mike Simpson, 10th grade, and Dennis Rich, 10th grade. Coach Howard Brann's Baby Bearcats, or Reserves, will in all probability be represented by Dale Chapman, Billy Gamble, Jerry Roden, Dale Gadd, and Ronnie Brown.

Miss Carol Ingledew said that the girls leading the cheers and giving words of encouragement are: Lynda Worthington, Linda Duchemin, Jn Ann Houston, Darlene Poore, and Paulette Chance, with Carolyn Armstrong as alternate. The Baby Cats will be cheered on by Nancy Jones, Linda Vest and Vicki Logsdon.

The coaches were encouraged this week by the fact that Mike Jameison was back in school and seems to be getting over his recent illness. The doctor has informed Mike that he may be able to rejoin the basketball team soon, if everything goes well. This is good news because Mike's height is needed.

Managers are: Allen Rust, Paul Wilson, and David Doggett.

School Is Testing Eyes

New Haven school is again testing the eyesight of children, as they have done for several years, using the Florence Lions Club Vision Screening Tests. There are seven different eye tests and they are very thorough and highly recommended by the County Nurse.

The purpose of these tests are to determine whether a child needs visual correction and bring it to the attention of the parents.

Ladies attending the visual instruction class, taught by Dr. Ferd Metzger, Optometrist, Florence, were: Mrs. Gertrude Henson, Mrs. Ada Horton, Mrs. Mary Capito, Mrs. Gladys Griffin, Mrs. Almada Roe, Mrs. Wanda Houston, Mrs. Sara Ashcraft, Mrs. Mary Lou Arnold, Mrs. Marie Cornelius, Mrs. Betty Diester, Mrs. Kathleen Wiley and Mrs. Mary Haynes.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all of my friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful of me while I was in the hospital and after I came home.

For the food, flowers and cards sent me and for the prayers offered for me. May God bless each and every one in a special way.

NEW LODGE AT BUTLER STATE PARK DEDICATED

With the dedication of the new lodge at General Butler State Park, the Kentucky Department of Parks has opened its sixth new lodge in the last four months as part of the $18 million expansion program to make the Kentucky park system one of the best in the nation.

At the dedication of General Butler State Park's 25 room lodge, October 31, Gov. Bert Combs said:

"Kentucky has become nationally famous for its State parks. Our park lodges are recognized as the finest and most handsome in the United States. It is no wonder that the visitors to our parks increased from 6,250,000 in 1961 to 8,000,000 in 1962."

The General Butler lodge and dining room will remain open throughout the year.

Cuddly soft and sweet smelling is how washables come out of an automatic clothes dryer.

Its gentle tumbling action babies washables... makes them last longer.

That's because there are no buffeting winds to stiffen... clothes pins to mark... or harsh sun's rays to streak and fade the things inside a dryer.

And things stay as clean as when they were taken from the washer, too. No dust and dirt can get inside a dryer.

State Tax Funds Allotted to Public Higher Education

Kentucky is leading all the states in the percentage increase of state tax funds allotted to public higher education, Gov. Bert Combs has reported.

Over the two-year period 1960-61 through 1962-63, the State's appropriation has jumped from a little less than $19.7 million to almost $29.6 million, an increase of more than 50 per cent.

The figures were revealed in a nationwide study recently completed by the University of Michigan. States coming closest to Kentucky's goal Hawaii and Rhode Island, each showed an increase of 46 per cent.

"Naturally, we're pleased with this statistic," Combs stated. "It is significant that these increases have been made possible almost entirely by the sales tax."

Since 1960, when the sales tax went into effect, Kentucky's annual allotment to public higher education has leaped from about $14.9 million to the present $29.6 million—an increase of nearly 100 per cent.

"After scores of years of being grounded," the Governor said, "Kentucky is finally getting the thrust needed to get its educational program into orbit."

The total nationwide allotment by the states for the fiscal year 1962-63 is about $1.8 billion. This is approximately $355 million greater than the 1960-61 total and represents a gain of about 24.5 per cent over the two-year period, the study shows.

KENTUCKIANS

WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Tourist Trade:

The Visitors Bureau in Washington recently paid tribute to those congressmen and senators who have distributed travel literature to tourists from back home.

Well, we tip our hat to the Kentucky delegation on Capitol Hill. They have Kentucky literature available and handy for Washingtonians who have a yen to visit the Blue Grass. The material goes pretty fast and we know of friends who have been persuaded to see Kentucky through such material.

Coming To Kentucky:

Brooks Hays is going to be a Kentucky visitor in mid-October to talk conservation at a conference in Louisville. We recommend him to your attention.

He's a former congressman, now on President Kennedy's White House staff. For some years he served in a similar capacity under General Eisenhower. Among lawmakers he got a reputation as an excellent story teller and his associates rate him to Alben Barkley in that entertaining category.

Washington Parties:

Recently some Washington friends staged a Sunday afternoon party for Lt.-Gov. Wilson Wyatt. The object was to raise money for his senatorial campaign in Kentucky.

Parties of that type are getting to be the rage in vote-less Washington. Citizens can't cast a ballot but they can contribute funds. There have been several such affairs to help candidates in Tennessee, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Virginia and California.

Employment:

We report on the increase in employment in Kentucky, up a healthy figure over last year.

The Department of Labor makes the report that the Kentucky Employment Service placed 61,000 people in jobs, on increase of more than 27 per cent over last year. Greatest number of jobs were found in factory work, a total of 14,609.

Kentucky no longer is losing to other states more than half of the teachers trained in this state, as it did in 1959. About 70 per cent of teacher graduates now stay to teach in Kentucky.

Father Ruefer Pleads For Used Clothing At Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day is the oldest and most cherished of our national holidays. It is also, thanks be to God, the one least tainted by commercialism.

The Pilgrim Fathers who established Thanksgiving Day in that russet and crimson New England autumn of 1621, intended it to be not only a day for giving prayerful thanks to Divine Providence for the blessing of freedom and survival during their hazardous first year, but also an occasion for sharing their bountiful harvest.

Appropriately linked with that pristine Thanksgiving Day spirit is the annual nation-wide appeal of the American Catholic Bishops for serviceable used clothing, shoes, bedding and blankets in behalf of the destitute, the ragged and the homeless in other lands.

The clothing and materials donated in answer to this appeal will be baled, shipped and distributed by Catholic Relief Services which operates welfare programs in areas of need in 67 countries. In the distribution process, no distinction is made and no questions asked regarding the recipient's race, color, creed or national origin. The sole criterion employed is need.

During the week of November 18-25, All Saints Church, Ky. 16, Walton, will gladly and gratefully receive your bundle of usable clothing or bedding, and guarantee its delivery to worthy poor and afflicted persons desperately in need.

Give thanks this year by giving. If you do, your own Thanksgiving day will be a lot happier.

"BIG DIG" SITE—Scientists, diggers, observers, gather for a photograph as the crew reaches the ten-foot level below the surface bench mark and unearths prehistoric fossil remains.

KENTUCKY'S GRAVEYARD OF MONSTERS

Irresistibly attracted by the silt in the mineral springs, great herds of animals began visiting the area far back in the ice age. A quagmire of tremendous depth was formed by the springs. Occasionally an animal would venture too far or be pushed out from firm footing to sink to its death in the quicksand.

Perhaps of more immediate interest to the average person are the plans being worked out to make the site attractive to people other than scientists. Kentucky's Department of Parks owns approximately 200 acres in the area. A museum will be built to house the bones, fossils and other relics and artifacts that may be unearthed in the delving. Some of the bones will be shipped off to museums for comparison with other specimens, matching of characteristics and positive identification, etc. Then they will be returned to Kentucky for permanent housing. A picnic area with a shelter building and rest rooms has been completed and is now open at the park.

There was a different story Saturday night as the Bearcats hit a blistering 42% of their shots in defeating the Augusta High School of the PenSa-Gran Conference by a score of 70-62. This was the second win of the season for the Bearcats against one loss. This was a hard-fought game between two fairly even teams in terms of size, however, the good shooting of the 'Cats, along with their pressing defense seemed to keep the Augusta boys off balance. As a result, the Bearcats were in the lead most of the way with as much as a 14-point spread and as little as four points.

As has been quite evident all year the boys again displayed a fine attitude in their hustle and determination. (Continued on Page 7)

in WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingbury

Change Pattern:
Those television comics who use those old-fashion, up-right telephones as symbolic of rural America will have to change their approach.

The REA has announced that this year it has approved enough loans to install 24,000 dial phones.

A report from the REA office here says that Kentucky has obtained $214 million in electric loans and close to $40 million in telephone loans in 27 years.

On Education:
Another report comes from federal officials on the status of education in Kentucky.

The state's appropriation has jumped almost 50 per cent and Kentucky leads the nation in the increase.

There have been increases across the nation—increases averaging about 25 per cent. Thus, Kentucky is gaining ground after years of foot-dragging.

On Cattle Raising:
More figures on beef production are available. Kentucky, according to the Department of Agriculture, has scored a good increase in the amount of beef slaughtered, about the top-ranking state in the South.

However, those same figures indicate room for improvement. Kentuckians, who like their steaks, still have to import a lot of beef from other states.

A Fine Citizen:
Kentucky has lost a fine citizen in recent days, E. V. Murphree, a native of Louisville, died of a heart attack. He was one of the handful of Americans who knew of the development of the atomic bomb.

Mr. Murphree, a graduate of the University of Kentucky, was brought to Washington as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission under President Truman. At his death he was president of a research company with 3000 scientists under his direction.

There'll be plenty of turkey for Thanksgiving this year but not as much as a year ago. Turkey growers have reduced production 16 per cent from last year, according to USDA's Statistical Reporting Service.

“We’re Happy with Electric Heating,”

... say the Harold Pates, Collinsville, Ohio!

“I can control each room’s electric baseboard, individually—make it warmer in the children’s bedrooms and bathroom without overheating other rooms,” Mrs. Pate says.

“And my draperies, walls, woodwork stay clean for a surprisingly long while.”

Mr. Pate adds, “Our electric baseboards heat every room with the same even, draft-free warmth that feels just like sunshine.”

Installation and operating costs are comparable to other heating systems. Maintenance costs are negligible.

God's Call

Lesson for November 18, 1962

THERE is a word older than the Christian religion to express what happens to a man when God gets hold of him. The word is "saved." To its hearers in times past the word meant rescued, delivered, set free. That is still what it means, though many Christians are not aware of it. Some people, especially people without religion, think that when a man becomes a Christian he gives up his freedom and his pleasure, and thereafter lives a tied-down wretched life. Quite the contrary. The Christian is not tied, he is untied, not chained but free, set free.

Saved from what?

So much is said about this in the New Testament that we can take only one single passage of the many that have been listed for this lesson: Ephesians 2:1-10. The great word here is "made alive." The new Christian hasn't stopped living, he just never knew before what it is to live. The difference between before and after is the difference between death and life. What kind of life is the "dead" life? Three things are said of it: it is a life enslaved by the "spirit of disobedience"; it is a life enslaved to impulses and passions shared with the beasts; it is a life under "wrath." To put it into our everyday language, we may say that what God saves us from is (1) the habit of disobedience to God (and how self-destructive it is to be living as an enemy of Life!); (2) the habit of pigish self-indulgence; and (3) an existence shadowed by the constant fact that one has turned one's back on God himself. From all this, God calls us away.

Saved by what?

A reader will object at this point. Does this mean that all Christians were at one time criminals, outright and outrageous sinners? Do I have to be God's enemy before I can be his friend? Not at all. Many readers of these lines cannot remember a time when they did not think of themselves as Christians. In many cities there are "rescue missions" in the dirtiest and meanest parts of town, for derelicts, hoboes, down-and-outs. These rescue missions do a great deal of good. But there are also what can be called Prevention Missions if they do their job right; ordinary run-of-mine unpretentious main-line Christian churches, which by their life and work are every day saving their young people from starting on the road that ends in Skid Row.

Whether it's a prevention or a rescue mission, what we're all either dragged out of or kept out of, is all the same thing. So what is it that saves us? Again it's all the same. We are saved by "grace," that is, God might have let us go—"good riddance to bad rubbish." But instead, he cared intensely for us, the pure and holy God actually loved and loves the soiled and selfish race of man. The point is that it is not because we were so good, God was bound to save us. He was so good that he saved us.

Saved through what?

One thing is made clear all through the Bible: If man—the race of man or some particular man—is going to be saved, he cannot save himself. God saves him. God's grace, that is to say his freely given love, saves us. But a life preserver will not hold a man up if he will not take hold of it. A word of wisdom might as well be a word of foolishness if no one pays any attention.

Saved for what?

If a lifeguard has rescued a drowning man at the beach, the rescued man will not be so silly as to set up a tent beside the lifeguard's chair and every five minutes for the rest of the summer come to thank the lifeguard again. He will be eternally grateful for having been rescued. But if he never thought before, he may well think now: My life was almost washed away, and now it has been given back to me. What shall I do with it? So when God's call comes to a person, it is not a call to a perpetual vacation, it is a call to work. We are saved not because what we have done earns the priceless love of God. We are saved to do the kind of work that God can do only through human beings—saved to work with God. It's strange how a man's mind works . . .

My wife had said, "The keys are on the table," and we both were thinking of the car keys. I have that abominable habit of laying them down wherever I put my gloves — and I'm always losing my gloves.

But when I saw the keys, I saw the Bible, too. We always keep it there even though we seldom read it.

"The keys are on the table." I am just enough of a philosopher to see the chance implication of those words. The keys to a great many things must lie within the covers of that Book. Perhaps the keys to all of the really important things for you, and for me, and for everyone else.

We've been searching far and wide for the keys to peace, and security, and fairness, and brotherhood.

I wonder if the keys are on the table!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

larity and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Social Security Facts:

"There are many workers over 65 years old who should stop into their social security office for information about the possibility of social security payments," James W. Myers, Field Representative of the Covington social security office, said today. Many people are still under the impression that if they work and earn over $1200 in a year they cannot receive any money from social security. "This impression is costing some workers money, because it is now possible to work and earn over $1200 and still receive some money from the social security program," Mr. Myers said.

There are two factors which are considered to determine if a person who is earning over $1200 can receive benefit payments. The amount of the person's yearly earnings is important. A beneficiary can earn up to $1200 in a year and still receive his full benefits. For earnings between $1200 and $1700, one dollar will be deducted from social security benefits for each dollar earned. Over $1700, one dollar is deducted for each dollar earned.

Second, the month in which the application is filed is very important. Since retroactive payments can be made for as many as 12 months, a lump sum may be payable to a person who failed to make his claim for benefits at the time of his retirement. Payments are possible for any month in which a person was eligible for benefits and did not earn over $100.

Under a special provision, however, a social security beneficiary receives his full benefit for any month in which he neither earns wages of more than $100 and is not actively self-employed — no matter how much his total earnings for the year.

Mr. Myers stated that every month a person between the ages of 65 and 72 delays filing a claim for social security may cost him money. Mr. Myers advises residents of his service area, which includes Grant and Gallatin counties, to get in touch with the Covington district office or himself at the Williamstown or Warsaw contact stations immediately. "We may tell you that you are earning too much money and cannot receive payments, but nevertheless, you will know for sure whether or not some payment is possible," Mr. Myers stated. A person age 72 who is working should file an application immediately because people over 72 can continue to work and still receive full social security payments, regardless of the amount of their earnings. The Covington district office is located at 309 Garrard Street.

Over a third of the 21 million people who are 62 and older live in rural areas, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Demonstrating their winning form in the Kentucky Mining Institute's annual mine safety contest, members of the first aid team from Inland Steel Co., Wheelwright, give emergency first aid to one of their members with simulated injuries. The two-day competition was held at Pennyville Forest State Park Sept. 21-22 under the auspices of the Kentucky Department of Mines and Minerals. Another team from Inland Steel Co. took first place in the mine rescue category. Twelve six-man teams took part in the competition.

U. S. Rat Damage Is Equal To 100,000 Average Farms

As animals go in size, the rat is fairly small. But there are enough of him and his kin so that their annual damage annually in the U. S. is estimated at the produce from 100,000 U. S. average-size farms.

That's why, says Bobby Tramel, U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service specialist serving with the U. K. Ag Extension Service, the war on rats should be unceasing. That estimated billion dollar food bill for rats is too expensive.

Think of it this way: If Kentucky farmers had to furnish the U. S. rat feed for just one year—it would take all the production of two-thirds of this state's farms to do it.

But the control problem on rats is relatively simple. For one, a cleaned-up farm (refuse, trash, loose grain and feed) is not a happy home for the average rat. Second, there are so many good, effective rat baits on the market that no farmer should be overly troubled with the rodents.

Lights In Laying House Needed As Winter Comes

Electric lights during the short fall and winter days can increase laying flock profits, says C. E. Harris, UK Ag Extension Service poultryman.

Winter production may be increased 10 percent or more, Harris says, depending on layers' age, time in production, general management and inherited ability.

Lights should be used so the birds have about a 14-hour working day. Hours for using lights vary by poultrymen; some like lights in the evening, others like morning lights, and some use a combination of the two.

QUICKLY fixed foods are in order for the table while you're busy with holiday shopping, wrapping and mailing. Make it in festive red and green colors whenever possible to carry out the holiday theme.

KENTUCKY LEADS IN ROAD IMPROVEMENT

Kentucky continues to lead the nation in the improvement of its roads and highways from its own financial resources.

Statistics just released by the U. S. Department of Commerce show Kentucky awarded 795 highway contract without the use of Federal funds from January through August. The contracts covered work on 1,179 miles of roads at a cost of more than $60 million.

Only four states exceeded Kentucky in the expenditure of non-Federal funds during the eight-month period and only three other states reported more mileage put under contract, according to the Commerce Department statistics.

For the same January-through-August period, Kentucky ranked ninth in the nation in the total cost of all types of road work—that is in the use of both Federal and non-Federal funds. Total mileage in this category was 1,323, fifth best in the United States.

The Kentucky Highway Department in cooperation with the State Road Commission of West Virginia will build a bridge across the Big Sandy River between Kenova, W. Va. and Catlettsburg, Ky., as part of Interstate Road 64.

ation. Even in losing on Friday, they did not stop fighting while behind 30 or 40 points. They were not hitting the basket or getting any rebounds but they were still trying. This hustling, fighting determination has won two ball games for the boys and if they do not lose this spirit and put just a little more effort in each game, they will win many more games.

The Twenhofel boys jumped out into the lead and led all the way. The W-V boys were able to tie the game on a free throw in the final seconds as the regular game ended in a 25-25 tie. The Walton-Verona boys were able to score nine points in the overtime while holding Twenhofel scoreless.

G. J. Poore had 21 points for the winners, while Baker and Fisk had eight points each for the losers.

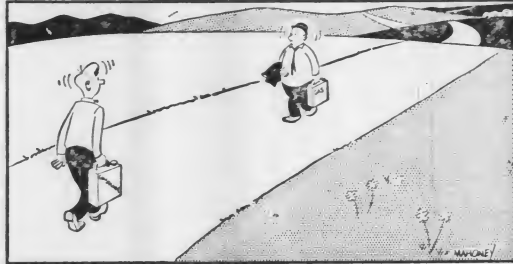

Walton-Verona Makes First Trip of the Year

The Walton-Verona High School basketball team will make its first appearance on a foreign floor Friday evening as it travels to Dry Ridge for a game with the Grant County Braves. Grant County is expecting one of the best teams that they have had in recent years since only one of last years starters graduated.

In addition to experience the Grant County boys have good size so this will be a game of size and experience against the Walton-Verona hustle and determination.

Division of Boating Compiling Facilities

The State Division of Boating is compiling a list of private facilities for boating enthusiasts.

Acting Director E. C. Calman said the list is being compiled in response to the constant stream of requests for available facilities on Kentucky waters. He said prospective visitors make requests about facilities in specific areas and ask what is available in the way of boats, gasoline, lodging and mooring space.

Calman estimated that thousands of persons in other states want to spend time on Kentucky's lakes and streams but hesitate to do so, not knowing what is available. He said giving them the desired information could mean more tourists to Kentucky and more business for those offering services to the boaters.

He said any person or company having a facility to serve the boating public is Kentucky, who wishes to be listed, should send the information by post card or letter to the Division of Boating.

It's everybody's job!

BRINGING NEW INDUSTRIES to a community and keeping them happy after they get there is everybody's job. No one man or organization can do it alone.

Community leaders help by initiating and carrying out long-range civic policies and programs attractive to industry. Owners and managers of existing plants help by welcoming industrial newcomers and making them feel at home. Men and women workers help by showing their willingness to do a full day's work for a fair day's pay.

Yes, and Southern Railway helps, too! Southern's Industrial Development Department constantly seeks new industries for available plant sites. Throughout the year, our national advertising urges industrialists to "Look South" for new and greater opportunities. And we do our best to provide an ever-better, low-cost mass transportation service, so vital to the modern industrial South.

All of this effort helps all of us. For a community's economic growth does more than provide new and bigger job opportunities. It quickly spreads out in all directions to benefit men and women in almost every type of service, trade and profession.

Renovation Of Pastures
Can Start In Fall, Winter

Several winter short-cuts are practical ways to get pasture renovation done before next spring, says Warren Thompson, U. K. Ag Extension Service pasture specialist.

Fall or winter disking of such fields is best when farmers want to put legumes back into pastures. The main renovation chore in the spring —disking the land—is usually delayed by wet ground. And fall disking will be easier and cheaper than in spring. Here are some tips on work that can be done now:

1) Graze the field closely as quickly as possible. Take soil samples and apply needed lime, phosphate and potash (no nitrogen).

2) Disk the sod. Leave it rough, to prevent winter washing of the soil.
In disking, cut up about 40 to 60 percent of the existing sod. If the pasture field is a hillside, disk on the contour and, of course, leave the ground rough.

3) Purchase the desired variety of legume seed and store it in a safe and dry place until mid-February or March. Seed the legume at that time.

Burley Farmers Are Warned Against Premature Stripping

Burley farmers stand to lose four to ten cents per pound on tobacco they strip before it is fully cured, Agriculture Commissioner Emerson Beauchamp declared this week. Mr. Beauchamp revealed that his office has been in contact with all of the major tobacco companies and they have informed him that they cannot pay full prices for leaf that has excessive moisture or is not completely cured.

E. T. Reed, tobacco marketing specialist for the Kentucky Division of Markets, pointed out that the chemical composition of burley tobacco has changed in recent years making it more difficult for the grower to determine when leaf is cured enough to strip. This chemical change has caused the leaf to retain a high percentage of moisture longer and, consequently, has delayed its complete curing. "When the tobacco seems ready to strip," Reed advises, "it will pay the farmer to postpone the stripping operation for at least two more weeks."

This additional time gives an opportunity for more moisture to disappear from the leaf and should also carry the stripping operation into a period of more favorable climatic conditions, he said. Reed reports that he has seen several barns where the stripping was performed when the temperature was 70 to 80 degrees and the tobacco was damaging in the bunks.

Reed reminds growers of the rule-of thumb that has been offered by the Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service to test the maturity of tobacco. This rule is: Grasp a leaf stem between the forefingers and the thumb about one inch from the stalk. If the stem breaks, the tobacco is ready for stripping.

"The outlook for burley is very good," Beauchamp concluded, "therefore it is imperative that we maintain and improve its quality. Careless handling of the crop at stripping time will do much to destroy that quality."

Feed Nutrient Sources Listed For One Year

Where do Kentucky dairy cows get their energy, the necessary item to maintain life and produce milk?

From forages, pastures and concentrates, says E. C. Scheidenhelm, U. K. Ag Extension Service specialist, after checking Kentucky DHIA summaries from the USDA Dairy Cattle Research Branch.

Succulent forage (silage) furnished 21 percent of total net energy during the year, with cows in this state averaging about 5,100 pounds annually.

Dry forage (hay) accounted for 3,100 pounds a year, and 25 percent total net energy; pastures about 205 pounds a day or 20 percent a year ad concentrates, 2,800 pounds a year and 34 percent net energy.

The average cows which ate this quantity of feed produced about 9,037 pounds of 4 percent (butterfat) milk, Scheidenhelm said. If the forage (silage or hay) had been of exceptionally good quality, the concentrate mix could have been furnished 30 percent of the total net energy instead of 34 percent.

FALL SOIL TEST IS PROFIT-MAKER

Soil testing, the method by which a farmer determines what his land needs in fertilizer, is a good chore for the fall.

For instance, says George Corder, U. K. Cooperative Extension Service soils specialist: Soils are usually in better condition in the fall for sampling; there is more time in fall to do this chore; soil technicians are not so busy in the fall as in the spring; the county agricultural extension agent has more time to study recommendations; if limestone is needed it can be applied in the fall; and results of the fall soil test are as reliable as spring soil tests, especially if the land is covered by a winter cover crop or sod.

Corder noted that soil-testing not only determines the land's need for plant food—it also shows how to save money by not applying fertilizers the land doesn't need. Good soil testing also is the first step in cropping efficiency.

Set Strawberries In Spring

Fall is not a good time to set out strawberry plants. The Experiment Station at Lexington tried it out for several years and the fall-set plants were never satisfactory.

However, it is a good idea to break the ground this fall. Then in March or early April, rake the ground and set virus-free cold storage plants and your chance of producing berries will be good. In most parts of Kentucky many reputable nurseries will not sell plants for fall setting because they know the chances of success are poor.

WALTON, KENTUCKY — THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1962

Volume 47—Number 47

"Open House" Held by Simon Kenton P. T. A.

Due to a very large crowd, the November 5 meeting of the Simon Kenton P. T. A. had to be held in the auditorium. The meeting was called to order by the vice president, Mrs. Wesley Hall, due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Howard Frederick. Devotional was given by Rev. S. R. Mann. Pledge to the Flag was led by Tommy Dixon and John Porter, members of Boy Scout Troop, No. 8, of Independence.

At a "sock hop," held recently at the school, a profit of $368.07 was made.

The P. T. A. voted to give $200 to the library for new books, and $200 to buy new mats for the gym.

Mrs. Bernard Budke, civil defense chairman, gave a brief talk on identification tags for school children. Randall Wagner, polio chairman, and his co-workers, did a fine job and put in many hours at this necessary drive.

Immediately following the P. T. A. meeting, "Open House" was held. At this time parents were privileged to visit their students' home rooms and meet their teachers, and learn of their progress.

The teachers were honored with a dinner prior to the P.T.A. meeting. This was greatly appreciated as it eliminated some going home and then returning again.

Homemaker Workshop Is Held Recently

Knowing your figure type and buying the most suitable pattern for the figure was decided by ladies attending the first "basic pattern" workshop session, held recently.

The best pattern size was determined not by measurements, but by trying on garments made from certain size patterns.

The instructor of the workshop, Gertrude Patrotto, Boone County Home Agent, said that too many home sewers buy a pattern size too large. They go by bust measurements, then have shoulder lines too long. Since shoulder and armhole alterations are the most difficult, she said it was better to get patterns which would fit there, then add dart fullness for the extra fullness needed other places.

There were demonstrations on how darts could be transferred from one place to another, such as from waist to lowersides for final darts; how they could be adjusted to allow for either more or less fullness according to the needs of the individual, and the innumerable places and shapes of darts.

Darts are defined as uncontrolled wrinkles. In order for the home sewer to alter patterns to fit comfortably and well, she needs a knowledge of dart transferring.

Ladies attending the workshop were: Mrs. Nick J. Hesselman, Mrs. Vernon Pope, Mrs. Ben Otten, Mrs. Ralph Reimer, Mrs. L. L. Franks, Mrs. Walter Zalla, Mrs. Russell Clark, Mrs. Ben Kottmyer, Mrs. Doris Newland, Mrs. Bonnie Woods, Mrs. Laura Newland, Mrs. Ruby Goodridge, Mrs. Charles Birch, Mrs. Herman Oberphans, and Mrs. Grant Maddox.

When the man in your family goes hunting, be sure his clothing is not only warm but safe as well.

THURMON CHIPLEY

Thurmon N. Chipley, 30, of 34 Carneal St., Ludlow, died Thursday of last week at St. Elizabeth Hospital. The Magna America Corp. truck driver was a veteran of the Korean Conflict.

Surviving him are his mother, one son, three sisters, two half-sisters and one brother.

Services were held at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, at 2:00 p. m., Saturday. Burial was in Hebron Cemetery.

Cecilian Teen 4-H Club

The Cecilian Teen 4-H Club held its meeting at the home of Betty Lou Messingschlager.

The club voted to donate $20 to the new 4-H camp and leaders' training center, which is now being constructed in Nicholas County.

Christopher Harrison was elected to serve as secretary for the rest of the year.

Miss Ruth Marcum and Mr. Robert Maddox, county agents, gave out record books to our members. They will be working in the following projects: dairy, sewing, cooking, farm labor, tractor maintenance, rabbits, photography, woodworking and house-keeping.

The Christmas party will be held at the home of David Maher, and each member will bring a gift of canned goods to fill a Christmas basket for a needy family.

Chicken Feather Pillows

We may now buy chicken feather pillows which maintain their fluffiness, even after prolonged use.

The Quartermaster Corps developed the process of using the chicken feathers by treating them with a chemical.

Gertrude Patrotto, Boone County Demonstration Agent, said these pillows are featured in some stores under the trade name Tan-O-Quil. They are said to combine high quality with low cost.

Thanks Expressed

The Loyal Workers Class of the Independence Christian Church wishes to thank everyone who helped in any way to make their annual turkey supper, on Saturday, Nov. 10, a huge success. A special thanks to all who donated.

Receives Honors

A local girl of the vicinity of Independence received honors at Eastern State Teachers College last week. She is Miss Janet Fisk, 21, of 7195 Taylor Mill Road, Independence.

She was a speaker at the "Future Teachers Conference" at Richmond last week. Her topic was, "Why I Chose Elementary Education." There were over 600 Future Teachers there from Kentucky. When she finished her adviser gave her credit as "Excellent." Janet is a senior at College, graduating with the class of spring '63. She is very active in church work, secretary of the Baptist Student Union on campus. At the First Baptist Church in Richmond she is president of the College Girls in Sunday School. Last weekend she attended the B.S.U. Convention at the Calvary Baptist Church in Lexington.

Bearcats Lost To Williamstown and Grant Co. Braves

The Walton-Verona Bearcats suffered a disastrous week as they lost two games last week by lopsided scores. On Tuesday, November 13, the Williamstown High School defeated the 'Cats by a 95-62 score on the W-V floor. Then on Friday, November 16, the local boys traveled to Dry Ridge only to have the Grant County Braves coast to a 92-38 win.

The Williamstown game started as if it would be a very close affair as the first quarter ended in a 17-17 deadlock. However, the larger, more experienced Demons began to pull away and held a 47-27 halftime lead, and it was only a question of how much they would win by. The Bearcats suffered not only a beating by the score, they were pretty well beaten by some of the roughing-up tactics used by the Williamstown club. Dennis Rich suffered a black eye and several of the boys were limping around for two or three days as a result of some misused elbows, knees and fists.

The "B" team game proved to be a little more interesting as Williamstown won by a 42-35 score. West led the winners with 10 points, as Dale Chapman and Dale Gadd looked best for the Bearkittens as they scored 15 and nine points respectively.

Quarter Scores
Walton-Verona 17 27 38 62
Williamstown 17 47 76 95

W-V scoring: Tackett 26, Jameison 1, Collins 21, Clements 6, Rich 6, Simpson 2, Ryan 1.

Williamstown scoring: Walters 13, Landrum 4, Eckler 19, Wallace 20, Latimer 4, Wood 18, B. West 4, Webb 2, Rogers 4, G. West 4.

The Grant County Braves proved to be superior in every department on Friday night as they rolled to a first quarter 18-4 lead over the 'Cats and continued on to a 92-38 win. The Bearcats were not able to handle the ball nor shoot as well as in previous games. This was partly the result of the Williamstown game and also they realized Grant County was a good ball club and was pressing a little with their shots and as a result were missing.

The Bearkittens lost again, by a 49-29 score. The Grant County reserves were led by McClanahan with 16 points while Ronnie Brown and Mike Simpson looked good in getting 12 and eight points, respectively.

Quarter Scores
Walton-Verona 4 16 21 38
Grant County 18 44 62 92

Bearcat scoring: Tackett 0, Jameison 0, Collins 14, Clements 4, Rich 14, Simpson 3, Ryan 2.

Grant County scoring: Meeks 11, Rogers 1, Simpson 3, Kinman 8, Cobb 10, Marksberry 2, Vallandingham 2, Mitts 19, Brill 12, Kells 11, Points 6, True 6.

PTA Home Style Show

The Walton-Verona P.T.A. Home Style Show on Monday night was greatly enjoyed by those present. There were 23 entries and the models looked very nice in their garments.

There were five awards given on the garments entered. They were awarded to Misses Sharon Eisenschmidt, Kathy Lee Hendricks, Nancy Jones, Pamela Popham and Mrs. Charles Simpson. There were nine door prizes. The P.T.A. hopes to make this an annual show.

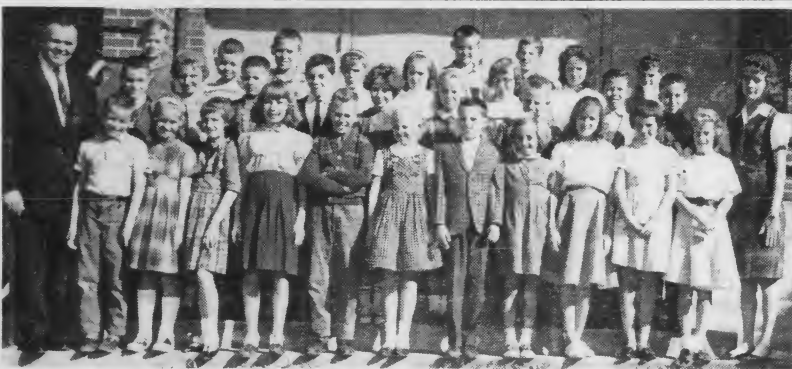

We wish to thank the merchants who so cheerfully donated the prizes.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Harry Cooper. Plans were made for the Christmas party, to be held December 11 at the home of Mrs. L. J. Rapp.

Mrs. Al Basse, Mrs. Harold Nitzchke, Mrs. Alex Edmonds and Mrs. Harry Cooper volunteered to have charge of the club's exhibit at the County Homemakers Christmas Display at Trinity Methodist Church.

"Yes" to God

Lesson for November 25, 1962

IF WE weren't so used to the Christian religion, we should be all the time astonished by it. Here for example is a church full of people who have come together to worship God. The man who leads the worship reads to them out of an ancient book, centuries old in fact, the holy book of all these people. And what is the minister reading about this morning? Somewhere in the 318,000 churches of America, it is a safe guess that every single week some congregation listens to a story about something that happened in a jail. That jailer has been to church (or his story has been read in church) oftener than many a respectable citizen.

Unlikely Case

We know for a fact that many more respectable people than this jailer became Christians during the first years of the Christian religion. Then why is space given to the tale of this miserable man? Besides, why is this story of the jailer told and re-told so often? One reason is, this is the story that shows how simple a thing it is to be a Christian. If it was possible for that jailer, it is possible for anybody.

Can you imagine that jailer coming to your church and asking to join it? What would people say? They would say he was too stupid to know what Christianity means. They would say he couldn't find congenial friends in your church. (How many jailers are on your church roll, by the way? How many prison guards?) People would even say he was too old a man to change; that he beats his prisoners, he doesn't even provide them with meals, he doesn't let them lie down at night. A brutal, cruel, ignorant, low-grade character, this particular city jailer.

"Yes" to Jesus

Like a good many others, this man didn't set out to be a Christian. The question he asked, in excitement and terror, "What must I do to be saved?" was not a religious question for him. Under the law, he was responsible for his prisoners, and he was sure they must have all escaped. This meant losing his job, it would certainly mean that he would be beaten, and probably mean that he would be sentenced to death. He had seen too many men tortured and killed to want to be a victim himself. So he cries out, "What must I do to be saved?" Paul knew, Paul had been saved. He had heard God's call out under the sky. Now this jailer was going to hear God's call in a dark jail smelling of rats and human blood. Paul knew the man needed to be saved from something worse than loss of a job, something worse than being executed. He needed to be saved from his sins, saved from himself. So he tells him a real piece of news. It was something that had to be explained, and Paul went on to explain it. But the thing was simple: "Believe in the Lord Jesus." As we can put it in other words, that meant saying "Yes" to what Jesus was and did. It would mean more and more as life would go on. But the jailer could begin where all Christians begin: by saying YES to Jesus.

"Yes" to God

Paul's own Christian life had begun with two questions, and we may suspect that he led that jailer to ask them too. "Who art Thou?" and "What wilt Thou have me to do?" Saying Yes to Jesus means accepting him as the very grace of God in person, the love of God walking on two feet. Saying Yes to Jesus is accepting him as the One who gave himself for us all, and that includes jailers and jailed, it includes the worst of men and the best of men. Saying Yes does not mean doing this or that to attract God's notice and to get him over on our side. It means just taking hold of the hand of God, it means accepting, not forcing, not buying, just accepting as a free and marvelous Gift, the mercy of the eternal God.

But how much of this could be explained to the jailer in less than an hour? How can we be so sure he became a Christian? The writer of Acts never does actually say that the jailer was saved. But he certainly was. Let the reader study the story in Acts 16 once again: why can we be sure?

THANKSGIVING FEAST

The spirit of Thanksgiving takes root in the heart of a child in the same gradual fashion most of us have experienced.

First there is excitement and anticipation which abundance awakens in our minds.

Then comes the pensive moment when we realize that all this abundance is Someone's gift to us.

Next we know the prayer of gratitude that flows from willing lips and a thankful heart.

Finally — and supremely — there is the sense of confidence, of trust, in a God whose Love is everywhere so manifest.

The hope of your neighborhood churches is that your family's observance of this traditional feast may encourage the spiritual growth of your children . . . and renew your own precious faith.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Social Security Facts:

Students, housewives and others who plan to make extra cash by working during the pre-Christmas rush were advised to avoid possible delay by getting a social security account number now.

Jim Myers, Field Representative of the Covington social security office, reminded students who have never had a social security number to apply for one without delay at their nearest social security office.

Housewives should check their social security cards to make sure that the account is in their married name. If the card is still in the maiden name, application should be made to change it, Mr. Myers suggested.

The key to the benefits which are paid to workers who retire, die, or become disabled is the number on your social security card. Any person who cannot locate his or her card should take immediate steps to make application for a new one by obtaining a form for this purpose at the nearest social security office or post office. The new social security card will have the same number originally assigned to the worker.

exhibit, at the home of Mrs. Reece Kennedy, November 13. The decorations they made were displayed at the annual County Homemakers Christmas exhibit, November 15 at Trinity Methodist Church. This annual exhibit is well worth attending. The Homemakers from all over the county contribute ideas and time and materials to make Christmas decorations for the home and they are as beautiful as any magazine illustration. One club used the theme from the song, "Twelve Days of Christmas," in their display. Another had decorations for every month of the year, another had handmade gifts for Christmas, another had a Christmas tree completely decorated with handmade ornaments that were lovely. Then there were mantle decorations, door decorations, decorations for coffee tables and about everything else that anyone could think of for Christmas. Some clubs had made the cutest piggy banks from empty plastic Clorox bottles that any child would love.

Limestone Good Profit-Maker U. K. Farm Research Test Shows

Agricultural limestone is a good profit-returner, says George Corder, UK Ag Extension Service soils specialist.

UK research has shown that $1.00 invested in limestone may return as much as $4.50 on clover-grass hay, $5.50 on alfalfa, and $6.50 on corn and wheat.

In the particular tests, Corder noted, each plot received the same amount of phosphate, potash and nitrogen. Increases came in this test when limestone was included in the fertilizer program.

"Amount of fertilizer plant foods used by Kentucky farmers has increased from year to year but use of limestone is not keeping pace," Corder said. "Many farmers are not getting the full benefit of the fertilizer applied because the soil also needs limestone. A soil test should always be used to determine the need for limestone. Some soils in Kentucky, however, do not need limestone even though it has never been limed."

Oak Ridge Homemakers

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met November 20th at the home of Mrs. T. B. Renaker on Taylor Mill Pike. Mrs. Charles Cummins presented a lesson on adequate wiring in the home and Mrs. John Love told of how to properly care for small appliances. To often our homes do not have strong enough wiring to carry the load of modern appliances which causes us to waste electricity and not get the best results from our appliances.

Mrs. Ollie Miller presented the gardening report, telling how deep to plant bulbs for best blooms in the spring. The roll call was answered by the members telling what they had to be thankful for this year. The club voted to donate the money in their Christmas charity fund to Mr. and Mrs. George Steinfeld for toys for the needy, and to give it in the name of Mrs. Zelma Byerly. The Christmas party will be held at 11 a.m. on Dec. 18th at "The Hearthstone." Others present were Mrs. Chester Barton, Mrs. Chester Tallent, Mrs. Allen Monson, Mrs. Kenneth Galloway, Mrs. Stanley Ashcraft, Mrs. C. A. Craven and Mrs. Reece Kennedy.

L.T.B. Social Club Meets

The November meeting of the L. T. B. Social Club was held at the home of Mrs. Mildred Auton, Independence. Mrs. Anna Mae Sasher, of Walton, the vice president, presided in place of the president, Mrs. Virginia Hogan, who has been ill a month. Two other members, Mrs. Alice Perry and Mrs. Henrietta Perry, of Shaw Road, were also absent because of illness.

Canned food was brought by members to fill a Christmas basket. All members will bring fresh articles of food to the December meeting. Three packages were donated by members to be auctioned and the money realized was turned over to the Card and Sick committee. All members signed cards to the members who were absent.

The hostess received a lovely slip for a hostess gift. She served ham salad, potato chips, cookies and Pepsi-Cola. The meeting was then adjourned. We are looking forward to the Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Henrietta Perry, on Shaw Rd.

Beechgrove Homemakers

"Care, Use and Safety of Small Electrical Appliances," was the information given at the November meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers of Kenton County by Mrs. Faye Powers and Mrs. William Enders at the home of Mrs. Powers, near Independence, with Mrs. Virgil Kelly as co-hostess.

Plans were made for the families of all members to attend the Christmas party, December 8, in Independence, while Dec. 5 was the chosen day for work at the home of Mrs. Walter Riedlin, Richardson Road, in order to help in the making of costumes for the Cerebral Palsy Children for their Christmas party.

Mrs. Paul Nolte, Citizenship chairman, noted that in referring to our American flag, we should say blue, white and red, instead of red, white and blue.

Members present, other than the above mentioned, were: Mrs. Roy Kumler, president, Mrs. Verner Stephens, Mrs. Erwin Dewald, Mrs. William Wolsing, Mrs. R. R. Quick, Mrs. Bryan Armstrong, Mrs. William Clinkenbeard, Mrs. Louis Lee, Mrs. Frank Afterkirk, Mrs. Roger Robinson, Mrs. Raymond Dickson, Mrs. Gus Schadler and Mrs. Stanley Parker.

Judge Ruberg Is Speaker at P.T.A. Council Meeting

The Kenton County Council P. T. A. meeting was opened by Mrs. Harold Buxton, at 10:00 a. m., Nov. 19, at the Covington Y. M. C. A. Mrs. Frank Palmer, of Bromley, gave the devotional, consisting of a very inspiring Thanksgiving poem, written by herself. Mrs. Buxton then welcomed Turkeyfoot Elementary P. T. A. into the organization. Mrs. Smith Gibson read the secretary's report. No corrections or additions were made. Mrs. Earl Michols read the treasurer's report—it was then filed for audit.

Mrs. Kenneth Blake, program chairman, requested that the local presidents send a program book of their P. T. A. activities to the district president.

Mrs. Buxton reminded presidents of the posters to be displayed at the midwinter conference to be held sometime in January.

Ludlow, Caywood, and Ryland Heights schools received Extra Superior Achievement Certificates from the state for outstanding work done in the P. T. A. in the past year.

The program, presented by Mrs. Black, was an informative talk by Judge Robert Ruberg. Judge Ruberg spoke on "Past, Present and Future of the Kenton County Juvenile Probation Court." The need for more facilities was stressed. Michael Landwehr was then introduced and answered questions pertaining to Juvenile Court.

P. T. A. units represented were: Ludlow, Bromley, Turkeyfoot, Caywood, Dixie Heights, Kenton Elementary, Park Hills, Piner, Simon Kenton, Ryland Heights, Taylor Mill, Twenhofel, and Visalia.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:25.

HENRIETTA FINNELL

Services for Mrs. Henrietta Finnell, 81, who died Monday in her home, R. 1, Morning View were conducted Thursday in Independence. Burial was in Wilmington Cemetery, Fiskburg. She is survived by a brother, Fred Friday Jr., Hamilton, Ohio.

Kentucky Is 23rd In Farm Income For Year 1961

Farm income in Kentucky during 1961 amounted to $667,632,000, placing the state 23rd in the nation, State Agriculture Commissioner Emerson "Doc" Beauchamp, has reported.

A recent news story quoting a 1959 U. S. Department of Agriculture study based on a "level of living" placed the state in 44th position among other states at that time.

Beauchamp also pointed out that Kentucky led all South-Central states in the percentage increase in farm income between 1960 and 1961. The increase amounted to 16 per cent, he said. Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma are included in the South Central states.

Beauchamp also pointed out that Kentucky's beef industry is booming. During 1961 the state had a 9.6 per cent increase in number of animals, the highest increase in the nation, he said.

Kentucky, which ranks first in the nation in the production of burley tobacco, produced 65 per cent of the U. S. burley tobacco crop in 1961, Beauchamp said. And, he added, more tall fescue is grown in the state than in any other.

State Conservation Commissioner J. O. Matlick pointed out that since much of the state's land is unutilized and thus can only impractically be farmed, great emphasis is being placed on forestry. Last year more than 16 million seedlings were planted in the state, he said, with the poorest farm counties receiving the most trees. Leslie planted 273,500; Perry planted 803,500, and Breathitt planted 298,000, he reported.

Gene L. Butcher, director of the Kentucky Division of Forestry, says that the state is working to find new uses for timber and to find new markets. The Forestry Division works with both timber growers and manufacturers using wood to help them operate more efficiently.

DAIRY HERD CLIPPING

Clipping the dairy herd is a task of farmers during the fall, says Joe Claxon, Boone County Extension Agt.

A regular clipping program pays, he says, because: Clipping makes it easier to keep cows clean, saves time preparing cows for milking, lowers bacteria count, reduces sediment in milk and avoids contamination of milk.

A $300,000 combination gas and electric service building to improve service in the Florence-Boone County area will be constructed by the Union Light, Heat and Power Company.

Construction on the new project to be known as the Florence Service Facilities will begin in the early spring of 1963.

The new building will be located on a two-and-a-half acre plot on Burlington Pike opposite Cardinal Dr. in the Florence-Boone County area. The building will be divided into four basic components, the Elec-

Homemakers Study Care and Repair of Home Appliances

Ryland Homemakers Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Morgan Metzger and the highlight of the meeting was the lesson on "Care and Repair of Electrical Appliances," given by Mrs. Harold Halfhill and Miss Ruth Schmidt. They explained the need to read manufacturer's directions for use and care of each unit and use only one heating appliance on a circuit at a time. Check your cleaners with the various types of materials in appliances, especially coffee makers and electric skillets. Useful booklets were distributed on "Diagnosing Your Electrical Ills."

The officers and federation chairman reported on the training school which they attended. During the citizenship program given by Mrs. William P. Schwall it was decided to give a donation to the Retarded Children's School in Covington as part of the club's Christmas activities.

Mrs. J. H. Lawson, garden chairman, recommended the planting of crocus bulbs in the lawn's sod where they may be seen from the living room window in the spring. Also apply a few drops of olive oil on a soft cloth to keep the foliage on house plants clean and shiny.

Mrs. Harold Halfhill presided and welcomed a former member who moved back to the community recently from St. Louis. Members were reminded to be prepared to answer the question asked by Ruth Lyons, "What Do You Do In Homemakers?" when the club visits her 50-50 program at WLW-T on November 29.

The December meeting and Christmas party will convene at the home of Mrs. Frank B. Hermes and hand-made gifts will be exchanged. Members will assemble at 11:00 a. m., on December 11.

Mrs. Metzger's table was decorated in the Thanksgiving holiday spirit and she was assisted by her mother, Mrs. George Campbell, in serving the guests: Mrs. Thomas Moore and Mrs. Ann Krull. After receiving his high school education in Union County, he did his college work at the old National Normal University at Lebanon. He also attended Wilmington College and the University of Cincinnati.

During Mr. Yealey's first term of mayor, in 1908, the city's first sidewalks were laid on Main, Shelby and Girard Streets. In 1911 he established the first high school in Florence to be recognized by the colleges. He taught for 41 years.

Oak Hill Homemakers

"Do you know how to mix styles of furniture? New with old, rough fabric and smooth? We do." Mixing old furniture and new was the lesson presented to the Oak Hill Homemakers by Mrs. Ed Berkemeier. She showed us how money can be saved and a room made more attractive by proper selection of furniture. We enjoyed the lesson very much and you would have too. Why not meet with us in January when the lesson, "Expressing Ourselves Before A Group," will be the lesson. Every woman wants to know how to make herself better understood when she has something to say, and many of us don't know how to express our ideas or thoughts to someone else.

The November meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Gibson, of Independence. There were ten members present.

The December meeting will be a Christmas party, held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Chance, of Stephenson Mill Road, Walton.

Growers Should Stick Grade Burley Before Taking It To Market

Burley farmers can do much to relieve the unprecedented congestion now plaguing tobacco auction warehouses by "stick grading" their crops prior to delivery, according to State Agriculture Commissioner Emerson Beauchamp.

Beauchamp declared that a record volume of tobacco from the farm to the warehouse is jamming all of the state's burley auction centers and is creating problems for warehousemen and impatience for some of the growers. This is due primarily to the fact that more than 70 per cent of the crop was stripped 10 days before sales started November 27, Beauchamp said.

In urging growers to stick-grade their tobacco prior to hauling it to market, Beauchamp listed these advantages:

1. It makes for faster unloading, and consequently a minimum of time lost at the warehouse.
 2. It saves labor and time for both the grower and warehouseman.
 3. It permits the crop to be "lined up" in the manner the grower had intended when he stripped and sorted it.
 4. The better uniformity of baskets gives the crop a better appearance on the warehouse floor.
- The grower is in the best position to know of the quality of his tobacco, Beauchamp pointed out, and thus is better prepared to sort his crop than a warehouse employee who has never seen the crop before.
- Beauchamp had one final word of warning to growers. It is impossible to sell the entire Kentucky crop during the first two weeks of sales, so he advises farmers to check with their warehouse operators before delivering tobacco.

Home for God

Lesson for December 2, 1962

HERE we have five sentences translated from a letter written to a church, a good nineteen centuries ago. And yet the word "Church" is not used in these sentences, though the thing is there from beginning to end. It is a good thing he did not use the word "church" because otherwise we might think (as we so often do) of an organization or a building. Paul, who wrote this letter, never saw what we would call a church edifice, something that photographs nicely and "looks like a church." So he never wrote about buildings. Paul never went beyond what nowadays should be called the "skeleton" organization of his churches; so he was all but silent about what we would call "structure" and "form" in the church. Paul was concerned with something more profound, something more basic. He is speaking to a community of the friends of Christ. He is speaking to people who have had a Christian experience and live Christian lives. How they are related to one another and how they are related to God; this is the basic thing that makes a church; not organization or the kind of place where they worship and study

Without Christ, what? The reader is invited to study these five sentences (Eph. 2:11-22) to see what they mean to him. By way of suggestion, the following thoughts may serve as a guideline. Sentence 1: Eph. 2:11-12. Paul reminds his readers what their status used to be, and it was a pretty low one. Indeed a lower state could hardly be pictured; separated from Christ, separated from God's people, strangers to God's promises (they had probably never read the Bible), without hope and without God. Notice that Paul puts together two separations: from Christ, and from the "commonwealth of Israel"—that is to say, the association of the people who know God, and desire to do his will. To be cut off from God's Son and cut off from God's children, is all the same thing. To say (as some have tried to say): I want to be a Christian but not to belong to the church, is the same as saying: I want to have the love of Christ but I do not wish to share it. It is the same as saying: I love Christ but I do not love those whom he loves. Anyone can see how inconsistent that is.

He is our Peace Now for Sentence 2: verse 13. The key words are "in Christ Jesus" and "brought near in the blood of Christ." We are members of Christ's fellowship, not because we belong to the fellowship in the beginning but because our relation to Christ puts us into right relations with one another. To put this another way: we are not Christians because we are church members. We are church members because we are Christians. Two strangers on a bus may find that they are both friends of the same person. This at once links their lives and minds; the stronger their affection for their mutual friend, the stronger their attraction to each other. And if this friend of each of these (hitherto) strangers has risked his life for each of them, their bond is stronger still. What links Christian to Christian, believer to believer, is that Christ gave his life for each of them.

Sentence 3: verses 14-16. Christ is "our peace." The underlying and almost unspoken reality here is the bitter race prejudice between Jew and Gentile. Paul is saying that Christ is the one bond strong enough to bring together in harmony people—individuals and classes—who "naturally" are bitter and scornful enemies. Sentence 4: verses 17-18. Men who had in times past prayed against each other, so to speak, prayed selfishly, now pray in one Spirit to the same Father.

A place for God to live Sentence 5: verses 19-22. Paul now leaves with us a simple picture that a child can understand. The church—the fellowship of those Christ loves—is like a building. Not just any building, but a residence for God. One brick does not make a home; no brick is without its place and use. The church—the people who make it up, who are the church—is a home for God on this earth.

ACROSS THE MILES

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Time was when it took a month for a letter to get from one city to another, and such things as radio and television were unheard of. Now we don't think in terms of miles — we think in terms of the time it takes to span them, and it doesn't take long to get around the world. As for communications — well, they're instantaneous, these days.

The New Valiant

BEST ALL-AROUND COMPACT
ANYBODY HAS COME UP WITH YET!

You'd think that an amazing 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty on a new compact car would be enough to offer a value-minded buyer. But it's not enough for Chrysler Corporation. In this new—completely restyled—'63 Valiant you'll get more seat than any other compact at its price (101 standard horsepower). You'll get the kind of cornering you'd expect only on sports cars (torsion-bar suspension on the front wheels). And you'll still get years-ahead features that Valiant introduced (like an alternator instead of the usual generator). That's Valiant... a car that will go!

5 YEAR
OR 50,000 MILE
WARRANTY

* Your Authorized Plymouth-Valiant Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Valiant Certified Car Care schedules.

Feeder Calf Production

The production of feeder calves can be a money-maker on many Kentucky farms. It is especially adapted to the larger and rougher farms. Many of these farms are limited as grain producers but can furnish large quantities of good hay and pasture. The profit or loss in the feeder calf business is determined largely by the number of pounds of feeder calf sold from each cow per year. If you produce an average of only 400 pounds of feeder calf per cow each year your chance of making a profit will be small.

When charges are made for all costs except labor and pasture, the cost of 100 pounds of feeder calf will be about $26.60 when feeder calves average only 400 pounds per cow. If you average 500 pounds of calf per cow the cost will drop to about $19.80 per hundred. Farmers doing a real good job may average 600 pounds per cow. If you can do this well, your cost may drop to around $17.50 per hundred.

Farmers have twice as much money invested in machinery as the steel industry and five times as much as the automobile industry.

Goshen Missionary Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Goshen Christian Missionary ladies was held in the church basement, Nov. 7 with the vice president, Ms. Janet Burns, presiding. Esther Glenn led in prayer. The business meeting was mostly about the box we are sending to our missionaries, Roy and Barbara Goldsberry, who are in India.

There were 92 cards sent to the sick and several of the ladies visited. A delicious meal was served by our hostesses, Janet Burns and Margie McMillan. It was a Thanksgiving dinner.

Our next meeting will be held on December 5, in the church basement. It will be a Christmas program. Each lady will reveal who her "secret pal" was for the year 1962.

Those present for the last meeting were: Mrs. Esther Glenn, Lillian Elliott, Mrs. Lilly Kennedy, Mrs. Edna Colston, Mrs. Margie McMillan, Mrs. Elaine Mastin and two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Colston, Mrs. Ruth Worthington, Mrs. Janet Burns and daughter, and two visitors, Mrs. Jeanette Colston and Mrs. Blanche McMillan.

Mrs. Ruth Worthington gave the devotional on a lesson about Paul's missionary journey. We hope to see all of our members at the next meeting, enjoying good, Christian fellowship.

KENTON NEWS....

Others who attended were: Mesdames Carol Cooney, Arthur Steeley, Arnold Sallee, Alton Stephenson, Vernon Lykins, Lauretta Richardson, W. B. Barnes, Tom McClure, Albert Sharp, John Riggs, John Grizzelle, Albert Brown, Mrs. Ora Waller and Brent Casey, visitors.

Mrs. Roy Edwards, of Moffett Road, flew to Tulsa, Okla., for a few days' visit with her uncle, Enoch Steeley, who has been very ill.

Bro. Ben Render and family moved to the parsonage of Kenton Baptist Church, Saturday. We welcome them and may God add His richest blessings to his work here.

The W. M. U. of Kenton Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. W. Barnes. Song, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." Scripture Mark 1:35-45, and prayer by Mrs. Alton Stephenson. Winterize Farm Water Systems Now To Save Hard Repair In Spring

Take advantage of fall weather to winterize farm water systems, says Kermit Mills, UK Ag Extension Service engineer. A little work now will save hours of labor in "miserable" weather next spring.

Here are some things to do:

Check pumphouse, insulate it and install a thermostatically controlled electric heater. Set thermostat at 45 degrees F to prevent freeze-ups:

Insulate pipes going into pumphouse. Run the insulation two feet into the ground to prevent freezing near the top of the ground.

Put pipes below frost-line of the ground if at all possible. Pipes above frost line probably will freeze up sometime during the winter.

Insulate points where pipes come out of the ground. In some cases these lines should be wrapped with electric heater-cable.

Watering tanks and cups for livestock should be winterized. If tanks and cups are outside, put a heater in the watering tank. For watering cups, wrap the pipe coming from the ground with heating tape and insulation, even though the cup itself has a built-in heating element.

If your system is more than a year old, you'll know its weak points. Correct these now.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank those who sent cards and came to visit me while in the Hospital. A special thanks to Rev. Tackett.

Jean Alexander

Less than 4% of a steer is sirloin steak, and only a little more than half is meat. This helps explain the difference between on-the-hoof and on-the-hook prices of beef.

Walton-Verona Bearcats Lose to Carrollton And St. Thomas by One-Sided Scores

The Walton-Verona Bearcats lost two games last week by big margins as the Carrollton High School defeated them by a 93-49 score, and St. Thomas High School defeated them at Walton by a score of 96-58, Friday night. It was a case of being very weak on defense and not being able to cope with the opposition in so far as size was concerned in both of these games.

The Carrollton Panthers wasted no time in jumping to a first quarter lead of 23-6, which was the closest quarter score in the game.

Quarter Scores
Walton-Verona 6 14 30 49
Carrollton 23 43 75 93
Walton-Verona: Tackett 13, Strong 2, Jameison 0, Collins 24, Clements 2, Rich 5, Ryan 3.

Carrollton: Hartman 11, Lwers 6, Shelton 18, Way 4, Cheatum 23, Stewart 11, Stout 14, Garriott 5, Jones 1.

The Bearkittens played the Carrollton boys a little closer as they were defeated by a 34 to 27 score. Dale Chapman was high man for Walton-Verona with 13 points, while Garriot scored 15 for Carrollton.

The Bearcats displayed the old fire and hustle for the first half against St. Thomas on Friday and left the floor trailing by a 41 to 35 score. However in the second half size and inability to hit the basket as well as inability to play good defense sealed the doom of the Bearcats as St. Thomas rolled to a 96 to 58 victory. The last four games that the Bearcats have played have presented problems for the Bearcats that they will face in most of their games this year.

The qualifications of size and experience that Williamstown, Grant County, Carrollton and St. Thomas displayed are lacking in the Walton-Verona Bearcats. This was expected before the season started. However it was felt in the beginning and it is still the feeling that if our boys will not lose the spirit of determination and hustle they will come through with several victories. It takes boys with a lot of courage to hustle and fight in the face of handicaps of being small and inexperienced however this writer and the coaches think we have some boys that have this courage. Along with this courage the boys need encouragement from fans, something that has been missing in the Walton and Verona areas for a few years. What do you say fans, lets support these boys.

Quarter Scores
Walton-Verona 16 35 45 58
St. Thomas 21 41 63 96
Walton-Verona: Tackett 2, Strong 0, Jameison 7, Collins 22, Clements 9, Rich 12, Ryan 4 and Brown 2.

St. Thomas—Plusfort 20, Geyer 14, Hars 6, Kehoe 8, Baker 2, Hoffman 1, Hagedorn 9, Kincaid 2, Negich 21, Schindler 7, and Broghamer 6.

Again the reserve boys had a closer game and lost by a 33 to 26 score. Dale Gadd was the top point getter with 11 points.

On Friday, November 30 the grade boys traveled to Burlington and won two games as the Seventh Grade won by a 31 to 29 score and the Eighth Grade won by a 38 to 25 score.

On Monday of this week the Walton-Verona Freshmen traveled to Dry Ridge for a game with the Grant County Braves. After leading by a half time score of 14 to 6 the Bearkittens fell behind in the second half and lost by a 26 to 22 score. Brown, Colcord and Dave Gamble were the leading scorers for Walton-Verona while Reed and Gabbert lead the Braves to victory.

Bob Taylor Resigns Simon Kenton Post; Elliott Is New Coach

Bob Taylor, head basketball coach at Simon Kenton High School, Independence, Monday announced his resignation from the coaching ranks to allow him to devote more time to administrative duties at the school.

Taylor, who also serves as assistant principal at Simon Kenton, said he will do graduate work at the University of Cincinnati. He holds a master's degree from Xavier University.

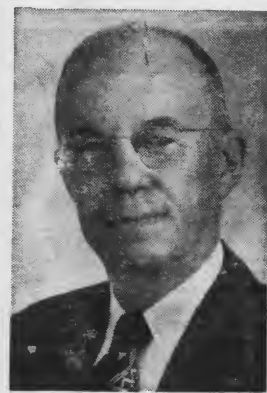

He came to Simon Kenton four years ago. He has guided the Pioneers to three victories and one loss this season, winning over Gallatin County, Falmouth and Bracken County, and losing to Covington Catholic.

His replacement will be Shirley Elliott, a former Simon Kenton product, who last year coached the Pioneer freshman team. He attended Cumberland Junior College and the University of Chattanooga.

The Pioneers make their next start Friday night against the Boone County Rebels at Florence.

A Swiss colony was settled seven miles west of the present site of London, Ky., in the early 1880's.

New Haven PTA Plans To Get Two Record Players

The recent meeting of the New Haven Elementary P. T. A. was called to order by Mrs. Gertrude Henson, president. The devotional was given by Mrs. Jeanette Smith. The pledge to the flag was given and the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung.

It was reported the recent "Open House" and spaghetti dinner was well attended by the public. Members of the PTA wish to express their thanks to the public for their interest and observance of these projects, and their hope that the interest in the PTA work will continue throughout the year. It is only through interest and cooperation that various projects can be accomplished.

The PTA voted to contribute $10 to the American Legion for the Christmas party for needy children.

Mrs. Ada Horton was appointed chairman of obtaining two record players for the school. She has suggested organizing a Top Value Stamp Group Plan which each parent will be sent a top value book to be filled and turned in by January 31, 1963.

A donation was taken up for the Willard Hennemann family who lost everything in a recent fire.

The highlight of the evening was a program given in the classroom of Mrs. Struve, first grade teacher. With the assistance of some of her pupils, Mrs. Struve gave a demonstration of the teaching methods used to teach children to begin to read. She advised parents that they could help children at home—by using flash cards, thus teaching them to sight read. Print the capital and small letters on the flash cards so children can recognize and learn both. Children representing her room in the program were: David Stewart, Mary Ann Swartz, Sandy Comer, Debbie Baker, Michele Collins, Stevie Martin, and John Yoder.

The average cow last year produced 7,211 pounds of milk, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The buildings are connected by a covered walkway. The school, located on a 21 acre hilltop site in Covington, began operating in September at its new location.

Self-Feeding Silo Tips Are Given By U. K.

Follow certain simple rules if you are using a self-feeding silo such as a trench or bunker, says E. C. Scheidenhelm, U. K. Ag Extension Service dairyman. They are:

Put the movable manger in such a position that the cows can keep the silage feeding down from a vertical position. This may require some hard work by the operator.

Remove the manure from the floor behind the cows about once a week. This keeps water, rain and snow from accumulating and draining back into the silage.

Have some hay in a rack nearby for timid cows. Sometimes these animals are pushed away from the silage by bossy cows. Milk production of the timid cows will drop unless they get plenty to eat.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—359-4441

Mrs. Jerry Ehlman entertained at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Stella Richardson, with a paint party Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Erma Dawold and her daughter were the demonstrators. The work is quite interesting and we find talents which we did not know we possessed. Among the guests were Mrs. Viola Recker and daughter, Miss Alma Recker, Misses Carol Hart, Joyce Ehlman and Mary Ehlman, and Mrs. Omar Lucas and son, Nobel. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Lathan Brinkley and daughter, Dana, arrived on Friday evening at the home of his parents. He has finished his enlistment in the U. S. Army and they are now residing at 2205 Scott St., Covington.

It was noted that the time set for the Christmas party of the Staffordsburg Homemakers club was Dec. 11—this is a mistake—the time is Dec. 18 and the place, the home of Mrs. L. J. Rapp.

Little Jeffrey Keeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keeney, suffered a painful injury to his teeth and lips in a recent fall.

Mr. Clyde Richardson was a guest here the past week while he attended the degree conferring at the Masonic Lodge, where he was a candidate.

Clayton Keeney entertained a number of his young friends at his home on Riggs Road in honor of his seventh birthday. After an afternoon of games, his parents served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Binder and children arrived here from the west coast where he has been with the U. S. Navy for several years. They have a month's leave here before he must report to the Naval Base, Norfolk, Va.

We heard recently that Leslie Stephens, who would have been released from the Navy quite soon, has re-enlisted for three years.

We regret to hear that Mrs. Mary Bates, a well known teacher of Kenton Elementary, suffered a heart attack this weekend.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Ralph Hiteman is able to get out in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daman and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney for lunch on Thursday.

Rev. Roy Hunt has visited the bedside of his father and while he found him improved, he is still quite ill. We hope that he is soon well on the way to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy have moved into the Borkers home.

The M. Y. F. had charge of the Sunday evening service at the church here on Sunday, Dec. 2. They had a good program and presented it well.

BAGWORM CONTROL

If you have bags on your trees now that the leaves have fallen, don't be surprised. These are the spindle-shaped shelters of the bagworm. The spindles are an inch long or more, and the worms are an inch or less.

You can burn them out, if you don't mind ruining the tree to do it. These bags are about as fire-resistant as a good office safe.

Bagworms should be hand-picked from the trees in the fall on the part of the tree you can reach. You should spray the tree in the spring when the larvae emerges. Use sevin, malathion or lead arsenate. Each of these small bags hold 500 to 1,000 eggs. These are found not only on evergreens but on such shade trees as Norway maple, honey locust, linden and sycamore.

Mary Jo Dixon Tells of Shopping Tour In Turkey

This is one in a series of letters from Mary Jo Dixon, Boone County's 1962 International Farm Youth Exchange delegate to Turkey.

Bursa, Turkey
Oct. 17, 1962

Dear Folks,

Every time I go to the market here in Turkey, I can't help but think of our supermarkets at home. I recall reading once how hard it is for the U. S. homemaker to resist the items beautifully displayed on unending rows of shelves. All of them stare at her saying, "Buy me—buy me," but none of the items are on her shopping list. Usually, by the time she finds something on her list, her cart is full. After seeing many market places in Turkey, I thought perhaps you would like to know what the Turkish housewife is faced with.

Each small town and some of the villages have a particular day for the big market-day, when the farmers bring their produce in and set up small stands. Saturday is market-day here in Bursa. As my host mother and I went to the market area, the atmosphere seemed almost like that of a county fair. All the many small booths, set up side-by-side with food displayed in huge baskets, on racks and tables, showed what the farmers had to sell. There were many rows of these small booths.

As we entered the long, narrow aisle, a display of fish from the nearby sea was in the first booth. A young boy by the side of the stand kept the fish fresh by tossing water on them as the sun started finding its way through the trees. There was a large cutting block nearby to cut and clean the fish after they had been weighed.

We went down the seemingly endless row of vegetable booths that were overflowing with huge baskets of egg plant, pepper, tomatoes, and beans. As we walked past the shops inspecting the foods, the shopkeepers would say, "Come in." My host mother explained to me, "First, we will walk around looking at all the products, then we will return to buy." We entered another aisle of shops as we turned the corner. Here, I saw my first carrots, radishes and lettuce in a marketplace since coming to Turkey. Bursa is a very rich agricultural area where almost any type of vegetable can be grown. Everything was still in the huge baskets that are brought in by burros, horse-wagons, or trucks, depending on the wealth of the farmer. These farmers also had apples, figs, and pomegranates. I saw my first chestnuts here in the market at Bursa.

After we made our way completely around, we went up to one shop and purchased some vegetables. My host mother must have known they weighed carrots with the tops on because she broke the tops off some before putting them in a pan to be weighed. When she did not like the shopkeeper's price for eggplant and potatoes, she turned to leave. He dropped his price a few cents and she purchased her items. We put our purchases in a net bag, similar to a basketball goal net except, of course, this bag had no hole in the bottom. We gave the man our money and he gave us change from a basket hanging back out of the way of long-fingered people.

The aisles between the shops were very crowded with people making their purchases. After getting all our vegetables, we went to a meat store. We entered a small room about 9 feet by 12 feet. In a full plate glass window were hanging seven mutton carcasses and a hind quarter of beef. Above the meat was a fluorescent lamp; around the edges of the window was green paper to make the meat look more attractive. My host mother ordered the pieces of meat we wanted and then sat down at a table at the side. The butcher cut off a piece from one of the carcasses and proceeded to weight it and cut it into the pieces we wanted. The butcher cut off lamb chops while his assistant took each piece and flattened it with a hard slap from a long piece of metal. After all was cut, they put on a handful of dried parsley and salt. Then they wrapped the meat in unused pieces of newspaper sheets and handed it to us. While the were cutting the meat, my little host sister played with the ribs of the carcasses hanging in the window. In this shop, as in many, the meat is not refrigerated during the day. For the two pounds of meat we purchased, we paid the equivalent of seventy-five cents. They eat very much mutton here, a little fish and chicken, but very little beef. Eating pork or pork products is against the Moslem's religion as I have told you before.

As we left the butcher's shop, I noticed the meat shop directly across the aisle had muttons hanging in his window, too, but he had cut little slots in the fat and added green olives, red peppers, and parsley to make it more attractive to the buyers. Incidentally, olives are quite plentiful in this area of Turkey.

There were also aisles of shoe salesmen. The shoes, some plastic, some rubber, and some leather, were all lined up side by side, all in view of the passerby. Along with the shoes we also found some clothing and household items. Perhaps this is where our U.S. supermarkets got the idea of selling more than just food. However, they did not give any trading stamps here, which probably would be a big disappointment to my mother. Also passing through the crowds of people were candy and nut salesmen, in case the shoppers got hungry.

We returned home from the market with our net bag filled with many fruits and vegetables, just in time for me to fix dessert for the guests that were coming for the afternoon. Since my last host family acquired my pie pan after liking my apple pie so much, I fixed apple turn-overs instead of my usual apple pie. After fixing them, I took them up the street to the city oven. Of course, the bake was a little fascinated by my creations, so when I returned to take them home, I gave him one. My host and her guests were quite pleased with my dessert. As usual for this section of Turkey, the afternoon guests started arriving at 4:00 and stayed several hours.

The meal schedule here is a little different from what I was accustomed to at home. Breakfast is eaten shortly after we get up; then lunch is served around 2 p.m. The evening meal is served very late in the evening around 9 p.m. Many times, immediately after eating a large meal in the evening, it is time to go to bed. The late meal at night could be because, in the villages, the men are returning late from the fields.

The families I've lived with here in Turkey eat very much bread, wheat rice, egg-plant and tea. In fact, I've had more of these foods since being in Turkey than I had ever had before. The wheat is eaten in the form of Bulgar, which is the oldest form in which man has eaten wheat. It was found by our Biblical ancestors that par-boiling and drying the wheat was the easiest and most efficient way of preparing it. Since in many places it is difficult to find things to burn for heat, it is important to have something like Bulgar that requires little cooking time. For any Bible scholars questioning this information (perhaps my grandfather), it is referred to as Arisah in the Old Testament. These products all can be easily stored without refrigeration, the lack of refrigeration also explains why in many places they eat little meat. Two pounds of bread can be purchased for eight or nine cents; therefore, it is eaten very much. The bread is purchased as it comes from the oven. It is not wrapped in cellophane or wax paper as we find it in the U.S. Egg plant is quite plentiful throughout Turkey, in the areas I've seen, and can be prepared in almost endless numbers of ways. We eat potatoes in the States similar to the way rice or wheat is eaten here.

In Turkey, there is no factory capable of producing canning jars with heat-resistant glass. I've seen CARE packages of canning jars in some places but there are very few available to the people. Therefore, they rely almost completely on drying methods to conserve food. Perhaps a jar or canning factory would be of help in the central or eastern areas of Turkey. This is what the head of 4-H work in Turkey told me in a conversation. She said, "The factory should be built in the central or eastern area of Turkey and would have to have low prices. But we like Americans and need a canning company to set up a factory here." Some others in the group did not agree with her and said they had fresh food the year round. This is true only in a few areas in the country. Turkey is like the United States in that it is made up of various sections with very varying weather and soil conditions. Many of the farmer's work is not a year-round job due to the climate and the crops they raise, so perhaps more factories would be the answer. I say "Perhaps" for I don't know. After being here four months, I have many more questions than I did when I arrived.

Learning about a country first requires understanding the family, the basis of a group of people. That is why the IFYE program has me living with farm families in Turkey. I am telling people about Americans and they are teaching me the Turkish way of life. Our common goal is understanding each other and our countries.

Sincerely,
Mary Jo Dixon

Eternal Life

Lesson for December 9, 1962

DO YOU have an ambition to live forever? That depends, doesn't it? It depends on what kind of "forever" you are thinking about. There are some forevers you wouldn't want a minute of.

There may be other forevers so perfect that a single instant would more than atone for all the sorrows and agonies of this sad world. Merely to survive is no wise person's ambition. There is a famous French play, "No Exit," in which three characters, all strangers to one another, meet in a hotel room. There is nothing there to hurt them, they are just there—only they can never get out. They get worse than bored, they become desperate, they try to kill one another. But they can't . . . because they are dead and they are all in hell. That's what it would be, sheer hell, merely to live on and on and on . . .

To Know

Christian hope has never (when it was truly Christian) been for simple immortality. If heaven is just more of the same we have known here, most human beings would say No thank you. Once is good, but once is enough. But Christian hope has always been centered around a different quality of life, not a different length of life. To be sure, Christians hope for a continuance of life, but that prospect is not even bearable unless it is a continuance of a better kind of life than is possible without God. Eternal life, as the New Testament shows it to us, is not something you get after you die. You have it now, or you don't have it. If you have it now, death cannot destroy you. If you do not have it now, no possible length of post-mortem existence is going to be anything but misery.

What quality, then, is the life which we should want to go on through death, forever? We can put all that Christians believe about it in three profound ideas drawn from the New Testament. First, Jesus himself said, "This is eternal life, that they know Thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent." (John 17:3.) To know Christ—not know about him, still less to echo what somebody else knows—this is life eternal, this is what makes the vital difference in life.

To have

John also says that he who "has the Son" [meaning Christ] has eternal life. Some Christians think this is an expression too bold for them, they are afraid of it. But there it stands. What is it to have Christ and is it the same thing as knowing him? We might illustrate from the pupils of some famed musician. If he has been a truly great teacher, when we hear his former pupils in a concert, we say to ourselves at once—Why, that sounds like the old maestro.—I could shut my eyes and imagine it was the old genius himself.

To share

The inspired writers of the New Testament were not much given to drawing pictures of a future heaven. The center of their teaching was life here and now, life this side of death. Suppose a boy in his teens finds the question bobbing up in his mind: How shall I ever be a good father? Now that is a good question, but the best way to answer it is not to spend time thinking about it. The best way to prepare for fatherhood—at the age, say of fifteen, is just to be the best boy possible. If you aren't a real boy you don't have much chance of being a real man. Paul, for example, in a famous chapter which works up to the great thought of eternal life, does not spend that chapter (Romans 4) describing heaven. He speaks of it in what may seem a strange way: that is, sharing the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The main idea is that the Christian shares the sacrifice of Christ, and also shares his victory. Victories, we might better say; for as Christ was undefeated by sin or by death, so the Christian's life shares this victorious quality. He hints at something he suggests more than once: namely that the Christian should begin now and here, to live the life of heaven. Then "heaven, with love abrim, will not seem strange to him."

Any crop that can be made into hay can also be made into silage.

The brilliant evening star is a symbol of many things to many folk. Mariners hail it as a good omen, for it usually forecasts a clear, calm night and smooth sailing. The shepherd tending his flock on a desolate hillside gratefully notes its appearance in the heavens, for its friendly light offers an intangible sort of companionship during his lonely vigil. To many, the star is representative of God's infinite power and wisdom.

Just as this star touches hearts in countless different ways, so may the Church bring to those in all walks of life, peace and comfort which lead to a happier, more fruitful pattern of life.

Let us make the Church our guiding light. We can brighten our lives if we accept the teaching of the Scriptures as guideposts along the pathway to future endeavors.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

WALTON-VERONA SCHOOL NEWS

Carolyn Garriatt, Reporter

The past several weeks the Y-Teens of Walton-Verona have been a busy group. November 7, the group met at the home of Misses Linda and Brenda Duchemin. Many of the girls attended this meeting. The Y-Teen group went to the County Infirmary and took them Thanksgiving dinner on November 21. After dinner we had a small program for them. Those who attended and served were Brenda Treadway, Paulette Chance, Sandy Spillman, Brenda Duchemin, Linda Duchemin, Carolyn Garriatt, and our sponsor, Mrs. Paul Beigle.

We met again at the school on December 3 and discussed our Christmas projects. Not many girls attended this meeting; however, we urged all to ask the others to be in attendance next time.

On November 28, Mr. Dan Bedinger spoke for our assembly program. He gave a very interesting talk about his experiences on the railroad. We wish to thank him for a very interesting program.

FREE WHEEL ALIGNMENT CHECK!

The next time you're in our shop for service or lubrication, let us check your wheel alignment. Wheels that are out of line drag tires sideways, causing uneven and excessive wear, literally burning away rubber on every turn of the wheel. Improperly aligned wheels cause hard steering that could lead to a costly accident.

We check and correct on modern equipment

We are specialists in wheel alignment checking and correcting service. Our modern, accurate Weaver Twin Post Lift Wheel Alignment Outfit shows exactly what is wrong and what corrections are necessary. A few minor adjustments may be all that is needed to put your wheels in tip-top shape.

Firemen's Party For Children In This Area, December 16

Next Sunday (December 16) the Walton Volunteer Fire Department will hold their annual party and rides for the children in the Walton-Verona area. In Walton, rides will begin at the firehouse at 1:00 p. m., and in Verona, near the Post Office, about 3:30 p. m.

If anyone knows of a shut-in child, please call any member of the department and an effort will be made to have Santa call on them—time and weather permitting.

It will also be possible to have a picture taken of Santa and any of the children.

The local firemen wish everyone a fire-free holiday season. For a safe Christmas, be sure your live trees are watered, and only approved lighting fixtures and ornaments are used in your decorating—remember the old adage, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

School Audit Approved

The State Committee on School District Audits has approved audits for 49 more districts, including that of the Walton-Verona school district.

The audit will be made by Rouse, Rankin & Company, a Covington auditing firm. It will cost approximately $350 to $450.

The committee has authorized audits of 94 districts since it was created by the 1962 General Assembly.

State Finance Commissioner Robert Matthews, committee chairman, said the State has funds to finance its share of the cost of audits of all of Kentucky's 206 districts. Under the plan the local district and the State each pay half the cost of the audit.

Walton Homemakers

The Walton Homemakers will hold their Christmas meeting on Friday, December 14, at the home of Mrs. Bryant Rust. A prize will be given for the most originally wrapped exchange gift.

The lesson for the November meeting on "Periods and Styles of Furniture," was given by Mrs. Gertrude Paparotta, home demonstration agent, and Mrs. Marie Penick.

Those present were Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. Bonnie Woods, Mrs. Carol Burden, Mrs. Bessie Lay, Mrs. June Brewster, Mrs. Marie Penick, Mrs. Gertrude Paparotta, and Mrs. Nora Simpson.

FIFTEEN NEW BOOKMOBILES like the four shown have been purchased and delivered to Kentucky counties this year by the State Department of Libraries. Kentucky now has a total of 100 Bookmobiles—the nation's largest fleet of travelling libraries. With a cargo of 2,000 books, each new Bookmobile represents an investment of about $13,000. Kentucky's Bookmobile program started rolling in 1953. The newer Bookmobiles have an auxiliary heating unit and plenty of headspace to encourage browsing. Most schools and communities in the 100 counties are visited twice monthly.

Panel Discussion Held at Meeting of Simon Kenton PTA

The December 3 meeting of the Simon Kenton P. T. A. was held in the school cafeteria with Mrs. Wesley Hall, vice president, presiding.

A. executive committee, presented and acted as moderator for a panel consisting of Mr. Dillion, Mike Sebastian, Harvey Rohmiller, Donna Stahl and Edith Vance. Mrs. Nelson Boyd was to represent the parents on the panel but, due to a death in the family, was unable to be present.

The panel discussed moral and spiritual development of students. This was a very good program. More parents and teachers should have been present.

KENTUCKIANS

in WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

Social Note:
Snow has yet to fall on Washington and yet the publicity mills are grinding out copy for next spring's Cherry Blossom Festival.

The Kentucky Society of Washington is co-operating and the Kentucky princess will be selected by two former members of the Royal Court. The 1961 princess, Betsy Howard, will spin the wheel of fortune, and the 1962 princess, Barbour Lee Perry, will crown the winner.

Population:
The Census Bureau has come up with population increases among the states. Kentucky has increased 1.5 per cent in the period between April of 1960 and July of 1962.

Thus the commonwealth has grown faster than such states as Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, Pennsylvania and West Virginia which actually suffered a decrease. However, Kentucky lags slightly behind Tennessee, Kansas and Wisconsin.

Conclusions:
Some conclusions may be reached by looking at the report. Those states which increased the most have sunshine and recreation.

California, Florida, Texas, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona picked up far more than the national average. Even land-locked Idaho, with its ski resorts and mountain streams, made a substantial gain. So did Hawaii and Alaska.

Sunshine and recreation may not be the entire answer but they sure do help.

Reapportionment:
That recent Supreme Court decision which, in effects, orders the states to re-apportion their legislative districts has created a lot of motion but not much activity.

Most states are in the same situation as Kentucky. They are working on it. Only four have completed the job—Alabama, Mississippi, Maryland and Vermont and in several of those states the problem is still under court scrutiny.

In Harmony with ELECTRIC HEATING

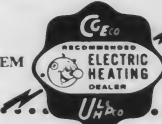

... is the Daniel Heisler family, Goshen, Ohio.

"These curtains have been up for the longest time ... yet, still look fresh and crisp," says Mrs. Heisler.

The home's electric baseboards radiate warmth cleanly, silently ... just like the sun does ... that spreads evenly, corner-to-corner, ceiling-to-floor.

"And with no drafty floors ... we never have to worry about the baby or the boys playing there," adds Mr. Heisler.

Installation and operating costs compare favorably to other forms of heating. Maintenance costs are minimized.

Each farm worker is backed by $21,300 in investment—$5,400 more per worker than in manufacturing.

American farmers now use about the same acreage as in 1920, but only half as many man-hours labor.

Efficiency of U. S. farmers has released people from farming to make the many machines used not only by agriculture but by industry and in the home.

The average person last year spent $50 for dairy products.

Production expenses of U. S. farmers in 1960 were 26.4 billion dollars—nearly four times as much as in 1940.

Keeping good farm records isn't an easy job, yet it has to be done by every farmer if he is to get the maximum amount of profit from his enterprise.

Social Security Notes

James W. Meyers, social security field representative, reminded workers in the northern Kentucky area that their social security deductions will go up by one-half of one percent beginning with the first pay they receive after January 1. The social security taxes paid by their employers will also increase by a matching amount, Mr. Meyers said. With this increase, which has been scheduled in the law since 1958, the worker's share of the social security tax is now 3 5/8 percent on earnings up to $4,800 a year.

The social security tax deducted from the worker's earnings, together with a matching amount contributed by the employer, is credited to two separate trust funds in the United States Treasury, one for the payment of old-age and survivors insurance benefits and one for the payment of disability insurance benefits. When the worker retires, or if he should become disabled for work, or die, payments will be made from these trust funds to him and his family.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank each and everyone for the letters, cards and visits while I was in the hospital. Especially I want to thank Bro. Tackett and Bro. Searcy for their many visits. Their kindness and consideration shall never be forgotten.

Wet Litter May Be Problem In Kentucky Poultry House

Wet litter in poultry houses may be a fall problem, says J. E. Humphrey, U. K. Ag Extension Service poultryman.

Lack of proper ventilation, too little litter on the floor, overflowing waterers and overcrowding in the houses may be causes.

Natural ventilation can be used to alleviate the condition (if houses are not artificially ventilated or insulated). When birds are first housed, use windows to get continued ventilation by circulation. Humphrey points out that ventilation is always needed in houses—even during cold weather. However, drafts should be avoided.

Building up the litter is helpful. Put about two inches of litter (shavings, sawdust, coarse ground corn cobs, peanut hulls, etc.) in the house. Build this up periodically until, by cold weather, the litter is six inches deep. Prevent waterers from overflowing.

Watch space requirements. Exceptional management is required where layers, for instance, have only a square foot of floor space for each bird. Two feet per bird is better, Humphrey cautions.

Before building a poultry house, he warns, check plans carefully. The Extension Service has many plan-sets available. These include those that provide constant, correct temperatures and ventilation-circulation the year round. Existing houses sa built (with fans, insulation, etc.) have proved the extra cost for equipment is paid far by better production and health of the birds.

In many of the underdeveloped counties as much as 90% of the people are farmers, and they still can't produce enough food for a nutritious diet.

In an effort to cut feed costs, many farmers are turning to on-the-farm feed processing with portable grinder-mixers.

New Burley Variety Released by U. K. For the 1963 Crop

The U. K. Ag Experiment Station has released KY 12, a new burley variety, for the 1963 crop.

G. W. Stokes, plant breeder, said the variety has been under development a number of years. It was tested on selected Kentucky farms in 1960, 1961 and 1962, and last year a certified seed crop was grown.

Ample supplies of seed of the variety, described as a good stand-up type, will be available for the 1963 crop, Stokes said.

He noted the manufacturing trade has accepted KY 12 for smoking qualities.

The new variety has high resistance to black root rot, mosaic, wildfire and fusarium wilt, Stokes said. It has no resistance to black shank. KY 12 is particularly recommended now for land infested with the fusarium wilt organism; it should be grown on such land in preference to KY 35. KY 12 is more resistant to black root rot than KY 9 and KY 10 and Burley 21. It has the same wildfire resistance capability as Burley 21. The new variety is a good stand-up type and does not blow down easily, Stokes noted. It does not have extremely large leaves, as for instance KY 10, Stokes noted. It is also from 7 to 10 days later maturing than Burley 21.

Social Security Facts:

As a self-employed farmer you enjoy a number of rights under the provisions of the Social Security Act. You and your family are thereby protected against loss of income brought about by old-age, disability, and death.

In addition to these rights, you also have certain obligations under the Social Security Act as an employer. The most important of these obligations is to report the wages you pay to your farm employees so that they can get the same protection you are enjoying.

Not all farm employees are covered by social security. However, any employee to whom you pay at least $150 in cash wages during the year, or any employee who works for you at least 20 days during the year (regardless of total earnings) must be reported. You should file these reports with the Internal Revenue Service at the end of each year.

As an employer there are four things you should do:

1. Whenever a new employee starts to work for you, copy his name and social security number directly from his social security card.

2. Keep an accurate record of the amount you pay each employee during the year and the number of days he works for you. Be sure to include only the cash wages you pay, not wages in kind, such as board and room.

3. If you have not already done so, get an employer's identification number from your local Internal Revenue Office by filing a Form SS-14, available at any Internal Revenue office.

4. Report once a year to Internal Revenue the wages paid to any employee who either earned $150 in cash wages or who worked for you for at least 20 days during the year and was paid on a time basis, i. e., by the hour or day. You withhold from your employee's pay 3 1/8% of his wages, add another 3 1/8% as the employer's share of the tax, and send it with your return to Internal Revenue Service.

New Guidelines Published On Buildings, Equipment

The Federal Internal Revenue Service has just published a new set of guidelines on depreciation of buildings and equipment for income tax purposes. These guidelines, says S. Q. Allen, U. K. Ag Extension Service farm economist, reflect recent changes designed to liberalize depreciation rates.

Allen listed the following as representative guides from the new publication: Farm machinery and equipment, 10 years; farm buildings, 25 years; dairy cattle, 7 years; light trucks (less than 13,000 pounds empty), 4 years; autos used in business, 3 years; logging equipment, 6 years; sawmills, 10 years and truck tractors, 4 years.

The guidelines, Allen noted, are not absolute depreciation rates but are considered "reasonable standards."

Copies of the bulletin, "Depreciation Guidelines and Rules," Publication No. 456 from the Internal Revenue Service, are available for 25c from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

Favorable Turkey Prices Foreseen This Year By UK

Turkeys probably will remain relatively low in price this year despite the fact the current crop is down 15 percent from last year.

J. E. Humphrey, U. K. Ag Extension Service poultryman, pointing this out, notes that turkeys are always a good buy nutrition-wise.

For one, he says, turkeys are low in calories and high in protein.

Another reason is that housewives don't have to buy a whopping big bird and get tired of it before it is all eaten; there are small turkeys offered consumers, and many markets feature packaged turkey meat.

Career-Planning For Youngsters Features Farm-Home Session

Guiding young people in career planning will be the theme of a session at the 51st Farm and Home Week in Lexington, January 29 thru February 1, 1963, at the University of Kentucky.

A. Lee Coleman, head of the rural sociology department, will preside. The meeting is in Guignol Theater on the U. K. campus.

The session opens with a short talk by Ralph J. Ramsey, U. K. rural sociologist, on vocational and population information needed for career guidance; Miss Shirley Newsome and Harry K. Schwarzweller, U. K. staff members, will follow with a report on research on career planning. A panel on where to get help, responsibilities of communities and organizations, and special needs, follows.

James Patton, Frankfort, assistant superintendent of public instruction, closes the session with a talk on "Where Do We Go From Here?"

Serve
Coca-Cola
and add PUNCH to your Holidays

Whether you're entertaining a couple . . . or a carload, these punches can be bunches of fun. Fact is, Coke is fun however you have it. So have plenty on hand for all those Holiday get-togethers. Wherever you buy Coca-Cola, you'll find our Christmas punch recipes tucked inside the carton.

Cherry Merry

First, pre-chill a bottle of King-size Coke. Then impale 3 to 5 maraschino cherries on a long thin stirrer-skewer. Pour ice-cold Coca-Cola into tall glass. Add 1 teaspoon cherry juice. Then stir with skewer. Another "punch" in a glass. Refreshing! Makes trimming the tree even more fun.

Lime Pine

First, pre-chill a bottle of King-size Coke. Then dip rim of glass in lime juice and then in granulated sugar, coating heavily. Let sugar dry and fill glass with ice-cold Coca-Cola. Garnish rim of glass with caribbean slice of lime. A "punch" in a glass. A novel idea. Ideal for a party of two or three.

Cinnamon Santa

First, pre-chill 8 bottles of King-size Coke. Then pour ice-cold Coca-Cola slowly into punch bowl. Add 1 tray of orange-cinnamon ice cubes (to make: heat 1/2 cup cinnamon candies with 1/2 cup water, stirring until candies are dissolved. Add 3 cups orange juice, pour into ice-cube tray and freeze). Float orange slices in punch. Mmmmm! Perfect for 12-ounce glasses.

Candy Cane Jingle

First, pre-chill 14 bottles of King-size Coke. Then pour ice-cold Coca-Cola slowly into punch bowl. Add 1/2-gallon of vanilla (or peppermint) ice cream. Hang candy canes on outside rim of punch bowl. Use as stirrers when needed. Gay and festive. Makes 20 to 24 8-ounce glasses.

Lemon Log

First, pre-chill 20 bottles of King-size Coke. Then pour ice-cold Coca-Cola slowly into punch bowl. Add 2 large (12 oz.) cans of frozen lemonade concentrate (to make sure it retains the look of a "lemon log," open both ends of can and push gently into bowl). Float several lemon caribbean slices in punch. A crowd pleaser. Enough for 28 8-ounce glasses.

New Kind of Love
Lesson for December 16, 1962

THERE are three ways of knowing what a thing is. First is by looking the word up in the dictionary, or to have some one tell us about it. Second comes the knowing which comes by looking at the thing itself. Best way of all is to have it, so to speak, as part of yourself. For instance, take "strength." Any dictionary will tell you what strength is, in carefully chosen words. You could then tell someone else what strength means, only your telling would be just a matter of remembering the right words. A better way would be harder to forget.
Suppose you nearly drowned at a bathing beach, and a lifeguard rescued you. Then you would know what strength is, and you would always remember it, even if you forgot what the dictionary said. But the best way of all is to grow strong yourself. Then even if you lost your memory entirely, you would know what strength is.

"Is your heart true to my heart?"
All this is specially true of the much-talked-about thing called, in our language, Love. The Bible has much to say about it. But let no reader of the Bible think that because he has read about it, even on these inspired pages, he now knows love. Every writer of the Bible would agree that to know love truly, we have to be loved, and to love. Nevertheless, the words the Bible writers use are not unimportant. They give us a clue to how we may recognize love, genuine love, from imitations. The Apostle John gives us a rather horrible example of what hate is; and expects us to understand that love is its opposite.
Love is NOT like what Cain the murderer felt for his brother Abel.
Why did he murder him? John asks. Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous—in other words, because he was bad and his brother good. Hatred comes from lack of unity, love comes from unity of spirit.

Saint John is fond of explaining a thing by naming its opposite.
Love, we have seen, is the opposite of hate. It is also the opposite of death. Most people would say off-hand that the opposite of death is life. John would warn that life without love is death. Not to love means remaining in death.—And yet, love may lead to death, literally, and it must lead (or be marked counterfeit) to devotion of life. How would you like to be shut up for hours on end, day after day, with subnormal children who can hardly even talk, cannot hold a pencil, cannot play or move like normal children?
Most of us would think that a perfectly horrible existence; but there is a little lady some seventy years of age, who does just that... because she loves children like that. And if you think, well, that's an old lady, she can do this, but a young woman, no—if you think that, you evidently have not met a young woman this writer remembers, one of the happiest young women he ever met, who finds her happiness in helping these helpless children. There is, more than one way to lay down one's life.

Not in talk but in truth
Saint John is called the Apostle of Love, but he has no exclusive right to that honorable title. No one can read what Paul said in 1 Corinthians 13 for example, or Peter in 1 Peter 3:8, 9, or our Lord Himself in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5), to mention only a few of the places rewarding careful study) without seeing that all agree on this: Love is real when it becomes living acts, something more than a word. In fact, John contrasts love
"in word or speech" with love "in deed and truth." As we were saying about strength, so with love.
We know it a little from reading or hearing about it. We know it better when some one loves us; we know it best of all, not when we become eloquent about it but when what we do every day, the way we habitually move and think and act, the way we live, spells love so plainly no one can miss it.
And now if someone complains that this is too high for us, let us freely confess: This kind of love is so rare as to be a new surprise every time we find it. But find it we do; for it is the signature of God.

"LET NOTHING YOU DISMAY"

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

One of a million carolers. And on Christmas Eve she will bring comfort, reassurance, joy to many.

Mrs. J. is blind. She has never seen the carolers... but eagerly she listens for their arrival.

Mr. H. is an invalid. His nurse invites the boys and girls in and serves them cocoa. Mr. H. loves their happy smiles as well as their joyous voices.

Little Paul R. broke his leg last Saturday. That's why he's not caroling this year. But they'll be around to sing "Silent Night" under his window. That one is Paul's favorite.

When you hear the carolers on Christmas Eve, pause and consider the Love that inspires their singing. That Love was born in a Bethlehem stable one holy night centuries ago.

"Mother and Baby Care" Classes To Be Given by Red Cross

Expecting a visit from the stork? Don't take on that all-important job of caring for the new arrival without any training. Register now for a Red Cross "Mother and Baby Care" class and gain confidence in how to give baby the finest care now, before he comes up.

The Cincinnati Area Red Cross is taking registrations for a new series of classes scheduled for January and February at the Red Cross Memorial Building, 720 Sycamore Street. The first class commences on Monday, January 7 with other classes starting on Tuesday, 8th, Wednesday, 9th, and Thursday, January 10th. In February, classes have been set up to begin on Monday, 18th, Tuesday, 19th, Wednesday, 20th, and Thursday, 21st. All classes will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., once a week for six weeks.

A specially trained Red Cross registered nurse teaches class members how to choose the baby's layette, how to become a quick-change artist, and how to get a firm grip on the situation by using simple holds when bathing, feeding or carrying the baby.

A film and instruction in the mouth-to-mouth method of artificial resuscitation and knowledge of how to guard against infection and communicable disease are also important phases of the baby care training.

Husbands and wives are encouraged to attend these classes together so they may share the responsibility for keeping baby healthy and happy. Changes Announced In The 1963 Feed Grain Program

In order to help improve farm income and to evidence the fact that the Department of Agriculture is not slowing down its effort to balance supply and demand of feed grains, Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman announced two changes in the 1963 Feed Grain Program:

1. The corn price support loan level is increased 5 cents—to a national average of $1.07 per bushel. The direct payment of 18 cents per bushels paid to participating farmers on their normal production of planted acres is specified by law and, of course, remains as announced previously. This makes the national support level $1.25 per bushel. This will result in increases in the county support rates. Proportionate increases are being made in other feed grains.

2. The diversion payment on small farms is being increased. The producer who has a base of 25 acres or less and elects to divert his entire acreage will receive payment on 50 percent of his normal yield for the entire diversion.

R. O. Wilson, Chairman of the Kentucky State ASC Committee, said these changes will tend to increase participation in the feed grain program and discourage over-expansion of livestock production.

Two Homes At Piner Destroyed By Fire, Last Thursday

Twelve persons were made homeless in a pair of fires at Piner last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Beagle, retired couple, both 83, were forced to flee their four-room frame cottage, located directly across Rich Road from the Piner Elementary School.

It was the first residence fire fought by the Piner-Fiskburg Volunteer Fire Department, which was formed last summer. The volunteers were led by Chief Marvin Mullins.

For a water supply, the firemen broke ice on a pond at the rear of the school. However, with the thermometer hovering around the ten-degree mark, the pump froze on the fire truck.

The fire-fighting never lost a beat because the Piner-Fiskburg group had been joined by Independence and Kenton Fire Departments.

Mr. and Mrs. Beagle were able to have nothing more than lawn furniture, which was on the porch.

The second fire, less than a mile from the Beagle place, destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cager McQueen and their eight children, ranging in age from one to 12 years.

The family was at the table when a passing motorist dashed in to tell them the roof was on fire. The McQueens were able to save several pieces of furniture but lost most of their clothing.

Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department again came to the aid of the Piner-Fiskburg firemen. The blaze was not declared out until 10:00 p. m.

Mrs. William Woods and Mrs. Lois Cain, members of the auxiliary of the Piner-Fiskburg group, braved the sub-freezing weather to serve coffee to the firefighters.

The auxiliary is attempting to gather clothes and furniture for the stricken people. Donors are asked to call Mrs. Woods or Mrs. Cain.

Chief Marvin Mullins is making a plea for donations with which to buy a portable pump. If you care to help, contact Chief Mullins or William Woods. According to the chief, there are still some unpaid pledges, and now would be a good time to take care of this matter. You know, if you want the firemen to help you, you must, in turn, help them.

Allow layer cakes to cool from 8 to 10 minutes before removing them from pans, otherwise, they are likely to crack.

JOHN CONRAD

John Conrad, 56, a member of the Covington-Kenton-Boone Chamber of Commerce, died last Thursday at his home on Burlington Pike, Florence.

Death was due to a heart attack, according to Coroner Jerry Rouse.

Mr. Conrad leaves his widow, Freda; a sister, Mrs. Hildreth Dolwick, of Petersburg; three brothers, Ivan Conrad, of Burlington, Ross Conrad, of Florence, and Stanley Conrad, of Hialeah, Fla., and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Louise Miller, of Mt. Washington, Ohio.

Services were held Monday morning at the Stith Funeral Home, Florence.

Boone County To Get Deer Stock In The Fall of 1963

Boone and Gallatin Counties are on the list for stocking of white tail deer in the fall of 1963, Atlas Lynn, conservation officer for the two counties, announced recently.

About 50 deer will be stocked in each county.

Mr. Lynn said the deer will be trapped in Mammoth Cave National Park.

In Boone County, the deer will be turned loose near Middle Creek, Woolper Creek and Gunpowder Creek. These are considered the three most scenic nature spots in the county.

"The season will be closed on the deer for five years, and then opened only to limited hunting," Mr. Lynn said.

He added that the Kentucky Division of Fish and Wildlife Resources and the Boone County Outdoorsmen, a sportsmen's group, would ask the cooperation of farmers to protect the deer.

The conservation officer said during the five-year period the number of deer will increase at the rate of about two animals per doe per year.

Serve
Coca-Cola
and add PUNCH to your Holidays

Whether you're entertaining a couple . . . or a carload, these punches can be bunches of fun. Fact is, Coke is fun however you have it. So have plenty on hand for all those Holiday get-togethers. Wherever you buy Coca-Cola, you'll find our Christmas punch recipes tucked inside the carton.

Cherry Merry

First, pre-chill a bottle of King-size Coke. Then impale 3 to 5 maraschino cherries on a long, thin stirrer-skewer. Pour ice-cold Coca-Cola into tall glass. Add 1 teaspoon cherry juice. Then stir with skewer. Another "punch" in a glass. Refreshing! Makes trimming the tree even more fun.

Lime Pine

First, pre-chill a bottle of King-size Coke. Then dip rim of glass in lime juice and then in granulated sugar, coating heavily. Let sugar dry and fill glass with ice-cold Coca-Cola. Garnish rim of glass with carwheel slice of lime. A "punch" in a glass. A novel idea. Ideal for a party of two or three.

Cinnamon Santa

First, pre-chill 8 bottles of King-size Coke. Then pour ice-cold Coca-Cola slowly into punch bowl. Add 1 tray of orange-cinnamon ice cubes (to make: heat 1/2 cup cinnamon candies with 1/2 cup water, stirring until candies are dissolved. Add 3 cups orange juice, pour into ice-cube tray and freeze). Float orange slices in punch. Mmmmm! Perfect for 12 8-ounce glasses.

Candy Cane Jingle

First, pre-chill 14 bottles of King-size Coke. Then pour ice-cold Coca-Cola slowly into punch bowl. Add 1/2 gallon of vanilla (or peppermint) ice cream. Hang candy canes on outside rim of punch bowl. Use as stirrers when needed. Gay and festive. Makes 20 to 24 8-ounce glasses.

Lemon Log

First, pre-chill 20 bottles of King-size Coke. Then pour ice-cold Coca-Cola slowly into punch bowl. Add 2 large (12 oz.) cans of frozen lemonade concentrate (to make sure it retains the look of a "lemon log," open both ends of can and push gently into bowl). Float several lemon carwheel slices in punch. A crowd pleaser. Enough for 28 8-ounce glasses.

Take along extra cartons of Coke.

KENTUCKIANS

WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

Handsome Volume:

A handsome volume has been published by the Lower House of Congress on the proceedings which marked the unveiling of an oil portrait of Congressman Brent Spence.

Mr. Spence, who is retiring at the end of this session of Congress, was the long-time chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee.

THE BAFFLES By Mahoney

Praise On All Sides:

During the ceremony there was praise for both the dean of the Kentucky delegation and for the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Congressman Clarence Cannon of Missouri, the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, was fulsome in his words, and he's a man not given to praise.

"Kentucky has produced more great men per square mile than any state in the Union," he said. He put Mr. Spence in the class with Henry Clay and John G. Carlisle, both House speakers.

From the President:

President Kennedy sent a letter to the committee in which he declared that Mr. Spence, more than any man in the annals of Congress, had left an indelible mark on the law books.

Similar words came from Congressman Carl Perkins of Kentucky and the Speaker of the House, John McCormack of Massachusetts. The ceremonies took place at a meeting of the committee and scores of lawmakers and committee aides attended.

The Artist:

Sam Gholson was the artist commissioned to do the work. He is an alumnus of Washington and Lee University and the University of Pennsylvania.

The portrait now hangs on the Committee Room wall, directly behind the chair occupied for so many years by Mr. Spence.

Engineers to Talk About Mechanization at Special Farm-Home Week Meeting

How to plan mechanization for the farm will be covered at a special Farm-Home Week session at the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Farm-Home Week opens January 29 and closes February 1, 1963. It is the 51st annual one. The mechanization session is Thursday afternoon, January 31, at the Agricultural Engineering building on the campus.

Starting at 1:30 p. m., E. E. Yoder, USDA engineer assigned to the University agricultural engineering department, will speak on planning a mechanized system. C. K. Kline, U. K. ag engineer, follows on how to select machines and structures. G. M. White, U. K. staffer, will discuss selecting controls for safety and efficiency, and Kenneth L. McFate, of Columbia, Mo., University of Missouri ag engineer, will show slides and lead a discussion, on an actual mechanized system. George Jenkins, U. K. ag engineer, will preside at the meeting. A question period ends the session.

The engineering group will have a mechanization exhibit, emphasizing contrals, from Wednesday, Jan. 30 through Friday, Feb. 1, at their building.

STOCKING...

THERE'S A MULTI-MILLION-DOLLAR "present" missing from your Christmas stocking this year, but it is not our fault. We tried to put it there.

More than a year ago we asked permission, as present laws require, to make a deep reduction in the prices we charge for hauling grain into and within the South. These lower prices would have saved you—the people of the South—some $37 million in transportation costs this year, and every future year. This is money that belongs to you.

Despite this great saving to the families of the South—to everyone who eats bread, meat, poultry, eggs—our request to lower freight charges on grain has yet to be granted. A few selfish interests (largely waterway barge operators) who profit—at your expense—seek to keep railroad freight rates high. They have done and are doing everything possible to block us because our lower prices would reduce their high profits. But we have a duty to serve you well at the lowest possible cost and we will not shirk that duty. We will continue our efforts until these rates are put into effect.

We're not Santa Claus. Our lower prices will save you money—they will make money for our railroad, too. In the public interest, it is high time that we be allowed to stuff your stocking with these enormous savings in transportation costs—not just at Christmas time, but the year around!

Variable Results In The Pre-Weaning Implant Test Noted

Do stilbestrol implants on steer and heifer calves before the animals are weaned and put on feed lots improve rate of daily gain?

Hard to say, says the U. K. Ag Experiment Station's animal husbandry department. Neil Bradley, researcher, reporting on a recently concluded two-year test along this line, says, "We got variable results, in some respects completely different year by year."

For instance: In the first test (1960) implanted steers (done before weaning) outgained unimplanted steers in the feedlot. Implanted heifers, however, gained less in the feed lot phase than the unimplanted ones.

Last season Bradley said, implanted steers gained less than those not getting the stilbestrol. Implanted heifers, however, out-gained the non-implants.

When the two-year results are combined, the general picture was: Implanted steer calves gained more, and so did the implanted heifers, in the before-weaning stage.

In the feedlot phase, the implanted steers out-gained the others, the implanted heifers gained less than the unimplanted.

"Rather limited results reported by other stations on the effect of pre-weaning, stilbestrol implants on subsequent feedlot gains have been somewhat variable. The year to year variations reported here are too great to make for accurate conclusions. A larger number of calves in the study might have helped us draw more accurate conclusions. It is obvious more research is needed in this phase of beef production as the problem concerns feeder calf producers and cattle feeders."

Bradley noted half the animals in the tests got a 12 or 24-milligram ear implant before weaning. After weaning, all the animals got 10 milligrams of stilbestrol daily in their feed.

Dehorned Dairy Cows Cut Handling Problems

Dairy cows with horns are usually a problem for their owner. Body injuries—particularly to udders—can be at a high rate in "unhorned" dairy herds, says E. C. Scheidenhelm, U. K. Ag Extension Service dairyman.

Horned cows very often hook udders of other cows, causing udder injury or mastitis. Horned cows often tend to boss or dominate other cows; such unrest in a herd can lower milk production.

This is a good season to do de-horning, Scheidenhelm says. The fly problem is part and cattle are being confined now for the winter months. Practical dairymen have decided that horned cows are an expensive and troublesome idea.

Scheidenhelm advises dehorning of all female calves after they are three or four days old.

Devotional Reading: Luke 2:46-55.

God Comes To Us

Lesson for December 23, 1962

THE truth about Christmas is not to be seen on the Christmas tree, not in the bargain-basement Santa Claus, not in the holly and the ivy, and not in every Christmas carol. Yet some of the carols tell the story truly: "Immanuel has come to thee" or "Thou didst leave thy throne" or "Word of the Father Now in flesh appearing"; and others telling the same story. The deep truth about Christmas is that the day celebrates the coming of God to us. The very name Immanuel means "God with us." Now it would not at all be true to say that God had never come to this world before; he was here in creation, in the beauty and the order of all this vast universe. The prophets, one and all, knew him, and the poets sang of him. But what was new about the first Christmas (and what it began) was that now men could not only know that God is, we know what God is like.

God is Expression

Jesus Christ is the translation of God into the language of human living. He is the Eternal in the pattern of time. There are philosophers who do not see how the High God can possibly express himself; but the Bible tells us of a God who is not content with expressing himself, he desires to communicate with his children. In John I Christ is called the Word. He lived to be, he lived to tell. He is God's messenger but also he is God's message. The Word—the Expression, the Message, the Communication—of God "became flesh" on that first Christmas. Anyone might have thought that if God came to the world he had made, to the people he had made, in a new way,—they might have thought it would be a new form of words, a new theology, a new creed to believe. But no—God expressed himself above all in a man who was first a little baby. God's Word to us is put in the form we can understand, in one who was made "in all respect like as we are, yet without sin."

God Comes in Light

Poets and writers of Christmas carols have often made something of the Christmas-eve picture,— a dark hillside, no light anywhere except for the stars overhead and the one light in the stable. The Apostle John, writing his own Christmas story, says nothing about the inn or the stable or the shepherds. But he does say something about the light. John is thinking beyond Bethlehem to the generations yet to come. He sees what the story of this child, grown a man, this Gift of God to man,— what this Man, this Godman, will mean to the race of man. He is the Light, God's light, "lighting every man." John does not fail to see that the picture has a dark side. There were and there are some who do not receive him. He is a Light shining in darkness. The darkness never has understood the Light, the darkness never has quenched the Light; but yet the darkness is still there. To drop the parable a moment, the coming of God to us in Christ, the Light of the World, can mean and does mean nothing at all to those who will not see.

Once we understand the meaning of Christmas, the coming of God to men, to all men who will turn and see, then we understand there is something to be done about it. No one on whom the Light has shone can be content that it has shone on him alone. Those who have found the Light are bound to spread the Light, indeed to be (as Jesus said) the light of the world themselves.

But if we stopped here, it would leave us with a discouraging question. How can we be the light of the world? Again John points to the answer: To those who receive the Light, God gives "power to become children of God." By ourselves, we cast a pretty feeble light. By ourselves, we are weak. God's "coming" is not like the coming of man. People come and go away, and we are not greatly changed. But when God comes, and we open our lives to him, we begin to be changed from the very core of our lives. As we share in the vision of God, so we share in the power of the God who comes to us in Jesus.

The choir sings with near-celestial sweetness, the candles burn with a bright, pure light, and the meaning of the birth of Christ comes into glorious reality.

For, in church, the story of the Night of Nights is told with a beauty that seems to deepen with the years. To miss hearing it again would be to miss one of the Yuletide season's greatest moments.

Yes — it is natural to think about going to church at Christmas. But what about a rainy October Sunday or a hot July one?

In Church, the inspiration is there all year round. The message is as vital in August as it is in December. Promise yourself now — this Christmas — to start going to church regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
